DISTRICT FARM BUREAU MEETING HELD AT PALESTINE; DELEGATES FROM NINE COUNTIES VIEW NEW COMMUNITY HOUSE

J. B. McGehee Presides; Ladies Serve Barbecue

By a News Reporter

Tuesday night when Farm Bureau members from nine counties in western Kentucky met at the Palestine Community House they not only assembled to transact business of the district but to dedicate a monument to community spirit and determination.

The meeting was the first of a series of social gatherings held at the community house; the center that was built on a foundation of community fellowship, cooperation, and the need for cooperative thinking on mutual problems.

Palestine community has a population of 174 farmers. Each devoted many hours of mutual labor to bring into being a modern, well-built, concrete building of which they can be justly proud and to which farmers of the Nation can point as an example of America's will to work together.

The News salutes the people of Palestine Community as a typical, yet unusually outstanding example of farm life in western Kentucky. None would want special praise, but all deserve the plaudits that go with a job well done.

J. B. McGehee, chairman of the Farm Bureau Purchase District, presided at the meeting attended by county agents, home demonstration agents, and Farm Bureau officers and members from nine counties in western Kentucky.

Charles Wright, president of the Fulton County Farm Bureau extended words of welcome to the visiting delegates as did Roy Bard, president of the Palestine Community Farm Bureau. Called upon for impromptu talks during the evening were: H. J. French, insurance representative; Charles Wallace, field representative of the first district, who urged that Fulton County and the other counties represented send exhibits to the State Fair; Mrs. Allen Hines, Kentucky State President of the Associated Women; Roscoe Stone, member of the State Board of Directors, who paid glowing tribute to the work being done by the women in the state as a valuable adjunct to Farm Bureau efficiency and I. S. Woods acquisition manager of the Farm Bureau insurance plan.

Principal speaker of the evening was Joseph Betts, State Information Director of the Farm Bureau who represented Hon. Lewis Allen, State president who was unable to attend. In well chosen words Mr. Betts urged greater cooperation and understanding among bureau members in the program to secure profitable farm legislation.

"In unity we can accomplish much," he said. "There is no doubt that what progress we have made is a result of united effort on the parts of farmers everywhere."

And while the visitors and delegates listened to speeches of plans and programs they could not forget the delicious barbecue dinner served by the unfailing members of the Palestine Homemakers Club.

Guests at the meeting were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Westpheling publishers of the Fulton County News and Miss Marian Maxfield, office assistant at the News.

Little Phoebe

"It's colossal, it's gigantic, it's stupendous . . . it's not a bird, it's not a bomb, it must be superman," they gasped and stood on their toes and house-tops to see traffic tied up for blocks to get a view of the new rocket-ship.

But little Phoebe just laughed and laughed, because she knew it was Mrs. Dutch Gray learning to drive a car and all the king's horses couldn't get her foot off the accelerator.

DURBIN 'JEEP-CADE' TO VISIT WEST KY. JULY 31

A "jeep-cade"—something new and novel in political campaigns will start rolling from Fulton on Thursday, July 31, to tell Western Ky., to get on the Paul Durbin band wagon in his campaign for railroad commissioner of the first railroad district. The "jeep-cade," gaily decorated with nearly one hundred flags, will assemble in front of the City Drug Co., and with flags flying and bugles a-blowing will proceed to Clinton, Wickliffe, Paducah, Mayfield and every stop where folks will listen to the story of Durbin.

A jeep, carry an amplifying system will precede the caravan into each city and announce the advent of the jeeps, cars, ox-carts or any vehicle that is willing to join the trek into Western Kentucky voting areas.

Paul Durbin, Fulton's own candidate, will lead the jeep-cade into each city with his amplifying system soliciting the voters in this section for their support on August 2.

Fulton citizens are urged to join the jeep-cade and swell the ranks of the vehicles making the trip. Anyone wishing to join the caravan may do so by calling Bill Browning at Franklin's Store.

Typical of the support given Durbin by local citizens is a letter from N. W. Burnette, which is printed in full below.

"Dear Paul:

"Several days ago I was asked to contribute a few dollars to be used in radio advertising in the interest of your campaign for railroad commissioner. Without giving the matter much thought I made a small donation but later on I began to realize what this race meant to you and to all of us.

