We last week in the lower house of

A. E. ASHBY
Speaker of the House. In his speech he said, "The real issue in this campaign is the question of a new constitution. If we pass a new constitution it will be a great blessing to our state." He went on to say that the new constitution would provide for a more efficient government and a more just tax system. He also emphasized the importance of education and called for greater support for the state's schools.
