While a keen interest was manifested in the police judge's race, a greater contest occurred in the election of a city council. Eleven names were placed upon the ballot by petition, while only six councilmen were to be elected. A little circular calling attention to six names was circulated freely Friday night and Saturday. A counter circular declaring for the remaining names on the ballot was early on the streets Saturday morning, and a warm contest was the result. It was generally accepted by the voters that the stock ordinance was the bone of contention.

NOMINATIONS

Made For Judge, Sheriff and Jailor By Republican County Committee.

The republican county committee met here last Saturday afternoon and nominated candidates for county office as follows: T. W. Patterson, judge. Chas. L. Jordan, sheriff. J. R. Langston, jailor.

At a recent meeting of the committee a call was formulated and issued for a county mass convention June 26th, provided that in case of there being not more than one announced candidate for any office by May 8th then the committee should meet upon that date and declare such candidate the nominee of the party.

The meeting Saturday was attended by eleven of the fourteen precinct committeemen. The body was convened by Chairman Downs and upon motion resolved itself into a nominating convention and the above named gentlemen were declared the nominees. Nine of the eleven committeemen voted in favor of the nominations while C. H. Redden and W. H. Collier opposed the nominations.

It is generally conceded that other nominations will be made in the near future, as the committee adopted a motion deferring further nominations.

Gillis Wilkinson, of Paducah, came out last Sunday and visited home folks a few days. He is with J. Rudy & Son and is assistant manager in the dry goods department.

SLAYER REFUSES TO BE ACQUITTED

YOUNG TEXAN SAVES CHILD'S LIFE
TEO DISGRACE OF TELLING WHY HE SLEW FATHER

ALL WANTED TO FREE HIM

Son of Wealthy, Inhuman Cotton Planter Prefers to Serve Five Years in Prison—Shot From Ambush

Port Worth, Tex., May 9.—Stephen Beatty Saturday began serving a five-year sentence in the Texas state prison for slaying his father. He had not gone to prison, for every man from Judge to jury who sat in judgment on him tried to set him free. But he chose prison to save his sister the disgrace of telling why he slew his father.

The slaying was done in the older Beatty's cotton field 10 days ago. It ended 20 years of parental cruelty, as seldom has been known in a civilized land. Beatty, the cotton and yam fields extended for miles along the outskirts of Port Worth. But he never liked a man to till them. He forced his wife and five children to be his farm hands, and since they could first hold a hoe not one has remembered a day when he or she was not flogged with a blacksnake whip.

Whips if the Doctors Wound. Three of these children were girls, and on these Beatty vented his tyranny even more than on the boys. Neighbors had known for years that some of them came home from the fields at night with a whipping on the hands of their brutal parent, and screams issuing from the house in the night told plainly the story of a wife and mother beaten with the rawhide because she had caught doctoring the wounds of her offspring after the father had sent them bleeding to bed.

The climax was approached two weeks ago when Mrs. Beatty was forced to flee to a neighbor's home when the young son, Stephen, ran away to take work with another farmer near by. The next day one of the daughters, not yet 15, escaped from the father's watch upon her and, stageing to the farmhouse where her mother was living, told a frightful tale of wrongs she had suffered at her father's hands.

Slays Father From Ambush. In some way the mother got the news of this to Stephen, and when his work in the fields was through the next day he took down his Winchester rifle and walked to his father's farm, where he hid behind a wall to await his father's return from work. When Beatty approached on a horse his son raised his gun to his shoulder and deliberately shot the father dead. The same afternoon he surrendered.

A grand jury was summoned to indict him, but after the mother had refused to testify, Stephen would have been set free on the spot, but Prosecutor Roy declared he must be brought to trial.

"I want this man liberated—he ought to be with the thanks of the community," said Roy, "but he must be brought to trial or he will always be under the spell of another charge until he is acquitted. That's why I want him brought to trial, and if he is I will use my influence as prosecuting attorney to have him acquitted."

Breaks From Officers to Confess. So the second grand jury was impaneled immediately. The mother's testimony was kept out for fear of its effect, and with a full effort of prosecutor and jurors Stephen was indicted and brought to trial. There was not the slightest doubt of Stephen's acquittal. The crowd in the court room was there simply to cheer him.

But at the last moment Stephen had heard that if his trial went on his sister would be forced to take the stand. To save her that humiliation he broke from the officers as he was brought into court and shouted, "I killed my father—I plead guilty to be sentenced to prison without trial."

PRISON TRUSTIES STRIKE

Six Hundred Men, Including Many Paroled Prisoners, Tie Up Brick Yards at Kingston, N. Y.

Kingston, N. Y., May 9.—Rioting here Friday in connection with the strike of brick makers tied up all the large yards in this section. The number of men out has reached nearly 600. Many of them are paroled prisoners from state institutions. It is feared that the riot may reach serious proportions. In case the manufacturers attempt next Monday to carry out their plan to operate the yards with nonunion labor.

