Capital Catches.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 20, 1894.

For good and sufficient reasons the tariff bill was not reported to the senate finance committee last week, although it could have been reported. The delay was in the interest of democratic harmony, it being thought best to allow objecting democrats to have their say to the sub-committee composed entirely of democrats rather than before the full committee. The regular meeting of the finance committee will be held today and the present intention is to report the revised bill. It is possible that it may be delayed a day or two later, but I am assured by every member of the committee that it will certainly be reported this week. No time will be lost by the democrats on the finance committee after it is reported in getting it reported to the senate, as they have been cognizant of every change made by the sub-committee. If fact the sub-committee while nominally made up of only three senators has in reality been the entire democratic membership of the finance committee, except Senator Vance, who is away sick. The member of the sub-committee feel so certain that they have made the last change in the bill that the revised copy has been sent to the government printing office to be put in type.

The best posted democrats laugh at the idea of the 15 democratic senators who voted to reject the democratic nomination of Peckham being classed as opponents of the administration. One of President Cleveland's most loyal supporters as well as his warm personal friends put it this way: "I am not a bit sorry that Peckham was rejected, and I know the reasons which governed most of the democratic votes cast against him. First he bolted the regular democratic ticket at the last state election and openly aided in defeating it, and, as though that were not enough to bar him from any favor at the disposal of the party, he neglected to vote at the recent special congressional election in New York City when he knew that extraordinary efforts were being made to get out the full party vote, and when asked about it replied carelessly that he forgot all about the election. Now I don't think a man who forgets when an important election is to be held should have any office, large or small. That this opinion is echoed by many of the staunch friends of the administration in congress is certain, and it is generally believed that if President Cleveland will nominate a good democrat for the vacancy those 15 democratic senators will show that they bear the administration no ill will by voting solidly for his confirmation. The shrewdest democrats in congress think that the mugwumps have been sufficiently rewarded and that all the appointments hereafter made should be good democrats, men who can be depended upon to help the party win future battles. Senator Morgan, chairman of the senate committee on foreign relations, has, at the request of the sub-committee, written the report of the Hawaiian investigation. At a special meeting of the committee the report was read and it was decided to defer action upon it to a meeting to be held this week. The report has not been made public and members of the committee decline to discuss it.

Representative Bland of Missouri, has been having a tussle with the "no quorum" fiend, and his bill for the coinage of the seigniorage is still unacted upon. There has been a quorum on the floor of the house every day, but those opposed to the bill have refused to vote and the friends of the measure have been a few short of a quorum. Notice has been sent to all absentees to return at once and Mr. Bland is confident that a quorum in favor of the bill will be on hand this week and that the bill will be passed without further delay. It is thought that the filibustering against the bill was for the purpose of delaying it in the house until after the tariff bill gets before the senate, so as to prevent its being promptly acted upon in the senate, as its passage by all from the first.

The women suffragists are preparing to move on the south. At their annual convention, just closed in this city, Atlanta, Ga., was selected as the meeting place of next year's convention.

The plate printers' branch of the K. of L., of this city, have adopted resolutions thanking Representative Sayers of Texas, chairman of the house committee on appropriations, for his friendship to the interest of labor, and requesting all labor organizations in his district to join in the voice thus raised in appreciation of his services to the working people. Judge Sayers has always been popular in Washington because of his approachability, and the fame he is making as chairman of the appropriations committee, one of the most important in the house, has not swelled his head even a little bit.

A Dream Interpreted.

Here is a whole temperance lecture, and a good one too, in this paragraph, which we quote from a Scotch paper, and which we heartily commend to all tipplers.

A laborer of the Dudgeon harbor lately told his wife, on awakening, a curious dream which he had during the night. He dreamed he saw coming toward him, in order, four rats. The first one was very fat, and was followed by two lean rats, the rear rat being blind. The dreamer was greatly perplexed as to what might follow, as it has been understood that to dream of rats denoted coming calamity. He appealed to his wife concerning this, but she, poor woman, could not help him. His son, a sharp lad, who heard his father tell the story, volunteered to be the interpreter. "That fat rat," he said, "is the man who keeps the public house that ye gang till sae often, and the two lean ones are me and my mither, and the blind one is yourself, father." Who would dare question the wisdom of the lad's answer.

