Fulton Co. Fair A Brilliant Success

Big Crowds in Attendance--Good Races A Feature--Exhibitions in Every Department Are Attractive.

Gay Crowds At Night Shows.

Liberty Hall is daily thronged with visitors to the Fulton Co. Fair. Each night the music and the illuminations attract the greatest number of people from all parts of the county and beyond.

Clarence Fox is also exhibiting his fine herd of Jersey cattle, and Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Dower have a large display of poultry. Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Dower, of Rockford, are prominent in the exhibits at the fair.

Leaving the agricultural and horticultural building, we find Mr. E. F. Watkins, chairman of the board of supervisors, seated in the chair of the fair, in charge of the sale of the property. He is a railroad man, whose hobby is fine-keen. Mr. Watkins is in charge of the butter and cheese department.

Practice makes perfect. Schoolmasters of today as well as yesterday constantly repeat that truth. Pupils learn by applying it.

Application of that principle to our everyday habits grows its practical help. We learn by practicing, whether it be a good habit or a bad habit.

This bank teaches you thrift by leading you to practice it. The lesson is easily learned once it is begun. To become perfect in it requires constant practice. A savings account is the most consistent method of practicing thrift.

SOUTHERN FENCE IS THE BEST

Horse-high—Bull-strong—Tight-fast—Weather-wise—Rust-proof

The three principal ingredients of a fence are—Going in one piece; lasting; and looking good. Southern fence is one piece, lasts, and looks good.

Southern fence is made up of galvanized steel, is eight and one-fourth inches high, and weighs about 10 pounds to the mile. A roll of this fence will stretch a mile and a half at least, and the two bars in the top are formable, so that it may be broken to any length that may be necessary.

It is called the most durable fence on the market. It will last from 15 to 20 years.

Southern fence is made in lengths of 100 feet. It is sold by John Deere Hardware Company.
