Cornerstone of New Methodist Church Laid

With appropriate ceremonies the cornerstone of the New Methodist church, corner Carr and Second streets, was laid Sunday afternoon. Bishop DuBose, of Nashville, was in charge of the service, assisted by Pastor J. V. Freeman and Presiding Elder Norman. After opening with song and prayer, the bishop delivered a historical address, especially appropriate for the occasion, entwined with words of inspiration.

It was an ideal September day and a large crowd was in attendance. Just before the stone was laid in place by Messrs Joe Browder, M. I. Boulton, Vodie Hardin and W. R. Butt, Mr. Hardin read the list of articles placed in the cornerstone. From the box contained in the old cornerstone, the following was taken and placed in the new cornerstone.

A Holy Bible given by Mrs. R. A. Browder.

Hymns from R. M. Bolinger. Hymns from Rev. S. G. Patterson.

Holy Bible from J. M. Moss. Discipline for 1882 from Ellen Nix and mother, Bettie Felts.

BLOOD AND BREEDING WIN AT JACKSON FAIR

J. T. Watkins, Secretary of the Fulton Poultry Association, entered six Buff Wyandotte birds at the West District Tennessee Fair recently held at Jackson.

He has just received word he won every prize in this class. Mr. Watkins says he will make two more shows this fall, the Tri-States at Memphis, in October, and the KIWANIS show to be held in Cairo, Thanksgiving week.

Gov. Small has offered a silver cup at this show and "chicken" says they will have to go some to beat his buffs for that cup.

HIGH SCHOOL AUDITORIUM WEDNESDAY, OCT. 12

The Parent-Teachers Association will present Dr. Jones at the High School Auditorium, Wednesday evening, Oct. 12. Admission: Adults, 75c; Students, 40c.

Dr. H. I. Jones

Dr. Hilton Ira Jones brings to the lecture platform a rare combination of talents. As a scientist he has gained a place of recognized standing. He has been honored at home and abroad.

He is a fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, the Chemical Society (London), a member of the American Chemical Society and many other learned organizations in this country and abroad, and a research worker of marked ability, whose articles have frequently appeared in leading scientific publications.

Unlike many scientists, he has the ability to present complex scientific subjects in terms that make them readily understandable to popular audiences.

Doctor Jones will deliver here his great lecture of "Self Management," a startling account of the discoveries of modern science with relation to the chemistry of the body.

This notable lecture has been receiving voluminous publicity in leading newspapers all over the country. Under the title, "The Chemistry of Life," a leading daily paper recently ran an editorial upon this lecture in which it says:

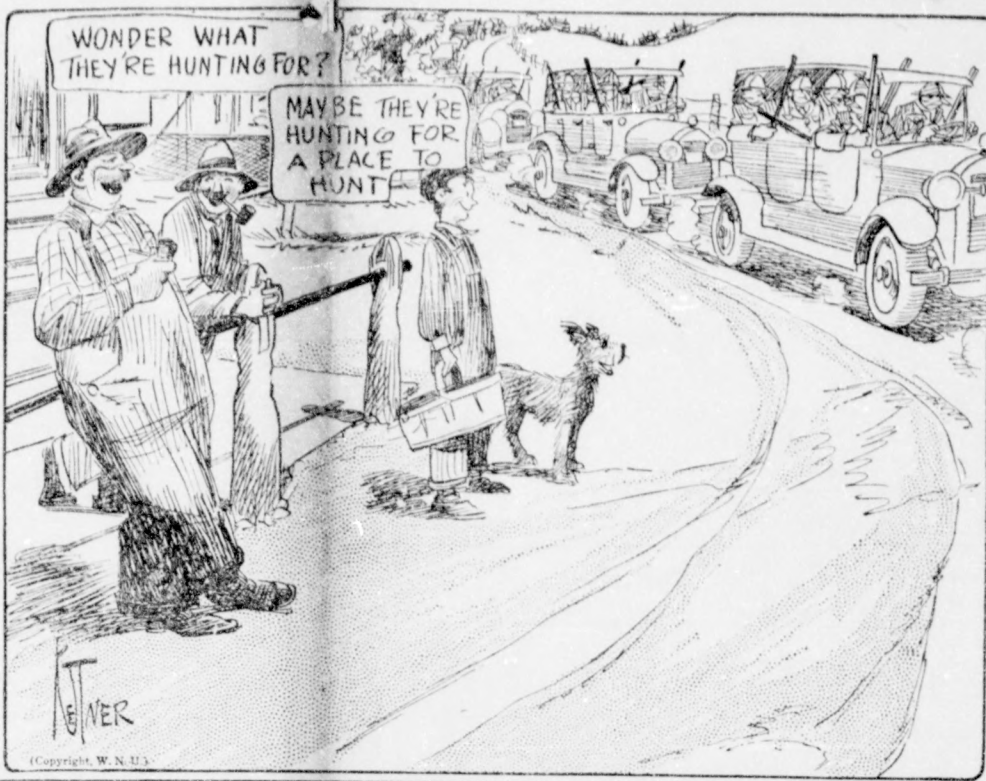

"It is not easy to pass on the many vital truths Doctor Jones presented to his audience on the chemistry of the human body; the value of suggestion and auto-suggestion; their influence upon the subjective mind; the power of the subjective mind upon individual character and destiny by the ductless glands; how health, happiness and success can be gained by a knowledge of all these and other forces and their intelligent and persistent application.