Obituary.

Death with his sickle keen visited this earth the 11th of February and took away with him one of Marshall county's brightest jewels, Albert Price, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Price, of Fair Dealing. At the time of his death he was attending school at Benton; he took a chill Friday night, Saturday morning he thought he was able to go home, but before preparation could be made to take him, it was plain that he had spotted fever. His parents were then sent for and three of the best physicians were called in, but all they could do was of no good; the fever had its hold and could not be checked.

He lay in the horrible agony of that dreadful disease until Sunday about 12 o'clock, then the angels came and released him from his pain, and he went peacefully on to the mansions prepared for him in that better land, where after a while father, mother, brothers and sister can all meet him.

Albert was a noble young man; would soon have been twenty one years old; he was a consistent member of the Baptist church at Pleasant Hope, where he will be greatly missed by his many friends who will all mourn his death; but dear friends we will not mourn as those who have no hope, for Albert is safe in Heaven where he will reap the reward of a faithful christian. It is hard to die when so young, but death is no respecter of persons, and the young must die as well as the old; so let us all be ready when the summons comes to call us to meet our loved ones in that land of peace and happiness where we can sing praises to God for ever. Do You Know

The weather is a little off in the past few days.

That there are 1,000 municipal lawyers in the city of Benton.

That the man who thinks he can live without neighbors is sadly mistaken.

That the transient beggar is ever faithful to call on you for a small pittance.

That the people at Calvert City were punished yesterday with the candidates.

That the candidates are making things lively out among the voting yeomanry.

That the man who makes fires and then tries to make up biscuit dough is a dandy.

That Congressman Stone is still on top in this county and is fast gaining strength.

That now is the time to sow plant-beds, and that the farmers are anxious to do so.

That Col. Cal McGee has sold his hay rake in order that he will make no more mistakes.

That 118 years ago yesterday the battle of Morris Neck was fought. Do you remember it.

That there are 15 voting places in the primary election which is to take place on March 10, 1894.

That H. M. Heath is a man of fine humor and can take a joke as well as most men of his politics.

That there will be fun in abundance at Briensburg on the 17th of March at the third party convention.

That there is a striking resemblance between the two candidates for county judge on the third party ticket.

That forest fires destroy at least $12,000,000 worth of property each year and yet but few people ever hear of them.

That some people think heaven is not very far from their home, yet they never point their neighbors to it.

That the Paregoric society will soon be organized and ready for business, with Dr. W. S. Stone as its president.

That today is the last day of February, and that before one year is gone you ought to be a better person.

That W. H. Brian, of Paducah, will hardly be the lucky one to guess the number that will carry off the new buggy.

That A. H. Cardin, of Marion Crittenden, county, is the Kentucky member of the Peoples' party national committee.

bank in the world robbed. It is here but it don't come out.

That good men and women are more numerous than some people would have you believe.

That the men who are all the time crying out hard times can get credit at the Tribune office.

That there 296,362,443 surveyed acres of public lands in the U. S., but there are only 13 acres in Iowa.

That Stone will carry seven counties on this side of the Tennessee river with beautiful majorities.

That 27 per cent of the people of the world speak the English language, and that 18 per cent speak the German.

That under the Act of May 5th, 1892, only 13,242 chinamen registered according to its provisions; 28 of which were in Kentucky.

That the total admissions into the World's fair from May 1st to October 30, 1893, was 27,539,521, of which 1,255,551 were children.

That Dr. J. D. Clardy is the master of the state Grange. That he resides in Newstead and is a candidate for congress in the second district.

That the good people of Briensburg may begin to prepare themselves to entertain the biggest crowd for years at the third party convention.

That the people are enjoying the speaking during these beautiful days, hearing the seigniorage coinage bill, the income tax and the tariff laws discussed.