Kaveny, who says that because of the advances made by him the night of 20 pounds of grapes and cocoa, and other sweet things were taken.

CRISIS IN PARIS NEAR

MERCHANTS PREPARE TO BARRI-CADE SHOPS AS PROTECTION

Government Warned That the Railway Employees Will Be Unable to Operate Trains

Paris, May 9.—The prospects of a paralyzing strike throughout France were heightened Saturday by the failure of the seven postmen who on Thursday organized the postmen's union, to appear before the court of discipline. Neither did the several members of the court who are connected with the postal department appear to sit with the court.

The seven employees already under suspension, will undoubtedly be dismissed. This action likely will be followed by the immediate declaration of a strike of postmen, telegraphers and telephone operators.

The charges against the postmen were for attacking the government and parliament at the public meeting and advocating an anti-parliamentary organization. Every government employee who joins the strike will be dismissed from the service and never reinstated, according to M. Barthou, minister of public works.

This threat is meant to intimidate other employees, but the strike sentiment is almost unanimous. Railroad locals are voting on the strike and the result will probably be in favor of joining the postmen and telegraphers.

The directors of the military railway department warned the government that his men are not competent to run the regular trains and that but little help could be furnished by his department.

The immense mercantile class particularly the small merchantmen who seem to be the objects of the union's hatred, is arming in anticipation of rioting and looting when the strike begins.

Hundreds of merchants are preparing to barricade their shops.

TO FIGHT GLUCOSE TRUST

Royal Baking Powder Company Heads
New $30,000,000 Corn Products
Company

Chicago, May 9.—A concerted attempt by independent glucose companies to "break" the Corn Products company, popularly known as the trust, became known Saturday, when the report spread that a new combination will be formed.

The Corn Products company is said to be controlled by the Standard Oil company of New Jersey.

The Royal Baking Powder company, a $30,000,000 corporation, is reported to be the backbone of the new combination, and other concerns with a capital aggregate of $7,000,000 more are reported to be ready to come into the combine.

Among these is the National Candy company of Chicago, Iowa, a $2,000,000 corporation; the American Maize Producers company of Italy, Ind.; the Irwin Bros. company of Indianapolis and the Hubinger company of Keokuk, Iowa.

The combine is said to have been started as the result of a fight between the Royal Baking Powder company and the National Candy company against the Corn Products company. The Corn Products company contemplated entering the baking powder and candy fields to retaliation upon these two rivals, and the present reported combination is the result.

FRANCE'S POSITION WEAK

Former United States Representative
Regards Present Labor Troubles
as One of Most Important

New York, May 9.—John Bigelow, the veteran author and diplomat, who represented the United States in France during the civil war, was a passenger Friday from Havre on the steamer La Providence, returning from a visit to the scenes of his former triumphs. Mr. Bigelow who is 82 years old said that he regarded the present labor troubles in France as one of the most important situations that he said, "The government's weak position in the settlement of the postal strike has incited the workers in all the other departments to push outrageous demands and the whole battle which might have been fought and won at the time of the postal strike must be gone over again."

Oil Companies in Appeal

Washington, May 9.—The United States supreme court will have to pass on the order of the Standard Oil and Republic Oil companies from the State of Missouri. Their appeal from the ouster decree of the Missouri supreme court revoking their rights on the grounds that they had entered a combination to control the oil business there, and fixing them $50,000 each, has just reached the supreme court.

HUNTS PLOTTER OF FRAUD

GOVERNMENT IS EXPECTING TO IMPLICATE FINANCIERS.

Baron Who Expired Suddenly After Exposure Was Intimate With Indicted Weigher.

New York, May 9.—A real hunt for the man higher up in the sugar trust cases, began Saturday. Starting from the sugar docks of the Havemeyer and Elder refinery of the American Sugar Refining company in Williamsburg, the trail leads by winding and seemingly impenetrable routes to Wall Street. The start and finish are known, but it is the stopping places between that are to be uncovered.

On the trail are the best detectives in America. Their success will mean the implication of men whose names are well known in the world of finance, says Henry L. Stimson, former United States district attorney, and now a special deputy attorney general, commissioned to prosecute those behind the "case of the 17 holes"—the boring of which the beams were made to tie as to the amount of raw sugar weighed.

Six Sugar Weighers Indicted. Six men were indicted Friday on blanket indictments which charged them with "conspiring to commit an offense against the United States by causing the United States weighers on duty at the scales to make false returns."

These men, with one exception, are laborers at $13 a week. The other is a former sugar scaler, superintendent of docks at $2,800. The government alleges the laborers found an extra $5 bill in their pay envelope each week. They manipulated the weight scales. As the men directly responsible, they have been proceeded against criminally, and their trials are to be pushed.

Taken to her husband's funeral in a closed carriage by two detectives, a throng of women jeered her.

