CENTENNIAL

Of the Disciples of Christ Will be Observed October 11 19th. at Pittsburg.

Sept. 7th, 1889 a pamphlet of 67 pages was published at Washington, Pa., under the title of "A Declaration and Address." The Seceder Presbyterian Minister who wrote it was an Irish immigrant of marked scholarship, piety and grace, whose name, Thomas Campbell, indicates that before he was an Irishman he was a Scotchman. It was a plea for the reunion of all churches by a return to the doctrine, ordinances and life of the Apostolic church. It called for the abolition of all creeds and confessions of faith as tests of fellowship and the reinstatement of the Word of God, and particularly the scriptures of the New Testament, as the united churches' rule of faith and practice. It had for the renouement of all human leadership and the exaltation of Christ as the one head of the church. It breathed the kindest spirit of Christian fellowship, and was manifestly inspired by a yearning for peace and unity in the family of God. As well as by loyalty to Christ. Shortly before this date and soon after it other leaders in different churches and in various parts of the new world took the same position. As fast as these became acquainted they united in the common cause. Alexander Campbell, the son of Thomas, was soon recognized as their foremost champion. There is no general ecclesiastical organization, but great vigor in local church activity and missionary endeavor. A million and a half dollars was devoted last year to missions, benevolence and education. They expect to increase these offerings to two millions this year. Easter is generally observed by offerings for the support of orphanages both at home and on the mission fields. Their 11,000 churches, in whose fellowship a million and a quarter members are now living, are variously known as Churches of Christ, Christian Churches or Disciples. The Centennial is being celebrated by a far-reaching campaign of betterment in all departments of Christian life and service. The culmination of the celebration will be a great Convention in Pittsburg, Oct. 11-19, 1909. Fifty thousand delegates are expected to attend. It will be the greatest religious gathering of the century, not only in the number of persons present, and the splendid achievements reported, but especially in its testimony for liberty, unity and loyalty in the Church of Christ universal. One of the monumental features of the celebration will be the exhibition of the entire membership roll of a million and a quarter names which will be perpetually preserved both in a brotherhood depository, and in the Library of Congress at Washington.

On Nov. 26, 1866 the death angel came into the home of Mr. and Mrs. Grafton Hendricks, of near Mayfield, Ky., and took away their darling little girl, "Pattie." She was born July 1, 1865 and died at the age of 3 years, 4 months and 19 days. Her parents lived at Dexter, Calloway county, Ky., until Oct. 6, 1867, where the golden-haired little girl was widely known as "little Pattie Hendricks." She was their first born and had the most efficient training for a girl of her age.

Intellect to make her an unusually bright and beautiful child. On moving to Graves county only a short while before her death, she had her many friends "bye," telling them she was going away to die and would never come back, although she was in perfect health. She was sick only a few hours and her death came as a shock to all who knew her. Her sweet, gentle nature and prattling little words of love broadened her circle of friends wherever she went. She was the idol of her young fathers heart, the sunshine of his life and always happy in his company. She was also very devoted to her mother as well as sympathetic and kind. Little Pattie seemed to have been warned of her death and with questioning eyes and words asked her mamma if she was going to be died and go to Heaven. God in his infinite wisdom knows what is best for his children, and while it seemed such a sad sacrifice to give up "little Pattie," Jesus knew best, and when she went away the bitter anguish seemed more than papa and mamma could bear. But we must submit to the will of Him who doth all things well, remember He has said: "Blessed are they that mourn, for they shall be comforted." Grieve not, dear hearts; your darling is safe in the arms of Jesus, awaiting our coming; and only tomorrow you meet again to part no more. There will be no pain, no aching hearts and hearts. Her little form is laid away here in its quiet resting place. She knows no suffering, all in love and peace and her little words of comfort and love to papa, mamma and "bitty sister" are changed to song, and with the angels she sings "round the throne of Heaven and awaits the coming of her loved ones. O Father, bind up the broken hearts with a balm of thy love, be the prayer of thy humble servant MRS. W. A. RAPPOLLEE.

Killed While At Phone Talking.

Lightning struck a telephone wire at Sharpe, Marshall county, Saturday night, killing Prof. Samuel B. Phelps, who was conversing over the phone with a young lady friend. He died instantly while the young lady escaped uninjured. She was surprised when Phelps' voice ceased and only learned of his death several hours later. Phelps was 26 years old and principal of a public school at Albion, Okla. He recently came to his home at Sharpe to spend the summer with his mother, Mrs. Martha Phelps, widow of Samuel Phelps, Sr. He was a very intellectual young man and had many friends.