That the commercial ratio of silver to gold one hundred years ago was $15, but now it is $25.97; that it has been a gradual increase each year since 1687 to now.

That if the spite, prejudice and envy were all pressed out of some people there would not be enough left of them to be seen with a 20,000 power candle at midnight.

That the National Democratic committee is composed of 51 members, one from each state and territory, with headquarters in New York City, and that Wm. H. Harris is the chairman.

That Honolulu and New Zealand are only about 30 degrees apart in longitude, yet they are a whole day a part as regards any particular day, because the point at which the day changes lies between them. Do you catch on?

That it will puzzle you to tell when a day begins or when it ends. Can you tell? Can you tell where changes from one day to another takes place? If you can't, then you don't know where Sunday begins and where it ends.

That 3,766,445,347 pounds of sugar were imported into the U. S. last year, and that the total production in this country during the same time was 515,250,769 pounds, showing that domestic consumption is 2,221,962,296.

That an Auxiliary of the American Pan-cake society will soon be organized here for the purpose of each member eating 25 pancakes, one quart N. O. molasses and a half gallon of sweet milk each night in order to dream of being out of debt.

That "In God we trust" first appeared on the 2-cent copper issue of 1864, and was the first use of the word God in any government act in the history of this government. That this sentence was introduced by James Pollock, an ex-governor of Pennsylvania, director of the mint, with the approval of S. P. Chase, then secretary of the treasury; that it finally took the place of "E Pluribus Unum."

Joseph V. Dory, of Warsaw, Ill., was troubled with rheumatism and tried a number of different remedies, but says none of them seemed to do him any good, but finally he got hold of one that speedily cured him. He was much pleased with it, and felt sure that others similarly afflicted would like to know what the remedy was that cured him. He states for the benefit of the public that it is called Chamberlain's Pain Balm. For sale by R. H. Starks.

PASS IT.

The lobby about the senate is the biggest and most persistent that has appeared in the halls of congress for many years. The outside influence to secure concessions is said to be backed with unlimited money, as well as political pull, and every conceivable means of influencing action is being resorted to. Their purpose appears to be as much to defeat the bill as to change it, and long delay of action is a secondary object if the bill cannot be defeated. It is far from impossible that tariff legislation may be blocked altogether.

It is authoritatively stated that the finance committee has made but few changes in the Wilson bill and these few of a character not objected to by the house committee. Yet to add to the confusion of the situation, Mr. Cleveland has taken a hand in the matter and insists that there shall be no amendments, but that the bill shall be passed as it passed the house, so as to obviate the necessity of going to conference. The whole situation is the most complicated that can be imagined.

Mr. Albert Favorite, of Arkansas City, Kan., wishes to give our readers the benefit of his experience with colds. He says "I contracted a cold early last spring that settled on my lungs, and had hardly recovered from it when I caught another that hung on all summer and left me with a hacking cough which I thought I never would get rid of. I had used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy some fourteen years ago with much success, and concluded to try it again. When I had got through with one bottle my cough had left me, and I have not suffered with a cough or cold since. I have recommended it to others, and all speak well of it." 50-cent bottles for sale by R. H. Starks.

Advice to Boys.

Horace Mann gives this bit of advice to boys. "You were made to be kind, boys—generous, magnanimous. If there is a boy in school who has a club foot, don't let him know you ever saw it. If there is a boy with ragged clothes, don't talk about rags in his hearing. If there is a lame boy, assign him some part of the game that does not require running. If there is a hungry one, give him part of your dinner. If there is a dull one, help him to get his lessons. If there be a bright boy, be not envious of him, for if one boy is proud of his talents, and another is envious of them, there are two great wrongs, and no more talent than before."—Ex.

There are 15 ex-governors in the senate and two in the house, but none of them are in the senate. Harris, Bate, Hawley, Vance, Coke, Berry, Perkins, Shoup, Proctor, Hill and Gear in the senate. McCready and Dixley are the only ex-governors in the house.