"I will be brief in what I have to say: I admire your spirit, not only in this campaign, but through the years as a young man with enough determination to work your way through law school, participate in athletics as captain of the University of Kentucky track team and boxing team, your excellent record during the war years, advancing from second lieutenant to the rank of lieutenant colonel, and your civic work as a citizen since your return to civilian life.

"Altogether I am really sold on you, and want you to know it. I am enclosing fifty dollars for you to use in any way you see fit toward your campaign. Best of luck, and assuring you of my efforts to help get you elected.

Your friend, N. W. Burnette"

The trend is toward Durbin. Do your share for a local boy.

There seems to have been a dearth of Spring poetry in 1947;

PEWITT RESIGNS AS COUNTY CHAIRMAN OF AGR. PROGRAM

"Drafted" To Run For County Representative

H. M. Pewitt, who has been chairman of the local Agricultural Conservation Association since September, 1940; vice chairman from 1937 to 1940; and community committee man on the old AAA Wheat Program from 1933 to 1936, tendered his resignation to the state office on July 17th to take effect immediately. Mr. Pewitt says: "having been drafted," to run for Representative to represent both Fulton and Hickman counties makes it imperative that I do this."

He also states that during these years of serving the farmers in the above capacity, no one has enjoyed the service more than he. He gave his untiring efforts generously to the work and always fought for the principles that meant so much to a successful farm program.

Mr. McGehee, secretary to the County Committee since the farm program began functioning says, "even though there's consolation to know that Harvey will still represent us as well as the Hickman county farmers in the Legislature, this office and the Fulton county farmers are going to miss him, for his wide experience in administering a program that was needed so badly, has meant much to the success that agriculture is now enjoying in this country."

W. H. Harrison, now becomes chairman, O. L. Sutton, who was regular member, automatically becomes vice chairman. S. A. Jones, near Cayce who was first alternate, becomes regular member and E. W. Yates, who was second alternate, now becomes first alternate.

NINA JABUR OF SOUTH AMERICA VISITS IN FULTON FOR SHORT STAY WITH HOMRAS

"I like America very much, I like the way the people live, I love the beauties of your country," is the way dark-eyed and stunning Miss Nina Jabur, of Sao Paulo, Brazil, expressed her pleasure at things American, which she has seen during the past eleven months while visiting here from her villa in South America.

Visiting briefly in Fulton as a guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. K. Homra, this attractive young lass from South America has visited most important cities in the United States. She was recently joined in the States by her parents, who flew here from their home to spend six months vacationing at points of interest in this country.

BASEBALL

'FORE and 'AFT

By George

Dear Baseball Fan,

The Chicks are on the road as this column goes to press. They will return for a three game series with the Clarksville Colts next Tuesday night at Fairfield.

Over the week-end, we had more visitors. This time, Jack Litzelfelner was host to his family. (And I mean family). His mother, brothers, Joe and Ralph and sisters, Phyllis, Margaret and Barbara were thrilled to see Jack hit two bingles against league-leading Owensboro. The Litzelfelners are from Jackson, Mo., and have promised to try to make every game they possibly can. We like to see the boys' families come to Fulton; especially to watch games that are as well played as that one.

Ray Pechous, centerfield, seems to make every issue. This week, he's in here because of an injury to his left leg. After catching a fly ball. (Continued on page ten)

Pitter, patter little rat
Now you know just where you're at
The News is after you and that's not all
They're going to kill you come this Fall.

With this little parody of a well-known stanza, the Fulton County News is today launching a city-wide rat eradication campaign to be conducted this Fall in cooperation with Harry Barry, sanitation officer of the Fulton-Hickman counties sanitation department and citizens in Fulton and surrounding area.

ROTARY ENDORSES PROGRAM OF FULTON NEWS; PROMISE HELP

At its regular weekly meeting on Tuesday the Rotary club unanimously endorsed the program of the Fulton County News to sponsor a rat eradication campaign in Fulton this fall.

A committee composed of "Happy" Hogan, Fred Sawyer, Clyde Williams Jr. and Paul Westpheling was appointed to contact all other civic clubs and organizations in the area to lend their support to the drive for funds to defray expenses of the program.

Joe Davis, prominent local businessman pointed out the great need for such a plan and emphasized the urgency of united support of the campaign.