Professor Phelps was to have been married to Miss Pearl Roper, of Fulton, this summer. The wedding was to have taken place early this month, but was postponed until a later date owing to the illness of his mother. The exact date is unknown. A telegram was sent to Miss Roper but she arrived too late to attend the funeral. She was overcome with grief. After the wedding she was to have accompanied him back to Albion, Okla., to assist him in his school.

The funeral was held Sunday afternoon and attended by fully 1,000 people. Rev. D. W. Fooks, pastor of the Cumberland Presbyterian church of Paducah, officiated. The burial was at the Story cemetery.

Over Thirty-five Years.

In 1892 there was a great deal of diarrhea, dysentery and cholera infantum. It was at this time that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was first brought into use. It proved more successful than any other remedy or treatment, and has for thirty-five years maintained that record. From a small beginning its use and use has continued to extend to every part of the United States and to many foreign countries. Nine druggists out of ten will recommend it when their opinion is asked, although they have other medicines that pay them a greater profit. It can always be depended upon, even in the most severe and dangerous cases. For sale by Dole & Stubblefield.

Proposed Line of Cumberland Gap R. R. Passes North of Murray Several Miles.

From talk with people in the various sections of the Purchase counties, says the Paducah News-Democrat, through which the Cumberland Gap road is expected to run, there appears little doubt that the route is virtually located. It will pass through or near Bardwell, in Carlisle county; take in Milburn, same county; thence along the old Wadesboro and Columbus road to Mayfield, having an almost due east course from Bardwell. The line will pass into Calloway county, crossing the west fork of Clark's river about nine miles east of Mayfield, will strike old Wadesboro, en route, crossing the N. C. & St. track about midway between Hardin and Dexter. It will hardly touch Marshall county unless the location may be made to Vulton Creek neighborhood, a bridge the Tennessee river at Aurora, which is 45 miles above Paducah and a short distance north of the Calloway and Marshall lines, where the route proposed years ago is to be adhered to mostly, which will take the road through Cadiz, in Trigg county, through Hopkinsville, try and have one of the best schools we have ever had. Love at first sight is not confined to youth, judging by the swift romance of a romance that culminated recently in Watsonville, Cal., with the marriage of Emma Higbee, aged 60, and David J. Kemp, aged 72.

The couple having accomplished their whole courtship, from introduction to housekeeping, in less than 24 hours. The bride, who belonged to Terre Haute, Ind., arrived in Watsonville to pay a visit to friends. One of the first persons introduced to her was the bridegroom, who is a wealthy fruit planter. Kemp was greatly impressed with the charms of the visitor. With an impetuosity unusual in a man of seventy odd years, at least in affairs of the heart, he began his wooing without delay, and such was his ardor and eloquence that before the evening ended Miss Higbee had agreed to become his wife. REDS WILL TRAIL CZAR ON HIS VISIT

ASSASSINATION OF SWEDISH-AMERICAN TILLERY CHIEF BEGINNING OF DEMONSTRATION.

OFFICIALS TO BE ATTACKED

Russians Directing Unions in Europe, and Feeling Grows Against Czar Nicholas—Slayer Designated By Lottery.

London, June 29.—The assassination of Stockholm, Hjalmar, chief of the Swedish coast artillery, is considered today the beginning of an anarchist demonstration which will continue in the nations throughout Europe to be visited by the Czar of Russia.

Secret service agents of the Swedish government have announced that established beyond a doubt the demonstration of the European anarchists to make the czar's visit coincidental with anarchist demonstrations in the countries through which he travels.

Slayer Designated by Lottery.

Following the suicide of the assassin of Gen. Beckman, who died yesterday of wounds inflicted after he shot the coast artillery chief Saturday, and wounded Sergt. Lavender, the police discovered his death was the prescribed end of a lottery which ended in the choosing by lottery of the man to do the killing.

Through their discoveries the police have established that anarchists in Sweden, France, England, Italy, and Turkey have been preparing for months for the czar's visit, with the purpose of attacking officials in the countries he visits.

