Liquor Stores Are Given Wider
Privileges By Legislative Act

Liquor stores in the state have been given a wider range of privileges by Legislative Act 132, which took effect last week. The measure was passed by the General Assembly with little opposition. It provides that a store which has been in continuous business for five years or more may be granted a new license to sell gasoline, beer and wine, with the approval of the local Board of Aldermen. The store may also be granted a new license to sell gasoline, beer and wine, with the approval of the local Board of Aldermen.

STUDENT WORKS IN INSANE ASYLUM TO PAY TUITION

Milwaukee - A Milwaukee University College student is paying his way through school with money earned in an insane asylum.

The student, a senior, is a member of the University's YMCA, and his job is to work with the insane patient at the asylum.

Several other students at the school, who are members of the YMCA, are also working in the asylum to help pay their tuition bills.

Five youths are blood-donors. They are the only ones in the county to have done so this year. One student is a blood-donor at the University Hospital, and a third is a blood-donor for the Red Cross.

The time-honored Student job of busdriver is now being done by a college student who is paying his way through school with money earned in an insane asylum.

Review Of Early Newspaper Publishers In This Section

(BY E. B. MARSHALL)

I don't know how to express appreciation to Mr. Morse of the Sunday Times. He has always been interested in the old school, this being my second visit to his old newspaper office. It is 60 years old. He pointed out some of the old school papers and told about his early experiences in the newspaper business.

Mr. Morse is a newspaper publisher who has been in the business for 40 years. He has been in the newspaper business since he was a boy. He has been associated with the Union City Times for the last 20 years.