"It's too late to cry now," cried a woman on the sidewalk. "It's too late to think of your husband. He was a good man to you, but he's gone now." "You're the one to blame," cried another woman. "What were you thinking of? You're old enough to know better—you, the mother of two little children!"

COMMODITIES BILL TALK

Action Is Expected at Present Session of Congress on the Rate Clause.

Washington, May 9.—There is a probability that an attempt will be made at this session to strengthen the commodities clause rate bill. Some of the railroad representatives have made it known that they are anxious to learn what they may have reason to expect in order to adjust their business either in the conditions under the ruling of the supreme court or to conditions as they will be if the law is changed.

Both the Republican and Democratic members of the judiciary committee have been in consultation with the president in the matter, and the best information is that Mr. Taft wants quick but adequate action.

KIDNAPERS MAY RELATE SECRETS

BOYLES CASE WILL NOT END WITH OUTCOME OF TRIAL
AT MERCER.

MAN IS TRUE TO WIFE

Insists She Had No Part in the Conspiracy and Didn't Know Boy
Was Stolen—Buhl's Name
Mentioned.

Mercer, Pa., May 9.—Helen Buhl, nee, Mrs. James Buhl, alias "Mary Roe," was found guilty of complicity in the kidnaping of Willie Whitt, by a verdict of the jury returned at noon Saturday. The jury was out only five minutes, and only one ballot was taken.

The case went to the jury a few minutes before noon. Attorney Q. A. Cordon, for the state, began his argument soon after 10 o'clock.

"Compared to a kidnaper," he said, "a burglar is respectable. A kidnaper must be marked as a person without human sympathy, and this is the sort of man Boyle is admitted to be by his attorneys."

"Keep in mind how detailed and carefully made must be the plan by which ransom for a kidnapped boy is collected. Mrs. Boyle said in Cleveland she was the 'frail little woman' who planned it all. No one denies this statement."

The question of the Mercer county court's jurisdiction would form the basis of an appeal, as it formed the ground on which her attorneys argued for her acquittal. They contended that since the crime charged against her was not committed in Pennsylvania, at least so far as she is concerned, the courts of that state should not try her.

The penalty for kidnaping is lighter in Ohio than in Pennsylvania.

Boyle Sticks to Her. One of the features of the trial is the way that Jimmy Boyle, although convicted of a crime that may send him to prison for life, and without hope of escape by appeal, stands by the woman indicted with him. In his cell early Saturday Boyle again insisted that his wife was innocent.

"She knew nothing of the kidnaping," he said. "I never gave her the newspaper. I wanted to tell everything Friday, but they wouldn't let me."

"The kidnaping was a conspiracy. There were several in it. I wanted to tell who they were and how I was accused for them, but I got no chance. I could have shown the letters that passed between me and the conspirators."

Buhl's Name Mentioned. The name of Frank Buhl, the millionaire steel man, uncle of little Willie Whitt, was dragged into the trial Friday in a sensational manner.

Detective Frank Wood of Cleveland, who arrested the woman, testified that he said to him then:

"There will be trouble in Sharon tomorrow when Buhl hears of this. Buhl will be sorry for this, for the eyes of that little boy will be burned out with acid in a week."

Leutenant Albert Walker of Cleveland created more furor by testifying that the woman said to him:

"We expected to be arrested when we planned this job. You have got the goods on us and got us right. But I am not afraid they'll take me back to Sharon for Buhl will be in trouble, too. If they do, and he is in just as strong as we are."

FIVE CATTLEMEN INDICTED

Charged With Complicity in the Murder of Sheepmen and Herder in Wyoming.

Cheyenne, Wyo., May 9.—The grand jury investigating a raid on the sheep camp of Allemand and Empe near Spring Creek Friday returned indictments against George Saban, M. A. Alexander, Thomas Dixon, William Dase and Charles Ferris, all well-known cattle men of Ten Sleep, charging them with complicity in the murder of a herder named Lazier and Allemand and Empe. All of the men indicted are now in jail.

On the night of March 2, the camp of Allemand and Empe was attacked by eighteen men. The sheep men were shot and the bodies of two burned. The sheep men had been warned not to cross a certain line with their flocks.

At the concluding session at Washington Friday of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers, a number of papers of a technical character were read, after which the delegates visited Mount Vernon.

An executive order of President Roosevelt made on February 25 was issued Friday directing that the islands of the Culebra group, except Culebra, be reserved, subject to their use for naval and light house purposes, and set apart for the use of the department of agriculture as a preserve and breeding ground for native birds.

Advices received Friday night are to the effect that the steamer Shores, six days overdue at Duluth, went down off White Fish Point in Lake Superior with all on board. The crew and passengers numbered twenty-one.

The New York Central lines and the Pennsylvania system have authorized improvements on their roads between New York and Chicago that will mean a total expenditure of $22,500,000.

At a meeting Friday the machinists of the Mount Clara shops of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, numbering about 350, voted to strike, and this action may lead to the end in all the shops of the system, numbering about 1,000, being called out.