Agents of the Russian secret service, which has been aroused by the discovery, are hurrying along the route which the czar will take to assist the local authorities in apprehending suspects. They are particularly looking for Russian anarchists who are understood to be directing their union activities.

English Oppose Visit from Czar.

As the time for the czar's arrival draws nearer, public feeling against him increases. It generally is believed that the czar's visit will be a protest against his presence in England. It is reported from St. Petersburg that the czar and the Russian royal children will not accompany the czar, but will remain at Leningrad. This is because of the poor health of the czar, but it is really caused by the danger which now appears certain to attend the trip.

SON HAS "BLUES" OVER SEPARATION FROM FAMILY.

George A. Gurney Shoots Self After Wounding Sister-in-Law and Slaying Father.

Quincy, Ill., June 29.—Medical training surmounting every other impulse, Dr. Beneca Gurney, 79 years old, has turned to the aid of his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Beneca Gurney, after she was shot twice and probably fatally wounded by her brother-in-law, George A. Gurney, and was himself slain by his son. The son then turned the revolver against himself and fired a bullet into his brain.

In a fit of "the blues," George A. Gurney, who resided in New Orleans, called his sister-in-law to his room Monday. Knowing the man was grieving over his separation from his family, the woman hastened to him as a comforter.

"What is it, George?" she asked, entering.

Gurney's revolver cracked sharply twice. Mrs. Gurney fell to the floor, one bullet in her cheek and another in her neck.

Hearing the shots, Dr. Gurney ran to his daughter-in-law. He saw his daughter-in-law prostrate and dying. He dropped to his knees beside her, and, ignoring the revolver in his son's hand, grasped the woman's wrist.

Again the pistol barked. The woman's head was struck over the forehead of the woman, dead, with a bullet through her brain.

Once more a bullet sped from the muzzle. The partridge crumpled to the floor. He was dead.

Gurney for three years had been a foreman for the Black & Laird Construction company of New Orleans. A short time ago his wife left him, taking with her their two sons. They are living on a farm in Oklahoma. Not long before the separation, their daughter died. Gurney became ill through worry. He came here three months ago to visit his father, thinking to forget his troubles and recuperate his health.

Dr. Gurney came here five years ago from Palmer, Kan.

The fight took place in total darkness in the middle of the night when the three men were the only ones on the mountain top. The two young men say Robinson attacked them because they refused him, and they attacked him in self defense. Robinson is still unconscious, and his version of the encounter is not known.

LAME BOB MADE FORTUNE FOR HER

MRS. WOODILL TIRED OF BANKRUPT BROKER'S DEMANDS FOR MONEY, IS BELIEF.

THREATENED TO EXPOSE HIM

Eastman Blew Gage's Ward on Hear- In Her Ultimatum to Request For Loans—Letter Based On Hatred.

St. Michaels, Md., June 29.—The sham of that light that ultimately illuminates most tragicomic is beginning to show in the mysterious killing of Mrs. Edith May Woodhill by Robert Emmett Eastman and but further substantiates today that Eastman killed the girl on hearing from her lips that she intended disclosing his identity as a fugitive from justice.

Coupled with what already is known, the case now involves these theories:

That Edith Woodhill had known "Lame Bob" Eastman in New York, where, as a stock broker, he had involved some money for her and was for her a small fortune.

That they continued to be friendly, and when Eastman jumped bail he went to Los Angeles, where she was living, with her husband, and asked her to help him.

That she did help him with money, and finally suggested that for a man who was trying to hide from justice no better place could be found than St. Michaels.

That he went there and she followed and loaned him money when he found an out.

That his outwardly for money finally became a demand for the return of his money, and that the story of his financial ruin was a demand for the return of his money.

That when she refused his demand for the return of his money, he decided that he had made her a fortune, and that finally, when she refused his demand, he became violent.

That the purpose of his coming to St. Michaels was to get his money back, and that when he failed, he decided to kill her.

That he might not get his money back, but that when he failed, he decided to kill her.

That when he failed, he decided to kill her.

Gov. Willson Hoaxed

Fake Message of Jail Delivery and Lying of Negro Calls Out Troops.

Frankfort, Ky., June 29.—Kentucky is in a state of alarm because of a fake message of jail delivery and lying of negro calls out troops.

