2,500 Attend Presentation of De Wolf Hopper's Opera

"Mikado" Is Given
at College on
Feb. 13

Approximately 2,500 attended the presentation of "The Mikado," comic opera starring De Wolf Hopper in the Murray State College auditorium Tuesday night, February 13.

"The Mikado" told the story of the son of the Mikado disguised as a minstrel who was searching for his beloved, Yum-Yum.

Finding Yum-Yum engaged to marry Ko-Ko, the lord high executioner of Titipu, Nanki-Poo threatens to commit suicide but is persuaded by the high executioner to allow him to perform the duties.

Complications arise and the high executioner allows Nanki-Poo to take his future bride. After one month, Nanki-Poo is to be executed. Ko-Ko tells the Mikado that he has executed Nanki-Poo while in reality he has told him to hide. Poo-Bah, Lord High Everything Else, backs Ko-Ko's story. Katisha reads the manuscript which relates of Nanki-Poo's execution and becomes angry with Ko-Ko and his colleagues.

However, the opera ends with Ko-Ko marrying Katisha and Nanki-Poo going away with his Yum-Yum.

De Wolf Hopper, as Ko-Ko, kept the audience laughing by his comic antics and singing. Although he is 74 years old, this old troupier is as active as a person not over 21 years of age.

Poo-Bah, Lord High Everything Else, played by H. C. Howard, also added materially to the comedy part. His voice was excellent. Katisha, the elderly lady in love with Nanki, played her dramatic part superbly.

The three tripping little maidens, played by Lillian Glaser, Gladys Sundstrom, and Laura Rutte caught the fancy of the audience and were applauded at every entrance.

Mid-Term Expected To Increase Number of Students Enrolled

Murray State College's 1100 students on the campus are expected to be augmented by registration for the last half of the spring term which will be held on April 2, according to college officials.

Several teachers whose schools will close by that date are expected to return and resume their college careers.

Class work will begin on April 3. The last day to register for maximum credit will be April 4, although students may register as late as April 9 for limited credit.

Commencement week will be May 27-31. The spring semester closes on June 1.

Long-Wells

Announcement has been made here of the marriage of Miss Cleone Iola Long and Zahn Jess Wells. They were married on Thursday evening, December 21, 1933, at Marble Hill, Mo. Both are former students of Murray State College.

Mrs. Wells is the daughter of E. A. Long, circuit court clerk of Caruthersville, Mo. She was a member of the senior class, Allean Society, and a basketball star at Murray State College. She attended Crescent College in Missouri previous to her enrollment in Murray State.

Mr. Wells is the son of J. K. Wells of Cape Girardeau, Mo. He is a graduate of Will Mayfield High School and also attended Will Mayfield College in Missouri. He was a member of the Allean Society and captain of the varsity football team during the '32-'33 season. For the past year he has been employed in his home town, Cape Girardeau.

The couple will make their home in Cape Girardeau, Mo., at the home of the groom's parents.

Sends Petition

The Women's Club of Murray, Ky., recently sent a petition to the Road Commission asking that the new bridge which is constructed over the Tennessee River be named "Chickasaw Bridge."

The Chickasaw Indians owned the Purchase prior to its purchase by Andrew Jackson and when Egner's Ferry was established, permission had to be obtained from the Indians to build a road to the ferry.

MURRAY DEBATERS QUALIFY FOR LAST ROUNDS OF MEET

Burks, Miller, Porter, and Horrell Capture Honors in Tournament.

TEAMS STILL COMPETING
AS NEWS GOES TO PRESS

Both Murray College debating teams entered in the Mid-South Debating Tournament at Arkadelphia, Ark., had qualified for the semi-finals Saturday morning, February 17, after competing through six complete rounds. As the College News went to press, the teams were still in the running. Only 7 out of 35 entering teams qualified for the semi-finals.

Marion Burks and James Miller won five debates out of six clashes, defeating Southern Methodist University of Texas, Dudley Porter and Joe Horrell, in their first intercollegiate debating, won four out of six to qualify also.

Murray placed "a best debater" in every round. Burks was voted best 4 times, Horrell 3, and Miller and Porter 1 each. Clay Copeland substituted for Prof. L. J. Hortin as manager of the team.

Fifty-three men's and co-eds teams from the following states were represented in the tournament: Arkansas, Texas, Oklahoma, Kentucky, Tennessee, Mississippi, Louisiana, Kansas, and possibly others.

Varsity Debate Coach L. J. Hortin sent the following men to represent Murray: Marion Burks, junior; James Miller, sophomore; Dudley Porter, freshman; Joe Horrell, sophomore. Burks and Miller tied recently for first place in the invitational tournament at Normal, Ill. They were scheduled to compete with Southwestern.

The subject for the debate is: Resolved that the powers of the president should be substantially increased as a settled policy. Each team is prepared to debate affirmatively and negatively on this proposition.

In approximately 60 clashes, Murray State College debating teams have lost but 10 regular season debates under the tutelage of Professor Hortin.

INSTRUCTOR TALKS TO VESPER GROUP

Prof. F. C. Pogue Addresses
Christian Association at Murray.

"Truth" was discussed by Prof. F. C. Pogue, social science instructor of Murray State College, at a meeting of the Christian Association Sunday night, February 11, in the auditorium.

"What is Truth?" asked Jesting Pilate and would not wait for an answer. And so has the world asked since his time," Professor Pogue told the audience.

He explained that in school, in business, in national affairs, and in religion, men too often ask "What is Truth?" and then turn away.

Mr. Pogue showed how professors in schools, in regard to questions of government and of science, were forced to "soft-pedal" their views.

He explained that propaganda in war was an example of how truth is overloaded.

"Truth," Professor Pogue said, "could aid us in escaping fear. It can loose us from ignorance and superstition."

Casner Carlisle, president of the group, appointed Howard Brumbaugh and Harwood Tilton on a program committee to aid Mabel Phillips, vice-president.

Marvin Wilkerson read the scripture reading and Harwood Tilton led the group in singing hymns.

Miss Crass Resigns To Accept Position

Miss Rosalind Crass, a former student of Murray State, who has been teaching in Farmington high school, has resigned to accept a position as English instructor in Draughan's Business College at Paducah. Miss Lois Byron who was also a student at Murray will succeed Miss Crass at Farmington.

School Heads

Supt. W. J. Caplinger

Mr. W. J. Caplinger, former superintendent of the Maysville City Schools, came to Murray as director of the Training School and superintendent of the Murray City Schools nine years ago. He received A. B. degrees from Lebanon University and Wilmington college and his A. M. from Ohio State. He has one year on his doctor's in Columbia University. He has also done graduate work in the University of Chicago.

Mr. Caplinger is a member of Phi Delta Kappa honorary fraternity and his name is listed in "Leading American Educators" published by "School and Society".

He has had a pamphlet on "Uniform Text Books" published, also articles in educational journals.

Miss Margaret Campbell, of Lebanon, Tenn., has been social science instructor in the junior high school department for the past seven years. Two years ago she was elected principal of the Training School and has been serving in both capacities since.

She received her B. S. degree from Cumberland University and her M. S. from Peabody College, Nashville, Tenn. Miss Campbell has started work on her doctor's degree in the University of Texas. She taught in Chattanooga, Tenn., before coming to Murray.

Miss Campbell spent this past summer traveling in Europe.

PIANO IS TAUGHT BY MISS BARTON

Class Instruction Is Given to Third Grade School.

Class piano was begun in the third grade, at the opening of the fall semester, as a new experiment. Mr. Doyle, director of the college music department, had long dreamed of this plan. Beginning at this age it is early enough to discover any outstanding talents, and the children are old enough to know whether or not they like piano and wish to continue after their year's work, or whether they would like to learn to play some other instrument.

With the co-operation of Miss Beale, work was started with Miss Barton teaching the class. All children in the 3A and 3B classes who had never had piano lessons (24 in all) were given daily instruction.

At the end of the first nine weeks a demonstration, with all the children participating, was given under Miss Barton's direction before the P. T. A.

Remarkable progress has been made considering the fact that only a small per cent of the children have pianos at home on which to practice and music books are used only in the class. At the end of the semester all the children were able to play at least two pieces, besides scales and rhythm exercises.

Work Summarized

This unit of work was summarized in the following manner: the children made a booklet consisting of stories about the trip, poems, and songs they had learned; lantern slides made more real the places visited; a standable showed the Great Wall, canals, rice fields, and pagodas; a Chinese village of cardboard was colored, cut, and set up; the third grade children were guests to a program consisting of short talks about things seen and learned by those making the journey.

Students assisting in working out this unit were Misses Jettie Howle and Grace Adams.

Attends Meet

Mrs. J. W. Carr attended a meeting of the board of directors of the Kentucky Federation of Women's Clubs in Louisville, January 22 and 23.

DANCES DIRECTED BY MISS RIMMER GIVEN IN CHAPEL

Training School Pupils Present
Program in College Assembly.

MISS WHITNAH TELLS
QUALITY OF TYPES

A program of dances was presented in chapel, under the direction of Miss Clara Rimmer, critic teacher in the Training School of Murray State College, Friday February 9.

Before the dance numbers were given, Miss Roberta Whitnah, also of the Training School faculty, gave a brief discussion of the various types of dances and the characteristics of each. She pointed out that the dance has been a significant factor in the history of music. Miss Whitnah also introduced each number with a brief explanation.

The following dances were presented:

Mazurka—Miss Zane Houston.
Dutch Dance—Mrs. Shaw and Miss Brumbaugh.
English Hornpipe—Marilyn Mason, Sue Miller, Thelma Ross, Helen Hire, Edna Erwin, Imogene Colson, Billy Utley, and Dale Melugin.
Clog—Mrs. Shaw.
Italian Dance—Miss Brumbaugh.

FOURTH GRADERS TAKE IMAGINARY TRIP TO CHINA

Mrs. Carr Gives Students Information on Selecting Routes

PUPILS ARRIVE SAFELY
IN ANCIENT CITY

Perhaps one of the most valuable experiences contributed to the development of fourth grade children in our Training School occurred when they made an imaginary visit to China some time ago. While discussing routes and means of travel a committee of children received valuable information from Mrs. John W. Carr who had been privileged to pay this country a visit in reality.

The party made a safe arrival in Canton and with the aid of guides and interpreters explored the quaint old city. While traveling throughout the land, they met with Ching Loo, A. Sing, Yen, and numerous others girls and boys who looked, dressed, and talked in a way quite odd to them.

Sail Up Yangtze
They sailed up the Yangtze River and saw boats lined against each other for miles; they visited mulberry groves and learned much about how silk is made; they saw how Chinese set out rice plants in water and plow them with the water buffalo; they spent awhile in Shanghai; they visited a Chinese school and watched the children reading from top to bottom on the page; they played "Water Sprite", "Tiger Trap", and "Pig Tail" with the boys and girls. They learned how the rich and poor Chinese build and furnish their homes, how they serve their food, and why they drink much tea.

During this study the children were very fortunate in having a returned missionary from China visit their room in native costume and show them the clothing worn by the men, women, and children.

Miss Clara Rimmer of Dandridge, Tenn., came to the Training School three years ago as English critic. She received her B. S. degree from State Teachers College, Johnson City, Tenn., and her M. A. from Cornell University, Ithaca, N. Y.

