THE BIBLE SPEAKS
International Uniform Sunday School Lessons
BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

SCRIPTURE: Matthew 7.
DEVOTIONAL READING: Psalm 119: 100-115.

Test of Faith
Lesson for October 26, 1952

EVERY one who has carefully studied the "Sermon on the Mount" as we find it in Matthew, has run into a peculiar feature of it. The first two chapters (Matt. 5 and 6) move right along in logical fashion, one thought leading into the next, to a climax at the end of chapter 6. But chapter 7 seems to launch out in all directions. The sentences or topics do not follow a single thread of thought. The chapter is very hard to outline. There are various explanations of this. One is that in this chapter we have what might be called the discussion period or forum following the sermon. The various short paragraphs may be explained as being answers Jesus gave to questions which are not recorded. However, that may be, we may select verses 12, and 15-27, and see how they answer four very natural questions which Jesus' teaching (especially in Matt. 5 and 6) would raise.

Bible in a Nutshell

Some one might ask: "Can't you make your teaching simpler and plainer? Could you put the whole thing in a nutshell?" So Jesus gives the Golden Rule (7:12), a single sentence that has embarrassed theologian and plain Christian alike. Jesus offers this as a kind of summary of the Bible, for in his time the Bible he had (our "Old Testament") was customarily called "The Law and the Prophets." This bothers the theologian because it always scandalizes a scholar to have everything put into one sentence, and besides, theologians are accustomed to finding a great deal more in the Old Testament than the Golden Rule. It bothers the common everyday Christian because when he looks at this sentence, he knows how right Mark Twain was: "It's not what I don't understand in the Bible, that disturbs me; it's what I do understand."

How Can You Tell?

Another question: How do we know you are teaching the truth? How can we tell you from a false prophet? Jesus gives a simple answer: You can tell a tree from its fruits. People who criticize Christianity should keep this point in mind. There is a great deal in "Christianism" which is not good. But Christianity is not Christianity. Not even the church is Christianity. Anything in the church that ought not to be there, we must set down against the account of the church, not against Christ. If the church is weak and sinful it is because and so far as she has failed to follow Jesus, not because she has followed him. The fruits of Christ, of his heart, his spirit, his teachings—these are good fruit. And if any one is disposed to doubt that, let him fairly answer this question: Where would you rather live, in a community in which the citizens were strangely like Jesus, or one in which they were just the opposite?

Is Not Faith Enough?

Another question: Isn't a single act of faith enough? If I believe what I ought to believe, and if I honor Christ as Lord, isn't that enough to make me a Christian? Jesus offers a test of faith, as if in answer to some such question. It isn't just believing; it isn't paying honor to the name of Christ; it isn't preaching in his name, it is not even performing miracles. The question that will be asked at the Day of Judgment is: Did you do the will of God?

Will It Work?

One more question: Your teaching sounds interesting and is idealistic and all that, but is it meant for this world? Will it work? Jesus quite emphatically claims for his teachings an absolutely practical value. They are not for some Never-never Land, they are not for some other time, some other life. They are not some radical upside-down topsy-turvy mess of peculiar notions. They are the bedrock of a life that will endure through storms. Do you want to find out whether these teachings and ideals of Jesus will work? He invites one and all to build their house of life upon them. He does not promise at any time that those who live by his teachings will be free from trouble, sorrow, opposition, tragedy. Storms come to all houses alike. What he does promise is that the life built here, shall not fall.

HOW TO MAKE CRANBERRY JELLY

1 To make about one quart of cranberry jelly, combine 1 1/2 cups water, 1 pound (4 cups) fresh cranberries and 1 tablespoon lemon juice in saucepan. Bring to a boil. Boil 10 minutes or until soft.

2 Force cranberries through food mill or strainer.

3 Return strained cranberries to saucepan. Stir in 2 cups sugar. Bring to a full rolling boil. Boil 2-3 minutes. Skim. Remove from heat.

4 Turn into mold which has been rinsed in cold water. Cool. Place in refrigerator to chill and set. Serve with your favorite bird or roast.

Your family will love this fool-proof cranberry jelly with poultry or meat!

Use Corn Bread Stuffing to Make Pork Chops Tasty

Cool weather is with us again, and we are all looking for good, rich, tasty main dishes. Here's a recipe that combines economy with the greatest taste pleasure imaginable. Pork is among our least expensive meats this year, and you can use up the leftover corn bread, too.

Serve with a good green vegetable, and your meal is complete. An oven dish like this one saves lots of work, too. Pork chops with corn bread stuffing will satisfy all the family. They are just the thing for a cool winter night.

PORK CHOPS WITH CORN BREAD STUFFING
1/4 cup chopped onion

1/2 cup bacon fat or melted butter
4 cups stale corn bread
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon poultry seasoning
1/2 teaspoon pepper
6 double pork chops, cut for stuffing

Brown onion in fat. Crumble corn bread coarsely and combine with remaining dry ingredients. Add fat and onion and mix carefully. Stuff into pork chops, tie closed (or lace around trussing pins) and bake, uncovered, in a moderate oven, 350° F., 1 hour, turning once. (Add 1/4 cup water after both sides are browned, if needed.) Bake excess stuffing in shallow buttered pan. Yield: 6 servings.

CHURCH GROVE SCHOOL NEWS.....

By RUTH WALLACE

Listen! We are panning a real Halloween party for the boys and girls. The mothers will be hostesses and the fathers and children will be the guests.

The mothers will make cookies and bring fruit juices. Several have promised to bring their music to help out. Games will be played and prizes awarded.

Don't fail to dress in Halloween costumes. That's the fun of the party. We want to thank Mrs. Frank Street for the decorations.

Our attendance isn't 100 percent this month, we are sorry to report. Frank Street and Annase Johnston both were sick, making our attendance drop to 99.3. Not a child will be absent, however, unless it is necessary. We can count on everyone doing his part.

A big treat is coming up on Friday, Nov. 21, Miss Murphy and Mrs. Marvin Prince are coming out here for a nutrition survey. They also will show pictures. Every parent is invited.

We had a real scare during "Fire Prevention Week." Ruth blew an alarm outside. Gene Darnell led the way. We marched out, one by one, with Mrs. Downing following.

Visitors for the month: Norma English, Elaine Myers, Keith Norsworthy, Jim Cathey, Mrs. Doyle Ward, Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Arant and son, Mrs. Wallace and John, Patsy Thwaitt and Melinda, Dena Arant, Jewell Copeland, Earlene Norsworthy, Margaret Sirls, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Pierce, Mr. and Mrs. Olen Houser, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pace and son, Mrs. Ina English, Mary and Betty Rudd, Ralph Edwards, Jewell Pace, Charles Riley, Buel Henson, C. W. Nimmo and Raymond Downing.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Sledd and daughter, Eileen, have been visiting Mr. Sledd's mother, Mrs. Mattie Sledd, Tatumville, and Mrs. Sledd's mother, Mrs. Lucy Collins, Murray.

Dan Gold of Route 4 was in town Friday.

TELLS A STORY...

Every month our employee magazine contains one or more pages of pictures of telephone employees who have been promoted to management. That speaks well of employee opportunity in the telephone business.

Management jobs at Southern Bell are filled by promotions through the ranks. Last year there were 819 promotions to supervisory positions. There were also 5,834 promotions to higher non-supervisory jobs, and 615 promotions to higher management positions.

This policy of opportunity and recognition for the individual employee means good management and better telephone service for you. Coupled with good pay, fair treatment and one of industry's best employee benefit programs, it explains why more than half of the employees we had 20 years ago are still with the Company.