A negro, apparently much agitated, rushed to the mansion shortly before midnight, told the governor he had seen the sheriff take Will Taylor, a negro, into the jail here, and that a woman had intercepted a message over the telephone stating that a mob was on the way from Glasgow, Ky., to get the negro and lynch him.

As he is accused of attempted criminal assault, Gov. Willson took no time to inquire if the story was true, but perforce ordered the company of troops from Lexington to hasten here, and dragged Mayor Hume out of his bed at his country home, commanding him to throw a squad of police around the jail.

This Mayor Hume did, but as there was no sign of a mob after a few minutes, the troops were ordered to return to their quarters.

Mayor Hume, who is a justice of the peace, and who was still in bed at 6 o'clock, was not at all excited by the story, but was over there and thought he was not the richest dancer of a mob.

The thrup of the street car traffic is complete. Since the striking employees walked out at 5 a. m. Sunday not a passenger has been carried on the entire system, and an official of the company announced that no attempt would be made to operate any cars Monday.

Preparatory to bringing strikebreakers to Pittsburgh, the railway company is placing bunks in all of its car barns, and has served notice on Sheriff Gumbert and every peace officer in the country that it will demand protection for its cars and other property.

Conferences Are Fruitless.

Several fruitless conferences were held between the traction officials and leaders of the striking employees. Americans Are Laugh-Making Race

By WILLIAM COLLIER

Making laughs is part of his daily occupation; it makes trade brisker for him, it discovers the real meat of life and betrays the counterfeit. There is no age in a country that makes a common exchange of laughter; the ordinary course of business. How can a man grow old in a country where all are "boys" together, who can't help themselves. It is not exactly the word that best makes the American laugh so much as the boast there is in the laugh that is made in it. The Americans laugh with each other, not at each other; that is only the comic germ in this country, and is the busiest microbe we have. It carries our serious, our financial burdens, our family troubles, our failures and our ambitions for us. We are proud of our comic germ, because it does such a heap of work for us that we could never do in any other way.

The Migration Into Canada

By AGNES C. LAUT

Average American income's capital at $1,000 and the American holdings of Canada in the last six years represents in hard cash investment of a billion dollars. From what I say in a couple of months' tour of Canada, first by canoe, I find miles among the waters the frontier became the political, then to rail twice across the continent I have no hesitation in saying that a billion-dollar average is the small part.

Gone But Not Forgotten.

Death! oh that bitter death. Deaths' angel visited the home of J. L. and C. M. Morris and took the only little sunbeam that we had, little Lillian Rama born Jan. 19, 1907, departed this life Oct. 16, 1908, aged one year, 10 months and 4 days. Little Rama was a sweet baby, to know her was to love her. Friends will say to us, "grieve not, mamma and papa for your darling. God will care for your angel." Oh, to think that never more can we look into the beautiful black eyes of our darling and nevermore hear those precious words as they would call mamma, and papa, but God will listen to them, darling, and oh, that He will guide our weary footsteps that when again we hear our darling's voice call mamma and papa we can go to our baby in that beautiful home to be parted no more. It was so hard to submit to our savior's call but it must be done. He gave our treasured one to us and it was He that took her away and we must say, "His will, not ours, be done." Our darling's life was short, but she stayed long enough that she had gained every spark of love that a fond mamma's and papa's heart could hold for their darling baby, and oh, how our hearts did break with sorrow when the time came for us to say "good-bye" and give up our darling. When the time comes for us to be laid by the side of our angel in the silent grave to sleep where she is now sleeping, we hope to clasp our darling little Rama to our bosom and rest in peace, sweet peace, forevermore. We do not feel that our darling is dead, but only sleeping. The glad and bright sunlight has drifted from our home and all now is dark where once it was so bright. No little Rama to wait and watch for papa to come home. No little one to meet him at the door, no darling babe for mamma to press to her heart and to follow those precious feet wherever they might go, no sweet dark eyes to look up into mine, that can no longer sometime hear that sweet voice call for mamma and papa and then, dear Saviour, can't we be with our darling angel forevermore.

A precious one from us has gone. A voice we loved is still. A place is vacant in our home That never can be filled. Sleep our child, in peace and rest. God called you home. He thought it best. God needed one more to complete his band. He smiled on our darling and clasped her hand. He needed one more around the white throne. He called on our darling and now she has gone. Sleep, darling angel, sleep, while for you mamma and papa weep for their baby gone before. Soon may we meet to part no more.

