FULTON, KENTUCKY, FRIDAY, MAY 8, 1936

NUMBER SIXTEEN

COUNCIL HELD MAY MEETING MON. NIGHT

The mayor and council of Fulton met Monday night in regular session at the City Hall, with all members of the administration present. Minutes of the last meeting were read by Mrs. Mary Chapman, Clerk and approved.

The Garden Department of the Woman's Club had a committee of six women present, who asked the council to enforce ordinances that help keep the city clean. Mrs. V. H. Hardin and Mrs. J. E. Fall spoke on the subject and stated that the cooperation of the city was needed in carrying out the City Beautification project which is being sponsored by the Woman's Club.

Mrs. Hardin asked the cooperation of the council in keeping the streets and alleys clear of paper and rubbish, and urged that the city ordinance pertaining to the burning of trash be amended, and provide that rubbish be burned in containers or incinerators. She also pointed out that the time should be changed for the city garbage wagon to pick up refuse, in order that the merchants have more time to dispose of their trash, and deposit it in the full co-operation of the city.

Distribution of handbills in the business area was discussed, as this was believed to be responsible for much loose paper on the streets. An ordinance was passed prohibiting distribution of circular in the business section.

The committee from the Garden Department urged that the council and in protection of the shrubs and flowers planted under the NVA project in connection with the city beautification program it was that the income of the spots where flowers had been planted, people were parking their cars and destroying the foliage.

Mrs. J. E. Fall urged that the council have that section of Washington street between Main and Walnut streets, paved under a WPA project. A survey is planned, and a project will be submitted to the NVA. She stated before the council and urged that Church street be widened between Main and State Line. He pointed out that traffic congestion was becoming worse in this section, and that permanent changes were needed on the east side of the street.

Decorative Day this year will be Sunday, May 17. It has been chosen because it is believed that more flowers will be in bloom at this period. Mayor DeMyer also set the week of May 10th as Clean-Up Week.

Joe Davis asked the city to donate $25 toward maintaining a representative from this district in Washington in interest of TVA power, and the council agreed to do that. The Chamber of Commerce will also contribute a like amount. J. H. Hackett, F. A. Cole and L. S. Phillips were elected on the Beautification Board. MOTHER AND HOME

Sunday, May 10 marks another Mother's Day, when thousands of mothers will receive endearing tokens of love from their children. However, some mothers will have no children to love and cherish them, while many children have lost their truest friend, Mother. These are unfortunate indeed. As this day draws nigh we are reminded of these poetic words: O there is still within this world A brilliant, fadeless light, Which, like a star, shines through the clouds Of sorrow's darkest night— Which hovers round our pathway here, Wherever we may rove; It is the light reflected from A mother's holy love.

The heart, when bereaved and disappointed, naturally turns for refuge to home-life and sympathy. No spot is so attractive to the weary one: it is the heart's moral oasis. There is a mother's watchful love and a father's sustaining influence; there is the circle of loving brothers and sisters—happy in each other's love. Oh, what is life without these! A desolation, a painful, gloomy pilgrimage through "desert heaths and barren sands."

Home influence may be estimated from the immense force of its impressions. It is the prerogative of home to make the first impression upon our nature, and to give that nature its first direction onward and upward. It uncovers the moral mountain, chooses its channel, and gives the steam its first impulse. It makes the "first stamp and seal" upon the plastic nature of the child. It gives the first tone to our desires and furnishes ingredients that will either sweeten or embitter the whole cup of life. These impressions are indelible and durable as life. Compared with them, other impressions are like those made upon sand or wax. To erase them we must remove every strata of our being. Even the infidel lives under the holy influence of a pious mother's impressions. John Randolph could never shake off the restraining influence of a little prayer, or his mother taught him by his mother when he was a child. It preserved him from the clutches of avowed infidelity.