"Not often have we had in our midst a speaker with the technical knowledge and the breadth of view to tell the people new truths of science. Still less often have we had men who added the high moral purpose to interpret these discoveries in terms of right living and increased personality."

The meeting now in progress at the Church of Christ is being largely attended and Evangelist Dunn is preaching soul stirring sermons. He is a forceful talker and his gospel messages are having telling effect.

All are invited to the services at 3 o'clock and 7:30 P. M.

NATION'S DAIRYMEN HEADING SOUTHWARD TO ANNUAL ROUND-UP

Memphis Will Be Capital of Dairy World for Eight Days of October

Secretary S. S. Motley of the Fulton Chamber of Commerce, has been busily engaged during the past week in an effort to interest farmers of this vicinity to attend the Dairy Show at the Tri-State Fair in Memphis next month. A special train over the I. C. will leave Fulton at 7:00 a. m. Tuesday, Oct. 18.

Memphis will be the capital of the dairy world for eight days in October. For the first time in history dairymen from North, East and West will make pilgrimages to the South to celebrate the annual round-up of national dairy interests.

Dairy development in the South now challenges the serious attention of the industry throughout the nation.

Breeders of fine dairy stock and manufacturers of dairy products and dairy equipment are going from all sections of the country to attend the National Dairy Exposition and obtain first hand information about the South's widely heralded advantages.

Famous Herds to Compete
America's most famous herds of all recognized dairy breeds are sending their finest types to compete for national honors in the show-ring.

Twelve hundred head of pure-bred Jersey, Holstein, Guernsey, Ayrshire and Brown Swiss cattle, conservatively valued at $1,000,000, will be on display in the great cattle barn of the Tri-State Fair—one of the largest in the country.

Milk products plants from New England to the Pacific Coast have entered exhibits of the finest dairy foods that creamery experts can produce.

The United States government is sending an educational exhibit especially designed for the Exposition, that in many respects will be the equivalent of a university short course in dairy husbandry and much more practical for the farmer with a small herd.

Opportunity of a Lifetime
Thirty-one state agricultural colleges are sending student teams to compete for the national dairy cattle judging championship.

Teams of Smith-Hughes vocational high school students will be sent by 29 states to participate in similar contests. There also will be judging contests for 4-H Boys' and Girls' Clubs and for farmers who have had no special training in judging dairy cattle.

Dairy machinery and equipment of every kind and variety needed in outfitting the modern dairy farm will be displayed and demonstrated in Exposition Hall.

The National Dairy Exposition at Memphis, Oct. 15-22, offers southern farmers and prospective dairymen an opportunity of a lifetime to gain at small cost a comprehensive view of the dairy industry in all its branches and to study the many advantages their section holds.

Visitors will see the world's finest display of dairy cattle, the world's largest display of dairy products, the world's largest display of dairy equipment—all will be combined in this unequalled National Dairy Exposition.

Differences Settled Between the City and Mr. Chisholm

The street paving in front of the Orpheum Theatre on Fourth street which was held up on account of differences between W. Levi Chisholm and the city has been agreeably settled and the improvement will continue uninterrupted. About six feet of the walk in front of Mr. Chisholm's property, also U. G. DeMyer's property will be added to the street paving at this point which will add materially to the beauty of Fourth street when the paving of this prominent thoroughfare and completion of the bridge across Harris Fork Creek is finished.

1928 YEAR BOOK OF WOMAN'S CLUB IS INTERESTING

The 1927-28 year book of the Woman's Club of Fulton is in the hands of the printer. It is an attractive announcement of the year's program, which indicates courses of study of wide interest.

The department of American Home is confining itself largely to study of "Modern Home Life."

The Art Department is giving a year to the study of "Modern American Art and Artists."

Community Service Department is offering eight interesting programs, with a membership luncheon, October twenty-first.

"One-Act plays for the stage and study," is the subject of the Drama Department.

The Literature Department has for its study, "The Living Drama," offering two programs, "Backgrounds of the Nineteenth Century," four of "English Renaissance," three of "Irish Impulse," and six of "American Drama."

The Department of Music has miscellaneous programs with "Musical Instruments" by Kelly, as its study.

The Junior Woman's Club has "American Literature," and "Current Fiction."

The roster of the club is made up of some of Fulton's most prominent and talented ladies. Also carries a roster of the Juvenile and Junior Music Clubs.

Mrs. J. E. Fall, the president, needs no introduction as she is known for her ability and influence in club circles. And it was under her presidency that last year's programs were rich in variety.

Friday, October 7, the club will resume its meetings at the Chamber of Commerce.

PUBLIC RELATIONS MEETING

On Thursday, September 22, the employees of the Kentucky Utilities Company, of the Paducah District held a Public Relations meeting in the office of the Company at Fulton.

