A series of unusually catchy airs is to be heard during the development of the plot in this comedy, "The Woman Hater." The author, Dixon Turf Field, is known for his inimitable drolleries, and the scenic effects are first-rate. The play will be presented here for the first time at The Kentucky Thursday Theatre.

The scenic effects are first-rate, the dancing is of a high order, and the musical and terpsichorean novelties are subjects to be served first. Many a little one that you must have induced Caruso to come this afternoon—not Caruso, but Field. Mrs. Gerard—Why do you keep on mentioning that? The Register is printed to keep the right of free speech during the present Congress. This is the general impression that the members of the House and Senate are set at rest or any doubt as to the question of exercising that right. The House has no assurance that the threat of a Democratic delegate is a real one, and there is little indication of the need to fight it when it is known that the House will stand on its rights.

Why it is Necessary to Wear

Men's, Women's, Boys' Misses', Youth's, and Children's

Very much lighter shoes are worn now than a few years back. Parents buy their children or themselves light kid shoes, send them to school or go themselves to business in the rains without umbrellas and often with holes in bottoms of soles and then wonder why they have colds, coughs, pneumonia, or scarlet fever. All leather is poorer, the best will not keep out dampness. Rubber keeps the shoes dry, therefore you have dry, WARM FEET AND HEALTH or wet feet and sick. Tie up—take your choice.

MATINEE MUSICAL COUNCIL MEETING

SOCIETY MEETS TOMORROW AFTERNOON WITH MRS. GEORGE HAYT.

Large Crowd at Opening Ball Last Evening

Saturday afternoon, the House was taken by storm as a result of the Opening Ball of the Matinee Musicale club. It was the opening night for the first ballroom, and the guests were gathered from all parts of the city. The dance was a great success, and the guests were thoroughly entertained.

The dance was held in the new ballroom, which was decorated in the latest style. The music was provided by a first-class orchestra, and the dance was a great success. Many of the guests were seen dancing the night away, and the dance was a great success.

The dance was sponsored by the Matinee Musicale club, which was founded a few months ago. The club has a large membership, and the members are all enthusiastic about music. The club has been very active, and has held many concerts and recitals. The opening night of the ballroom was a great success, and the club is looking forward to many more successful events.

AGAINS BUYING OF VOTE

Robert A. Smith, of Washington, D.C., has been charged by a group of Washingtonboosters in New York with the attempt to buy votes. The charges have been made by various Washington leaders, who have accused Mr. Smith of trying to bribe the votes of a number of members of Congress, with the intention of getting them to support his bill. The charges have been denied by Mr. Smith, who has stated that he is working for the best interests of the country.
About People

Mrs. Jacob Gifolff of Overtonville, detained last night at Whiskey Bottom, is reported to be safe. She was driven on a wild horse to her home in Overtonville. The mountain man's horse became frightened and was driven by the rider to a place where it was left. The mountain man then took another horse and went to Overtonville.

Miss Fannie Wheeler of Overtonville was called upon a horse last night, was then taken to Overtonville and was found to be safe. She was driven on a wild horse to her home in Overtonville. The mountain man's horse became frightened and was driven by the rider to a place where it was left. The mountain man then took another horse and went to Overtonville.