The most illustrious statesmen, the most distinguished warriors, the most eloquent ministers, and the greatest benefactors of human kind owe their greatness to the fostering influence of home. Napoleon knew and felt this when he said, "What France wants is good mothers, and you may be sure that France will have good sons." The homes of the American Revolution made the men of the revolution. Their influence reaches yet far into the inmost frame and constitution of our glorious republic. It controls the fountains of her power, forms the character of her citizens and statesmen, and shapes our destiny as a people. Did not the Spartan mother and her home give character to the Spartan nation? Her lessons to her child infused the iron nerve into the heart of that nation, and caused her sons, in the wild tumult of battle, "either to live behind their shields or to die upon them!" Had the central heart of the Spartan home been that of the Christian mother, the Spartan nation would have exhaled the brightest part of its glory.

Home, in all well constituted minds, is always associated with moral and social excellence. To love home with a deep and abiding interest, with a view to its elevating influence, is to love truth and right, heaven and God. Our life abroad is but a reflex of what it is at home. We make ourselves in a great measure at home. This is especially true of woman. All her home habits will follow her.

We are all in the habit of building for ourselves ideal homes. But they are generally made up of outward things—a house, a garden, a carriage, and the ornaments and appendages of luxury. And if, in our lives, we do not realize our ideal, we make ourselves miserable and our friends miserable. Half the women in our country are unhappy because their homes are not so luxurious as they wish.

The grand idea of a home is a quiet, secluded spot, where loving hearts dwell, set apart and devoted to improvement—to intellectual and moral improvement. It is not a formal school of staid solemnity and rigid discipline, where virtue is made a task and progress a sharp necessity, but a free and easy haven of all our spiritual aims, in which obedience is a pleasure, discipline a joy, improvement a self-wrought delight. Even the trials of home are so many rounds in the ladder of spiritual progress, if we but make them so. It is not merely by speaking to children about spiritual things that you win them over. If that be all you do, it will accomplish nothing, less than nothing. It is the prerogative of home to inculcate the maxims which rule your daily conduct—the likings and dislikings which you express—the whole regulations of the household, in dress, and food, and furniture—the recreations, the indulgences—the company you keep—the style of your reading—the whole complexion of daily life—this creates the element in which your children are either growing in grace and preparing for an eternity of glory, or they are learning to live without God, and to die without hope.

And Mothers are the molders of future generations. Let us pause to pay tribute to all the good mothers of the world who have made it a better and finer place in which to live.

KENTUCKY 4-H CLUB WORK IS GROWING

Kentucky 4-H club enrollment on April 1 totaled 32,542 farm boys and girls, a new record for the state according to J. W. Whitehouse, state club leader at the College of Agriculture. This compares to approximately 25,000 last year, which was the largest previous enrollment. The work is being conducted in 119 counties this year, a gain of 13 counties over last year.

There are approximately 1,500 local community 4-H clubs in the state, directed by about 3,500 local volunteer leaders. Jefferson county has the largest enrollment of any county, 1,008, although Johnson and Bell counties each has a goal of 1,000 club members. The largest individual club is the Forks of Elkhorn in Franklin county, with 169 boys and girls.

Most popular projects among boys are poultry, baby beef and tobacco, in the order given, while the girls are largely interested in clothing making, the preparation of foods and canning.

Mrs. Frances Ford was the principal speaker on the P. T. A. program Wednesday night.

ATTENTION AUTO OWNERS"A WRECK A DAY SHOULD KEEP SLEEP AWAY"

Do you know that Fulton and its immediate vicinity averages more than one auto wreck each day?

Do you realize that some auto owner is legally liable for the damage caused by each of these wrecks?

What financial condition would you be in if your car had been to blame for the wreck in which Dan Aquino and family of Hickman, Ky., recently secured a judgment for $45,500.00?

The Kentucky legislature has passed a law with serious penalties against the owner who does not make a full financial settlement within thirty days if his car is to blame for an accident.

If your car was to blame for a wreck are you in a position to make settlement in line with the provisions of the new automobile financial responsibility law which goes into effect May 15, 1936?

We are in a position to take care of your worries from the foregoing hazards with insurance written by strong insurance companies and at a cost which is small as compared to the protection given.

While we cannot insure you against the wreck which is liable to happen, we can take the worry away and give you the protection against worry and trouble that might keep the sleep away.

Do not put off investigating our class of insurance, but call at once and allow us to discuss the matter of your protection, and the class of service we can give you in cases of this kind.

