THE LISTENING POST

● I enjoyed looking at German magazine or newspaper the other day which "Dutchman" Eulen had received from the Fatherland. The Dutchman was shamelessly bragging on some of his relatives, and trying to make me say that a certain picture of a man in the magazine looked like him. At that, there was a certain resemblance between the Dutchman we know so well and the picture in the magazine, and rightfully, for the man pictured, Dr. Eulen, is a nephew of our own adopted German citizen.

● The Dutchman told me about this Dr. Eulen, who appears to be some important official in Nazi Germany. I asked him if the Doctor meant he was a medical doctor, and he said that such was not the case. Eph then spoke up and asked him if he meant he was a preacher, vet or professor, and the Dutchman finally said that he was a Phd, or something like that.

● This Dr. Eulen, the nephew of our Dutchman, served in the World War and came out as a lieutenant. He graduated from one of the big universities of Germany and entered government service, and I judge from his seeming popularity, as reflected in the pictures, that he has embraced the Nazi doctrine whole heartedly and with enthusiasm. Since the war he has become the father of ten sons—and I judge that this suits Adolf pretty well, for the German head man wants plenty of men children to provide for his armies. I wished heartily that I had been able to read the text which went with the pictures, but this was beyond me. All German looks like Old English type to me, and I can hardly read this when it is in English. There was no hope for me reading it in German, and even the Dutchman, with about fifty or sixty years in this country behind him, was not at all certain what it was all about. But he did know, and I guess he was right, that Dr. Eulen is quite some man in the Nazi government, and we got along all right until I happened to take a dirty crack at Adolf and then the Dutchman blew up.

● Lots of times I talk to the Dutchman about the old Germany he knew, and my guess is that he still thinks Germany is just as he left it. I think he would find many things he did not like if he should go back there now—but there is never any use in trying to talk a fellow out of the illusions of youth. He firmly believes that Germany is still the same as when he left there so many years ago, only improved, and I can never make him admit that he might be wrong.

● This Dr. Eulen, he told me, was the son of his brother and he added that his brother held about the same rank as what we call a "squire" in this country. He kept telling me the German word for it, which sounded something like Aupmann, and kept saying it meant "squire." I thought he meant square, but after long argument I found that he meant "squire" all the time.

● Well, the Dutchman is a grand old guy. A trifle hard headed, it is true, and inclined to shout a fellow down when he gets into an argument, but all Germans I ever knew are that way. I have given up hope of every convincing him that Adolf is a dangerous man and that finally lead Germany into worse things than the Kaiser did, but in the man we get along pretty well. And he does have a fine looking nephew who looks quite a bit like him.

FDR Believes Cut In Relief Sum A Mistake

Woodrum Insists He Will Ask For Original Estimate

Washington. —President Roosevelt clearly indicated today a belief that Congress made a mistake in whittling $150,000,000 from his January request for $875,000,000 of relief money.

The chief executive told his press conference that his original WPA estimates still held good. But he would not say whether he would insist upon an additional $150,000,000 appropriation in a special message on relief needs which he will send to Congress early next week.

Representative Woodrum (D-Va.), and Senator Adams (D-Colo.), members of sub-committees which handle relief appropriations, predicted that the full $150,000,000 would be requested.

In another development bearing on business, the Securities Commission modified its rules governing short selling on securities exchanges to "provide great freedom of market action." Up to now, a security could be sold short only at a price higher than the last sale price. The new rules allow sales at the same figure as the last transaction, provided that figure "was higher than the last different price which preceded it."

Meantime, a suggestion came from Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich.), that the administration's efforts to encourage business be broadened to include abandonment of scheduled increases in social security taxes.

"The greatest single tax aid which can feature a real business appeasement program is my proposal to freeze payroll taxes for old age pensions under the Social Security Act," he said in a statement. The tax now is 2 per cent to be equally by employers and employees. It is scheduled to increase to 3 per cent next year and to reach 6 per cent by 1948.

Vandenberg said that the 2 per cent tax "has proved to be a very serious burden in countless cases, particularly upon small business. An increase next year could easily force many small businesses out of existence."

Vandenberg said collections under the 2 per cent tax would be adequate to pay benefits on a "pay-as-you-go" basis.

