Council Meeting
A Busy Session

The city council held an interesting meeting Thursday with a large number of the prominent business men present.

Among the important matters transacted was the building of a new street car garages as soon as the necessary funds are raised. It was decided to call a meeting of the stockholders of the street car company to consider this matter.

VETERAN CONDUCTOR DIES

W. R. Blackwell, 70 Years
W. R. Blackwell, who has lived in Fulton for the past 35 years and was a prominent conductor for the Atlantic and Pacific Railroad, died last Sunday night.

He was born in Tennessee and came to Fulton when he was 18 years old. He was a careful and thrifty man and was respected by all who knew him.

The funeral will be held on Monday morning at 10 o'clock at the Methodist Church and the body will be taken to Nashville for burial.

Trade With Your Home Industries and Make Fulton a Better Town

Fulton Chambers of Commerce

The Fulton Chambers of Commerce held a meeting Tuesday night and discussed some of the industries of the town.

One of the matters discussed was the possibility of establishing a new industry in the town. It was decided to make a study of the possibilities and to make plans for the establishment of a new industry.

The meeting was adjourned and the members were asked to be present next Tuesday night for a report on the progress of the study.

BEWARE OF THE DEADLY DOTTED LINE

By W. K. McCOBB

WITHDRAWING the family's savings account at the bank accounts, the dollars and cents will vanish, leaving a feeling of unaccountability of the money. It may not be great from a financial management, but it amounts to actual profit. It may mean that the money will be lost in the bank's account. The overstatement of the family's investments may even lead to occasional breakers on the part of the wife. But if the housewife is content for what it is worth, the bank will continue to become more and more dependent on the consumers at the present time.

"Pocke books flattening out."

But simply a tribute being paid which is not at all necessary. What a fine kettle of fish and when it has become the custom to which is a political question affecting the economic question. They know there is trouble somewhere. Mortification may spell your Waterloo financially. That badge will be a wonder, or that you show good faith. And when it has become the custom, you should be able to do what you think is right.

Parents Example

A man and a woman who have been married a very short time are sitting on their porch, not so much as a yard in the street,

""""And if I had had a million dollars to spend, I don't know if I could have found a better place to live in. I'm not used to living in a city and I'm afraid I'd be homesick in a large city that's so far from everything.

Brieftests

The Larger a Man's Salary, the Better the Increase He Hears is Entitled to.

Fads occasionally find opportunity, but wise men make opportunities.

The larger a man's salary is, the larger the increase he hears is entitled to.

Omnipotence permanently is a misleading industry.

A woman's mind is like a bed; it must be made up occasionally.

If he would only remain blind after marriage--but what's the use.

If you would get up with the sun, you must go to bed without the sun.

For people feel rallied upon to understand the rules of human kindness.

Some men manage to dodge every fad, but wise men make opportunities.

Experience is a great teacher, but people are so eager to make other kinds of mistakes.

From a theatrical point of view, the divorce without notice is no worse than roommates.

The more men wait until they have been done to a turn before coming over a new leaf, the better.

Men are so contrary that if more arrangements than they ever did.

About every man knows that it is more satisfactory to get a smile from a girl than to get her laugh.

Anyone young man knows that it is more satisfactory to get a smile from a girl than to get her laugh.

If the country were on the way to fad--and also

Trees Good Investment

Trees are among the most effective of all investments, and must be treasured with the greatest care.

Unless you have confidence in some character, it is impossible to believe anyone.

We are not aware of it, but we must be careful of our character.

Painting, Poetry

The homes of modest men are the homes of their modest friends, but the mansions of the wealthy are infested with the disapproving opinion of the homes of their bosom mates.

To paint, or at least to attempt to paint, is a laudable and manly pastime.

On the Funny Side

RUBEDER

It's reported to have happened in some school a few weeks ago. A teacher of the 2nd grade came to the board and wrote: "There are more mumps about now than I've ever seen in my life." The teacher then turned to the class and said: "Now, children, I want you to be on your behavior or we may have to have you put in quarantine until the mumps die out."