Miss Menna Jennings, secretary to District Manager R. A. Becker, of Paducah, presided in a most competent and pleasing manner.

The following program was given: The Manufacturing and Development of the Mazda Lamp—F. J. Hardesty.

Fundamentals of Industrial Lighting—W. A. Moore, Manager of the Hickman Office; Job Discussion—S. Leech, of Fulton.

Private Ownership of Public Utilities—E. C. Hardesty.

The Art of Public Speaking—Miss Menna Jennings.

All the papers were discussed understandingly by those present, and Mr. J. E. Hanneph, a recent recruit to the Fulton sales force, added his appreciation of the great help gained by the employees from such meetings.

The next meeting will be a combined one of the Public Relations and the Safety Department, the date and place to be announced later.

Miss Jennings, besides being private secretary to Mr. Becker, as stated above, is District Chairman of the Woman's Committee of the Paducah District.

Following is a list of the employees present: E. C. Hardesty, Manager, Fulton office; F. J. Hardesty, Mrs. Hattie A. Wood, J. E. Hanneph, D. C. Williams, S. Leech, R. M. Wheelis, Clifford Roberts and H. S. Stansbury, of Fulton; Mrs. Orine Jordan, of Clinton and Mr. W. A. Moore, manager of Hickman, and Messrs. Harold Moore and Paul Corum, of Hickman.

These Public Relations meetings are always extremely interesting and instructive to the employees who are lucky enough to be able to attend, and the officials of the company always arrange to have just as many present as the circumstances will permit.

Fans Listen in on Production

Scenes from Dix Picture Put on Air in Nation Wide Hookup

What is believed to be the first time actual scenes of a motion picture have ever been broadcast to the radio fans, occurred during the filming of scenes for "Knockout Reilly," Richard Dix' latest starring vehicle for Paramount coming Monday and Tuesday to the Grand Theatre.

Twenty stations were in the nation wide hookup served by the National Broadcasting Company from New York. It is estimated that 20,000,000 radio fans were tuned in on this hour of unique entertainment.

Joe Humphries, Jimmy De Forest, Pasty Haley, Billy McPartland and other well known boxing figures were in the ring during the broadcasting.

The first scene broadcast was that of a cabaret, Dix and Miss Brian participating. The jazz music of the cabaret was sent over the air during the filming of the scene. Next followed the prison scene with Dix; then the dressing room of the star as "Knockout Reilly." The final scene was the prize fight between Dix and Jack Renault, ring heavyweight.

It is thought that the broadcasting of production opens a new channel in the national exploitation of pictures. It gives to the millions of motion picture fans, their only opportunity of contact with production.

Work Progressing on Fourth Street Bridge

Work on the new bridge across Harris Fork creek on Fourth street was started early Thursday morning with a large crew of workmen dismantling the old bridge. W. M. Hill & Sons, the contractors, say that the new structure will be built of reinforced concrete 40 feet wide with a 27 foot driveway and 5-foot walks on each side. It will be modern in every respect and constructed similar to the bridges Hill & Sons built on the highway between Fulton and Union City. The bridge is to be completed within 30 days.

High School Notes

The Carr Institute was repaired before the opening of school this year, and therefore it has a much more pleasing appearance, both inside and out. The walls have been redecorated, the blackboards and window facings painted and window panes replaced.

Mrs. Brann, public school music supervisor, is organizing a Girls' Glee and a Boys' Harmonica Club in the Junior High school department which will be both enjoyable and entertaining and will add greatly to the interest of school. An orchestra has also been organized in the Junior High school.

Carr Institute has a large enrollment this year. Four hundred and forty-seven enrolled, of which one hundred and seventy-three are in the Junior High school.

The football schedule has been announced and we are delighted to find that nine games will be played this year, beginning with September 30. Seven of these games will be played at home. No finer schedule has ever been arranged before for this school and the public will enjoy a rare treat this year in being able to see the home team in action so many times.

Much interest is being manifested in girls' basketball and we hope to begin light practice soon.

Mr. Swan recently submitted a plan for an annual this year which has been well received by the students. We hope to hear more about this soon. It has been four years since F. H. S. brought out an annual and we feel that the time is ripe to repeat the experiment.

Mr. Whalin, principal of Carr Institute, delivered a very interesting address Tuesday in chapel, of "Germ diseases and how they can best be prevented." We hope that Mr. Whalin will return soon.

Miss Sarah Catron Smith, our Latin and Spanish teacher, began her work here Monday. In her absence Miss Martha Smith looked after her work. Miss Smith has just returned from an extensive trip abroad.

BOAT EXCURSION

The steamer Island Queen, on which the Fulton Elks lodge B. P. O. E. No. 1142 and Hickman Elks lodge will give a Moonlight Ride and Dance on the evening of Sept. 29, is the world's largest and most beautiful inland water boat, the decks and dance salons of which are enclosed in glass, a feature that is especially appealing on rainy or cool evenings. This palatial oil-burning steamer is on her way to New Orleans, where she will give sight-seeing and dance excursions every afternoon and evening until after the Mardi Gras. The stop here will afford every one an opportunity of seeing this beautiful craft and enjoying an evening ride and dance.