Mr. C. F. Davis, editor of the Bloomfield, Iowa, Farmer, says: "I can recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to all sufferers with colds and croup. I have used it in my family for the past two years and have found it the best I ever used for the purposes for which it is intended. 50 cent bottles for sale by R. H. Starks."

WED. EVENING, FEB. 28.

Senator Vance, of Raleigh, N. C. is very low and not expected to live but a short time.

The colored people in this county paid as taxes, in 1884, $2,798. The increase in ten years has been but very little among them.

The democratic primary takes place on March 10th, the republican mass convention on March 12th and the people's party on March 17th. It will not be long before they will all be in the field.

A man that has been in congress for ten years and voted as many times as Congressman Stone and made a few mistakes as he has, there can be no wonder that he continues to grow more popular with the people. His like is hard to find in any district, but wherever found he is appreciated by the people.

Mr. Graham, our representative, introduced House Resolution No. 19, calling upon the state treasurer for an itemized account of the amount paid in lieu of stationery to the members of the General Assembly of 1891-2-3, and under what law, if any, he paid same, which was referred to the committee on legislative accounts.

Mr. Graham, representative from this and Lyon counties, has paid back into the state treasury the sum of $32.10, the amount he overdraw as mileage when he first entered that honorable body. We suppose he came to the conclusion that he drew too much mileage and that it would be wrong to keep it, so in order to "right" his "wrong" he paid it back.

It is certainly encouraging to Capt. Stone when no one can bring any charge against him or offer any complaint other than some one else wants his place in congress. There are a larger number of men in this district that would like to go to congress, but convincing the voters that they would make better congressmen than Captain Stone is the hard job before them.

Prof. H. K. Taylor, of Louisville, is now an announced candidate for state superintendent of public instruction, and has entered the contest to win, and he will ever long visit his many friends in this part of the state and ask them to do all in their power to assist him to the place he now seeks. He is well remembered by our people as one of Kentucky's greatest educators.

Congressman Breckinridge will hardly be re-elected again in the Ashland district. He is engaged in a dirty damage suit with a young woman, and guilty or not guilty he will be laid in the shade when the proper time comes. We can't see how he can help the defense by proving her to have been a bad woman before he became enamored with her, because if he be guilty that will settle the case with him so far as public sentiment is concerned. In our opinion the silver tongued orator is gone, gone to rise no more. He will be defeated for congress, and in ten years from this writing he will only be known in history.

John R. Wylie has received the appointment of postmaster at Princeton. He is a good democrat, a nice gentleman, and will make the people an acceptable officer. It is understood that he was endorsed by Capt. Stone, which goes to show what good men he has recommended everywhere (except Benton) and that the patrons of that place could not have been better pleased. The appointment has been a long time coming, but it is good now since it has come and will settle another bone of contention inside the democratic ranks. Let the good work go on and never stop until the last one is turned out.

Prof. T. B. Wright has been nominated by the people's party in Graves county for surveyor. Well, professor, you would no doubt make a good officer, but it will be a long time before you "get there" by and through that party.

The big city papers can make fun and say what they please in criticizing the expressions from the "little country papers" concerning the action of the legislature in increasing the salaries of the judges of the court of appeals from $4,000 to $5,000 per year, but nevertheless we are opposed to it and take this occasion to say that the state will not get any better judges in the future at $5,000 than it has in the past at $4,000; so if there is to be no improvement in the service the tax-payers will have to pay the extra for which they will receive nothing in return. The Tribune don't care what the little editor of a big paper may say on the subject, it don't prevent this paper from expressing its condemnation for such a waste of money, for it is that and nothing more. At this rate it won't be long until the state can't get money enough to pay its judges and commonwealth attorneys.