Miss Rimmer taught in a platoon school, Phoenix, Ariz., before coming to Murray. She is a member of the Pi Lambda Theta, national honorary education fraternity.

Miss Roberta Manor of LaCenter, Ky., has been first grade critic in the Training School for seven years. She has attended school at Western where she was a member of the faculty of the Training School. Miss Manor has also studied in the University of Colorado and the University of Cincinnati where she received her B. S. degree in primary education. Prior to coming to Murray, Miss Manor taught in the Training School of Cumberland College, Williamsburg, Ky., and in the city schools of Fort Thomas, Ky.

Miss Emma Helm

Miss Emma J. Helm, of Mayfield, Ky., was a member of the first Training School faculty which was organized 10 years ago. She has studied in Western Teachers College, Murray State College where she received her A. B. degree, and George Peabody College where she received her M. A. She has also done graduate work in the University of Chicago, Chicago, Ill., and in Miami University, Oxford, Ohio.

Prior to assuming her duties in Murray, Miss Helm taught in the public schools of Mayfield and in the Farmington High School.

One of Miss Helm's contributions to educational journals will appear in an early issue of the Normal School Instructor and Primary Plans.

Prior to coming to Murray, Miss Manor taught in the Training School of Cumberland College, Williamsburg, Ky., and in the city schools of Fort Thomas, Ky.

Miss Mattie Trousdale

Miss Mattie Trousdale of Carthage, Tenn., has been a member of the faculty for five years. Before beginning her work as fourth grade critic, she was rural supervisor in the rural education department of this school.

Miss Trousdale received both B. S. and M. A. degrees from Peabody College of Nashville, Tenn. She has also studied in the University of Tennessee.

During the summer of 1930

Miss Trousdale received the honor of being called to Peabody College as student teacher in the rural education department.

She taught in the Public Schools of Tennessee and Louisiana and in the Morris Harvey College, West Virginia, before coming to Murray.

Mrs. Norman McKenzie

One of the people most vital to the operation of the Training School is Mrs. Norman McKenzie who has for the past two years acted as its secretary.

Mrs. McKenzie received her training in secretarial work at the West Tennessee Business College at Jackson, Tenn. Prior to filling the position which she now holds, Mrs. McKenzie served on the staff of the Curlee Clothing Company, St. Louis, Mo., and as secretary in the offices of Western Union and the Paramount Theatre, Jackson, Tenn.

Mrs. McKenzie is the wife of Norman McKenzie, a member of

Miss Ola B. Brock

Miss Ola B. Brock of Oakland City, Ind., came to us four years ago to take the place of Miss Ada T. Higgins as second grade critic. Miss Brock received her A. B. degree from Oakland City College and has done graduate work in the University of Chicago, Denver University and Columbia. Miss Brock has taught in the Public Schools in Indiana and in Yankton College, Yankton, S. D. where she was critic teacher.

Miss Marjorie Barton

Miss Marjorie Barton, of Dallas, Texas, has had charge of class piano lessons in the Training School for two years. She received her B. Music and M. Music degrees in the Bush Conservatory of Music, Chicago, Ill. Miss Barton was piano instructor in State Teachers College, Maryland, Mo., before she came to Murray. She is a member of Delta Omicron, national music sorority.

Miss Gwendolyn Haynes

Miss Gwendolyn Haynes, of Marion, Ky., came to Murray seven years ago as supervisor of music in the Training School and the city schools. Miss Haynes has studied in the Conservatory of Music, Louisville, Ky., University of Louisville and Stetson University, Fla. She has been supervisor of music in Somerset, Kentucky, Daytona Beach, Fla., and Mt. Sterling, Ky.

Miss Haynes has been particularly successful with her glee clubs, trios, choruses and quartets, having won many district and state contests. She is especially appreciated on account of her Christmas carol concerts.

Miss Roberta Whitnah

Miss Roberta Whitnah, of Cuba, Ill., came to the Training School three years ago as science teacher. Miss Whitnah has studied in Hedding College and the University of Illinois where she received her B. S. and M. A. degrees.

Miss Whitnah taught in Cherokee Junior College, Cherokee, Ia., before coming to Murray. She is a member of Iota Sigma Pi honorary science fraternity.

DR. HICKS' BOOK IS PRAISED BY GROUP

National Recreation Association

Asks Permission To Reprint
Part of Handbook.

The National Recreation Association, 315 Fourth Avenue, New York City, has requested the permission of Dr. G. T. Hicks, head of the education department of Murray State College, to send out through bulletin service portions of his publication, "Handbook of Social Programs for High School Teachers."

According to a letter received by Dr. Hicks, the association plans to review the handbook at an early date in the magazine, "Recreation".

"I want to tell you how very fine it is," the editor told Dr. Hicks in commenting on the handbook.

The association plans to send out portions of the handbook to recreation workers through its regular biweekly bulletin service. The service goes to over a thousand people throughout the country.

Goheen Visits

Francis Goheen, former graduate of Vanderbilt University, who did graduate work in teaching at Murray State College the summer of 1933, was a visitor on the campus over the week-end. His home is in Birmingham, Ky., where he is now teaching in the high school.

MURRAY STUDENTS MAY GET AID FROM FEDERAL AGENCIES

Wilcox Gives Opinion To Dr.
Carr Concerning Probability of Project.

38 MEN AND 35 WOMEN
MAY RECEIVE BENEFIT

Thornton Wilcox, Civil Works Administrator for Kentucky, on February 12 told Dr. John W. Carr, president of Murray State College, that in his opinion the Federal Emergency Relief Administration would grant the Murray institution's request for employment of 73 students with relief funds. Wilcox said, however, it would be impossible to know definitely before some time next week.

Under the proposed plan 38 men and 35 women students would be employed on the campus with the Federal aid funds, Dr. Carr stated. The compensation will be $15 per month. If granted, Mr. Wilcox said he expected the proposition to be retroactive to permit a student to put in the required number of hours for February. The allotment is based on 10 per cent of last fall's enrollment.

President Carr has announced the following plans for the enrollment of students in connection with this proposition:

The college will give consideration to all applications and will allow students to register and enter their classes at once. In case the college is not granted the Federal aid to pay them and they cannot remain, their fees will be refunded.

Students may begin their work on the campus or other assignment on the condition that they put in the required work in February. No college funds would be available for this work if the project is not approved.

Students who do not care to go to work until after the project has been approved, will be paid for such part of the month as they work.

All students who make application for work should fill out the proper blank and leave with the president's secretary.

Miss Ward Elected By Les Camarades

Miss Gladys Ward was elected president of Les Camarades Francais, French Club at Murray State College, Wednesday, February 15. Wilbur Sacra was chosen vice-president.

Miss Mary Catherine Bonduant was the selection for secretary-treasurer of the organization.

Committee chairmen were selected as follows: Social Committee, Mildred Farris; Program Committee, Thurston Taylor; and Publicity Committee, Carl Smith.

Miss Maryleone Bishop, instructor in the foreign language department, is sponsor of the club.

Members added to the club were: Elliek Owen, Rebecca Henson, Audie Folwell, Herbert Williams, Mary Katherine Bonduant, O. C. Wells, Jr., R. H. Falwell Jr., Max Shackelford, Walter Wuster, Marguerite Odom, Jesse Newman.

Cotham Speaks

Perry Cotham, senior in Murray State College, spoke over radio station, WPAD, Friday, February 16, taking his text from "Soberly, Righteously, and Godly." Mr. Cotham is a graduate of Freed-Hardeman Junior College of Henderson, Tenn., and has preached in five different states.

RESOLUTION

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Board of Regents establish as a policy of the Murray State Teachers College that no fraternity, sorority or other similar student organization be permitted among the students of this institution, and that in lieu thereof academic societies be encouraged and fostered by the students, faculty, and administration of the college in order that the students may receive that training which will best fit them for the responsibilities of life; provided the organization of academic societies, with the constitution and by-laws, must first be approved by the President of the college.

Murray Varsity and Frosh Defeat Middle Tennessee

Cutchinmen Triumph 39-36; Yearlings by 48-26.

Hardwood Chatter

By Crip Shots

In the roughest game played this year on the Murray floor, the Murray College Thoroughbreds eked out a slim 39-36 victory over Middle Tennessee State Teachers in the last minutes of play Thursday, February 8.

The score was tied seven times. Murray committed 18 personal fouls, while Middle Tennessee was guilty of 13. Within the first three minutes of play, Kent, star forward for Murray, was forced to leave the game when he received a broken nose. When the game was over, Murray had only one of the starting lineup on the floor. Shaw and Phillips, for Murray, and Young for Middle Tennessee, left the game by the foul route.

The Murray Freshmen played Middle Tennessee Freshmen in the opening game of the night, and won a decisive 48-26 victory. During this game, Coach Miller played every man on the squad. Graham was high point man for the night, with 16. Hoyle, Middle Tennessee center substitute, was next with 14 counters. The floor work of Carroll and Butler was the other high point in the Murray victory.

Varsity Starts Fast

The Murray Thoroughbreds started off in fast style, and after 10 minutes of play held a 14-7 advantage. Then the Middle Tennessee offense opened up with long shots, and led by the fancy shooting of Young, center, tied the score at 17-17, with two minutes of the first half left. At this point then made a field goal and Captain Crider sank a foul shot to give the Thoroughbreds a 20-17 lead at the halfway mark.

During the first half, the score was tied three times, but Middle Tennessee never forged ahead of the Thoroughbreds. Young, with 7 points, and Phillips with 6 points, led the scoring in the first half.

In the second half, the score was tied four times. After three minutes of play, the score was tied at 22-22. Then Middle Tennessee made a field goal to lead Murray 24-22. Murray made a field goal to tie up the score at 24-24. A foul was called on Phillips, and he was ejected because of four personals. The score was again tied at 31-31, with eight minutes of play left.

At this time Shaw, for Murray, and Young for Middle Tennessee, fouled out of the game. Coach Cutchin sent in Baker to take Shaw's place, and Baker made a foul shot good to give Murray a 34-33 lead. Goheen then sank a field goal, and Murray led 36-33. Crider fouled, but Alsup missed the try for point. With three minutes left, Rayburn fouled Ezell, who made the try good, score 36-34, Murray.

Then with two minutes left, Ezell tripped Rayburn, and Rayburn made the try good, 37-34. Goheen fouled Norton, and Norton made try good to place Middle Tennessee within two points of Murray, 37-35. Goheen got loose and sank a field goal to give Murray a lead of 39-35, but on the next play King and Simmons were guilty of a double foul. Simmons made good, and King missed. Score 39-36. A few seconds later, the bell sounded.

FROSH RALLY TOPS LIPSCOMB BY 30-29

Millermen Come From Behind to Nose Out Nashville Junior College.

Coming from behind in the second half, Coach John Miller's freshman five defeated the David Lipscomb Junior College of Nashville here Saturday night, February 3, 30-29. The victory was the eighth win for the young racers in 9 starts.

The performance of the Murray team in the first half was far below the type of basketball that the Frosh have demonstrated before. In the first stage of the game the Murray mentor yanked his entire starting five, but the substitutes fared little better.

The score at the end of the first playing period was 23-10 in favor of the Nashville quintet.