GROWING...to serve the growing South

More than $65,000,000 was spent by the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company in 1935 in taxes, wages and plant additions, improvements and replacements to meet the demands for high grade telephone service in the section it serves.

Most of the thirty-eight million dollars found its way back into the avenues of trade in the South.

To care for the 55,950 new telephones added and the eight per cent increase in the volume of traffic, the Company increased its personnel, expanded its plant and made a substantial improvement in the quality of its service.

Over 12,000 people were added to the payroll, making a total of seventeen thousand now employed by the Company. These additional people are all residents of towns and cities in that section. The annual payroll was nineteen million dollars, an increase of almost seven per cent over the previous year.

Taxes paid to federal, state, county and municipal agencies totalled over six and one-half million dollars, or about one-eighth of the total revenues received from telephone users.

Having maintained the service and met every responsibility cheerfully during the depression, telephone men and women are continuing their efforts to provide more and better service at the lowest possible cost during 1936.

EVERY DOLLAR Spent away from home in other trading centers for home needs, for apparel, for foods, for automobiles and upkeep, for amusements, etc., decreases by just that amount, the opportunities of Fulton stores and shops to grow and be able to better serve with larger stocks and wider selections. . . . Dollars spent in Fulton stores and shops stay here to help develop home town stores, pay new salaries, increase tax revenue, and create business volume upon which communities thrive—Even the smallest Fulton property owner undermines his own investment here in Fulton when he takes his dollars away from home on shopping tours. . . . If Citizens want Fulton to thrive then we should all now resolve to trade at home and help make our town the TOPS.

POLITICS LOOK UPWARD

As the time draws near for the holding of national conventions by the various political parties, interest in the presidential election this fall is beginning to perk up right sharply. Cleveland qualifies as America's No. 1 political convention city this year. At least three national parties and political groups have chosen it for their meeting place.

Using the same auditorium where the Republicans will meet June 9, Socialists will hold their national convention beginning May 23. And last week the Rev. Charles E. Coughlin announced his National Union for Social Justice would hold its national convention there August 13-16.

Niagara Falls, N. Y., where water is plentiful and spectacular, has been chosen as national convention city by the Prohibition party, which like the Socialist party, will hold its nominating session May 5, before the major party meetings.

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE WEEKLY BUSINESS SURVEY

The pace of retail trade dropped slightly but the improvement in other lines, compared with the previous week, but in the majority of instances, the volume continued ahead of last year, according to nationwide reports to the Department of Commerce. In cities where the warm weather prevailed, the volume was stimulated. Wholesale reflected somewhat the same tendency of retail. Wide-spread rainfall relieved fears of a disastrous drought in the South-west and crop prospects were improved. Particularly bright spots in the retail field were Louisville, Atlanta and Pittsburgh. Gains here before recorded in apparel lines gave way to losses in the volume of house-furnishing.

Rains revived the "dust bowl" resulting in boosted hopes of farmers in Texas, Missouri, Kansas and the Northwest. Dallas and Houston reported farmers encouraged by rains that fell over the State, but, lack of moisture continued. St. Louis reported goods progress in corn planting as a result of rains, but low temperature retarded growth of crops. Farm work was rushed in the Seattle area as a result of moderate rains which spread to Eastern Oregon. Minneapolis reported crops reacting favorably, but some frost damage in the North. The wheat crop in the Dakotas was affected by poor seed. San Francisco reported excellent crop outlook and asparagus cannery industry operating at capacity. Increase in the average box price of oranges and grape fruit was announced by Jacksonville. Official opening of the Owyhee dam in Southeast Oregon provided irrigation for 100,000 and acres, considerable of which has been put in cultivation. Carrot movement in Georgia tomato plants will reach the peak on May 15, according to the Atlanta report. Cash farm income for March is estimated at $513,000,000, compared with $479,000,000 in the same month last year.

