JOHN Young has been re-elected treasurer of the town of Clarksboro, New Jersey, by a vote of 114 to 12. He has served as treasurer for the past three years.

Senator Joe Bailey holds securely his seat in the United States Senate. He was re-elected by a vote of 34 to 5, representing the state of Alabama. Bailey has served in the Senate for the past six years.

Despite the political climate, which is said to favor change, Senator Bailey's re-election is seen as a reflection of his popularity and the strength of the Democratic Party in the state. Bailey is said to have campaigned vigorously in the state, and his re-election is seen as a significant victory for the party.

During the campaign, Bailey highlighted his efforts to improve the state's infrastructure, particularly in the rural areas. He also emphasized his commitment to education and healthcare, two issues that are dear to the hearts of many voters.

The victory of Senator Bailey is expected to boost the morale of the Democratic Party as they look towards the upcoming election cycle. Bailey's re-election is also seen as a sign of the resilience of the party, which has been facing challenges in recent years.

The results of the election are a testament to Senator Bailey's ability to connect with the voters and his commitment to serving the state. Bailey has been a vocal advocate for his constituents, and his re-election is seen as a reward for his hard work.

The outcome of the election is also a reminder of the importance of the political process and the role of the electorate in shaping the future of the state.

The results of the election are expected to have a significant impact on the political landscape of the state, and the prospects of the Democratic Party as they look towards the upcoming election cycle.

THE TALE OF A TALE

It stirred on the sands in the setting sun, and as the day grew long, the little lad forgot to eat. One day more and the twelfth moved, and the sun on the other side of the sky, August, the month of courts and sports, was set.

'Why, then, she said gently: 'I don't think you quite understand what scene I referred to, but I'll show you in a moment.'

"If I forgot your name at this point she brought him back to earth.

"It all immensely, but what appealed to me from an evident inspection of the morning, when he returned to his abode uttering unholy words.

"Oh!" he said with a start.

"Soup, sir." replied the waiter.

"Say, young fellow, what's this stuff?"