The Murray regulars replaced the subs at the start of the second half. With seven minutes to play the score stood Murray 21, David Lipscomb 26. The crowd went wild as the Yearlings took the lead. But, then Watkins, center sank a goal. While he was shooting Woods fouled him, and he made the gratis toss good tying the score 29-29.

What had started out to be a listless game was turned into a second half basketball game. With less than a minute to play, Butler was fouled and made the shot good giving the locals a 1-point margin. Murray managed to get the ball on the tipoff and hold it until the whistle blew ending the game.

Graham and Butler were best for the winners, while Watkins and Parham were high point men for the losers.

Lineup and summary:
Murray 30 Pos. Juniors 29
Graham 8 F Nancey, 4
Carroll, 6 F Parham, 10
Butler, 8 C Watkins, 11
Woods, 6 G Chapel
Hendricks G Holder, 4
Substitutes: Murray—Starks, Long, B. Dossett, 2; N. Dossett, Herndon. David Lipscomb: Huddleston.
Referee: Phillips, M. S. C.

FROSH TO GIVE 3-ACT COMEDY

College Class To Present "The Kentucky Belle" at Murray State College.

"The Kentucky Belle," a 3-act comedy will be presented in the near future by the freshman class in the college auditorium. Dr. G. T. Hicks, co-sponsor of the class and head of the education department, has said that the play "will be the most elaborate ever given by a freshman class."

Forty characters, including choruses and tap dancers, will compose the cast. The leading characters are: Miss Nevin Bowles, Camden, Tenn.; Bob Blaeser, Paducah; Miss Frances McClanahan, Fulton; Miss Christine Maddox, Mayfield; Miss Pauline Bird, Dawson Springs; Gayle Perry, Princeton; Miss Model Scott, Sedalia; Russel Rednour, Livingston; Miss Alice Dunnevant, Farmington.

A condensed form of "The Kentucky Belle" was given in chapel two summers ago. "I am sure that those who saw it then will want to see it again," Dr. Hicks said.

It is coached by Dr. G. T. Hicks and Miss Evelyn Linn, co-sponsors of the class.

College News Forms History of Murray

By James Bogle

Did you know that Murray State College had a history all in one volume? In Prof. L. J. Horton's class room on top of the file cabinet there is a large volume of the history of Murray State. This volume contains copies of the College News since it first came out.

The first copy is dated August 12, 1927. The last copy, the one you are now reading, is February 19, 1934. In this period of seven years and two months the paper has grown from a six column newspaper to a regular size eight column. The paper has been printed 164 times since its founding. So far as is known this volume is the only history of the college giving the happenings for every two weeks of its existence.

University Women Hold Group Meet

The Murray branch of the American Association of University Women held its study group meeting February 13. The study for the year is Latin America. At the meeting Tuesday evening, Dr. Floy Robbins, head of the geography department, led the discussion. Officers are: Mrs. J. W. Carr, president; Miss Margaret Bailey, secretary; and Mrs. A. M. Wolfson, treasurer.

Murray Beats Howard 41-26; Frosh Wins Over Tilghman

Varsity Plays Last Regular Season Game.

They came, they saw, and they were defeated!

In the first meeting of the two institutions, the Murray varsity defeated Howard University of Birmingham, Ala., here Wednesday night, February 14, by the score of 41-26. As an extra course, the Millermen dashed out to the once turbulent Tornado from Tilghman High school, a bit of defeat, this time 29-19. The varsity victory gave Murray 7 wins against four defeats for the S. I. A. A. season. The game was the last except for tournament clashes for the varsity.

The Birmingham basketballers, on their 2-day trip into Kentucky seemed a bit worn and their playing as a whole was not clicking.

On the other hand, the Murray-men looked good. Starting away from the post in a flash, the Thoroughbreds gradually gained speed and at the half way mark were leading 24-9. Cutchin used two complete teams in the fray with Goheen capturing the high-scoring honors with 12 points. He was followed by Phillips and Kent with 6 points each.

In football Murray is S. I. A. A. champ, while the Howard University is the Dixie conference ruler.

Leading 22-2

After 15 minutes of playing, the Murray team was leading 22-2 and Coach Cutchin sent in Baker and King to replace Phillips and Shaw.

Thoroughbreds Trounce Tech 43-38 at Murray

Cutchinmen Score Sixth S. I. A. A. Victory

Combating a team which seemingly couldn't miss long shots, and after being 21-21, at the half, the Murray College Thoroughbreds won their sixth S. I. A. A. victory by defeating the Eagles of Tennessee Polytech on the Murray floor Saturday night, February 10, by the score of 43-38.

"Hard Luck" Phillips, who had played guard in the first half and held Midgett, the Eagle scoring ace, to four points, gained through charity throws, played the forward post in the second half and scored 10 points. He scored four in the first half, to give him a grand total of 14 points for the game. He played at Cecil "Slim" Kent's regular post. Kent was unable to play because of a nose injury.

Murray started off in fast order and held a 7-point lead before T. P. I. could locate the basket. With the aid of three long shots and a charity toss, the Eagles knotted the count at 7-7, and from that point the lead saw-sawed back and forth for the first half. Murray and T. P. I. were tied six times in the first half for lead. At the end of the half, T. P. I. held a 21-19 advantage. Wasson, guard for Tennessee Polytech, led the scoring for this period with 10 points. Goheen led the Cutchinmen with 6 points.

ABIE'S ABSTRACTS

We have met the Western varsity net team twice this year and both times the Thoroughbreds were defeated. . . not by overwhelming scores, but defeated just the same. Let's give a bit of credit. . . Western has had a better varsity than Murray so far this year, it seems, and Murray has just one more chance to redeem itself. . . namely, in the tournament play at Louisville the latter part of this month.

That most splendid chapel program offered to the students on February 5 was one of the most interesting that I've witnessed in many a month. It was interesting to all, from the Training School children up to Dr. Hire. . . chemists, athletes, journalists, instructors and all sang praises of it. . . We need more of them!

In order that the student body, and instructors too, might secure more variety and interest in chapel programs, here's an idea:

Set aside Monday as president's day or Administration's day, Wednesday let the music department have its fling, and on Friday let the students express themselves. . . On their day the students could have a lecturer or a preacher or a "jazz band" . . . anything. . . The faculty should be checked as the student body lips and Shaw. During the remainder of the first half the Bluebloods of the Purchase gathered two points while the red-jersied lads netted an additional 7 points.

In the preliminary game, the Murray Freshmen defeated the Paducah Tilghman High School five 29-19. The outcome of the game was never in doubt. While the Murray second team was in the game, Tilghman got within four points of a tie, but this was their nearest approach to the Millermen. The Murray Frosh started off in fast order and ran up a lead of 12-1 in the first quarter, and the second team then entered the game. At the end of the half, Murray led 16-8. The second team played the third quarter and then Coach Miller sent in his starting five, and they ran the score from 20-16 to 29-19, when the game ended. The Murray scoring was evenly divided with Graham, Butler, and Carroll tied with 8 points each. Martin and Pace played best for Tilghman.

Heard was the Howard star with his uncanny long shots. He netted 8 points during the game while Schreck and Stuart were next with 4 apiece.

S. I. A. A. CHAMPS TO BEGIN SPRING FOOTBALL DRILLS

Fifty Men Expected to Report for Training at Murray.

WORKOUTS MAY OPEN FIRST PART OF MARCH

Fifty men are expected to report for spring football practice at Murray State College, which is scheduled to begin the second week in March if the weather is permissible. Varsity Football Roy Stewart has announced. The Thoroughbreds will be defending their S. I. A. A. football championship last fall.

"Fundamentals will be the main things stressed," the varsity mentor said. There will be practically no change in the system used by Coach Stewart last year, although a few new plays will be tried. Spring practice is expected to be terminated with a practice game against Murray State College graduates.

The Kentucky Racehorses, who are to be led by Captain Vaughn Woodall and Alternate-Captain Keith King, will play their home games this year in their new $30,000 stadium which is rapidly nearing completion. The defenders of the S. I. A. A. crown will play this year such outstanding teams as: Birmingham-Southern, Birmingham, Ala.; Western State Teachers of Bowling Green, Ky.; Millsaps College, Jackson, Miss.; Tennessee Polytechnic Institute, Cookeville, Tenn.; and Mississippi State Teachers of Hattiesburg, Miss.

May Be Stronger

Although Coach Stewart will have a difficult task replacing such men as Captain Bryant, Smith, Laster and Jones, ends; Brinkley, Rahm and Grissom, ends; Allen, quarterback; Shaw and Cutchin, halves, and Phillips, tackle, he is expecting to have a stronger, heavier, faster, and possibly more aggressive team than his conference champs. The varsity lettermen expected to report for the spring drills are: Woodall, Bugg, and Cook, tackles; Rayburn, Wesley, and Mullins, guards; Simmons and Shelton, ends; McKenzie, center; Greenwell and Elder, quarterbacks; Kent, Muse, Moss Morse, and Jenkins, halfbacks; King and Thurman, fullbacks. Other men expected to report are: Belote, guard; Torrence and Fox, tackles; McCracken, quarterback; and Baker, half.

From Coach John Miller's freshman squad come such men as: Gunter and Nickell, centers; Tolson, Diuguid, Burnett, and Detraz, guards; Land, tackle; Alderson, Herndon, and Miller, ends; aBean, halfback; and Gibbs, quarterback.

Several new men who will be available for service this fall are: Wright and Organ, guards; Thomas and Henderson, ends.

Murray Loses by 30-24 to Bowling Green Toppers

Meet The Thoroughbreds

By Willard Davidson

James Phillips received his high school education at Tolu High School where practically all of the boys in school came out for basketball from the time school opened until the close of the school year. Results: In 1929-30 Tolu won to the semi-finals at the state tournament, and the next year, 1930-31, to the finals.

Phillips played as a regular for three years. During his first two years, he held down a forward berth, but was transferred to guard his last year in school. He was a member of the team both years that they went to the finals and semi-finals of the state tournaments.

With all this experience, the Murray coaches were indeed glad to have Phillips report for the Freshman team in 1932-33. He soon proved to all concerned that he had not been overrated. Last year the Frosh team made an enviable record, and Phillips played practically every minute. He started the season at guard, but was shifted to center late in the season and turned in a creditable record at the new position, although it was his first time to work at the center post. By his remarkable defensive work, he gained much praise, and in the opening game of the 1932-34 season he started at one guard post on the Varsity.

Phillips, a sophomore, is 19, five feet 11 in height, and tips the beams at 173 pounds. He is a member of the Allenian Society.

Celebrates Birthday

Mrs. Kate Moss, mother of Mrs. J. W. Carr, celebrated her eighty-sixth birthday on February 5. She formerly lived at Horse Cave, Ky., but for the past five years she had made her home with President and Mrs. J. W. Carr.

Hardin Leads Team to Victory Feb. 6

The Murray Racehorses in one of those famous last half rallies failed to overtake the Hilltoppers and dropped the second straight game to the Western Teachers College by 30-24 score at Bowling Green, February 6.

Bowling Green, led by the diminutive Harry Hardin, former teammate of Phillips, guard for the Thoroughbreds, started the scoring on the opening play of the game. The Toppers played the Murray varsity off their feet in the early stages of the game. Hobbs and Hardin, gave the Bowling Green team a lead that they never relinquished during the rest of the game. Western ran the score to 10-0 before the team from the heart of the Jackson Purchase could hit the drapes for a tally.