We were a little astonished last week in looking over the columns of our good neighbor's paper, the Ledger, to find that the old chestnut, the prayer that Ben Keys has read to every man that would listen to it, from Hazel to Paducah, published in them. My dear friend, you certainly would have pleased your readers much better if you had published the speech made by your excellent congressman on the Bland bill advocating the coinage of the silver bullion that is now laying in the treasury vaults at Washington doing the people of the United States no good, but if coined and put in circulation would stimulate business all over the country. Don't you think so? Now let me tell you, my friend, it will be a cool day in August when we fill the columns of the gallant little Tribune with such trash, either by request or otherwise. Such stuff only originates in the minds of the "bum," and is not fit to be read by men of any party. Logan, you have too good a paper to contaminate with any such stuff, and don't do it any more.

The Spring Medicine.

"All run down" from the weakening effects of warm weather, you need a good tonic and blood purifier like Hood's Sarsaparilla. Do not put off taking it. Numerous little ailments, if neglected, will soon break up the system. Take Hood's Sarsaparilla now, to expel disease and give you strength and appetite.

Hood's pills are the best family cathartic and liver medicine.

Harmless, reliable, sure.

Important Notice.

To the Clerks of the Primary.—Remember that you are requested to preserve all of the ballots cast in the primary and bring them to the committee sealed up safe and sound and turn them over to the committee with the poll books and the certificates. The necessity for this is that there may be a close contest between two or more candidates, and they will be needed.

Past Politics of Kentucky.

Kentucky in 1824 was in politics Whig; in 1828, Democratic; 1832, National Republican; 1836, 1840, 1844, 1848, 1852, it voted the Whig ticket; was Democratic in 1856; in 1860 was Union, but it has gone Democratic in elections of 1864, 1868, 1872, 1876, 1880, 1884, 1888, 1892, and will continue to go Democratic for the next one hundred years to come.

Golden Hill.

The society of the Sons of the Revolution have placed on the building owned and occupied by the Humphreys' Homeopathic Medicine company, corner William and John streets, New York City, a bronze tablet to commemorate the battle of "Golden Hill," where the first blood was shed in the war of the revolution.

BIRMINGHAM SAYINGS.

It Is Often Said

That the church supper was quite a success, of which the ladies have the thanks of all.

That Pete Ely's speech on the Wilson tariff bill was one of the ablest ever delivered in that city. That the roaring eloquence of J. H. Beale, on the condition of the democratic flag, was not only pathetic but was distinctly heard at Star Line Works.

That Lovett's oration over the death of the republican party was clothed in such chaste language and his word painting so life-like and his manner so affecting that 19 Lockers and two Barnetts sat like so many weeping willows bathed in tears.

That when James McManus, the hero of the Lost Cause, held up the many and sickening horrors of prison life on Johnson's Island during the late war, the ladies came near crying their eyes out.

That J. J. Fisher's speech on the great benefits of the repeal of the purchasing clause of the Sherman act was indeed healthy and exhilarating and promises to eventually do much good among these people.

That Charlie Ely's peroration on the good results of the recent repeal of the infamous federal election laws was never excelled by any of the speeches made by the giant political orators of the nineteenth century.

That H. C. Bean's talk on the bad results of the fugitive slave law in this country was noted among the jewels of the evening's exercises and was cheered both in the parquet and in the gallery.

That the beauty and grace with which S. L. Grace handled the subject, "Storm Centers," was indeed a matter of unusual surprise, and was considered the hit of the afternoon by the scholars and critics present.

That the able, masterly and manly way in which W. E. Warren handled the intricate and abstruse question, "Shall We Meet Beyond the River," was the joy of the hour and the wonder of the occasion.

That the two hours speech of Jack Copeland, on the newly discovered history of the "Dark and Bloody Ground," was something new here, and it took like wildfire among the slaves of the rich, rare and racy.

That the exhaustive remarks of W. C. Holland, on the present "Bewilderment of His Magisterial District" from a political standpoint, was full of juice and exuberance and at times during the rapid rendition of the effort H. C. Hastin and S. M. Lindsey were snugly carried away in the warm embrace of their fellow travelers' arms. Yet it is said they were all at home last Sunday during the snow storm.

Calvert City, Ky.