Death Sentence For Slayer Of Eddyville Cellmate Upheld

Frankfort, Ky. — The death sentence of Charles H. Smith, 41, convicted of cutting off the head of Clayton Sloan, a cellmate at Eddyville Penitentiary, after previously having been convicted of killing two other men, was affirmed by the Court of Appeals today.

Smith was sent to Eddyville in 1919 to serve a life sentence for slaying a railroad detective in Ashland, and the 1926 he was convicted of killing another convict named Cunningham and was sentenced to twenty-one years. He escaped from prison in 1928, but was returned in 1931.
Last June 13 he used a butcher knife to hack to death Sloan, a

Pepsi-Cola Plant Will Open In Fulton In April

It is announced that the Pepsi-Cola Bottling Company will open a modern bottling plant in Fulton some time during next month. Paul Clark of Martin, I. W. Little and Smith Atkins of this city, who are now operating a plant in Martin and in several other localities, have leased the Boaz building on Main Street, next to the Livingston Wholesale Grocery, and expect to install brand new machinery during the next few weeks.

Growth of the plant in Martin made it necessary to either increase capacity there or install a new plant here, and it was decided best to open a new plant here. The firm expects to take possession of the building some time before the middle of April, and the machinery will then be installed.

State Spends 17 Millions In Eight Months

Frankfort, Ky. —Actual expenditures of the State's general fund for the eight month fiscal period ended February 28 were $17,444,041.30, Controller Frank D. Peterson reported today.

Revenue receipts were listed as $16,633,306.63, leaving an apparent operating deficit for the period of $810,734.67.

Actual expenditures of the road fund were reported as $19,484,559.17 for the fund's eleven-month fiscal period ended February 28.

This indicated, when compared to revenue totaling $16,737,889.14, an operating deficit of $2,746,670.03 for the eleven months.

Road Fund Called Balanced
Peterson's report said, however, "the highway road fund is in balance and the department will operate the fiscal year on a balanced budget."

"At the close of business March 2, 1939, with practically all of the salaries of the various divisions, utility and traveling expense items already encumbered, there was an unencumbered balance in the highway fund budget of $556,434.67, which will be sufficient to take care of current purchases necessary for the month of March."

"Unless something unforeseen happens, a small balance of possibly $100,000 of the current year budget will be unobligated."

Audience Of More Than Thousand Applauds Lions Club Annual Show

Before a cheering and applauding audience of more than 1,000 persons the Lions Club annual Jubilee Minstrels scored a smashing success last night at Science Hall. With all net proceeds going into the fund to provide free lunches for underprivileged children at the school cafeteria, the people of Fulton responded liberally to the sale of tickets and the minstrel cast rewarded this loyalty by one of the best home talent shows ever given in this city. It is hoped that a final checkup may turn in approximately two hundred dollars for the lunch fund.

The show was directed by Mrs. Martin Nall, and the performance reflected credit on her and also revealed the many hours of hard practice that had been given. It would be pointless to try to pick out the stars, for every member of the show turned in a stellar performance. All seemed inspired by the tremendous crowd, and jokes, wisecracks and songs went over in professional manner. It might fairly be said that the Hillbilly Band perhaps made the biggest hit, but there were many numbers which caught the fancy of the crowd and encores were numerous. Yewell Harrison, with his sax, almost stopped the show and had to come back for a couple of encores. Tilman Adams, accidentally left off the program, made a big hit with the crowd, but it is needless to go on, for every member of the cast scored a hit at one time or another.

The high school band gave a concert prior to the show and also played at the intermission.

The Lions Club wishes to thank the people of Fulton for their loyal support of the show, and already plans are being talked for an ever bigger and better show next year. This was the second of these annual affairs.

MEDADE-BOWERS

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Bowers announce the marriage of their daughter, Irene, to James McDade which occurred last night at 7:15 o'clock in the Baptist Parsonage with the pastor, Rev. Woodrow Fuller, officiating. Their attendants were Mrs. John Daniels, sister of the bride, and Bruce Henderson. Only members of the immediate families were present.

Mrs. McDade, a lovely blonde, wore an untrimmed suit of blue with black accessories and her shoulder corsage was of roses. She is a graduate of Fulton High School, having graduated in the class of 1937, and for the past several months has been employed at Baldridge's Store.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. P. McDade, and is also a graduate of Fulton High School. He is now employed with the C & G Distributing Company.