When the Cutchinmen began to warm up to their tasks the damage had already been done and the Western squad had taken a 6-point lead which they managed to hold during the rest of the game. The half found Murray behind 14-8.

"Stumpy" Rayburn, who has played a great game this season, was substituted for the injured Goheen and won himself a place even in the hearts of the Bowling Green fans for his ability.

Murray matched the Diddlemen point for point in the last half, each team scoring 16 points. As in the first meeting of the two teams here earlier in the season the Murray mentor was not able to put his full strength on the floor. Phillips and Goheen who have been on the injured list for several weeks, although they started the game, were not able to give as good performance as they are capable of doing.

Dr. Atkins To Give Physical Examination

Every student in Murray State College is being given a physical examination by Dr. N. M. Atkins, school physician.

This examination includes the past history of the student, infectious diseases that the students have had, and present infections.

A copy of the examination will be placed in the registrar's office for future reference. Every student will be given a physical examination once a year, according to Dr. Atkins.

CARLISLE HEADS VESPER GROUP

Dr. and Mrs. G. T. Hicks Are Elected Sponsors of Organization.

Casner Carlisle, Slaughter, Ky., was elected president of the Christian Association of Murray State College in the first meeting of the spring semester, Sunday night, February 4. Dr. and Mrs. G. T. Hicks were elected co-sponsors for the ensuing term.

Other officers elected were: Mabel Phillips, vice-president, Marion, Ky.; James Distler, secretary-treasurer, Paducah, Ky.; Mark Nichols, sergeant-at-arms, Centerville, Tenn.; Mildred Copley, pianist, Paducah, Ky.

"We want every student on the campus to come to our meetings," Mr. Carlisle stated. Marvin Wilkerson, Pryorsburg, Ky., acted as chairman until a president was elected.

The Christian Association is the only association of its kind on the campus.

Mathematics Class Has Bank Project For Junior High

One of the most interesting projects carried out by the junior high school mathematics classes is the organization and operation of a bank. The bank is named, the capital secured, and the officers elected. The other members of the class either become local customers of the bank or represent business interests at a distance. Most of the customers choose to have their accounts in the name of some business, such as a drug store or a millinery shop. Business forms previously studied are reviewed in order that the bank may be well supplied with the necessary papers.

When the bank is ready for business, the customers open accounts, have business transactions with one another, borrow money, place mortgages on their farms, invest their savings, and use the banking facilities for collecting and paying money at a distance.

Commissions For Critic Teaching

The State Board of Education adopted regulations which set forth standards for supervised student teaching on July 28, 1933. Under these regulations, a critic teacher must not only have a legal certificate, but must hold a commission issued by the State Board of Education. Teachers who receive such commissions shall meet the standards of the American Association of Teachers Colleges as follows:

"The minimum scholastic requirement shall be the possession of a master's degree or its equivalent. Preparation should include at least 24 semester hours in the field taught, and also professional courses in that field."

"They shall have had supervised student teaching in an approved college, or one year of experience as a critic teacher."

"A standard commission shall be valid for critic teaching during continuous service."

Besides providing for the commissioning of critic teachers, the regulations furnish standards for the equipment of the training school, the ratio of student teachers to critic teachers, and the requirements to be fulfilled by student teachers.

Miss Helm Lends Book to Museum

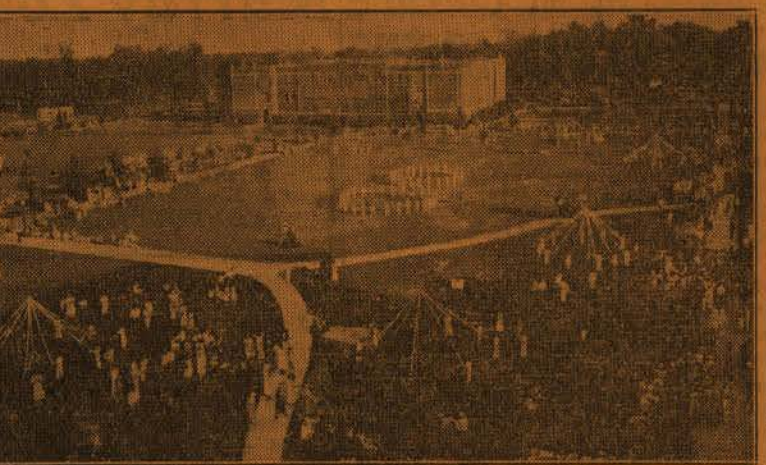

A textbook of English grammar 105 years old has been loaned to the museum of Murray State College by Miss Emma J. Helm, critic teacher at the Training School, according to Wesley Kemper, in charge of the museum.

The book, copyrighted in 1829, is "English Grammar in Familiar Lectures," by Samuel Kirkham. It was printed in New York by Robert B. Collins, a publisher of that day.

The textbook contains many quaint definitions and expressions that seem strange to present-day students of English. Spelling, for example, is defined as "the art of expressing a word by its proper letters."

The museum has also recently acquired an American merganser, a bird related to the duck family. The bird, killed by Mr. Pay Stokes near Farmington, Ky., has been mounted by Mr. Kemper, who considers it one of the museum's most unusual specimens. The merganser is the only duck that lives in trees. It has a cylindrical bill with sharp saw-like teeth.

MAY DAY FOR TRAINING SCHOOL

For some time the May Day festival has been an annual event. Originally it was presented by the physical education department of the College in conjunction with the Training School. Last year the idea was abandoned by the college, but was carried out wholly as a Training School event at a minimum cost. The entire program was given under the direction of Miss Naomi Maple, fifth grade critic teacher, assisted by the Training School faculty.

First Grade Presents Flowers

Four children from the first grade of the Training School, Carr, Stewart, Naomi Lee Whitnell, Rosemary Jeffrey, and Billy Davis, are shown presenting Dr. Carr with a flower on the occasion of his seventy-fourth birthday. The flower was planted and cared for by children of the first grade.

Third Grade Has Reading Room

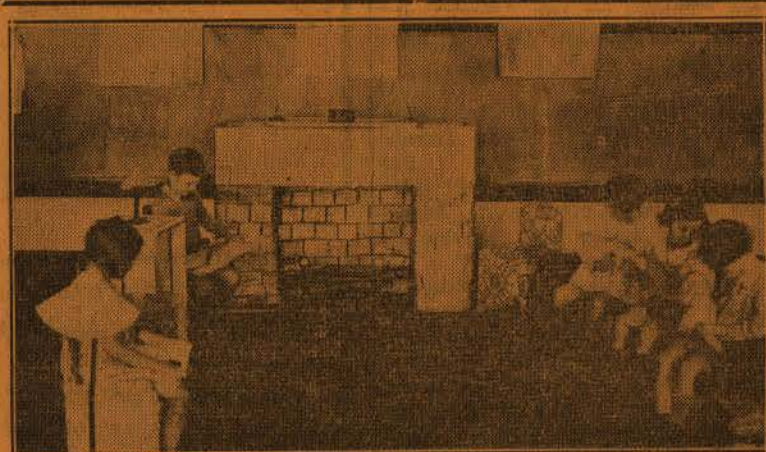

Have you visited the third grade reading room? Interest has been aroused and reading habits greatly improved by its existence.

At first the only books available were the few stray ones from "here, there, and yonder". This made the pupils conscious of the existence of libraries and for the first time gave them a definite meaning of the term, library. This led into discussion of a classroom library. It was not long before the class voted to have a library of its own. The beginning was simply a small collection of books obtained through any possible, legitimate means. These were placed on the rack, shelf, and table.

The pupils are permitted to use this material when—and only when—the assigned work is finished. They are permitted to sit around the table to read the stories from books and magazines. Each pupil is allowed to use the library freely at any time when he has no work at his desk, but he is directed and required

First Grade Plans Living Room

The children in the first grade have been interested in planning and making playhouse furniture. In their living room, shown here, they decided upon green as the predominant color and coverings for chairs, pillows and couch all blend accordingly.

They were eager to make furniture for their entire doll house corner, and every morning, for several weeks orange crates, out of which they made the most of their furniture, appeared at the door and were welcomed by all. In many cases the interest extended into the home and the parents cooperated by assisting the children in collecting crates

Training School News

There are three hundred and one children enrolled in the Training School this semester. Nine new pupils entered the first grade and a proportionate number entered each of the other grades.

There are at present ninety-three students doing directed teaching in all the grades at the Training School.

Jamie Branch, a pupil from the Training School of Eastern Teachers College at Richmond, Ky., has entered the second grade.

The fifth grade honor roll for the fall semester includes: W. D. Adams, Ernest Atkins, Harmon Ellis Kelley, Eugene Fairchild, Hugh Perdue, Virgil Robertson, M. D. Thompson, Oneda Ahart, Jenny Wren Coleman, Wilma Horton, Miriam McElrath and Martha Robertson.

Collective Instinct

Harold Doran, a pupil in the third grade, is exercising the collective instinct typical of his age. He has an interesting collection of Indian relics consisting of a tomahawk, Indian skull, five hoes, two mallets, one axe, ten or fifteen pieces of money, and several flint heads. Most of these came from mounds near Tolu.

Harold is also a stamp collector, having already about three hundred in his possession. They came from all parts of the United States and from many foreign lands including Belgium, Germany, France, Sweden, England, Italy, Mexico, Canada, Norway, Roumania, China, and Japan. Some from the United States are as much as one hundred years old. In the lot are many air-mail denominations.

Miss Margaret Wooldridge, head of the college art department, judged the booklets made in the fourth grade under the direction of Miss Christine Brown in which some of the interesting events in the life of Daniel Boone were illustrated. Elizabeth Thomas received first honor, Lou Ella Gibbs second, and Ray Waggoner third.

Erect Bird-Bath

Our "feathered friends" and the squirrels are showing their appreciation of the thoughtfulness evinced by the second grade when they erected a bird-bath on the Training School campus last summer. One day the children observed three blue jays, two woodpeckers, and two squirrels refreshing themselves at their fountain.

Wesley Kemper recently exhibited to the Training School children a young bald eagle which he had mounted. Interest was keen and intelligent questions asked.

St. Valentine made his appearance throughout the Training School at the appointed time. The third grade entertained their mothers with a Valentine party in their home room February the fourteenth. Games, plays and contests were features of the entertainment. Attractive refreshments were served. The second grade had as their Valentine guests the members of the first grade. Miss Rimmer surprised the pupils of the seventh grade with a Valentine party also. In other rooms Cupid made bold hearts and numerous messages of love.

See Demonstration

The Training School children appreciated the invitation extended by Dr. Hire to visit chapel and see the demonstrations with liquid air which were given by Elliott James of Chicago. They like things that move and make a noise.

In spite of epidemics of diseases the following children were present every day last semester:

First Grade: Billy Davis, Lenwood Horton and Jack Kennedy. Second Grade: John D. Lovett, Charles Robinson, Joe Wayne Tune, and Charline Allibritten. Third Grade: Madge Alexander, LaDon Mercer, Robert Hopkins, and Harold Doran.