Editor Tribune.—As the time is near at hand for the people's party to choose a standard bearer, I feel like having a word to say in favor of endorsing our present county judge, John J. Dupriest. He was the man first to break the democratic lion's back in this county, and break assunder the party domination that has existed here so long. He was the first man to get the county out of debt and improve our roads and bridges. He was the first man to reduce poll tax from $3 to $1.50, and to insist on paying off the old british debts that have been hanging like a pall over the tax-payers of this county for the past ten years. He was the first man to throw off the heavy shackles of the democratic yoke and lead the new party with economical ideas to victory. He was the first man to act as county judge for four years in this county with so few of his rulings and decisions reversed by higher courts, and for these and many more reasons, which I may give hereafter, the people of our party should endorse him and elect him at the November election.

I hope every third party man in the county that wants his party to be victorious in November will meet at Briensburg on March 17, 1894, and assist in giving the nomination for county judge to "whom honor is due" to our present worthy county judge, John J. Dupriest.

The Famous Ford Family.

This celebrated family consisting of 8 persons will appear in the Christian church next Monday night March 5, as the social musical event of the season. Arrangements have been made with the members of the Christian and Baptist churches at this place for one evening's entertainments to be given by this gifted family of music and song, for a certain percent of the gross receipts of the evening. It will be seen from the circulars and programmes distributed among our people that this Ford family hold a position in the musical world second to but few, their abilities not being surpassed even by the famous McGibney family. This extraordinary social event of music and elocution by this family on 23 instruments will be quite a treat to our citizens and people generally, and every one, both great and small, should go out to hear it, thereby enjoying themselves and aiding the two new churches at this place that are struggling for new houses. The price of admission is 35c for adults, and 25c for children. Everybody go ready and go.

A NEW $65 BUGGY TO BE GIVEN AWAY —BY THE— BENTON TRIBUNE.

E. Rehkopf & Son's $65 Top Buggy.

This new $65 Top Buggy will be given to the person or persons who pay $1 for one year's subscription to the Benton Tribune and guesses the total number of votes polled in the Democratic primary election which is to take place on March 10, 1894. If no person or persons guess the exact number of votes polled in said primary election, then the person or persons guessing the number nearest to that number will be entitled to the buggy.

Every person who pays $1 for the Tribune between 6 o'clock of the morning of January 1st, and 9 o'clock at night, of March 9, 1894, is entitled to a guess, which will be recorded in a register kept for that purpose, as the guesses come in, so that the lucky person or persons can be easily ascertained when the committee appointed for that purpose is ready to examine the guesses.

THE COUPON

There will be blank coupons, upon which all guesses must be made, published in each issue of the Tribune from now until March 7, 1894. They can be cut out, filled up and returned to the Tribune office any time between now and the hour when the guessing will be closed.

CUT OUT ALONG THIS LINE.

The Primary election will be held on Saturday, March 10, 1894; circuit court will begin on the following Monday, the day upon which the committee will meet and count the votes. This committee will return to us a certificate of the total number of votes in said election this report from the committee will be final and the person or persons guessing the number or nearest to the number certified to by the said committee will be entitled to the buggy. If more persons than one guess the lucky number then the buggy will be turned over to them and they can dispose of their joint interest as they think best and as suits them.

INFORMATION

Below we give all the information we have at our command as regards the number of votes heretofore polled in primary elections in this county, in order to assist those who wish to try their luck at guessing at the results of the coming contest: The total number of votes polled in the primary four years ago was 597; in the congressional primary held in 1892 this county cast 739 votes, and in the year 1893 in the legislative primary election 597 votes were polled. These figures will show how many votes have at various primary elections been polled in this county, and will aid persons in guessing the total number of votes that will be cast at the coming March election.

THE OBJECT

The object in offering so valuable a gift to the lucky guesser is to increase our circulation, and make The Tribune a welcome visitor in every household in Marshall county. No county paper ever offered so great an inducement to its subscribers as this, and we hope that you will send in your subscription, get a chance at the buggy and get a good county paper for one year.