The gorgeously decorated dance salon is surrounded by a balcony on which there are comfortable rocking chairs for those who like to watch the dancers, and on every deck there are clean spacious quarters for sightseers. To see this boat at night, with her more than 4,000 electric lights, is a treat in itself, but to ride on her and to take part in the festivities incidental to a boat ride, is a genuine pleasure.

Music will be provided by a ten piece negro band—an organization that has made a tremendous hit in New Orleans and which has been signed up for the winter season on the Queen. This orchestra is certain to keep the dancers on their toes continually, and as each member is able to double on various instruments the group provides entertainment equal to that of an orchestra two or three times its size.

The Island Queen is unsinkable and is absolutely fireproof. There are more than 30 airtight compartments in her hold, any one of which would prevent the boat from sinking, even if all the others were damaged. The picture reproduced herewith gives some idea of the magnificence and immensity of the craft, which cost more than $500,000, and has a carrying capacity of more than 5,000 persons.

MAN WANTED IN CUTTING CAUGHT

Roy Elan Alleged to Have Cut Town Marshal's Throat; Taken at Clinton

Clinton, Ky., Sept. 26—Roy Elan, wanted in Bradford, Tenn., for resisting arrest and cutting the throat of Bass Yates, city marshal of Bradford, was captured here this afternoon after a chase of about a mile on foot.

The cutting occurred Saturday night in Bradford, when Marshal Yates tried to arrest Elan for being intoxicated. Elan is said to have taken a pocket knife from his pocket and slashed the marshal's throat, then left town. The citizens and sheriff of the county offered a $75 reward for his capture or information that would lead to his capture.

The officers in Clinton were given a tip here this morning that Elan had been brought to town by his brother, O. Elan, of this city, and intended to leave on the northbound train at 11 o'clock. Deputy Sheriff Gene Alexander and G. W. Baccot, county agent, went to the station to intercept Elan should he make his appearance. They met his brother, O. Elan, and started to arrest him. Elan persuaded them to come into the station and let him explain that he was not the man they were searching for. While they were inside the station, the man they were hunting, Roy Elan, made his escape, running down the road. The officers found they had been tricked and started in pursuit, and Baccot succeeded in running Elan down about a mile from the station.

He was placed in the Clinton jail and officers from Bradford left Clinton at 6 o'clock, with Elan in their custody.

Marshall Yates is in a critical condition tonight.

CONTRACTOR IS BEATEN BY TRIO

Accused by Men of Having Taken Handbag at Columbus.

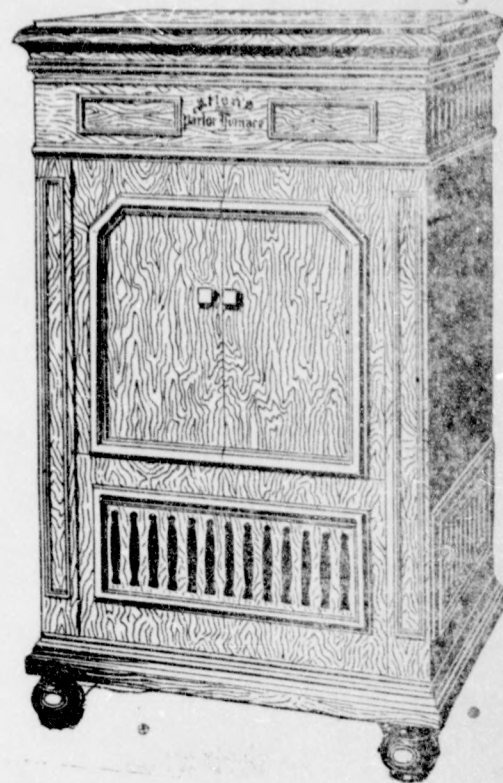

Clinton, Ky., Sept. 26—Will Gale, contractor for the new town of Columbus, was assaulted at his office near Columbus today and severely beaten on the head with a "two by four."

His alleged assailants, Walter Cosby, Herman Cosby and another man whose name was not learned, are reported to have been discharged by Mr. Gale last Saturday. They returned this morning, claiming to have lost a handbag. Not finding the handbag, they accused Mr. Gale with stealing it and while he was showing them his handbag, two of the men grabbed him and held him while the third man beat him over the head.

Mr. Gale was taken to Fulton where an X-Ray will be made to determine the extent of his injuries. Mr. Gale stopped in Clinton on his way to Fulton and swore out a warrant for the arrest of the three men.

When you buy John Deere implements you are sure of prompt repair service throughout their long life

A FARM WAGON THAT IS GUARANTEED

The amount of satisfactory service that a wagon will give depends entirely upon the material and skill the manufacturer puts into it. We want to show you a wagon that is built of the best materials by men who know how—

THE JOHN DEERE WAGON The Wagon That is Guaranteed

A special machine automatically measures the inside of the skin of the John Deere farm wagon and shapes the axle to fit accurately. The skin is set in lead under high pressure. It has exactly the right pitch, and the axle has the right gather to make the John Deere wagon run lighter than other wagons. With the John Deere sand- and dust-proof seals there is no wearing of bearing surfaces—the oil stays in the wagon. It is always smooth-running and light-pulling.