Fourth Grade: Paul Dee Bailey, C. W. Bogard, L. B. Bogress, Robert Ward, Robert Lee Waters, Clayton Williams, Josephine Broach, Martha Lou Gufer. Sixth Grade: Jack Durick, Mable Hendon, Billy Lipford, Lajenia Hendon, Mary Virginia Hoffman, Dorothy Nell Jones, Evelyn Oglesby, Virginia Seay. Seventh Grade: Georgia Johnson, Martha Lou Hays, Joe Ward, Lucille Kelley, and Faunstone Adams.

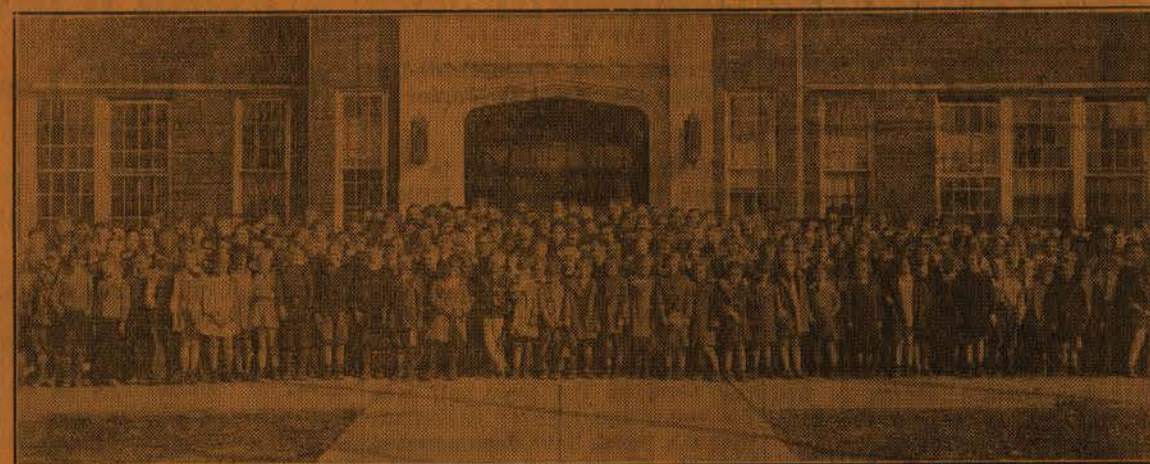

Eighth Grade: Thelma Ross and Helen Hire. Ninth Grade: Kenneth Bailey, and Mary Virginia Shroat.

MOTHERS MEET

The fifth grade mothers were hosts to the Mothers Club at its regular meeting in February. Misses Naomi Maple and Gwendolyn Haynes demonstrated artistic teaching in reading and music respectively. Materials from the lives of George Washington and Franz Joseph Hayden both born on February 22, were used in these lessons.

Mrs. Rob Mason presented the topic for discussion, "Home Study for School Children." Misses Bertie Manor, Roberta Whitnah, and Mattie Trousdale

301 Enroll For Spring Semester

The total enrollment in the Training School this semester numbers 301. Of these, 204 are enrolled in the first six grades, while the remaining 97 are junior high school students.

The Training School was organized in the summer of 1924 with J. H. Hutchison as director, an assisting faculty composed of Misses Ada T. Higgins, Bertie Manor and Mary S. Mulligan. Miss Mulligan did not return in the fall, and Miss Emma J. Helm was added to the faculty. These teachers were in charge of the first six grades for two years. Classes were held in the Murray High School building.

In 1926 Supt. W. J. Caplinger succeeded Mr. Hutchison as director, and in the same year quarters were moved to the liberal arts building. The seventh and eighth grades were added with Mrs. Clyde Vaughn as teacher. A year later a full faculty for the eight grades was established. It included Mrs. Reba Miller, Mrs. C. S. Lowry, Miss Naomi Maple and Miss Emma Debold (deceased). A 4-year high school was put in operation in the fall of 1928.

Occupied in 1928

The present Training School building was ready to be occupied January 28, 1928. It is a 3-story fireproof structure, one of the largest in the South. It was especially designed for training teachers. There are 12 units, each of which contains a large demonstration room, three smaller classrooms, an office and a cloakroom. There are 74 rooms in all with standard equipment in classrooms, library and laboratories. Playground equipment consisting of a giant stride, slide, ladder bars, see-saws and an outdoor basketball court provides recreation for the children.

There are 301 enrolled in the Training School this semester, 97 of whom are in the junior high school. The faculty members are: Supt. W. J. Caplinger, director; Miss Margaret Campbell, principal; Miss Clara Rimmer, junior high; Miss Roberta Whitnah, junior high; Miss Evelyn Slater, home economics; Miss Emma J. Helm, sixth grade; Miss Naomi Maple, fifth grade; Miss Mattie Trousdale, fourth grade; Miss Desirée Beale, third grade;

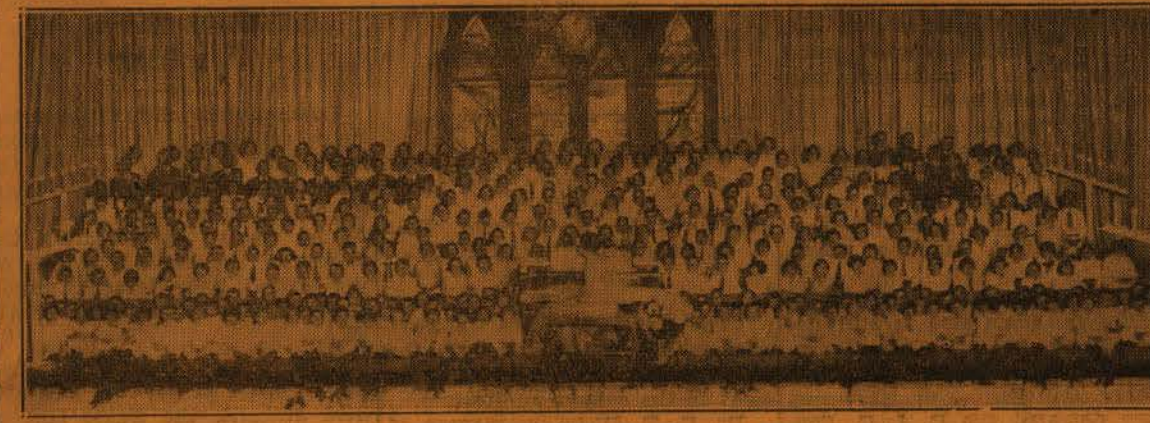

Miss Ola B. Brock, second grade; and Miss Bertie Manor, first grade.

Others Have Taught

Besides the present faculty, the following teachers have been connected with the Training School since 1926: Jonah Gibson, principal, J. W. Compton, principal, Mrs. W. Z. Carter, Mrs. G. C. Ashcraft, Mrs. J. S. Tarver (Miss Donnye Clifton), Misses Mary Gabbert, Lillian Watters, Lottie Sulter, Nadine Overall, Grace Wyatt, Evelyn Linn, Rowena Noe, Grace Post, Jane Oliver, Annie Kate Lockard, and Miss Mattie Lou Lockwood.

The teaching in the Training School is done either by the critic teachers or by student teachers under the direct supervision of a critic teacher. Each critic teacher has an average of nine student teachers each semester. The Training School serves as a laboratory for student teachers, and classes in observation, but its primary function is to so train children that they may leave with a key which will unlock the door of living in any community, rural or urban.

Miss Haynes Directs Christmas Carols

Of the events scheduled on the school calendar from year to year for the enjoyment of the students and friends of Murray State College, perhaps the one looked forward to with most pleasant anticipation is that of the carol service.

This program, given each year at the Christmas season, has, since its institution six years ago, been arranged and directed regularly by Miss Gwendolyn Haynes of the department of music. On occasions Miss Haynes has used as many as 624 children in her chorus, ranging in age from first grade children to those who are high school seniors. Rarely have fewer than 500 gone to make up the number. These children are in attendance either at the Training School or the Murray City Schools in both of which buildings Miss Haynes is supervisor of music.

A listener to one of these programs is impressed by the fact that its effectiveness has been won not so much by a brief period of intensive rehearsal as by continuous and assiduous effort on the part of Miss Haynes in her daily contact with her students.

Singing with the artistry and finish of many juvenile choirs whose members have been selected on the merit of their qualifications, Miss Haynes' choruses show the thorough training given only by those who are masters of their art.

Second Graders Study Indians

Early in December the second grade gave an Indian program which was the outgrowth of their nine weeks' study of the early red man.

As a background for the eight foot wigwam constructed by the young pupils, there was an interesting collection of Indian arrow heads, tomahawks, spades, paint cups, and grain mills. The copper-skinned chieftain and all his braves were in feathers and war paint, while the squaws and maidens wore tribal costumes of their own designing.

Attired as Red Feather, Little Kathryn Bogges presided over the following program:

War Dance—Mohican Tribe. The First Americans—James Thompson. Our Homes—Leonora Simpson. Our Food—John Daniel Lovett. Our Clothing—Billie Jo Caudill.

gave brief practical suggestions on the subject.

The junior high school girls and the fourth grade girls and boys expressed their sympathy to the recent loss of their home from fire by showering them with miscellaneous gifts.

How We Travel—Beth Broach. A short play which was a dramatization of their favorite Indian story included the following characters:

Mr. Braddock—Billy Robertson. Mrs. Braddock—Mary Jo Pentecost.

Prudence Braddock—Barbara Walker.

Betsy Braddock—Joan Fulton. Chief White Bear—Pat Crawford. Little Wolf—Charles Lassiter. Red Squirrel—John Daniel Lovett.

Old Smoke—Flavil Robertson. Morning Star—Beth Broach. Star Bright—Billie Jo Caudill.

Dr. Hicks To Speak

Dr. G. Turner Hicks, head of the department of education, has been scheduled to address the Christian Association Sunday night, February 18, on the subject: "The Anchors of Youth in a Rapidly Changing Social Order."

The Christian Association trio composed of Harwood Tilton, Covington, Ky.; William Carrier, Jr., Louisville, Ky.; and Robert Sanderson, Lone Oak, Ky., will sing.

30 Graduates From Training School Are Murray Students Now

Thirty graduates of the Training School are now attending Murray State College, according to a list compiled by the Training School.

They are as follows: Betty Shemwell, Frank Ellis, Virginia F. Crawford, Annie Smith, William Cutchin, Hardin Alderice, Martha Key, Creola Lashley, Mozelle Rhoades, J. B. Hardeman, Pat Rogers, Lucille Jeffords Allen, Joe English, Thyra Creekmur, Neva Miller, Cordelia Erwin, Rovine Parks, Raymond Story, Gaston McKee, Nannie Cannon, Hollie Brine, H. B. Bailey, E. Owen Billington, Edgar Farris, Mildred Hopson, Mrs. Jewell Wyatt, John Braswell, Carthon Pullen, Fannie Smith, Donell Sylvester.

Other officers elected were: Pauline Pate, Providence, Ky.; vice-president; Cordelia Erwin, Murray, Ky.; secretary; Elizabeth Williamson, Fulton, Ky.; treasurer; Mildred Roberts, Fulton, Ky.; reporter.

Miss Evelyn Hammack, ex-president, led the group in a discussion of the design to be used on the club pages in the Shield, college annual.

