Honor Roll

GRAVES COUNTY

Kentucky State Police reported that Mr. W. E. Scott, 58, a prominent railroad man, died in a train accident near Fancy Farm, Kentucky, on Friday. Scott was a well-known figure in the Graves County community, known for his dedication to safety and his contributions to the railway industry.

BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT

The 1937 basketball tournament opens today at Chestnut Glade High School with 98 teams entered in the tournament, which will run through Sunday. The tournament is a testament to the popularity of basketball in the community, and it promises to be a great event for all fans of the sport.

MAYFIELD CROSSED

Maysville, KY

A Mayfield tornado last week took the lives of two people and caused widespread damage. The tornado, which struck on the night of Thursday, March 6, was one of the most destructive in recent memory. The community is still recovering from the disaster, and the Red Cross is providing assistance to those affected.

MARKET GLANCES

OBION COUNTY

The market was characterized by a strong demand for livestock, particularly sheep and hogs. The high prices for these animals reflect the strong demand from processors and consumers. The market is expected to remain strong in the coming weeks.

SECOND RESULT DEATHS

Mayfield, KY

A second death occurred in the Mayfield area, bringing the total to two. The cause of death is not yet known, but investigations are ongoing. The community is offering support to the families affected.

DEATHS

JAMES LESLIE STROTHE

JAMES LESLIE STROTHE

Mrs. Melvina Masterson, 67, of Ridgeley, passed away on Saturday, March 8. Mrs. Masterson was a dedicated member of the Ridgeley community and is survived by her husband, Mr. Leon Masterson, and their three children. Services will be held on Monday, March 10, at 2 p.m. at Ridgley Christian Church.

FULTON WITHS DISTRICT BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT

Tors are due to the efforts of Mr. E. H. Withs, who has been instrumental in the development of basketball in the district. Withs is a pillar of the community and has been a driving force behind the growth of basketball in Fulton.

OBION COUNTY

The Obion County Fair is in full swing with exhibits, contests, and music. The fair is a major event for the county and is expected to draw a large crowd over the weekend.

DEATHS

The community has been shocked by the sudden death of Alva E. Bennett, 62, who passed away on Friday, March 7. Bennett was a prominent figure in the community and will be deeply missed. Services will be held on Saturday, March 8, at 1 p.m. at the Bethel Baptist Church.

SOCIAL EVENTS of the WEEK

TUESDAY NIGHT CLUB

Mrs. John Tomain reported to the treasurer Tuesday night that the club's purchases of decorations for the bridge club's dinner at the college have been made. The dinner will be held March 13, and the theme of the dinner will be "Spring," the treasurer said.

CLINTON NEWS

Mrs. Harriett Williams presented to the president of the Clinton Club, Miss Ethel Hilliard, a lovely set of dishes as a gift. She attended the Wednesday night bridge club meeting in the home of Miss Ethel Hilliard, who was hostess. The ladies enjoyed themselves, and the room was decorated with a spring theme.
