The Listening Post

Eighty years ago yesterday, the good citizens of the town of Fulton, Kentucky, met in the courthouse and elected Frank B. Carter as their mayor. Mayor Carter was a loyal public servant and a true friend of the community. He served Fulton from 1860 to 1868, the first term of his office. During his tenure, he worked tirelessly to improve the town's infrastructure and promote its growth. Mayor Carter was known for his integrity and his commitment to the well-being of the community. His legacy continues to inspire the leaders of Fulton today.

Govt. Says He Hasn't Right To Ban Nazi Goodies

Rep. Harry S. Truman (D-Mo.) yesterday challenged the President's authority to ban Nazi goods in the U.S. The Congressman said that the President has no power to ban any foreign goods, including those from Nazi-occupied countries. The ban was proposed by President Roosevelt to prevent the importation of goods from Nazi-controlled areas.

Strike Of 60 Lasting Day Ties Up 14,600

In Detroit, a strike of 60 hourly workers at the Chrysler Corporation has grounded production of the Chrysler Super series for a day. The workers were demanding a 10-cent an hour raise. The strike has tied up 14,600 workers at the plant.

Sir Oswald Mosley Admits Marriage After Son Born

Sir Oswald Mosley, leader of the British Union of Fascists ( BUF), has admitted that he married a woman in 1931, despite his previous claim that he was married only to a Jewish woman. The admission has caused a scandal in British politics.

Fulton's Weather

A cold front moved through the area last night, bringing temperatures down to 10°F. The snowfall was light, but a strong wind made it feel much colder. The airport recorded a wind gust of 35 mph.

State Income For November Tops

Estimates, Showing Real Upset

The state income for November was above expectations, with real estate transfers topping last year's figures. The figures were attributed to a strong housing market and increased corporate activity.

Suicide Wave Follows Nazi Edicts

In Berlin, a wave of Jewish suicides was reported. The wave was attributed to the anti-Semitic policies of the Nazi regime. The German government has ordered the arrest of all Jewish leaders and has enacted laws that have caused severe hardship for the Jewish community.

Politics

Levi's Aspects Profit-Sharing, Plan A Delusion And A Snare

Chandler:—The industrial profit-sharing plan is a delusion and a snare. The plan is designed to divert the attention of workers from the underlying problems of capital and labor. The plan is a means of exploiting the workers for the benefit of the capitalist class.

The 25th anniversary of the first successful flight by the Wright brothers was celebrated yesterday in Middlesboro and Pine Knot, Kentucky. The commemorations included speeches, parades, and other events.

City News

In Middlesboro and Pine Knot, the city council has approved a budget for the upcoming fiscal year. The budget includes funds for road improvements, public safety, and other essential services.

Legal News

In Middlesboro and Pine Knot, a man was arrested for forgery. The man was accused of signing checks for $1,262.10.

Sports

In Middlesboro and Pine Knot, the local football team won a game against the visiting team from another town. The game was a hard-fought battle, with the local team prevailing by a narrow margin.

World News

Berlin, Germany—In a conference with Western leaders, President Franklin D. Roosevelt has assured the Western nations of the United States' support in the face of German aggression. The conference was attended by representatives from the United States, France, Great Britain, and the Soviet Union.