Written by one that loved her best.
HER MAMMA.

Name to Be Changed.

Today the government bureau of entomology suggests that the name of the housefly be changed to "typhoid fly," because of the tremendous energy it displays in distributing germs or typhoid fever, like the mosquito with its accompanying malaria and yellow fever.

The health department of the city of New York attributes one-half of the deaths in that city to germs distributed by flies, and estimates that the deaths from bowel complaints among children could be reduced there from 7,000 to 2,000 per year if the carrying of disease by that insect could be prevented. This department's microscopic examinations of flies caught in various sections of the city during the months of July and August of 1907 revealed an average of 1,222,750 bacteria to each of these sickness and death-distributing insects. The state board of health of Florida has recently caused to be sent broadcast over that state, for prominent posting, poster illustrations of the fly speeding from stable, outhouse, garbage can and other holders of filth and breeders of pestilence, with its load of putrefaction, direct to the food in the kitchen or on the table, to the water for drinking and to the cream for the coffee or the milk for the baby.

Screen your doors and windows securely against this pest. Have conveniently at hand in safe places, for the pests that sneak through, well-arranged and distributed fly poisons. Then your home may be kept secure against these annoying and murderous things of six legs and millions of bacteria. You will not then take into your stomach, as you eat or drink, the typhoid, the cholera, the bowel complaint or any of the other troubles, not excepting the typhoid, that are being so industriously distributed by these little demons at the rate of a "speck" each every five minutes in addition to the loads on their bodies and legs. That annoying fly that trails its pestilential deposits over your butter and bread and meat, and that finally sinks into the milk or cream to drop a few hundreds of thousands of these bacteria, may have just flown to you from the feculence of typhoid deposits or of consumption. To the Tax Payers of Calloway County.

GENTLEMEN: The Tax Books are now ready for you to pay your 1908 taxes. And as I have gotten my books about one month late the County and State obligations are pushing me. Now this is the last year of my term and I will be compelled to settle in full so don't ask me to wait for I will not do it. I am going right after the taxes so if you want to save cost you had better come in and settle while you have got the money. Most of the tobacco is out of the hands of the farmer and you have got all or a part of value; hence no excuse for any man who has either sold or delivered any part of his tobacco to the association. Now a hint to the wise is sufficient, I shall go to levying for these taxes this fall. So don't take any chances but come now and pay these taxes for they are higher this year than every before and we are going right after them.

S.S.S. FOR S.S.S. BAD BLOOD

The most important part of the human system is the blood. Every muscle, nerve, tissue, bone and artery is dependent on this vital fluid for nourishment and strength necessary to maintain them in health and enable each to perform the different duties nature requires. Even the heart, the very "engine" of life, receives its vigor and motive power from the blood. Since so much is dependent on this vital fluid it can very readily be seen how necessary it is to have it pure and uncontaminated. If we would enjoy the blessing of good health, had blood is responsible for most of the ailments of mankind, when from any cause it becomes infected with impurities, humors or poisons, disease in some form is sure to follow. Muddy, sallow complexion, eruptions, pimples, etc., show that the blood is infected with unhealthy humors which have changed it from a pure, fresh stream to a sour, acid fluid, which forces out its impurities through the pores and glands of the skin. A very common evidence of bad blood is sores or ulcers, which break out on the face, often from a very insignificant bruise or even scratch or abrasion. If the blood was pure and healthy the place would heal at once, but being loaded with impurities, which are discharged into the wound, irritation and inflammation are set up and the sore continues. Bad blood is also responsible for Anemia, Leukemia, Malaria, etc., the weak, polluted circulation cannot furnish the nourishment and strength required to sustain the body, and a general run-down condition of health results. S. S. S. is nature's blood purifier and tonic; made entirely of healing, cleansing roots and herbs. It goes down into the circulation and removes every particle of impurity, humor or poison that may be there, restores lost vitality, and steadily tones up the entire system. It adds to the blood the healthful properties it is in need of, and in every way assists in the cure of disease. S. S. S. neutralizes any excess of acid in the blood, making it fresh and pure, and permanently cures Eczema, Acne, Tetter, and all other skin diseases and eruptions. S. S. S. cures Rheumatism, Catarrh, Sores and Ulcers, Malaria, and all other diseases or disorders arising from bad blood. Book on the Blood and any medical advice desired free to all who write.