LABOR LAWS TEST CASES

Crane Paper Box Company Maintains
Ohio Law Limiting Hours of Work Is Unconstitutional.

Cincinnati, Ohio, May 9.—The case of the state of Ohio against the Crane Paper box company, which is expected to reach the supreme court of the United States, was begun before a magistrate Friday. It is expected to decide the right of the state to pass and enforce child labor laws.

The case is one of a hundred charging violation of the law which provides that no child shall work more than eight hours in a day.

The defense maintains that the law is unconstitutional in that it conflicts with the right of contract.

Pastor Carries Gun for Satan. Texarkana, Ark., May 9.—Jerry Taylor, negro preacher, was arrested at night on his way home from conducting services, and was fined $100 and costs, in default of which he was placed on the county road. He told the court he carried the pistol to protect himself from the assaults of Satan.

BARRY-STEAM ROLLED.

In the same hour came forth
the words of a man's hand, and a woman said: "The confederate upon the plaster of the wall of the King's palace, and the King saw the part of the hand that wrote."--The Bible.

Judge E. Barry, editor of the Benton-Tribune-Democrat, was defeated in the recent Paducah convention for state senator from the Second district, composed of the counties of Carlisle, Ballard, McCracken and Marshall.

Some few weeks ago the Ledger, in making comment upon the decision of W. A. Berry in the Calloway county chairmanship steal, took occasion to turn up his nose and endeavored to point out to Bro. Pigue, of the Arlington Courier, what to expect in the senatorial convention, when the same W. A. Berry, who advised and abetted the "disfranchisement" of more than 2,000, Calloway democrats, made priestly proclamations that neither Arlington or Benton should have the convention, but that it must come to Paducah, the base of all corruption, chicanery, schemers, skinners, grafters and galeots.

Our prophecy of March 25,
was contained in the following:
"Bro. Pigue, you really ain't got any kick-a-comin'. Can't you see what the Paducah steam roller is after? Paducah is in your senatorial district. Paducah is hell-bent on sending a booze grafter to the state senate to assist in the defeat of the county unit bill. Paducah wants the senatorial convention with the hope that it will be possible, to fill its delegates with dollar-ninety-eight-cent red rot gut and while hilariously participating in the proceedings of the convention some dirty thief will make away with the nomination, and you plain, simple folk out there in the field and furrow will be advised that you had better condone the theft, and, actually, it will be demanded that you endorse the crime."

It is openly charged by every paper published in the Second senatorial district, with a single exception, that E. Barry's defeat was purchased by fraud, and that the moving spirit, the hidden hand, was that of W. A. Berry, state central committeeman, who forced the convention to meet in Paducah.

In last week's issue of the Benton Tribune-Democrat, E. Barry, the defeated candidate, openly declared that his defeat was due to fraud, money and "booze." In assigning the real reasons for his defeat among other things says:

"The fact that I publicly declared myself for the county unit bill was what brought about the fierce fight against me and caused the expenditure of large sums of money, free whiskey, free railroad and street car tickets and automobile rides.

The fiat had gone forth from the whiskey gang, that Barry must be defeated, at any cost, and whatever means that might be necessary to accomplish this result must be used. In the first place I fairly won the chairmanship of the convention, the announcement of which was delayed until enough votes could be changed to change the result.
After gaining the chairmanship
I had easy sailing, as Mr. Fisher decided every question as directed by Judge W. A. Berry.

I had instructed votes, second instructions and delegates, uninstructed, but elected by the people, because they had announced themselves for me, to give me the nomination with 500 votes to spare.

As further evidence of the correctness of the Ledger's prophecy we reprint below from the News-Democrat, the only paper in the district which has made any attempt to deny that

Barry's defeat was not corruptly purchased:

"Judge Barry also takes occasion to refer to all who opposed his nomination, or at least favored some other candidate, as 'the whiskey gang.' Really we believe we would have omitted this clause from that letter for it was a matter of common comment
among delegates and spectators that every delegate on the floor who was under the influence of liquor was a Barry delegate. We are not in a position to explain why this was so, but that it was a fact, no one will deny. Political conventions are not conducted after the manner of Sunday schools, and Judge Barry has been in the game long enough to be perfectly familiar with this fact."

There is your red rot gut to a standstill, and while the News-Democrat may not be in "a position to explain" why Barry delegates were under the influence of liquor, anyone who possesses sufficient gray matter to grease a gimlet does know and could explain.

But, as we reminded Bro. Pi-gue that he and the other boys who fill the trenches and follow the plow would be advised to condone the theft and even demanded to endorse the crime, we again reproduce from the News-Democrat which says:

"The recent senatorial convention, held in Paducah, has been followed by considerable comment by the country press throughout the district. The expressions made by some of these papers have been scarcely worthy of attention; at least we had looked at the matter in this light, realizing, as we did, that the failure of victory nearly always causes a degree of dissatisfaction among those who have failed to be on the winning side. Our observation has been that this post-convention sarcasm usually passes away under the calm viewpoint of serious reflection. It is inevitable in any contest in which two are entered and for the victor in which there is but one prize, that one of the contestants must be defeated and disappointed. It is equally as true that he who can not take blows ought not to enter a boxing match; he who can not smile,
instead of cry, when wounded, ought not to enter a contest in which wounds must be given and taken."