J. W. Cole is a great advertiser and as a result he is selling more groceries than were ever sold in this town before by any one man. Nearly every stranger that comes to town wants to visit Cole's grocery because "they say" he has so many good bargains to offer. The man who never advertises "ain't in it," that's all.
It is predicted by the great weather prophets that we will have the heaviest wind and rain storm in this country during the next six weeks, that have visited here for years. There is much snow on the mountains and we may expect much high water during the early spring time.
A prominent third party man was in the store the other day and said "the name Dupriest contained 8 letters, the word Nelson 6, which showed the relative strength each candidate would have in the Briensburg convention, or, in other words, Nelson would get 6 votes while Dupriest would get 8."
A certain prominent citizen was heard to almost curse by note when he went home and saw the live hogs eating his dead ones, that he had killed and was ready to salt away in his smoke house. He did not seem to care so much for any but the "jaws" he wanted them to cook during the spring with turnip salad.
Ripans Tablets prolong life.
James Noe died at Jackson Tenn., on the 14th of this month. Many of our readers will remember him as the brother of Mrs. Lucy Johnston. They were raised by Dr. Holland at Briensburg, during the palmy days of that pleasant little town. He was also a brother of Bud Noe and Miss Alice Noe who have long since crossed the dark river.
MONTGOMERY, ALABAMA, October 13, 1893.
About two years ago I had a severe spell of grip and was induced by my relatives to try King's Royal Gemnetur. It soon cured the grip. My general health was bad and I continued its use for a few weeks and my health was greatly improved by its use. It is a very fine medicine for headaches, I know several persons who have used it for various diseases and they speak in highest praise of its virtues. MRS. GEO. TISDALE.
It is now predicted, by the knowing ones that the last negro working on the chain gang has made his escape before his time expired. There seems to be a strong prophecy to that effect among the local prophecies and we truly hope their prophecy will be ultimately verified before the town loses any more money by their escape.
Rufus Etheredge was before his honor Judge Wear, last Saturday on a charge of disorderly conduct and was fined $1 and costs which in all amounted to over ten dollars in default of which he was placed in the city jail on the instructions in order to sue the city for $500 damages but when night came he reprieved the case and was liberated.
Don't fail to hear Miss Ford, the beautiful and charming young song vocalist whose pure, high, soprano voice and marvelous renditions have won her the title of "Song Queen" at the Christian church next Monday night.
Gus Henson and Rasco Haymes had a little fight at a party at Jesse Edwards a week or so ago and they were up before Esq. Thompson Monday at which trial Henson was acquitted and Haymes was fined $5 and costs.

John H. Goheen, a prominent third party candidate for jailer, was in the city Monday. He says he thinks he will receive the nomination at the Briensburg convention.
Marriage license have been issued to the following parties since last report—Chas. H. Walker to Rosa Carthy, Wm. H. Cross to Josephine Poe, Joe L. Burd to Lucy A. Peterson.
R. M. Etheredge and family have moved to Lyon county their former home. They have been here for over a year and our people be come so attached to them that they regret to give them up.
Well we suppose you had on hand plenty of wood and coal when the big snow came last Sunday, if you did not we are sure you needed it. The man who lets a cold snap slip upon him and find him without wood or coal is what we call in a cool fix. Some people complain about wood being stolen from them, but on this occasion we are sure none was taken from us.
Certainly the republicans and third party voters will concede to the democrats the right to select their nominees in the way they choose, because they may rest assured that democrats will not interfere or take part in their mass convention at Briensburg. Let each party select its nominees as it thinks best. The officers of the primary should see to it that none but democrats vote.
It is true Esau and Jacob were twins but Esau was the elder of the two and has always so been considered. When Esau sold his birthright for a mess of pottage he was about 32 years old. Esau was a cunning hunter a man of the field. Jacob was a plain man dwelling in tents. Esau was led by appetite and wanted red pottage but before his brother Jacob would let him have it he wanted him to sell his birthright, which he did.
Mrs. Goforth came home last week and sold and took away the remnant stock of groceries and other things belonging to her and has gone to reside with her parents in Tennessee. She buried her husband at Paris Tenn. It is reported that by his hard work and close economy had managed to live and save up over $800 in cash besides keeping up an insurance policy of $1000 which his wife will draw in due course of time. Mrs. Goforth was well beloved by her neighbors and acquaintances and they very much regret her leaving as well as the loss of her kind husband.
Upon the democratic ballot to be used at the primary election of March 10, 1894, there are 31 names and it takes just 299 letters to spell the names of the various candidates as the appear on the ballots; it also takes 155 letters to be used in printing the rest of the ballot, which makes the total number of letters used in printing the ballot as it will be used on that day 454. We printed for the use of the election, the candidates and for educational purposes 2800. If 454 letters appear on one ballot it will 2800 times 454 to print all of them make the total number of single impressions 1,271,200. This sounds mighty big for a Marshall county primary election.
We publish an article in this week's paper advocating the claims of Judge Dupriest before the third party convention. We are also in possession of another letter giving several reasons why a certain gentleman should receive the nomination for jailer at the Briensburg convention, but both of the candidates for that office have announced in the Tribune and we will not permit anything in its columns for or against either of them, but as the candidates for county judge saw fit to not so announce, our columns are open for the friends of both Dupriest and Nelson to say what they please in the interest of their favorite.