Miss Gladys Homra was appointed to have charge of the sale of candy in the co-ed dormitory for the next two weeks. The group decided to meet every other Tuesday instead of monthly as in the past semester.

William Carrier presented the plan of the page in the annual. The club elected officers for the second semester. They are: president, Wesley Kemper; vice-president, Christine Brown; business manager, William Carrier; press agent, Virginia Wooldridge; and social chairman, Martha Lou Lassiter.

The purpose of the Portfolio Club is to give the students recreation and an added opportunity for advancement in art.

FOURTH GRADE HAS ARITHMETIC TEST

Section of Class Is Given Informal Review on Mixed Fundamentals.

In order to measure the progress made by one section of the fourth grade in arithmetic over a period of nine weeks, an informal test in mixed fundamentals was given at the beginning of the period. This test included processes with which the children had already been more or less familiarized as well as some with which they were to become acquainted before the expiration of the stated time.

A chart in color gave a graphic representation of each child's measure based upon his score from the test. Every child was to work for the several weeks to see how much longer each could make his line appear on the second graph.

During the teaching period careful attention was given to discovering and correcting individual difficulties. A conscious effort was made to clarify meanings and to formulate correct habits of thinking and working in the new processes.

At the end of the teaching period the test was repeated under the same time unit as in the beginning. The children displayed considerable interest in comparing the second scores with the first. Those showing the greatest progress during the period were Lovie Veal, Barbara Duguid, Ray Waggoner, and Lavinia Jones. The three named first had more than doubled their original scores while the last named had made five times as many points as they did in their first attempt. The children making the highest final grades were Lovie Veal, Eleanor Hire, Zane Holcomb, Barbara Duguid, and Ray Waggoner.

The student assisting in this study was R. H. Ralls.

Oliver Is Elected by World's Affairs Club February 8

Kenneth Oliver, Cayce, Ky., was elected president of the World's Affairs Club of Murray State College at a special meeting held at the chapel hour for the purpose of electing officers for the spring semester, on Thursday, February 8.

Other officers elected were: Holman Jones, Murray, Ky., vice-president; Miss Mabel Phillips, Marion, Ky., secretary.

Plans were discussed for a membership drive and for a picture in the Shield, college annual.

At the meeting of the organization on Tuesday, February 13, the program consisted of a general discussion of the war debt. Ten new members were admitted to the club.

Mrs. Allen Chosen by Household Arts Club at College

Mrs. Howard Allen, Murray, Ky., was elected president of the Household Arts Club of Murray State College at a meeting Tuesday morning, February 13. Mrs. Allen is a senior in Murray State and is scheduled to receive her B. S. degree in home economics.

Other officers elected were: Pauline Pate, Providence, Ky.; vice-president; Cordelia Erwin, Murray, Ky.; secretary; Elizabeth Williamson, Fulton, Ky.; treasurer; Mildred Roberts, Fulton, Ky.; reporter.

Miss Gladys Homra was appointed to have charge of the sale of candy in the co-ed dormitory for the next two weeks. The group decided to meet every other Tuesday instead of monthly as in the past semester.

Kemper Is Head of Portfolio Club for Spring Session

Wesley Kemper was elected president of the Portfolio Club at its first meeting of the spring semester Thursday, February 15. Miss Martha Lou Lassiter, former president, presided.

William Carrier presented the plan of the page in the annual. The club elected officers for the second semester. They are: president, Wesley Kemper; vice-president, Christine Brown; business manager, William Carrier; press agent, Virginia Wooldridge; and social chairman, Martha Lou Lassiter.

The purpose of the Portfolio Club is to give the students recreation and an added opportunity for advancement in art.

SOCK AND BUSKIN HOLDS INITIATION

Dramatic Club of Murray State
Collegiate.

To initiate its new members, the Sock and Buskin Dramatic Club of Murray State College held its semi-annual banquet at the Collegiate Inn, Thursday night, February 15.

The "rats" came costumed to represent various characters and were required to perform various stunts during the evening. A 3-course menu was served.

Twelve "rats" were added to the club. They are: Misses Charlie Vene Tinnon, Goodlettsville, Tenn.; Elizabeth Daniel, Franklin, Tenn.; Kathryn Klingholz, Paducah; Jane Melugin, Murray; Mary Catherine Bondurant, Fulton; and Mae Balbach, Waupun, Wis.; Messrs. John Cedzlowa, Long Beach, Calif.; Seth Boaz, Mayfield; Robert Blaeser, Paducah; Wilburn McClanahan, Springfield, Tenn.; William Carrier, Louisville; and W. P. Burnett, Fulton.

Robert Shelton, Nashville, Tenn., president was toastmaster. Bedford Otey, Melber, Ky., vice-president, gave a short talk explaining the meaning of the club name and giving a brief history of the club. Mr. Otey explained the name Sock and Buskin was taken from the old Greek words meaning comedy and tragedy.

Old members present at the meeting included: Messrs. Robert Shelton, president; Bedford Otey, vice-president; Daron Grissom, sergeant-at-arms; Bradley Thurman, Loren Putnam, Stewart Jackson and Eugene Boyd; Misses Nell Laurie Bowles, secretary; Elizabeth Williamson, treasurer; Martha McCaleb, Sue Wyman, Mary Agnes Turner, Mary Helen Broach, Clarice Brawner, and Emma Lou Brown.

Wells Hall News

Among the visitors at Wells Hall the past week were: Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lester and Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Brown, Dublin; Martha Evelyn Woodall and Hazel Myers, Marion; Ruyane Turner, Sedalia; Virginia Wayne and Burns Powell, Columbus; F. C. Pogue and former state senator, Marion F. Pogue, Frances, Ky.

A shower was given by Miss Mary McNeely in honor of Mrs. Carroll Hubbard in the parlor of Wells Hall Friday evening. A violin solo was given by Elizabeth Davis, accompanied at the piano by Dixie Vivian Moore. After various contests were held, a trumpet was blown announcing little Misses Martha Lee Pennebaker and Nancy Dolly Wolfson, bringing gifts in a little wagon. Refreshments were served.

Tabby, the dormitory cat, that dined in the kitchen all morning, resposed in the purple velvet upholstered chair in the parlor all the afternoon, in such a manner that every girl envied him, then roamed the halls at night, and was found the next morning curled up on the foot of someone's bed, died Wednesday afternoon, February 7, at 4 o'clock. Fido, the dormitory dog, now rules supreme and continues with his rat killings.

Among the students that spent the week-end at home were: Mary Cox, Margaret Mullins, Mrs. J. E. Petty, Roberta Prince, Evelyn P. Pool, Nancy Williams, Mrs. Mamie Ferguson, Mary Gann, Mrs. E. Wrae, Helen Quertemous, Rebecca Winslow, and Juanita Aden.

Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Carr entertained at dinner at Wells Hall Friday evening in honor of the chief engineer of the CWA, Mr. Pine and Mrs. Pine. The guests included Mr. Stokes, Dr. Ora K. Mason, Mr. Pogue, Mr. Skaggs, Mr. Marrs, Mr. Broach, Miss Peffer, Dr. Outland, Mr. Robertson, Mr. Graham, Mr. Siedd and Mr. Doran. Music was furnished by the string orchestra, directed by Mr. Fox.

John Dulaney Heads Murray Physics Club

John W. Dulaney was elected president of the Nathan B. Stubbfield Physics Club of Murray State College at a meeting held in the physics laboratory Monday night, February 12.

Other officers are: O. C. Wells, vice-president; Irvan Lee, secretary-treasurer. Members of the program committee are: O. C. Wells, chairman; Marvin Wilkerson, and R. H. Falwell.

The meeting was called to order by Marvin Wilkerson, the retiring president.

The club meets every first and third Monday night. The speakers for next Monday are: O. C. Wells and John W. Dulaney. The club has secured the license for the operation of the station, W4AXL.

PREPARATIONS FOR THE PARTY

The children of the fifth grade gave a luncheon, Thursday January 25, honoring the "Five," a group which was promoted to the sixth grade.

All food used was brought by the boys and girls after their menu had been planned. Teachers and students were more than curious when the children arrived Wednesday morning with bags of this and bags of that, depending on what they had agreed to bring.

Wednesday afternoon the little girls donned their mothers' white caps and aprons and went to the home economics laboratory where they made ready for the party.

One group prepared cookies, another filling, while others worked on salad. All of the food was prepared by the girls, except hot rolls which Miss Maple made.

We are told, "The proof of the pudding is in the eating." If that be true, our food was really good. Dr. Carr might vouch for that, too, for a plate of cookies was sent to him by the children.

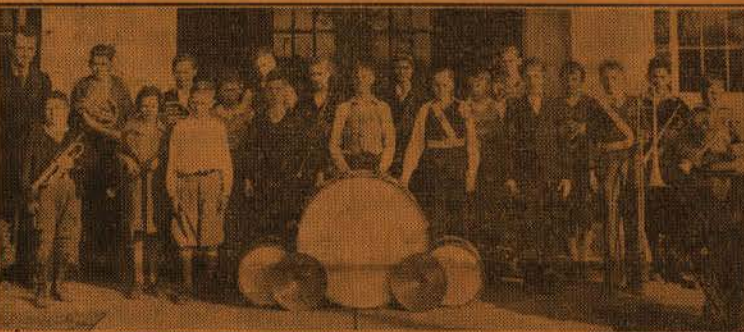

Ninth Grade Basketball Squad

Under the direction of Preston Laster, student teacher in physical education last semester, the boys in the ninth grade class of the Training School became highly interested in basketball. The members of the squad shown are Haydon McNutt, captain; James Robert Harding, Kenneth Bailey, Fred Gibbs, W. T. Workman, Tulon Turnbow, Truman Glass, and James Ralph Wells.

Training School Has Two Bands

The Training School is supporting two bands this semester. The advanced band has practically the same membership as that of last semester. The beginning band accommodates all of the students who have had very little or no musical training. Instruments and instruction for both bands are furnished.

Both bands are under the supervision of Prof. Franklin P. Ingalls, member of the college music faculty, and are under the direction of Conn Linn Humphreys. The beginning band meets twice weekly on Tuesday and Thursday. The advanced band meets three times weekly on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday. At present, the advanced band is playing such numbers as "The Twelfth Regiment March," "Zedekiah March," and others from the Fellman Transition book. The numbers will probably be exchanged shortly for more advanced material.

Following is the personnel of both bands:

Billie Utley, flute; Zane Houston, clarinet; Edna Pearl Erwin, flute; James Dale Guthrie, cornet; Anne Elizabeth Thompson, cornet; Dan Lassiter, cornet; William Bailey, trombone; Bob Hule, drums; Ed Wilson Farmer, cornet; Hugh Perdue, horn; Ben Boggess, drums; Bernard Simpson, trombone; James Simpson, trombone.

Advanced band: Martha Lou Hays, clarinet; Georgia Johnson, clarinet; Billie Utley, clarinet; Augie Mary McNutt, clarinet; Louise Putnam, clarinet; Rheda Chambers, cornet; James Billie Jones, cornet; Morgan Poole, cornet; Colvin Morris, cornet; J. D. Hamilton, cornet; Donald Walldrop, trombone; Harold Waldrop, horn; Dale Melugin, snare drum; Clifton Cochran, bass drum; Russell Parker, snare drum.