Now, there we have the true definition of Simon pure-Jeffersonian-Jacksonian democracy with all the gall and wormwood extracted. Permit that which is rightfully given to you by the people to be stolen from you, then laugh and commend the thief;

show upon him your gratitude,
show the evidence of gratitude
with a smile; that's democracy.
Permit your person to be be-smeared with excrement, let it be rubbed in; take a cussing, because you stink, but never fail to split your throat yelling, "That's democracy, too!"

The Ledger must admit that it is the character of democracy that belongs to the steam roller class but it is not the democracy of the masses.

The party lash is a relic of the past, the bully may attempt its use upon the common people, the masses, the majority even; the wounds may cut deep but if honestly accepted will heal as honorable scars, as badges of integrity.

Lash rule must decay, government by theft cannot, and will not stand, the King of corrupt politics may drink his wine and praise "the gods of gold, and of silver, of brass, of iron, of wood, and of stone," but the result is inevitable, the hand-writing is on the wall.

"And this is the writing that was written: MENE, MENE, TEREL-UPHARSIN." This is the interpretation of the thing: MENE: God hath numbered
the Kingdom, and finished it.
TEREL: Flow one weighed in the balances, and art found wanting.
UPHARSIN: Thy Kingdom is divided, and given to the Medes and Persians."

but missed the fast passenger started around the curve for the failed to see manifest freight.

Does Not Stimulate

Ayer's Sarsaparilla does not stimulate. It does not make you feel better one day, then as bad as ever the next. It is not a strong drink. No reaction after you stop using it. There is not a drop of alcohol in it. You have the steady, even gain that comes from a strong tonic and alternative. We wish you would ask your doctor about this. He knows. Trust him. Do as he says. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

What are Ayer's Pills? Liver Pills. How long have they been sold? Nearly sixty years. Do doctors recommend them? Ask your own doctor and find out.

Birthday Party at Hardin.

Miss Donna Street entertained last Saturday night at a birthday party in honor of her brother, Crawford, and friend, Miss Nannie Cross. Quite a number of their many friends were invited, and with few exceptions all responded.

The rooms were beautifully decorated with carnations and other pretty flowers. After spending some time exchanging greetings with each one the guests were invited into the spacious dining room, where they found the table beautifully decorated with carnations and roses and laden with many good things to eat, which all enjoyed immensely.

Each guest bearing an appropriate quotation, tied with blue ribbon, as a souvenir of the evening. The guests returned to the parlor and were royally entertained by their hostesses, Misses Street and Cross, until the clock chimed the midnight hour, telling us the Sabbath was fast approaching. After expressing their many thanks to the hostess and wishing Mr. Street and Miss Cross many happy birthdays. At no other time has the popularity of the hostess been shown more fully than on this occasion by the large number of valuable presents received. LILLIE. The Most Common Cause of Suffering.

Rheumatism causes more pain and suffering than any other disease, for the reason that it is the most common of all ills, and it is certainly gratifying to sufferers to know that Chamberlain's Liniment will afford relief, and make rest and sleep possible. In many cases the relief from pain, which is at first temporary, has become permanent, while in old people subject to chronic rheumatism, often brought on by dampness or changes in the weather, a permanent cure cannot be expected; the relief from pain which this liniment affords is alone worth many times its cost. 25c and 50c bottles. For sale by Dale & Stubblefield.

OUR DEFECTIVE FATHERS

By F. RAYMOND COULSON

Having ascertained the result of the 1.30 race, the young man was about to drop the paper when something caught his eye. He started to read it.

"Come on," said his friend, "rattling the dominoes impatiently on the mottled marble of the cafe table. 'It's twenty past two now, and we must have one more game before we get back to the office.'"

"No hurry, Dick," said the other, "the governor's away, and I heard Benson say he was going to leave a tooth out, and mightn't be back till three." Benson was the manager.

"Oh, all right," said Dick, lighting a fresh cigarette.

His friend grinned over the paper. "This is bloomin' funny," he said.

"What is it?" queried Dick.

"Why, a girl joined the Mormons and sloped to America. Her father borrowed some money and went after her. And when he got to New York they wouldn't let him through. Said he'd got heart trouble and fainted him back."

"Ha, ha!" chuckled Dick. "Bloomin' funny! And they're named the dominions. 'I say, Bert, said Dick at the end of the game, 'why don't you leave home and go halves in my dig?'"

"I should, if I could afford it," said Bert, "for I can't stand my old man."

"Did he say you about Monday night?" queried Dick.