Old Time Race Among Packets Is Proposed

Memphis, Tenn. —A revival of former days when river packets raced up and down the Mississippi was in prospect today.

Veteran steamboaters are studying a challenge from Gov. Culbert Olson of California, who proposes that an "oldtime" race be held simultaneously on the Mississippi, Ohio and Hudson Rivers and the San Joaquin River in California. The race would be made against time and over a charted course April 22.

The California's challenge was addressed to Tennessee's Governor Prentice Cooper, Mayor Watkins Overton of Memphis and the local Chamber of Commerce.

Kern Says Line Loses Money On Passenger Runs

Princeton, Ky. —J. W. Kern, Paducah, superintendent of the Kentucky division of the Illinois Central System, testified at a state railroad commission hearing today that passenger traffic in this section has shifted from railroads to automobiles.

Mr. Kern was the first witness to testify at the hearing of the railroad's petition to discontinue passenger service between Hopkinsville and Henderson. Commission Chairman Robert Webb presided over the hearing, which will be continued tomorrow at Morganfield.

Approximately 200 Princeton residents, together with delegations from Hopkinsville, Sturgis and Morganfield, were present to protest the petition. The hearing was held in the Butler high school auditorium.

Mr. Kern said that the Illinois Central has been losing $17,000 annually on the Hopkinsville-Henderson line. Attorneys for protesting parties charged that this loss was due to bookkeeping and not to lack of passengers.

LEADER MAY BE SHORT PRINTER AT AN EARLY DATE

Unknown parties, of at least no arrests have been made yet, entered the smoke house of John and James Dawes, well-known farmers living west of the city last night and took all the hams and shoulders that could be found. The brothers were in the Leader office this morning checking up on the matter, for their brother, Eph, is employed here, and some time ago he was called on to do the feeding while his brothers were ill of flu, whether they suspected anything or not is not known, but the publisher might say that only yesterday Eph was threatening to entertain the Leader force with a country ham dinner.

This information is offered for whatever it may be worth.

Senator Harrison Defends Reciprocal Trade Treaty

Washington — Developments today thrust forward Senator Harrison of Mississippi, arch-opponent of Roosevelt recovery spending, as leading defender of the Roosevelt-Hull reciprocal trade policy.

An imposing new onslaught on the trade agreement system through attempted riders to tax bills, applying, in this instance, increased duties on vegetables and animal oils and fats, has roused the chairman of the Senate Finance Committee to militant support of the White House and State Department.

It was brought out that President Roosevelt and Senator Harrison discussed at their tax conference yesterday means of resisting proposals by Senators Connally of Texas, Bailey of North Carolina and Gillette of Iowa which the State Department holds would destroy its efforts to build up better international relations through reciprocal treaties.

While the President and Harrison are at odds on spending for recovery, they found themselves in complete agreement on this subject. The Mississippi Senator even proposed to lead the fight to beat down the pressure of one of the most resourceful lobbies Washington has known—one which relies on the support of such agricultural interests as the cotton growers, livestock raisers and dairy interests.

Alarm of the State Department already expressed in hearings before the Senate Finance Committee, is in part based upon the conflict of the proposed excise import taxes, which really would raise certain tariffs, with trade arrangements with the United Kingdom, Canada, Brazil and other nations. Anxiety is increased further by the reliance the Government places upon improved trade relations as a means of compensating international discord.

Kenton Judge Swaps Insults With Governor

Gambling Controversy Develops Into Exchange Of Charges

Covington, Ky. —"Charges of 'politics' were exchanged today by Circuit Judge Johnst Northcutt and Gov. A. B. Chandler as the jurist recessed a grand jury investigation of gambling in Kenton county and indirectly injected the name of Senate Majority Leader Alben W. Barkley into the controversy.

Northcutt yesterday declared he had vainly "appealed from the Governor on down" for state aid in an anti-gambling drive, and Chandler today replied with a suggestion that Northcutt "quit trying to alibi and run his own business."

"I'm sorry," Chandler added, "that the Judge wants to take advantage of a situation created by his own failure, to try and get himself some political advertisement."

