"I FIGHTED CRIME WITH MY FISTS]
Honeymoon Mountain
By FRANCES SHELLY WES

CHAPTER I -Continued

When they left home late on the night before they were to leave, their first stop was at a small town. There they tied up their horses and made a fire to cook some food for dinner. They then continued on their way, stopping only to make camps and rest during the day.

When they reached the mountains, they were excited to see the beautiful view. They slept well that night and were up early the next morning to continue their journey.

CHAPTER II

They had planned to spend a few days in the mountains, but after a while, they decided to return to town. They packed up their belongings and started back, enjoying the fresh air and scenery.

They arrived back home late that night, tired but happy. They were eager to tell their friends all about their adventure in the mountains.