"No, luckily, he had an attack of lumbago, and went to bed, early. Mother sat up for me, and, of course, she would not tell him I was funny. It was nearly two when I got in."

A Clergyman with Seven Daughters and Four Sons.

"What's the matter with the old man, then?"

"Oh, he says I ought to give mother more money. I give her ten bob as it is. How much does he think I can take home out of two quid a week? And he was thirty because I lifted a couple of cigars I found on the mantelpiece, and have been using his razor lately. I told him mine was blunt, the old fool."

"He gawks about what he's done for me, and says I take everything as a matter of course, because I asked him to lend me 25 bob for my season ticket. I told mother yesterday I was sick of him."

"What did she say?"

"She said he's always telling her he's sick of me. And what with his going on about me and his going on about my brother Bob, she says she's sick of her life."

"All sick," grinned Dick. "We are a merry family; we are, we are. What's Bob been up to?"

"Oh, he's been foolin' after some girl and getting into debt. Took her out in a trap and ran over some old chap, and his relations came round and tackled my old man. Said Bob was driving recklessly, and they want ten quid compensation. Injured his knee cap or something. So dad's got the needle about that, too. Says everything seems to fall on him. Bob told mother straight that with a man like father there's no encouragement to stop at home. He says, same as me, that if he could afford it he'd clear out. And, as I say to her, I ain't a kid now. I'm a man, and I like to be treated as a man. Let's have another game."

"They had another game, and he sauntered back to the office. 'S-you at the Pavilion to-night," said Bert as they entered, "and if the old man says anything more to me about my money matters and my follies, and all that much, I mean to tell him plain that he's the sort of father that drives sons away from home and makes 'em go to the bad."

Meanwhile, the fathers of England are being upbraided by bishops and statesmen. This question seems to have excited so many people lately that I thought it would be interesting to get the opinions of a few fathers on the subject of families.

I first addressed myself to an old gentleman—very wealthy—with one son. "What is your view of children as a source of happiness?" I asked.

"He frowned," "Take that boy off mine," he said, grimly. "I sent him to Oxford and told him he could go to Cambridge, too; if he liked. I gave him means to keep his end up with the sons of dukes and earls. He got into society that I wasn't good enough for, and then he went and married a barmaid."

"Perhaps it was all for the best," murmured the mother.

"All for the best," groaned the father. "Why, she hooked him like a fish, and she drinks like one. And so does he. I can't do anything with him."

I realized that the subject of children was not a popular one in that house. So I went and interviewed a friend who I thought could be regarded as an authority—a clergyman with seven daughters and four sons. He said his sons had left home, and he hoped they were doing well. Having known a few clergyman's sons I did not press the question further.

"I don't wish to be personal," I explained. "I want your views on families generally." He said, speaking generally, of course, that families involved a natural anxiety. And where there were many daughters he thought there was a tendency to overrule parental authority.

"Yes," I said, sympathetically. "I know." I next visited a school master, and asked him what he thought of the twentieth century child.

"The twentieth century is the children's millennium," he said. "Filial respect and obedience are old-fashioned, and children look upon their parents as nothing more than servants to minister to their wants, and give them a good time."

Later I interviewed a father belonging to the class that have the largest families. "We're at eight," he said, "and buried five. And I wish we'd buried the lot."

"Dear me," I exclaimed. "How's that? The bishop of London says that the worstest man is he who gives a family to the nation."

"Never mind the bishop of London," he said, "look at this." And he handed me an advertisement which ran:—"Wanted—Wanted—Man and Wife. No encumbrances. That's what they call 'em," he said bitterly. "Encumbrances. And I defy you or anybody else to manage that boy of mine. He's only ten, and he's a awful, I give you my word."

I sighed. And passing through a narrow street I came upon a small boy with a large barrow. He was stocked with bananas, and he was just about to wheel it off.

"Good-by, mother," he said. There was a gray-haired woman at the door of a small house.

"Good-by, dear. Hope you'll sell out." He trundled off.

"Your son, ma'am," I said.

"Yes, sir," she replied. "Thank God. Since his father died 18 months ago, he kept me and himself with that barrow. And I'll back him against any man on the road for sellin' bananas."

HORSES WEAR MOURNING.

Reston horses are still wearing mourning for George T. Angell, "the friend of dumb animals." At his funeral, on March 20, 30 work horses, wearing no harness—except bridles decorated with mourning ribbons, fell in behind the hearse at Trinity church and followed it part of the way on its journey to Mt. Auburn. Thousands of black ribbons were seen on horses on the day of Mr. Angell's funeral and many are still being worn. —Life.

HIS PROPHETIC SOUL.

"Hamlet was a man of intensely melancholy moods," remarked the student.

"Yes," answered Mr. Stormington Barnes. "Perhaps he foresaw some of the interpretations of his character that my professional rivals have been giving."

Little Girls Innocent Use of Descriptive Slang Expression Amused Fellow-Traveler.