Recalling—as Northcutt did—a conference in Covington two years ago, the Governor said the jurist "came to city hall to get into a picture the newspapers were taking of my party. He was cut out of the picture and he's sore about that."

Retorted Northcutt: "I'd rather have my picture taken digging a corpse out of a grave! The Governor said something about the intelligence of the people of Kenton county. I agree with him. I remember how they voted in the (August) primary."

SCOUT NEWS—TROOP NO. 43

The meeting was held Thursday night with an attendance of thirty-nine scouts. The meeting was opened with the Flag pledge and three boys joined. They were Neal Holly, Bill Johnson and William Russell Humphrey.

Many tests were passed and more were on the waiting list. Knife and hatchet was passed by Jerry Jones, Tolbert Dallas and Jack McKinnon. Fire building was passed by John Hornsby, Joe Stephens, Harold Grissom and Bill Johnson. Three ten-foot tests were passed by Thomas Pickle, Joe Stephen and Hershel Hawkins. Bill Hagen finished his First Aid and Bill Parton passed compass Virgil King passed thrift. A boy who would rather his name not appear here passed Compass, Safety, Thrift and Knife and Hatchet.

The reason for so many tests being passed is because a board of review will be held soon and the scouts wish to be ready before it for their second class advancement.

Printing News, Not Making It

There is a type of reader who accuses his newspaper if the weather forecast furnished to it by Uncle Sam happens to be wrong.

He also blames the press for keeping up war jitters when it prints a White House statement to the effect that the European situation is so critical that it may curtail the president's visit to the fleet.

But perhaps the most frequent complaint has to do with the dictatorship vs. democracy conflict in Europe. As an example a speaker on a "forum" radio program . . . lauded the generous and friendly traits he had found in the German people and condemned American newspapers for existing friction and "misunderstanding."

The speaker represents an interesting and praiseworthy effort to improve international understanding by the exchange of students between countries with an opportunity to live in typical homes during vacation periods. An American group is taken each summer to France, Germany, Sweden and other countries and some of the young people from those lands are brought here. In making these arrangements, the Germans have been cooperative and have made their young visitors welcome.

But what does that prove as to Nazi Germany? That there are fine Germans nobody disputes. Of course there are estimable German homes, generous and interesting people. But national policies are not a matter of individuals in a dictator nation. One may like and admire many Germans and at the same time detest a government which destroys liberty, persecutes the weak and threatens the world peace.

There are admirable Japanese but that does change the fact that the rape of Nanking shocked decent men and women the world over.

Does anyone question that Hitler forced the world to the brink of war last September or that his followers brought back the pogrom in all its hideous cruelty last November? Should American newspapers have suppressed the facts from their readers. We do not think so. Informed public opinion is essential to the successful functioning of democracy. To have minimized or hidden these developments would have been a gross betrayal of trust.

If Italy starts new war fears by demands for French territory is that something which should be kept from Americans? Should facts as to airplane and naval construction programs be concealed from the public? Not so long as democracy is a living force.

There has been no jingoism, no war mongering. But to say that facts should be hidden or delibe-ately distorted to prevent emotional reactions is to confess disbelief in the wisdom and process of democracy itself.

The blame rests with those who make the news. The duty of reporting it fairly, accurately and in mains unchanged. —Exchange.

Mickey Rooney In "Adventures Of Huckleberry Finn" Opens At Fulton Sunday

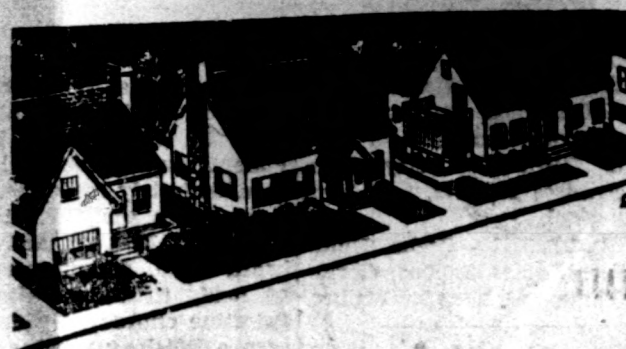

The river Mark Twain traveled years ago when he wrote "The Jumping Frog of Calaveras County", which first started him toward fame as a writer, served as the locale of another story, rich in Twain's own experiences as a boy on the Mississippi. For along the Sacramento River steamboats played, and the dash for freedom of Huck and his negro friend, Jim, was enacted for "The Adventures of HUCKLEBERRY FINN", filmed as Mickey Rooney's first solo starring picture, and coming Sunday to the Fulton Theatre.