A LETTER TO THE EDITORS

Mr. R. Paul Westpheling, Editor Fulton County News

Fulton, Kentucky

Dear Mr. Westpheling:

I have just received a letter from Mr. Harry A. Barry, Sanitarian Fulton and Hickman County Health Department, in which enclosed a clipping of your editorial of "Mice and Men" which appeared in the July 10 issue of your Fulton County News. You are to be complimented on your splendid and timely editorial on the hazard of rats especially as they effect the public health and loss in dollars and cents in your community.

The incidence of the rat attacking the baby is indeed horrible although we have had reports of such occurrences even when they attack corpses untreated before burial. Too, in the Town of Fulton the annual economic loss to the merchants of your community would conservatively amount to an aggregate of approximately $15,000. Your article certainly should stir the citizens and leading business men from their lethargy and stimulate some action towards inaugurating a rat drive in Fulton. As mentioned in your editorial, your alert and efficient sanitarian, Mr. Barry, endeavored to arouse interest among the city fathers, civic clubs, and merchants of your city to undertake a city-wide rat control campaign in Fulton this past spring when he conducted organized programs in Hickman, Clinton, and Columbus, and among the farmers in cooperation with County Agents, Warren Thompson, and John Watts. These campaigns were conducted during the week of April 7 and were very successful. Mr. Barry is planning to undertake similar programs this fall. We also have word from County Agent Thompson advising that farmers are interested in a fall campaign in Hickman county.

In communicating this information to me Mr. Thompson made the following statement:

"Joe McWhorter, Route 1, Clinton, Kentucky killed 169 rats that he found the next morning after baiting. Up until that time he had lost about one-fourth of his crib of corn from damage of rats. (about 75 bu.) Since then his losses have been nominal and he has been able to keep down the increasing numbers by rebaiting with the home mixed bait that I gave him the formula for.

"For an over-all picture, I would say that the baiting program saved some 5,000-8,000 bushels of grain for the users and neighbors. In Clinton and Columbus it is awfully hard to see any signs of new rat damage."

While assisting Messrs. Barry and Thompson this fall we would be glad to include Fulton in the program. As Mr. Barry has probably already advised you, it would cost only about $225 to treat the entire city of Fulton, plus the services of 8 men for 3 days to put on the bait throughout your community. We trust you will be successful in stimulating action among the people of Fulton. If we can be of any assistance in this matter, let us know.

Assuring you of the desire of this division being of fullest service to you and your people at all times, I am,

Yours very truly,
L. C. Whitehead

We are glad to hear that Mrs. Cleve Townsend wife of Engineer is getting along nicely after an operation at I. C. Hospital, Paducah, Ky., on Friday.

We welcome Preston J. Ray, Jr., car laborer, to our Illinois Central family.

We are glad to hear that retired coal chute operator, G. E. Allen is getting along nicely after being in an auto accident at the corner of Carr and Fourth, Sunday.

J. A. (Johnny) Bowers, our well known store keeper, has quite an interesting past history.

Johnny was born here at Fulton October 11, 1900 and is the son of Justice of the Peace and Mrs. G. J. Bowers of Fulton.

He attended Fulton public schools and after finishing high school, transferred to the University of Kentucky where he completed two years of study.

Johnny was employed by the Illinois Central as a stockman, May 27, 1928; and remained as such until 1940 when he was promoted to storekeeper. He remained in this capacity until June 15, 1944 at which time he was transferred to Champaign, Ill., as storekeeper. There he remained until Feb. 16, 1945 when he again returned to Fulton and is our storekeeper at the present time.

Johnny married Mary Anderson, a local girl and they have no children. They live at 200 Park Ave.

Among the roundhouse old timers we really have one we could call "old folks." Naturally we're speaking of Lee Weatherspoon and old timer by age and by years of service with the IC. Lee was born Feb. 5, 1876 at Water Valley, Ky. He started with the IC January 5, 1903 so he has 44 years of faithful service to his credit. He began as a yard laborer and worked at that until 1906 when he was made an engine watchman, where he has since remained. Forty one years as an engine watchman is a long time on

Bill, please excuse me if I left any of the titles out. Bill's barn blew down during the wind storm at Beelerton and injured his cow. But James decided he had rather be a claim agent so he goes down and puts his name in the pot, nothing takes place. Then out of a clear blue sky one of the GM&O railroad officers walks in the office of the IC and said he needed a claim agent with a good record and James was assigned the job. When he walked out of the office of the IC he was told that if he ever needed a job that the IC would have one for him. So to James we all say good luck and happy landing.

