Beautiful Funeral Home Opened

These who were fortunate enough to attend the funeral home opening of the Kentucky Cedar Co. in Fulton, Ky., on Second Street, Wednesday, July 29, found themselves in the midst of a world of beauty. The home is the most complete and most luxurious in the state and possibly in the country.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Jones, owner and manager of the cemetery, are to be congratulated on their foresight in selecting a suitable place for the building of the home. The erection of such a building is not an easy task and requires a great deal of money. However, the management has done a splendid job and has given the community a splendid home.

Rees, chairman of the Beckham campaign committee. In answering the question of whether or not he would serve on the governor's ticket, Mr. Rees said: "I have never said that I would serve as the lieutenant governor, but the task before us is so great that I am willing to do everything that will help to gain the nomination."

FIRE DESTROYS AMERICAN LEGION HALL

More Underneath Fulton Chapel's Headquarters Damaged

Fire of unknown origin at an early hour Monday morning gutted the American Legion building and covered the roof of the small basement section. The damage will run approximately $1000. The two members of the crew of stockmen will run into higher figures.

The insurance companies have adjusted the damage on the building and carpenters are now at work making repairs.

The American Legion never fails to turn out in force when the need is completed. It is a social and frictionless community organization.

Mrs. E. J. Parsons suffered the loss of a tenant house by the recent fire. She is a native of this community.