Profits Alike.
Hon. W. M. Reeds tells a fine joke on a certain druggist in this town. He says he went into the store one day and called for half an ounce of carbolic acid, asked the price and was promptly told 25 cents; he paid it gladly and walked out, believing it was cheap enough. Two months afterward he needed some of the same drug again and called, but the proprietor was out and a boy was in the store; he produced the same bottle but told the clerk he wanted an ounce instead of half an ounce, just twice as much, which was instantly given him; believing it would cost 50 cents, but for man-ners sake asked the price; and imagine his surprise when told it was only 10 cents. He said he had often heard that the profits of a druggist were something like those of the lawyer, but never before saw it so clearly demonstrated as on this occasion.
Republicans.
A Republican mass meeting is called to meet at the court house in this city on March 12, 1894, to nominate candidates for the various county offices, but we are reliably informed that but little work will be done on that occasion. Only two candidates will be nominated, one for sheriff and one for county clerk. It is now understood that W. S. Griffith will be declared the nominee for sheriff and that the race for county clerk will be between W. H. Fields of Briensburg and J. H. Ford of this district. As to which one of these gentlemen will be successful in receiving the empty honor we are at present not prepared to state.
All three of these aspirants are perfect gentlemen, and if the county is to have a couple of republican office-holders we know of none we had rather have than these.
All Jims.
Jake Redwine, who is Uncle Sam's mail contractor and carrier from Wiley to Benton via Oak Level and Harvey, says he believes he has the best postmasters on his route in the state, because of the fact that they are all named Jim. He begins with Jim Wiley, the postmaster at Wiley, Jim Reeves, the postmaster at Oak Level, Jim Ivey, the stamp dispenser at Harvey, and Jim Lemon at Benton. He only visits four offices, at which all of the postmasters are named Jim. The first office he visits in the morning he says, "Jim, here's your mail;" the second it's "Jim, here's your mail," and so on the entire round trip, so he says by the time he gets back home he feels like he had a bad case of the "Jim Jams." But we assure Mr. Redwine that too much red wine and four Jims is enough to give a man a nice case of the Jim Jams.

Depot Box Car Robbed.
Last Friday night someone entered the depot box car at this place and with the assistance of a monkey-wrench taken from Hamilton's shop, the safe belonging to the American Express company, was opened and a small amount of money taken therefrom, and a silver watch that was in it was also taken. The guilty party has never been apprehended, but on the same night the depot at Elva was also broken into and a box of matches and 15 cents in cash filched therefrom greatly to the annoyance of Agent Hicks, who is the guardian angel in that office. The railroad company will lose enough money by loss of money, freight and otherwise to build a new depot at this place; but we suppose they know what they are doing.