Only carefully-selected oak and hickory are used in the John Deere Wagon, and every piece of wood is air-seasoned under cover in our own yards for at least two years. The tires are set hot under hydraulic pressure and under a gauge that assures proper dish—the load is always carried on plumb spokes.

And don't forget this other big feature—the heavy malleable fifth-wheel with corrugated coupling—no bending in the wagon. It is always smooth-running and light-pulling.

Come in and see this wagon—read the guarantee on the tool box. Let us explain the many fine points embodied in it.

SAMPSON UNABLE TO EVADE JOCKEY CLUB ISSUE, BECKHAM SAYS IN OPENING SPEECH

Former Governor in Address at Danville Declares People of Kentucky Now Battling For Good Government and Overthrow of Entrenched Privilege.

Danville, Ky.—Declaring that he "would not seek to delude the people with vain promises and false hopes" and confessing his inability to compete with his Republican opponent in "the free distribution of promises" former Gov. J. C. W. Beckham, Democratic nominee for Governor, opened his campaign here Saturday and was heard by applauding thousands. In the campaign now just getting under way Judge Flein D. Sampson, the Republican nominee, will be unable to sidestep the issue of Jockey Club domination of the State's affairs, Gov. Beckham said. The speaker reiterated the pledge made in his primary campaign that if he is elected Governor he will undertake to end the Jockey Club's gambling monopoly and its meddling, bipartisan attempt to control both the executive and legislative branches of the State government.

Fight Against Privilege

At one point in his address Gov. Beckham said: "Without conceit, I believe I may truthfully say that this contest deeply concerns the welfare of our people for many years to come and goes to the very heart of the struggle for good government in our State. Against us are arrayed, behind their leader, the great power and wealth of entrenched privilege, which has no concern for the cause of good government, but only for the reservation of their special privileges."

"It is not simply a contest between the Democratic party and the Republican party, but is a contest over principles and policies which have caused serious division in both parties. Tens of thousands of good Republican citizens who followed the gallant Lucas in his candidacy in the primary and many thousands of independents have the same views upon these questions that I have, and we cordially invite them to join with us in a common cause."

Gov. Beckham declared he was heartily in favor of the early completion of the State's highway system and said that all contracts entered into between counties and the Highway Commission would be faithfully executed so long as funds are available. In carrying out the State's road-building program, he said, he would "carefully select only such men as I believe will be able to give the best service to the State."

Educational Opportunities

Of education Gov. Beckham said: "We want to see the best educational opportunities placed within the reach of all our young people, and it is my purpose to help in that work whenever possible. I wish to see the possibilities of our schools, normal schools and State university increased in every way."

"I feel sure that we can catch up with any definite promise of free text books and higher salaries for teachers. Desirable as these are and as much as I would like to see them accomplished, it is not now possible to give assurance of their coming. Matters to be considered in connection with the condition of the revenues and of the tax system. There is no doubt that our teachers are underpaid, and I should be glad to see a condition arise whereby their salaries could be increased."

Relief for the farmer, the speaker would secure through economies achieved in savings that would follow a prudent and businesslike administration of the State's affairs.

The speaker declared for a "more prompt and efficient punishment of criminals in the State." More efficient and economical administration of the State's affairs was also stressed.

Opposes Tonnage Tax

Gov. Beckham said he was opposed to a tonnage tax on coal believing that such a plan would place the coal industry in Kentucky at a great disadvantage as compared with the industry in neighboring States that do not impose such a tax. Concerning labor Gov. Beckham said:

"My attitude on this subject is the same as it has always been in my public life, and if I am elected I shall give a fair and earnest consideration to all labor questions that might come before me, with a desire to aid in any reasonable measure for the benefit and welfare of our labor people."

Discussing the political activities of the Kentucky Jockey Club and the proposed repeal of the pari-mutuel law Gov. Beckham said:

"I have reserved for the last a discussion of the subject that may be considered first in importance in this campaign. Upon this subject there is a direct issue between me and my opponent, and the people of Kentucky need have no doubt where each of us stands upon it."

"Before the August primary I made my position very clear and positive upon it. In every section of the State where I spoke I declared myself emphatically in favor of the repeal of the pari-mutuel law. I said that I approved all sports, horse racing, baseball, football and others, which legitimately and properly conducted; that it was not my desire to destroy horse racing or to injure the horse breeding industry; and that my only purpose was to secure the repeal of that indefensible law and put an end to the evils and corruption that had grown out of it."

Pari-mutuel History

"The law was enacted in 1857 and reenacted in the revision of the Statutes in 1893. Jockey Club agents and newspapers have circulated the report that it was passed while I was Governor and approved by me, seeking to create the impression that I have no right now to condemn it. Even if that were true, I certainly would not hesitate to advocate its repeal when I found that it had been productive of so much harm. The only measure affecting racing passed while I was Governor was the Racing Commission law, the avowed purpose of which was to regulate racing and put it upon a higher plane. It had no provision whatever on gambling and no reference to the pari-mutuel act."