"I was going to Patagonia," said a woman at the Waldorf, "when I saw sitting near by a little girl with her mother, the mother evidently a foreigner, the child born in this country, both surrounded by bundles in the foreign way. The child was six. The conductor came along and the child of six held out the tickets."

"I want you to put us off at Patagonia," she said, smiling up at him, "and help us with our bundles, please. My mother's a greenhorn. She doesn't know anything about traveling."

"I watched her until the two arrived at their destination, and I think I have never seen a more polite little girl or a more 'mildly dutiful' daughter. It was quite evident to my mind that she meant no disrespect to her mother by calling her by what would seem to me to be an opprobrious epithet. She had merely adopted one of our slang words as the very best of English." —New York Press.

Itching Torture Was Beyond Words—Slept Only from Sheer Exhaustion—Relieved in 24 Hours and Cured by Cuticura in a Month.

"I am seventy-seven years old, and some years ago I was taken with eczema from head to foot. I was sick for six months and what I suffered tongue could not tell. I could not sleep day or night because of that dreadful itching. When I did sleep it was from sheer exhaustion. I was one mass of irritation; it was even in my scalp. The doctor's medicine seemed to make me worse and I was almost out of my mind. I got a set of the Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Resolvent. I used them persistently for twenty-four hours. That night I slept like an infant, the first solid night's sleep I had had for six months. In a month I was cured. W. Harrison Smith, Mt. Kisco, N. AN INTERESTING PAINT TEST.

There is a very simple and interesting chemical test by which to detect impurity in paint materials. Thousands and thousands of people, all over the country, are making this test. It is a sure way to safeguard against the many adulterated white leads which are on the market. Any one can make the test—all that is needed is a simple little instrument which may be had free by writing "National Lead Company, 1502 Broadway, New York, and asking for Homeowner's Painting Outfit No. 49."

The outfit includes also a set of color schemes for exterior or interior painting, or both, if you wish, and a book of specifications. No houseowner should make any arrangement for painting till he acts this outfit.

One can't expect a satisfactory painting job without pure white lead. There is a way to make sure you're getting a pure white lead—without testing! See what the key bears National Lead Company's famous Dutch Boy Painter trademark, which is a positive guarantee of purity. Your dealer probably has this white lead. If not let National Lead Company know.

HANDICAPPED

This is the Case With Many Murray People.

Too many Murray citizens are handicapped with a bad back. The unceasing pain causes constant misery, making work a burden and stooping or lifting an impossibility. The back aches at night, preventing refreshing rest and in the morning is stiff and lame. Plasters and liniments may give relief but cannot reach the cause. To eliminate the pains and aches you must cure the kidneys.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys and cure them permanently. Can you doubt Murray evidence?

Mrs. J. M. Johnson, Depot St., Paris, Tenn., says: "Since using Doan's Kidney Pills, I have been entirely free from kidney trouble and in much better health. I had severe pains in my back and sometimes it was almost impossible for me to do my housework. My limbs often pained me dreadfully and though I doctored, I rapidly grew worse until I became so bad that I could scarcely get about. I thought that my kidneys were disordered but had no idea that they were the cause of my trouble. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pill advertised, I concluded to try them and procured a box. I am very grateful to them for the benefit received."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name Doan's and take no other.

JAS. A. PARKER

The Well Known Citizen and Jeweler. Died Last Thursday Afternoon.

Jas. A. Parker, the jeweler, and one of our city's most highly esteemed citizens, passed to his reward last Thursday afternoon about 5 o'clock at his home in North Murray. He had been in declining health for several months, following a severe attack of the grip, while the immediate cause of his death was a complication of stomach and heart trouble.

Mr. Parker was born in Calloway county near the mouth of Blood river in the year of 1843 and was at the time of his death past 65 years of age. He lived on the farm until 1890, when he moved to Murray and engaged in watch repairing, in which business he continued. At the time of his death he was the senior member of the well known firm of Parker & Son, a business built by close application and keen business ability.

In 1877 deceased was married to Miss Martha E. Acree. After her death and in 1892 he was again married to Miss Bettie Minter, who, together with five children, survive him.

In 1862 Mr. Parker enlisted in the Confederate army at this place and was later mustered into service as a member of Co. C, 33rd Tenn. Infantry, and served his enlistment. He was in the battles of Shiloh, Perryville and others and was a brave and fearless soldier.

J. A. Parker was a good citizen, a man of generous impulses, a friend to every one and his death brings genuine sorrow to all who knew him.

Funeral services were held at the home last Friday after which the burial took place in the City Cemetery.

Shoot Each Other.

Mayfield, Ky., May 6.—During a family quarrel May Bynum and Willard Wiley, brothers-in-law, killed each other at Buena Vista, this county, last night. Wiley married Bynum's sister. He went to Bynum's house about 9 o'clock and called him out, and the shooting began. Bynum died at 6:30 this morning and Wiley at 1 o'clock. Both were married. Bynum was 30 years old and Wiley 24.