Five Co-Eds Enter Practice House

The beginning of the new semester found the Practice House again reopened to admit five co-eds to put into practice the things that they have learned in home economics.

The five include Mrs. Lucille Allen, Misses Evelyn Hammack, Wilma Belew, Martha Hule, and Cordelia Erwin. Miss Evelyn Slater has charge of the practice house. It is necessary to be a senior before a co-ed is eligible to stay in the practice house.

The practice house is open for the first nine weeks of this semester. It is located on Hamilton Avenue in the home of Miss Goode, assistant librarian.

This house is open for inspection by visitors and college students, who are interested in seeing the work done by these five home economics students.

TAYLOR HEADS ENGLISH CLUB

Thurston Taylor, Steff, Ky., was elected president of the English Club of Murray State College at a meeting held by that group Tuesday morning, February 13, in the liberal arts building.

Other officers elected were: Christine Brown, vice-president; Elizabeth Ladd, secretary; Annie Smith, treasurer.

Home Economics Department Has Made Progress

The home economics department of the Training School affords excellent opportunity for training college home economics majors for teaching.

The student teachers are trained in the various phases of teaching home economics to junior high school girls. The unit method of teaching is used under the direction of Miss Slater of the college home economics department.

The home economics laboratory is splendidly equipped in every respect. There are two large rooms. There is a foods laboratory which will take care of 24 girls. Here the girls are taught how to plan, prepare and serve adequate meals. The sewing laboratory will accommodate the same number of students. The girls are taught how to purchase, select and make suitable garments.

In addition to foods and clothing, the students are taught various phases of homemaking, such as home management, care of the sick, social and family relationship, home furnishing, preservation of foods, and child care.

Last semester an interesting project was carried on by the 3B girls. The group studied desirable traits of various members of the family. They selected an ideal family and planned its home. A notebook was kept showing the plan of the house, furnishings, color schemes and placement of furniture in the various rooms.

At present there are 22 students in the home economics class and the 4 student teachers, Misses Laurie Nello Bowles, Selma Townsend, Imogene Brown and Emma Lee Fuqua. Last semester there were 22 students, and the 2 student teachers were Misses Martha Hule and Cordelia Erwin.

MURRAY TO PLAY IN STATE TOURNEY

Basketball Contests to Be Held at Louisville on February 23 and 24.

The Thoroughbred basketball team of Murray State College will play in the S. I. A. A. basketball tournament to be held at Louisville, Ky., in the Knights of Columbus gymnasium February 23-24. Last year the Thoroughbreds were beaten out in the finals by Western State Teachers after Murray State had won two out of three of regular season games.

Drawings for the tournament places will be held Sunday at the Phoenix Hotel in Lexington, Ky. Though not having as good a season as last year's team, this year's squad is not exactly considered the underdog in the tournament and may pull a few upsets.

In state S. I. A. A. competition the Thoroughbreds have defeated Eastern State Teachers and Morehead State Teachers while losing two games to Western State Teachers and one to Berea College.

Berea, Western State Teachers, University of Louisville, Union College, and Murray State seem to be strongest.

In general S. I. A. A. play, the Kentucky Racehorses have won 7 titles and dropped four. In their last three games, the Thoroughbreds have shown remarkable improvement not only on defense but also offensively.

Murray State's chance to receive an invitation to the general S. I. A. A. basketball tournament at Jackson, Miss., may hinge on the outcome of their tournament games.

Every member of the team is in good shape and ready for the trip. Coach Cutchin will select players to make the trip from the following: Captain Crider, Kent, Goheen, Shaw, Phillips, Rayburn, Baker, King, E. Smith, Atlin, and Brinkley. Besides the players, Varsity Coach Carlisle Cutchin and Freshman Coach John Miller will make the trip.

Chemists Hold First Meet of Semester

The first meeting of the Chemistry Club of Murray State College since the fall semester was held Tuesday morning, February 13, with Willard Petway presiding.

A program committee, consisting of Marshall Henry, T. C. Colle, and W. P. Burnett, was appointed.

An initiation committee was also appointed with the following membership: Marshall Henry, Calvin Nance, R. H. Falwell, Jr., and Miss Margaret Hubbs. Pledging of new members will be held later in the semester.

Officers will be elected at the next meeting of the club.

Phillip Gardner, Hickman, Ky., a former student of Murray State, visited his mother over the week-end.

DR. McELRATH IS CHAPEL SPEAKER

Murray Dentist Discusses Value of Caring for Teeth at Murray State.

Declaring that $20,000,000 decayed teeth menaced health in United States last year, Dr. Hugh McElrath, Murray dentist, delivered a chapel speech before the students and faculty of Murray State College Friday morning, February 6.

Dr. McElrath was introduced by Dr. Charles Hise in the absence of Dr. Carr.

The four phases of dental restoration are: heredity, diet, personal care, and dental service, according to Dr. McElrath. He said heredity is the accumulated tendency and urged the hearers to "accept with gratefulness and thanksgiving the things given to us," but not to depend upon heredity alone.

"An adequate diet is an essential factor in dental health," said the speaker. The foods he mentioned that should be included in every person's diet were: milk, green leafy vegetables, and citrus fruits. These foods replenish the body with calcium and phosphoric acid, necessary for the bones and teeth. His slogan was "Eat the things you should first, then eat what you want."

"The necessary evil is the dentist," declared Dr. McElrath. Here he stated that far more money was spent annually for luxuries than for dental health, and that

Sunday School Class Holds Meet at Wells Hall

The college co-ed Sunday School Class of the Baptist Church met Tuesday night, February 6, with Misses Evelyn and Julia Hammock, Sturgis, Ky., in the sun parlor of Wells Hall. The meeting was called to order by the president, Miss Evelyn Hammock.

After the business meeting the devotional was given by Miss Frances Hillard, Martin, Tenn., and was completed with Miss Capple Beale, teacher of the class, leading in prayer. The co-eds worked on a quilt that they had started. Several games and contests were enjoyed until dairy refreshments were served by the hostesses.

ACCEPTS ARTICLE BY MURRAY STUDENT

The Kentucky Journal of Education, edited by William S. Taylor, dean of the College of Education of the University of Kentucky, has accepted for publication the survey of Kentucky High School Newspapers being made by Wallace Rogers Jr., senior and major in social science at Murray State College.

Twenty of the representative high schools in the state have been written, and the status of their journalism departments, publication policies, and finances is being studied by Mr. Rogers.

90 per cent of the people come to the dentist's office when forced by pain, while only 10 per cent of them come for the upkeep of their dental health.

ORCHESTRA PLAYS FOR STUDENT BODY

Musical Group Under Direction of Prof. Price Doyle Gives Two Selections.

A program of two musical selections was presented by the Murray State College orchestra under the direction of Prof. Price Doyle, head of the music department, in chapel Wednesday, February 7.

The numbers played were "Dance Macabre", by Saint-Saens, and "Procession of the Sardar", from the "Caucasian Sketches" of Ippolitow-Ivanoff.

Professor Doyle explained that "Dance Macabre" represented a dance of the dead, with King Death calling the tune. The "Procession of the Sardar", he said, portrayed a procession in honor of a high priest of Georgia, a region in the Caucasus in southern Russia.

Three Men's Teams Unbeaten in Murray Intramural Tilts

McCracken's Five Has Won Five Contests

Friday, February 16, found three basketball teams tied in the intramural contest sponsored by the athletic department of Murray College.

The Jenkins and McCracken teams have won five straight games and "Nub" Shelton's boys have come through with three victories. Vaughn Woodall's team has lost four straight games.

Team	Won	Lost	Pct.
McCracken	5	0	1.000
Jenkins	5	0	1.000
Shelton	3	0	1.000
Cook	3	2	.600
Allen	2	2	.500
McKenzie	2	3	.400
Elder	1	2	.333
Greenwell	1	3	.250
Cutchin	1	4	.200
Moss	1	4	.200
Woodall	0	4	.000

Greenwell, Jenkins Win
Greenwell's and Jenkins' men emerged victorious in the intramural basketball games played February 5 at Murray State College. The Greenwell men played Vaughn Woodall's team and easily defeated them by the score of 31-10. In the second game, the Jenkins' men doubled the score on their opponents, Moss' team, by winning 32-16.

The games were never close. In the Greenwell-Woodall game, the Greenwells held a lead of 18-1 at the halfway mark, and had no trouble in coasting through to an easy 31-10 victory. Jenkins had little trouble in defeating the team led by Howard Moss, by a 32-16 count. The Moss men could never get to working as a team unit, while the Jenkins' team was showing smooth teamwork and sinking many cripes.

McCracks 23, McK's 16
McCracken's squad had a hard time in winning 23-16 from the McKenzie team in the intramural basketball tournament at Murray State. At the end of the half, McKenzie held a 12-11 lead, but the McCracken combine outscored them in the last half and won the game. Millard was high point man of the game with 8 scores, while Dunn was next with 7. For the losers Swann led the way with 6 points.

Cookies 33, Cutchin 22
In the second game the Cookies were clearly superior to Cutchin's team and had little difficulty in defeating them 33-22. At the end of the first half, Cook's squad led 20-7. Cook used all of his substitutes. Denington on Cutchin's team was high point man for the game with 13 points. Hicks was high point man for the winner. He made 9 points.

Jenkins 51, Cutchin 22
Continuing the intramural basketball play at Murray State College the Jenkins and McCracken teams win their games. Jenkins' team went on a scoring spree, and counted 51 points against Cutchin's team. The score was 51-22 in favor of Jenkins. Riley, with 13 points, was high point man for the game, while Den-ington and Barclay tied for high point honors, for the losers, with 9 points each.

McCracks 26, Greenwell 23
McCracken defeated Greenwell in the second game by the close score of 26-23. This game was a thriller throughout, with Cooper, for Greenwell's team, and Millard, for McCracken's men, being the scoring stars. Both teams showed excellent floor work, and made most of the "crips" good. The McCracken team is a well balanced five, and seems to be destined for a good showing in the race.

Cook 25, Woodall 24
Cook's men emerged victorious in the hardest fought and closest game of the tournament, when they defeated the Woodall team in an overtime tilt by a 25-24 count.

Both teams started off in fast order, and gave good exhibitions of close guarding. At the end of the half, the count was knotted at 15-15.

McCracks 43, Moss 32
Behind the expert shooting of Wayne Millard and Joe Dunn, the McCracken team coasted to victory over Moss' men, 43-32. The game was close throughout, but Millard seemed unable to miss shots of any kind, and rolled up a total of 16 points in spite of all attempts to guard him closely.

McK 21, Cook 20
Cook's men lost their first game of the tournament in the windup game, when they were defeated by McKenzie's team by one point, 21-20. This was one of the closest and most interesting games that has been played. The teams were evenly matched and the lead see-sawed back and forth throughout the game.

Jenkins 28, Elder 15
In the final game of the afternoon, Jenkins continued his string of victories by defeating the Elder team 28-15, in a slow game. The game held very little interest for the fan who wanted a lot of scoring. At the halfway marker, Jenkins' team held a 3-point advantage, 8-5.

Cutchin 29, Woodall 28
In another close game of the intramural tournament being held at Murray College, Cutchin defeated Woodall by one point. The final score was 29-28, in favor of Woodall's team. This is the third one point game in the past three days.

