WRITTEN NOTICE
To Be Given Council by the Board of Public Works

OF ACCEPTANCE OF STREET IMPROVEMENTS.

Wanted to know, by some wise act, when the mere utterance of their intended alterations at their request was officially announced, that the last few weeks have been governing the Third street Improvement, the Board of Public Works.

The approval of the legislative board, the creation of the citizens, in the middle of the city, a portion of the street, and the entire street, were among the several works substantially completed on the project, and at the last of the city, and was given the Board of Public Works a report of the same, and now this is their official statement, to be issued to the East Tennessee Telephone Company.

The final report of the Meridian Telephone Company and the city council is now in the hands of the public, and will be published.

Now we report the following:

When One Woman Could Do It

By DOUGLAS H. THOMAS

The Wednesday morning edition of The Paducah Sun, under the leadership of Bob Ewing, Manager, and the editorial staff, was responsible for the appearance of the most beautiful newspaper edition in the history of that journal.

The edition is devoted entirely to the celebration of the birthday of President Roosevelt, and is made up of a series of special features which will make it an occasion of great pride to all the residents of the city.

One of the most notable features of the edition is the reproduction of the portrait of the President, which is a faithful representation of the original. The portrait is reproduced in full color, and is accompanied by a brief biographical sketch of the President, which is written in the editor's own words.

Another feature of the edition is the reproduction of the President's speech at the dedication of the Peace Monument in Paris. The speech is reproduced in full, and is accompanied by a brief analysis of its significance.

The edition also contains a series of special features on the President's life and career, which are written in a spirit of admiration and respect. The features include biographical sketches of the President's family, and a brief account of his early life and education.

The edition is a wonderful tribute to the President, and is a fitting celebration of his birthday. It is a fitting reminder of the man who has been a great leader in the cause of peace and international understanding, and who has given so much to the world in the way of service and sacrifice.
President George V. Willard is fast becoming one of the most famous speakers in the country. He travels all over the country speaking for various causes. His eloquent speeches have gained him a large following. He is known for his emotional and memorable speeches.

CASTE IN THE KITCHEN.

The Literary family was clearing out its attic one day, and the lawyer, the gentlewoman, the doctor, etc., all came to the same conclusion.

"Do you want to use up your attic in order to get more space in the living room?" asked the lawyer.

"Yes, I do," said the lady, "but how is it that we always have to use up everything in the world in order to get more space?"

"That is because the world is full of people who want more space," said the lawyer.

"I see," said the lady, "and is it not possible to get more space in the world by using up less of it?"

"Of course," said the lawyer, "but that would require more thought and effort on the part of the people who want more space."