It was the result of an old feud. Two tragedies were enacted near the Bynum home last year. Wiley was to have been tried at this time of court on charges of shooting.

THE MOTHER'S PROBLEM

Of Raising Strong, Healthy Girls.

A serious problem which presents itself to every mother with girls to raise, in these days. The exigencies of school life, the hurry and routine of every day duties, the artificial environment of modern civilization, make it more difficult to raise strong, healthy girls than ever in the history of the world.

Boys raise themselves. Give them room, give them liberty, and they will grow up healthy at least without much worrying. But the girls present a serious problem.

How many mothers there are who are worrying about their daughters. Nervous, puny girls, with poor, capricious appetites, bloodless, listless, a constant anxiety to the mother. How shall she solve her problem? To whom shall she turn for help? Each case is more or less a study by itself, and cannot be solved by any general rule.

This is the way one mother solved the problem. Mrs. Schopfer, 328 Prescott Ave., St. Louis, Mo., in a letter to Dr. Hartman, says: "My daughter Alice, four years of age, was a puny, sickly, ailing child since she was born. I was always doctoring her. When we commenced to use Peruna she grew strong and well."

Another mother, Mrs. Martha Moss, R. F. D. 5, Chippewa Falls, Wisconsin, says: "My little eight-year-old girl had a bad cough, and was in a general run-down condition. She had several doctors, who could give the child no relief, and the mother no encouragement."

Finally, she got a bottle of Peruna and commenced giving it to the child, and it proved to be just what she needed. When she commenced taking Peruna the child had to be carried. Now the mother says she is playing around all the time.

Her closing words were: "You have done a great deal for her. She is the only girl we have, and it meant lots to us to have her cured."

These are samples of many letters which Dr. Hartman is receiving, coming straight from the hearts of loving mothers. So the different schools of medicine are bickering and differing as to theories and remedies, Peruna goes right steadily on giving permanent relief. After all, it is cures that the people want. Theories are of little account.

Kelsie Kirk Dead.

Kelsie Kirk died last Saturday at the home of his father, Dr. Peter Kirk, on the east side of the county, after a two-months illness. He was a well known young man about 25 years of age. Burial took place Sunday at Palestine.

Farm Progress.

How We Now Feed Land-Which They Abundantly Feeds Us.

THE modern farmer, who has learned the value of his soil and the value of his stock, has learned the value of his feed. He knows that the feed he gives his stock is the feed that will produce the most for him. He knows that the feed he gives his stock is the feed that will produce the most for him. He knows that the feed he gives his stock is the feed that will produce the most for him.

United States than any other nation. The reason is that the feed he gives his stock is the feed that will produce the most for him.

The above facts come from no less an authority than Dr. R. V. Pierce, medical director of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, at Buffalo, N. Y. In his early practice he was a close student of the facts as given above. Having a large practice as a farming doctor, he studied nature's ways and the human system. He hit upon the feed that would make the stomach and bowels work without the use of any other extract, without the use of any other extract, without the use of any other extract.

C.S.S. CURES RHEUMATISM.

Every case of Rheumatism has its origin and its development in the blood. It is not a disease which is contracted like a cold, but it is in the blood and system before a pain is felt, and the changes in the weather or any physical irregularities, such as a spell of indigestion, bowel disturbance, etc., are merely the exciting causes producing the pains and aches, which are the natural symptoms of the disease. Rheumatism is caused by an excess of uric acid and other corrosive, irritating poisons in the blood, which are carried through the circulation to every part of the system. Every muscle, nerve, membrane, tissue and joint becomes saturated with these acids, irritating impurities, or coated with fine, insoluble caustic matter, and the sharp, piercing pains or the dull, stiffened aches are felt with every physical movement. When the blood is filled with uric acid poison, permanent relief cannot be expected from liniments, plasters, or other external treatments. Such measures give temporary relief, but in order to conquer Rheumatism and bring about a complete cure, the uric acid and other inflammatory matter must be expelled, and this cannot be done except by the use of S. S. S. Cures Rheumatism because it is a perfect and entirely vegetable blood purifier. It goes down into the circulation, neutralizes the acids, and dissolves the irritating deposits which are pressing on the sensitive nerves and tissues and producing pain, enriches the weak, sour blood, and removes every atom of impurity from the circulation. No instant relief is given, but a steady, slow, and sure stream of uric acid to the different parts of the system, the blood is strong and healthy and therefore able to supply every muscle, nerve, bone and tissue with nourishment and strength. Then the inflammation and swelling subside, the pains and aches cease, and not only is Rheumatism permanently cured, but under the fine tonic effects of S. S. S. the entire general health is benefited and built up. In all forms of Rheumatism, whether acute or chronic, S. S. S. will be found a safe and reliable treatment. Special book on Rheumatism and any medical advice you desire will be furnished free. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.