Most cities reported to wide-spread employment gains. The Louisville report said the demand for skilled workers and for general professional and personal service employees was greater than the registered supply. In Virginia, factory employment was 14 percent higher than 1929 according to the Richmond report. Buffalo reported machinery and metal plants increased employment 25 and wages 10% from mid-February to mid-March. Continued improvement and stronger demands for farm fields was reported by St. Louis. Indianapolis reported high project in 57 counties would employ 12,000 and additional thousands on construction projects. Relief families in Detroit declined from 22,506 to 21,906 in the week. Jacksonville reported the Federal employment office had dropped 1650 women and 500 to white-collar workers.

Diversified industries sustained high levels. Minneapolis reported the early opening of iron mines in four towns in the Mesabi range. Steel production continued at a high level in Cincinnati, St. Louis, Birmingham, Cleveland, and Pittsburgh with Buffalo reporting the best in the week. Portland aluminum packers opened the season at 11 cents, highest in six years. Detroit reported a million dollar expansion program for the Grand Rapids Vauxhall Corporation. Waleswood industrial expansion in New England was reported by Boston with activity in Springfield resulting in a shortage of skilled mechanical labor. The tinplate situation of the steel industry was at a seasonal peak.

He Used His Other Chance
Two Big Birthdays
England, Rich, Worries
The Elephant's Pulse

New York's Titterton murder mystery turns out not to be "the perfect crime."

The murderer, an upholsterer, carefully took away the cord used in his trade, with which he had bound the unfortunate woman, but forgot that he had left some strands of twine under the body, and those pieces of cord, thanks to excellent police work, trapped him. The sentimental who says, "Give the poor criminal another chance," will note that the murderer was a convict on parole when he killed the woman. He had "another chance" and made use of it.

Berlin reports a great Hitler forty-seventh birthday celebration including a fine display of military power—airplanes, war tanks, fighting men, apparently eager for a fight. They were young and could not remember the last war.

Particularly interesting were two lines in the song sung by storm troopers:

"Today we own Germany,
And tomorrow the whole world."

The day after Hitler celebrated his forty-seventh birthday old Rome celebrated her two thousand six hundred and eighty-ninth anniversary. Mussolini celebrates by launching two new Italian cruisers and speeding up airplane production. He tells Italian fathers and mothers he must have 90,000,000 population for Italy not later than 1950. In 1921, when Mussolini took charge, Italy's population was 38,000,000. There will soon be room and food to raise more Italians in Ethiopia. Easy for all but the mother.

England, doing well in a business way, with more than $2,000,000,000 worth of Bank of England notes circulating among tradesmen, is collecting gold and depleting the French reserves. While England tries to keep down the price of her "so-gold" pound, France is afraid she will not be able to keep up the value of her gold franc, already devalued by 50 per cent of its 1914 value. What becomes of the "magic in gold"? Our dear old dollar is worth only 50 cents, and only dealers in exchange know it.

Doctor Benedict, of Carnegie laboratories, finds that the adult elephant's heart beats from 22 to 26 times a minute, less than half the human heartbeat, and the elephant heartbeat is nine strokes faster when the animal is lying down. Man's heart beats more rapidly while he stands—because then it must raise blood the full height of the body. Old poets, with tired hearts, should do their writing lying down—the blood flows horizontally with little heart-effort.

England is pleased; Sir Robert Hadfield, who makes tough steel, announces a shell for British naval guns that can pass unhurt through armor plate twelve inches thick and explode on the other side. "One shell of this kind fired in the region of the magazine would probably cause destruction of a modern battleship." England is manufacturing the shells rapidly; others are manufacturing airplane bombs that might make old-fashioned naval guns and shells useless.

In Miami a lady, first name Lois, and married, has husky triplet babies. Two gentlemen, the official husband and one other, demand custody of the triplets, each calling himself the real father. The alleged "father" who is not the husband would submit to any blood test, his lawyer says. How would King Solomon decide that?

Clarence Darrow, one of the country's most convincing lawyers, says on his seventy-ninth birthday:

"I say that religion is the hell in future life and in God. I don't believe in either."

The hophead beside the track, watching the express train go by, might say, reasonably enough:

"I do not believe in such a thing as a locomotive engineer."