"Under this pari-mutuel law, gambling upon horse races is legal within the inclosure of race courses while gambling if operated elsewhere is denounced and punishable by law."

law as a felony. It is one of the most curious and extraordinary laws that can be found in the statute books of any State. Under the law there has grown up in recent years the most powerful and the richest monopoly ever seen in this State. Its power and wealth come directly from that act which gives to the Jockey Club a monopoly upon legalized gambling. Its profits are enormous, reaching, it is estimated, into the millions of dollars annually. Its books are closed and sealed to the public."

A Corrupting Influence

"The chosen few that constitute its stockholders and officers have gathered in riches from this gambling privilege. They are not primarily interested in horse racing as a sport, or the breeding industry as a business. They look upon them and use them as feeders for their gambling monopoly, and the breeding industry would find it to its best interests to sever the unholy alliance. With their increase in wealth and power they became arrogant and ambitious. They corrupted the legislature, they corrupted both political parties. Their corrupting influence has been seen in legislative sessions, and the highest-payed lobbyists are ever present and alert, seeking to secure Jockey Club domination, wherever and whenever political issues are involved."

"What power was it that caused Judge Sampson, the friend of the Jockey Club to strike out from his speech in Lexington those parts of it which dealt long enough to condemn the 'Parimutuel' industry and its 'iniquitous lobby'? How much would the people of Kentucky like for the industries to desert long enough from his judicial labors, to tell them who it was that persuaded him not to deliver all of the truth he had prepared, and caused him in frantic hurry to order the newspapers to leave out the most salient and interesting parts of his speech. Too late! The speech had already been printed, and the Judge could leave it to only his delivered speech. His exclamation will be awaited with interest."

Cites Lucas Charge

"He says that the Pari-mutuel law is not an issue in this campaign, and yet a week before the State primary on August 6, Hon. Robert Lucas, the opponent of Judge Sampson in the Republican primary and a gentleman of high character and truthfulness, in a speech delivered in Louisville made this statement: 'The Jockey Club spent $75,000 in this campaign to nominate Sampson. Mr. Lucas would not have made such a statement giving specific figures if he had not had good reason to know it to be true.'"

"Some days before that speech Judge I. H. Thurman, who has honorably served his district for twenty-five years as Circuit Judge, made a speech in which he charged that the Jockey Club had set aside the sum of $200,000 to be used in the primary campaign, and he gave the names of the three individuals to whom the money should be paid, stating the exact sum each was to receive. He named Maurice Givins, Judge Sampson's real manager, as one who received $125,000 to use in the campaign. Judge Thurman was definite and positive as to the names and figures. Mr. Lucas said that the Judge was right. Judge Thurman as an evidence of the accuracy of his statement put up a check for $2,000 to be given to the Red Cross, if certain records of the Jockey Club did not show his charge to be correct."

$5,000 Check Unclaimed

"All that was necessary to disprove this serious charge, if it was untrue, and to secure $5,000 for a worthy charity, was for the Jockey Club to produce the papers called for. The challenge has never been accepted, and the $5,000 check is still unclaimed. The books and records of the Jockey Club are closed as tight as an iron safe. Publicity of those records would not only prove the accuracy of Judge Thurman's charge, but would most probably show in other instances and at other times such expenditures of money for corrupt political purposes as would shock and open the eyes of every intelligent and patriotic citizen in the State."

"And yet Judge Sampson says that the Jockey Club is not an issue in this campaign. He would have us believe that a monopoly, enjoying the special privilege of legalized gambling, that is charged with spending $200,000 in the primary campaign, that will spend probably more than that in an effort to elect him, and whose special privilege is at stake in this campaign—that such a monopoly is not an issue before the people of Kentucky! But the Judge will not be allowed to get away from this issue, for the people of Kentucky will decide that the only way to break up the corrupt lobby and legislative affairs of the State is to repeal that statute, which is the evil source of all its wealth and power."

Would Repeal Law

"I emphatically favor its repeal and if I am elected Governor, I shall use all proper and honorable means to secure its repeal. And when it is repealed, I shall be glad to see legitimate horse racing preserved and the industry of breeding race horses prosper. Baseball, football and other sports flourish and prosper without any legalized privilege of gambling, and I believe that horse racing can do so, too."

"If the Jockey Club is permitted to pursue the course of pernicious and illegal activities that it has done for many years, it will do more than anything else to destroy horse racing and the horse-breeding industry in this State. The voters of Kentucky will demand that Judge Sampson give them his reasons and arguments for opposing the repeal of that law and to quit trying to mislead them as to his position on it by puerile and scurrilous abuse of some men who are supporting me and who in every way are inferior to his superior in character and reputation."

Discipline at Home.

Some parents become aggravated with school teachers when disciplinary measures are applied a little too severely. Before condemning the teacher, it might be a good idea to examine their own responsibility in the matter.

When discipline becomes necessary at school, it is good reason to believe that discipline has been lacking at home. It scarcely seems fair to blame teachers for resorting to methods that should have been followed at home.