Shelton 30, McK 18
Showing one of the best balanced teams seen in the tournament, the Shelton quint walked away from the McKenzie team, 30-18. The Shelton team used every man on the squad and practically no difference could be told in the performance of the third and first teams. This is the third straight victory for the Shelton combine.

Jenkins 38, Riley 24
Jenkins kept his slate clean by defeating Greenwell's team 38-24. Riley and Nichols were outstanding for the Jenkins combine, while Cooper played well for the losers. The Jenkins team plays a conservative game, putting on pressure only when it is necessary.

Allen 36, Cutchin 23
Allen defeated Cutchin in the

MILLERMEN BOW TO WESTERN 32-28

Murray Frosh To Play Paducah Junior College Here Tuesday February 20.

The Bowling Green Freshmen put an end to the winning streak of Coach John Miller's Yearling five Thursday, February 15, at Bowling Green by 32-28 score.

In the last home game of the season Tuesday, February 20, the freshmen will play Coach Sanders' Paducah Junior College. The Yearlings have previously defeated the junior college, but the Paducah team has been greatly strengthened by the addition of Magruder.

The Junior Hilltoppers were the second team this season to administer a loss to the Murray Yearlings. Earlier in the season Coach Miller's team defeated the Bowling Green Frosh here 20-16. The Murray Freshmen have scored one more point than their rivals.

Butler who has lately been playing a bang-up game at the pivot position led the Murray netters in scoring. Graham, forward who has proved the main cog in the Murray offense, also played a good game. Reid, who plays center for Western, was high-point man of the evening and was largely responsible for his team's victory.

Coach Miller started Graham and Carroll at Forwards, Butler at center, Herndon and Dossett at guards.

Miss Spann Added To Murray Staff

A new instructor, Miss Liza Spann, has been added to the biology department of Murray State College.

Dr. Alfred M. Wolfson, head of the biology department, stated that an increase in the number of students enrolled in the biology classes made necessary the addition of a new instructor.

Miss Spann is a native of Calumet County. She graduated from Murray High School with highest honors in her class and received a medal in recognition of her superior work.

She received her bachelor of arts degree at Union University where she was a honor student. She later attended Peabody College where she received her master's degree in biology.

For the last 2½ years she has been doing graduate work at the University of Kansas. She has completed her work there and will receive her doctor's degree in June.

At the University of Kansas, Miss Spann studied under Dr. W. J. Baumgartner, nationally known authority on living germ cells. Miss Spann wrote her dissertation on, "Living Germ Cells of the Black Field Cricket (Crylus Assimilis)".

Miss Spann is a member of Phi Sigma, national biological society and Sigma Xi, national scientific society. The latter organization accepted some of her research work for publication.

Miss Spann has taught five years in the public schools of Kentucky and one year at Averett Junior College Danville, Va.

Meet Is Postponed

On account of a misunderstanding about the day for meeting, the Allenian Society did not meet February 6. It will hold its regular meeting February 20.

other game for the afternoon 36-23. Individual scoring for the game was very evenly divided. Watson, for the winners, was high with 10 points, but one man scored 9 and four others scored 8 points each. Both teams have been defeated in the tournament.

McCrack 23, Woodall 21
Vaughn Woodall's basketball team lost its fourth game in a row Thursday, February 15. McCracken's team nosed out the Murray football captain-elect team 23-21. The game was nip and tuck and the lead see-sawed. Wayne Millard, forward was high point man for McCracken's team with 14 points. Curran was best for the losers with 11 tallies.

Cook 39, Moss 33
Led by Vanard Alderson, substitute, Bennie Cook and his Cookies defeated Howard Moss 39-33. Carroll, forward for Moss' team captured the scoring honors of the day with 17 points. The game was another hard fought contest and the losers were hot on the trail of the Cookies during the whole contest.

Student Council Has Election Session

The co-ed student council met last week to elect officers for the spring semester. The members elected last semester and holding office for the year are: Evelyn Hammock, president; Mary Lou Waggoner, town vice-president; and Gladys Ward, secretary-treasurer.

The class representatives elected are: Wilma Belew, senior; Sylvia Staudt, junior; Virginia Warren, sophomore, and Henrietta Mungle, freshman.

The proctors for the first six weeks are: Rebecca Winslow, Dorris Springfield, Ruth Beckett, Joe Nelle Teague, Novaline Westbrook, Ina Tiltworth, and Frances McClanahan.

For the next six weeks: Martha Roberts, Etna B. Marshall, Mary Virginia Wrenn, Charlie V. Tinnon, Evelyn P'Poole, Polly Weems, and Frances Ross. The last six weeks: Miriam Reading, Christine Brown, Beatrice Perkins, Gladys Homra, Emma Lou Brown, Margaret Mullins, and Carrie Lee Johnson.

Frosh Have Party Given by Class

A freshman party given in a Valentine spirit was held Friday night, February 16, in the small gymnasium of the liberal art building. Dr. G. T. Hicks' extracurricular class was responsible for the entertainment. About 150

Coach John Miller's freshman football squad is expected to provide some good material for the 1934 varsity grid squad of Murray State College. Vanard Alderson and Edwin Gunter, both of Paducah, were honorary captains.

Second Row: Burnett, Mayfield, Ky., guard; Woodall, Kuttawa, Ky., end; Tolson, Farmington, Ky., fullback; Crockett, Bruceton, Tenn., guard; Hall, Puryear, Tenn., end; Gibbs, Harrodsburg, Ky., halfback; Hooper, Morganfield, Ky., halfback.

Top Row: Young, Benton, Ky., tackle; Nichols, Benton, Ky., center; Dluguid, Murray, Ky., guard; Long, Benton, Ky., end; Banks, Murray, Ky., quarterback; Coach John Miller.

Those who were not present when the pictures were made were: Herndon, Paducah, Ky., halfback; Walker, Murray, Ky., tackle.

L. D. Miller, president of the freshman class, opened the meeting as captain of the good ship, "Valentine." He announced the game called "Automobile Romance." Howard Brumbaugh, dressed in his band uniform was first mate.

Dr. Carr Discusses Lincoln's Honesty in Chapel Speech

Dr. John W. Carr, president of Murray State College, delivered a short address on Abraham Lincoln to the student body on Monday morning, February 12.

The speakers stressed the honesty of "Abe", and showed the students how they could apply this characteristic to their own lives. Dr. Charles Hire, head of the physical science department, appointed members of the faculty to aid in re-educating the students. The freshmen were ushered to the front rows by Dean A. B. Austin and Prof. G. C. Ashcraft.

Dublin Excels In College Interest

In one respect, Dublin, Ky., located in Graves County, ten miles west of Mayfield, probably is not excelled by any town its size. From this small town whose population is approximately 150, 10 students have registered for the spring semester at Murray State College.

The students from Dublin are: Misses Ruth and Julia Wiman, Misses Alice and Mary Ellen Dunavant, Miss Rhena Bailey, Mrs. Gladys Brown O'Daniel, Miss Nola Bell Hawes, Miss Juanita Ramsey, Mrs. Palace Clapp, and Mrs. Ruby Vivrette. Two others, Miss Marie Sullivan and Mrs. Violet Marie Atkins, expect to enroll later in the semester.

Two Teams Tied for First in Co-Ed Intramural Tourney

Wyman and Webb Are Undeclared in Contests.

Two teams, Wyman's and Webb's, are tied for first place in the co-ed intramural basketball tournament being staged at Murray State College under the supervision of Miss Carrie Allison.

The standing in the tournament:

Team	Points
Wyman	3 0 1.000
Webb	2 0 1.000
Westbrook	2 1 .666
Tinnon	0 1 .000
Logan	0 1 .000
Beckett	0 3 .000

Webb 28, Tinnon 9
The co-ed intramural tournament got under way at Murray State College Wednesday afternoon, February 7, with Webb's team defeating Tinnon's team 28-9 in the first basketball game of the tournament.

A capacity crowd viewed the game and interest ran high throughout the contest. The Webb team easily won its first victory and displayed a well balanced team with a good defense. For the winners, Captain Webb and Meshew were outstanding. Both scored 9 points and played an excellent floor game. Tinnon's team never threatened the winners but showed a game, fighting spirit and battled until the final whistle was blown. Captain Tinnon and Dainel played the outstanding parts for the losers.

Webb 40, Beckett 15
The Webb team handed the Beckett lasses a 40-15 setback in the co-ed tournament. The Webb team was too strong all of the way. The shooting of Meshew was the outstanding feature of the game. She became the highest single game scorer of the tournament by amassing 26 points.

Westbrook 34, Beckett 14
Westbrook continued undefeated by trouncing Beckett 34-14. The Westbrook team, led in scoring by Glasgow, had no trouble in getting the tip-off with Westbrook at center. Chrisman was outstanding for the Beckett quintet.

Westbrook 21, Logan 13
The Westbrook team defeated the team led by Logan in the third game of the co-ed intramural tournament being held at Murray State College, by the score of 21-13.

The scoring for the winners was very evenly distributed, with Melton scoring 7 points, and Westbrook and Glasgow closely following with 6 points each.

Winslow, for the losers, was high point leader for the afternoon with 8 points.

Wyman 42, Tinnon 15
The high scoring Wyman team won another victory by defeating 42-15 the team led by Captain Tinnon, in the co-ed intramural basketball tournament being held at Murray State College.

There seems to be a race on between "Dewdrop" Brumley and Margaret Hefley for scoring honors. They are team-mates on the Wyman team, and in the games played last week, Brumley scored 19 points, while Hefley made 18.

Wyman 46, Beckett 10
The Wyman team won the second game of the co-ed intramural basketball tournament at Murray College defeating the Beckett team 46-10.

The Wyman team showed a couple of high scoring ladies in "Dewdrop" Brumley and Margaret Hefley. Brumley gathered 19 points in the three quarters that she was in the game, while Hefley made 18 points in the same time. The entire Wyman team played good basketball, offensively and defensively.

The Wyman team led as follows: first quarter, 14-4; half, 27-4; third quarter, 41-4; Wyman; and final, 46-10.

Wyman 31, Westbrook 26
The Wyman team won over the Westbrook six 31-26, with "Dewdrop" Brumley contributing 25 points for the winners. This was the third straight victory for the Wyman co-eds, and gives them the lead in the tournament. The 25 points in the game ran "Dewdrop's" total to 62 for the three games she has played in.

Luck
Jimmy had torn up the yard looking for four leaf clovers. He found only one but he thought that would bring him good luck. When his mother found out what he had done, she locked him up in his room.

Jimmy, having nothing to do, began to look through his treasure box. He found his mother's diamond ring. She loved it dearly, and it had been lost for ever so long. He began to pound on the door. When his mother heard the noise, she ran quickly and opened it. She was so glad to see her ring that she took Jimmy to the kitchen and gave him some cake.

"So four leaf clovers do bring you good luck," said Jimmy as he ate his cake.

They Satisfy

... people know it!

Same thing with a good cigarette or a good wood-fire.

All you need is a light.

And all you want is a cigarette that keeps tasting right whether you smoke one or a dozen.

That's what people like about Chesterfields. You can count on them. They're milder—and they taste better.

In two words, they satisfy.

That says it.