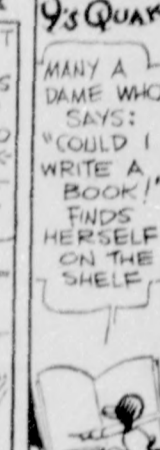

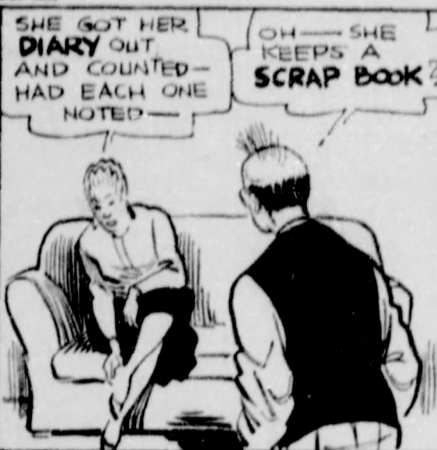

Moscow has returned to the Japanese government in Manchukuo, with full military honors, the bodies of three Japanese killed in a fight with Soviet guards. The military honors will not console the widows, and, repeated often enough, such incidents lead to war.

Europe envies our fortunate country, which gives only paper dollars and inflation paper bonds to its citizens but has, buried in the ground, the biggest lump of gold on earth.

A wonderful thing is micro-chemistry. It tells scientists that off the coast of Greenland a water contains more gold than in New York harbor; that one village in Switzerland has less gold than another because in the first the dewdrops contain more iodine.

Business Upturn

Each week a small red-headed lad delivers a magazine to office workers in various downtown buildings.

Recently, the boy appeared, but without his magazine. The man reached in his pocket for his money, and then, noting the absence of the magazine, asked where they were.

"The boy turned and called to a lad even smaller than 'Red-Head'."

"My brother," Red-Head said, "He's helping me today. Business is so good that I need a helper; you know, some one to carry the magazines and watch the money."

The Motorist's Daughter

A little girl was crossing the Atlantic with her mother. It was her first ocean trip. The sea was as smooth as the proverbial millpond for the first three days, then the ship began rolling and pitching heavily.

The child could not understand what had happened. "Mamma," she cried, "What's the matter? Are we on a detour?"

The doctor was interviewing the last patient in the surgery when a woman rushed in crying: "Doctor! Doctor! Come quickly. My husband has swallowed a mouse!"

"Get back to him," said the doctor, "and try waving a piece of cheese about in front of his mouth. I'll follow you as soon as possible."

Five minutes later the doctor reached the house. A man was lying on a settee with his mouth wide open, while a hysterical woman was waving a kipper close to his mouth.

"You foolish woman," he cried, "I told you cheese."

Rosa Ponselle Breaks Arm While Playing Opera Role

Rosa Ponselle, Metropolitan opera soprano, has a broken left arm as a result of the enthusiasm with which she and Rene Maison, the tenor playing opposite her, enacted their roles in "Carmen" in the company's appearance of the season in Baltimore. The small bone in her left forearm was broken near the elbow when Mr. Maison threw her to the stage floor.

Green Urges Unions to Remain Nonpartisan

WILLIAM GREEN, president of the American Federation of Labor, has sent a letter to all affiliated unions urging that they adhere to the federation's "traditional nonpartisan political policy."

"For obvious reasons, labor should avoid division even in the pursuit of its political policies. Such division can be avoided if working men and women, loyal to the American Federation of Labor, will refrain from identifying themselves with any political movement designed to serve as a substitute for the nonpartisan political policy of the American Federation of Labor."

Two Well-Known Writers Taken by Death

DEATH came to two of America's well-known writers. One was Finley Peter Dunne, creator of "Mr. Dooley," the genial satirist of modern life whose witty sayings delighted two generations. The second was Percy Hammond, veteran dramatic critic of the New York Herald Tribune, one of the foremost of the country's commentators on matters theatrical. Both passed away in New York city.

Advance of the Italians in Ethiopia Continues

ITALY'S victorious troops in northern Ethiopia continued their advance on Addis Ababa, though it was somewhat retarded by the efforts of the natives to blow up the roadways and otherwise harass the invaders. The Italian motorized column in this movement is the most formidable yet formed in this war and is notable for the large number of white troops included.