Teachers do not obligate themselves to assume the role of parents when they accept a position in the schools. They merely agree to teach the children sent to them with the best ability they possess. They have no control over their conduct outside the school room; neither are they responsible for the traits inherent in the children which interfere with the orderly management of the school.

These are questions that parents should consider seriously—especially when the child reaches high school age. If they have made a failure at home, what reason have they to expect that the child's conduct will be exemplary in school?

It is impossible to measure the amount of misery and misfortune which has resulted in the world from misplaced confidence in the signing of surety papers in investments in "wild cat" and "blue sky" schemes for making money rapidly. It would seem that experiences of this kind have been so general and have been given so much publicity that everyone would be aware of the danger of business operations of the sort. And yet it seems that there is annually a new crop of inexperienced ones who must learn their lesson in the bitter school of misfortune.

KENTUCKY'S MOST OUTSTANDING CHARITY

For many years the Kentucky Children's Home Society has been Kentucky's most outstanding charity. It has gathered up over 4,150 little helpless urchins from the highways and byways (the alleys, slums and county poor houses) and by placing them in good homes, has started them on the road to good citizenship. Many hundreds of them have reached that goal and many other hundreds are traveling safely on the way. Still other hundreds and thousands are coming on in the years ahead who may grow up into lives of sin and shame unless properly cared for. The Kentucky Children's Home Society offers its care to all such children.

The Society has completed a magnificent Cottage Village at Lyndon, Ky., at a cost of $550,000 on which there is a deficit of $50,000. To meet this deficit, a campaign is now being started through the public schools of the State. The first two buildings of this village were erected with money raised by the schools several years ago and we are again appealing to them to finish the work they so nobly began.

State Superintendent, McHenry Rhoads, and other educational leaders all over the State, strongly endorse this campaign and urge the teachers to respond cheerfully and actively. Letters and other literature are being mailed to superintendents, principals and teachers everywhere, and every school is expected to make a contribution at some time during the school year, be it large or small. Patrons of the school are requested to see their teachers and urge them to action.

County superintendents are giving their approval and have been asked for lists of their school teachers and addresses. Any who have not yet forwarded their lists to the society at Lyndon, Ky., should do so at once.

Last year the Society received in the Home 348 children, placed 305 in homes, had 1383 under supervision and in some way dealt with 1560 children. At the present time they have 301 children in the Receiving Home at Lyndon.

Kentuckians at large are interested in and loyal to this institution and will, no doubt, rally to the effort of the teachers and children in doing their utmost for this worthy cause.

Lesson for October 2

ELIJAH ON MOUNT CARMEL

LESSON TEXT—1 Kings 18.
GOLDEN TEXT—Choose you this day whom ye will serve.
PRIMARY TOPIC—God Hears Prayer.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Standing Alone for God.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Standing for God Against the Crowd.
YOUTH PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Courage of Conviction.

I. Elijah's Message to Ahab (vv. 17, 18).
When Jezebel became the wife of King Ahab, she waged a savage war against God's prophets, killing all she could find, and thus seeking to abolish the true religion and set up idolatry instead. Elijah suddenly appeared, announcing the suspension of moisture (1 Kings 17:1) as a judgment upon the people for their idolatry. He sounded three striking notes in his message:

1. "As the Lord God of Israel liveth," He knew that he represented the living God, therefore did not fear to come into the presence of the king.
2. "Before whom I stand." His standing before God indicated his constant readiness to go on His errands.
3. "There shall not be dew nor rain these years, but according to my word." This suspension of moisture continued for three and a half years, and rain came in answer to Elijah's prayer (Jas. 5:17).

II. A Challenge to Baal Worship (1 Kings 18:17-40).
As soon as Elijah had delivered his message concerning the drought, he withdrew from the king's sight.

1. Elijah shows himself to Ahab (vv. 17, 18).
- (1) Ahab's question (v. 17). His aim in this question was no doubt to intimidate Elijah.
- (2) Elijah's answer (v. 18). He denied the charge and boldly declared that the calamity which had befallen the nation was caused by the idolatry of Ahab and his family.
2. The bold challenge (vv. 19-24).
- (1) The people assemble (vv. 19, 20). At the urgent request of Elijah the king convened the people.
- (2) The ringing call to decision (vv. 21-24). a. The question asked (v. 21). Many of the people had not wholly forsaken God. They attempted to worship both God and Baal. b. The silence of the people (v. 22). This may have been because of fear of the king or ignorance, for many were of the opinion that to be religious was the only thing necessary, irrespective of the being worshiped. c. The method of decision (vv. 22-24). Two sacrifices were to be provided, one to be offered to Baal, the other to God.
3. The test applied (vv. 25-39).
- (1) Offering by the prophets of Baal (vv. 25-29). Elijah gave the prophets of Baal the first opportunity to prove whether Baal was a real God.
- (2) The offering by Elijah (vv. 30-32). a. The people invited near (v. 30). His object in inviting the people was to see clearly in order that they might grasp the genuineness of the test. b. The altar repaired (vv. 30-32). Elijah took twelve stones, representing the united nation. c. The offering on the altar (v. 33-35). After the bullock was in place he had four barrels of water three times emptied upon the sacrifice and the wood so as to fill the trench about the altar. So sure was Elijah that God's power was sufficient that he heaped difficulty upon difficulty. d. Elijah's prayer (vv. 36, 37). This was a model prayer. (a) It was based upon covenants (v. 36). All real prayer rests upon covenant relationships. (b) Its object was God's exaltation (v. 36). Elijah was jealous for God's glory, but the only thing that he asked for himself was to be known as God's servant. (c) It was for the salvation of the people (v. 37). e. The result (vv. 38, 39). (a) The fire of the Lord fell and consumed, not only the sacrifice, but the wood, stones and dust, even licking up the water in the trenches. (b) The people fell on their faces and confessed that the Lord was the God.
4. The execution of Baal's prophets (v. 40). Israel's government was a theocracy. God was their king. Idolatry was treason against the King. These false prophets were traitors to God and therefore should die.
5. Elijah vindicated (vv. 41-46). The proof that Elijah was God's prophet was incomplete until rain came.