As the redoubtable Huckleberry,

Mickey was in some measure playing Mark Twain as a boy. Twain (then known as Samuel Langhorne Clemens) was the indolent, dreaming boy who fished along the Mississippi and gathered river and Negro lore in the days before the Civil War. The character played by Mickey is from the author's own description.

Twain, the pen name for Clemens, was born at Florida, Missouri, in 1836, and passed his boyhood at Hannibal. His father, known as "The Judge," was a small storekeeper and lawyer. It was during this period, when the boy knew and loved the river, that the character of Huckleberry Finn existed before the boy grew up to be a brilliant journalist, then novelist.

WHEN ETERNAL PEACE COMES

"Our is a bewildered world. We talk peace, but prepared for sudden war. We profess love but indulge in hate. We hold disarmament conferences but increase our implements of destruction. We theorize on the kingdom of peace but enthrone the God of war. We preach democracy but establish dictatorship. Indeed ours has become a world of paradoxes. The open contradictions and confusion on every hand have destroyed confidence first in man toward man, and secondly, in man toward God," declared Evangelist Esquilla at the Seventh-Day Church.

"The return of Jesus will mark the dawn of a new day. It will bring in the long looked for reign of peace and good will among men. Never again shall oppression hold sway. Never again shall class or race or nation wage war. But the kingdom and dominion and the greatness of the kingdom under the whole heaven shall be given to the people of the Saints of the most High, whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey Him."

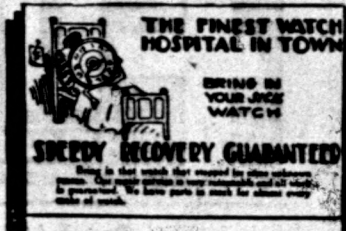

Last night Mr. Esquilla spoke on "The Bible Scholars World-Wide Search for the Missing Text."

Sunday night, "A Striking Question The Catholic Church is Asking the Protestant Churches—And Then remain Silent."

Wednesday night, "Where Are the Dead?"

Friday night, "Hell! Where and What Is It?"

The crowds are increasing night by night. Come early for a seat.

CHARACTER BUILDERS ENJOY POT-LUCK SUPPER

The Character Builders Sunday School class of the First Methodist Church gathered at the church Thursday night and enjoyed a bountiful supper in the basement. The supper was a pot-luck affair, each member having brought a covered dish.

Forty members of the class were present and after the supper the remainder of the evening was spent in an old fashioned dressing contest. Each member of the class was given the old fashioned outfit, including tightly fitting dress, high top shoes, button-up gloves, bracelets, umbrella, etc., and all this was to be donned in as little time as possible. Over the forty contestants, this hilarious contest was won by Mrs. L. P. Carney who was fully attired in the gay-ninety outfit in one minute and 33 seconds.

At the end of the contest, the group departed, all eagerly looking forward to the next of these class parties.

Make Driving a Pleasure --

Your car was designed to make driving a pleasure. Perhaps it has been neglected or improperly repaired at one time or another. If so, with our present "Bear" Equipment, we can make your car again operate like it did when it was new. Our shop is now completely equipped with the "Bear" equipment and all we need is a trial to prove that we can back up these statements.

DON'T FIGHT Your Steering Wheel

YOU can't win the decision over a steering wheel that shakes and pulls out of your hands. You don't have an even chance with a car that steers hard. It wears you out soon after the first round and leaves plenty of openings for accidents and fatigue to get in a knockout blow.

If your car shimmies, wanders, steers hard or wears tires excessively then there's something wrong with your alignment. Don't sacrifice your safety and comfort with such conditions. Drive into our station tomorrow. We have complete Bear System Alignment Equipment which fixes every misaligned condition of steering, axles and frame. Let us give you a free check-up. No obligation on your part. Have your wheels Bear-aligned.