General Graziani's southern army, meanwhile, was driving toward Harar, second city of the empire, in three columns. The Ethiopians were putting up stiff resistance at various points but everywhere were driven back, according to Italian dispatches.

Contreras Is Elected President of Venezuela

LEAZAR LOPEZ CONTRERAS, an army officer who rose to the rank of general under the late dictator, Juan Vicente Gomez, is now president of Venezuela. The national congress elected him to that office by a vote of 122 to 1 and directed that he assume the office on May 29. As president of the chamber, Contreras became temporary president on the death of Gomez.

Supreme Court Decision in Stock Yards Case

UPHOLDING a reduction of rates and charges at the St. Joseph, Mo., stockyards, the Supreme court held that the findings made by Secretary of Agriculture Henry A. Wallace justified the rates he set and that the stockyards operators had failed to show confiscation.

Justice Louis D. Brandeis, Harlan F. Stone and Benjamin Cordozo agreed that the rates should be upheld but in an opinion by Justice Brandeis expressed belief that the court went too far in passing on the fairness of rates.

Plans Completed for the Democratic Convention

SENATOR ALBEN W. BARKLEY of Kentucky, who was temporary chairman of the Democratic national convention in 1932 and as such delivered the keynote speech, will serve in the same capacity at the Philadelphia convention in June, outlining the issues of this year's campaign as his party views them.

Senator Joseph T. Robinson of Arkansas will be the permanent chairman again. Yet another speaker will be former Judge John E. Mack of New York. Four years ago he placed Franklin D. Roosevelt in nomination, and he will do it again in June.

These selections were made by the committee on arrangements. Other officers of the convention chosen, are: Lee Barnes of Alabama, chief doorkeeper; Mrs. J. Borden Harriman, national committeewoman of the District of Columbia, hostess of the convention, with Mrs. Agnes Collins Dunn of New Hampshire as assistant; Col. Edward C. Halsey, secretary of the senate, sergeant at arms; Representative Clarence Cannon of Missouri, parliamentary assistant, assisted by Representative John J. O'Connor of New York; W. Forbes Morgan, secretary of the convention.

National Chairman Farley said that the two-thirds rule, which has prevailed in Democratic conventions for a century, will not be abolished. The rules committee will be headed by Senator Bennett Clark of Missouri and it will report for abrogation of the two-thirds rule as well as elimination of the unit rule. The latter bids the state delegations to abide by the decision of a majority of the delegation. According to Mr. Farley, these changes will not prevent the practically unanimous nomination of President Roosevelt.

Present plans are to have Mr. Roosevelt go to Philadelphia on Saturday, June 27, to close the convention by accepting the nomination in a speech delivered either in the Municipal stadium or in the University of Pennsylvania stadium, close to the convention hall.

Roosevelt Addresses National Democratic Club

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT made what might be considered the first of his campaign speeches before the National Democratic club in New York city. Tammany was there in full force, but such disgruntled Democrats as Al Smith and John J. Raskob were conspicuous by their absence. Mr. Roosevelt declared his purpose to be more food, higher prices and better homes for the people.

"If you increase buying power," he said, "prices will go up; more goods will be sold. Wages ought to be paid on up with prices. This does not mean unsound inflation or skyrocketing prices; this should be avoided just as we seek to avoid bankruptcy sale values."

Turning to his critics with sarcasm, the President said "some individuals are never satisfied." Referring to charges of extravagance and mounting deficits, he said people complain to him about "the current costs of rebuilding America, about the burden on future America." He insisted that the measure should not be the three-billion-dollar deficit of this year but the assertion that the national income has risen thirty-five billions in 1932 to sixty-five billions in 1936.

New Tax Bill Battle Started in House

THE administration's bill to levy taxes on 800 million dollars in new taxes yearly was introduced in the house by the ways and means committee, and a fierce battle started immediately. The Republican minority of the committee issued a report which stated that the proposed tax law was "unsound in principle, will undermine business stability, is another step toward regimentation of all business, and is not designed to raise revenue but admittedly is another New Deal experiment."

Conservative Democrats joined with the Republicans in this attack against the bill, but the administration leaders were confident the measure would pass before May 1.