III. Elijah Taken Up Into Heaven (1 Kings 2:1-15).
Not only was the prophet vindicated in that the offering was consumed and rain came, but God took him to Himself when his work was done.

Faith of Our Father

"The church should be kept a source of spiritual life and never before did the world see emphasis upon the faith of others living still,"—Rev. B. A. Reed.

DRUG STORE IS SOLD

Has Been Operated 50 Years By One Family

Hickman, Ky., Sept. 26.—After being operated by father and son for 54 years, Cowgill's Drug store, of Hickman, changed hands today. It has been bought by O. B. Kerlin and Edgar Mayes, of this city. It is the oldest drug store in West Kentucky. The father of John W. Cowgill went in the drug business in 1873 in the very stand where it is today and later made his son, Henry N. Cowgill, a partner, the father dying two years ago with the business continuing.

There has never been a day during the 54 years when one of the Cowgills was not looking after the business. The store will continue in the old name, out under new ownership. Mr. Cowgill will embark in some other business shortly.

A nice gift. Send The Advertiser to a friend one year—only $1.00.

JUDGE NUNN IS NAMED DISTRICT CAMPAIGN CHIEF

Crittenden County Man Calls For United Democratic Front for Beckham

Thirty thousand majority for former Governor J. C. W. Beckham, Democratic nominee for Governor, in the First District in the November election, was the war cry given by Judge Clem S. Nunn, of Marion, Crittenden county, when elected district campaign chairman for Beckham at Paducah, Monday night, at a meeting of county campaign charimen and other influential Democrats from all of the thirteen counties of the District held at the Hotel Palmer.

Judge Nunn called on the Beckham county chairmen to "register every Democrat in the First District; get every Democrat to the polls on November 8." It was "up to the First District Democracy, to elect Mr. Beckham governor," he said. "We can win, we ought to win," Judge Nunn declared, "but if we are to win this gubernatorial contest, it must be done in the First District. We were the decisive factor in nominating Mr. Beckham. The Democrats in the other parts of the state will give him more than nominal support in this campaign, there is no doubt about that, but they will look to us for the big Democratic majority that will overcome the Republican vote in the mountain counties. They will say to us, 'You named him' and they will expect us to show the faith of our choice by an overwhelming majority for Beckham."

FAIR RACER HITS FENCE; TWO MAY DIE OF HURTS

Others Injured When Car Hits Fence at Dresden Fair

Herman Claxton, of Paris, Tenn., and Miss Estelle Ford, of Martin, were probably fatally injured and a dozen other people were more or less painfully hurt at Dresden Saturday afternoon when an automobile entered in the races at the county fair crashed through the fence into the crowd of onlookers.

Claxton, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Claxton, of Paris, suffered a punctured lung when a plank was thrust into his body. He was driving his own car in the races.

Miss Ford, an onlooker, was hurt when the cars plowed through the fence. She suffered broken collar bone, broken arm and fractured leg, in addition to bruises on the head.

Both were taken to the Martin hospital and doctors were reticent about making a prognosis, especially in Claxton's case. Claxton is widely known through Henry and Weakley counties. He returned only recently from the state fair at Nashville, where he drove several spectacular races.

He was also entered in the auto races at Paris on Oct. 1. Drivers of the other cars were unable to explain what caused the accident, unless it was poor vision due to clouds of dust on the dirt track. The other injured were not taken to hospitals, but received treatment at their homes for minor injuries.

By a strange coincidence, Marion Robb, Memphis racer, crashed through the fence on one side of the track about the same moment that Claxton crashed through on the other. Robb's car turned over several times, but he was pitched up into a sapling, unhurt, and clambered down unaided. He was not scratched. There were no people near the spot where he went through the fence.

The others injured who have been accounted for in the Claxton accident were:

Dwight Clark, 40, McKenzie, crushed.
Miss Romel Clark, 25, his sister, bruised.
Miss Conell Clark, a younger sister, badly cut.
Ben Ford, 13, Martin, leg broken.
Miss — White, foot mashed.
— Bradberry, 14 year old boy, leg broken.