Sympathy is extended to the family of Wiley Stephenson, who passed away Sunday afternoon. Mr. Stephenson was connected with the banana room.

I hear people fussing about their job. No one knows I'm here, well fellow you're wrong. They do know you're here. I'm going to tell you a little story so always remember it:

Wherever you're working in office or shop,

And however far you may be from the top,

And though you may think you're just treading the mill,

Don't ever belittle the job that you fill;

Far however little your job may appear,

You're just as important as some little gear

That meshes with others in some big machine,

That helps keep it going, though never is seen.

They could do without you—we'll have to admit,

But business keeps on, when the big fellow quits!

And always remember, my lad, if you can,

The job's more important(oh yes) than the man!

So if its your hope to stay off the shelf,

Think more of your job than you do yourself.

Your job is important don't think it's not.

So try hard to give it the best that you've got!

And don't think ever you're of little account

Remember you're part of the total amount.

If they didn't need you, you wouldn't be there
So always my lad keep your chin in the air.
A digger of ditches, mechanic or clerk
Think well of your company, Yourself and your work.

Remember August 22, 1947 at 7:30 p. m. the Illinois Central service club will meet, at which time two (2) $50.00 War Bonds will be given to the man or woman who holds the lucky tickets, a door prize which will be a $25.00 War Bond and during the meeting another $25.00 War Bond will be given to some lucky person, yes refreshments will be served. Yes they will be free.

Well so long gang, see you Friday.

ENDURING TREASURERS

How much better is it to get wisdom than gold! and to get understanding rather to be chosen than silver!—Proverbs 16:16.

By wisdom wealth is won; But riches purchased wisdom yet for none.—Bayard Taylor.

Self-forgetfulness, purity, and love are treasures untold—constant prayers, prophecies, and anointings.—Mary Baker Eddy.

Therefore, come what may, hold fast to love. Though men should rend your heart let them not embitter or harden it.—F. W. Robertson.

We Are Competitive

We Can Sell You Lumber On The Same Basis As Truckers

At Truck Prices!

There is nothing to be saved by patronizing them. The lumber that has been trucked into Fulton has been stacked on open lots all in one handling, and the cash paid to the driver at the time of unloading. We can do this same thing.

Give us the bill of your needs and we will haul the lumber directly from the railroad car to your job at prices as low as any trucker will deliver it.

No retailer can give the customary service of credit-selling, warehousing and delivering a few pieces at a time and meet this competition. The trucker has no overhead except his investment in the truck, and his entire "stock" consists of one load on his truck.

We repeat, let us deal with you on the same basis as would the trucker, and we guarantee to sell you at his prices — or below.

Help Us to Help You

As you will notice on the front page of the News this week we are sponsoring a city-wide rat eradication campaign to be launched this fall in cooperation with Harry Barry, sanitation officer for Fulton and Hickman counties.

We've told you in jest and in dead seriousness of the importance of ridding the city of rats. We've taken the bull by the horns and will do our level best to raise the needed amount to buy the bait and hire the men to work with Mr. Barry.

We need your help. We want you to send in your dollar, or more if you can afford it to defray the necessary expenses and to respond cheerfully when the sanitation officer visits your home for baiting.

We cannot for a moment believe that Fulton will not respond to this campaign as it has to every other worthy project that has been sponsored locally. You have asked us to get this program started and we have; now show your appreciation and public-spiritedness by contributing generously to the fund.

You don't want any other innocent children bitten by rats. You don't want the ravages of typhus to be inflicted on some child, rendering them a hopeless cripple for life.

Of course you don't. Appoint yourself a Pied Piper and send your contributions to the Fulton County News today.

It's Happening -- Another War

The Marshall plan, as described by the Secretary of State in his Harvard University address and afterwards amplified, is the clearest statement yet made on United States foreign policy as it applies to the rehabilitation of Europe. Secretary Marshall decisively disposed of the idea that this country would continue to pour goods and money into Europe whether or not the receiving nations did anything substantial to help themselves. He made it plain that we would do everything in our power to advance the cause of European economic recovery—but that an essential condition is that the suffering countries work out a plan of their own to make maximum use of their resources, to increase production, and to practice self-help on the largest possible scale.

The Marshall plan is thus more than mere extension of the Truman Doctrine. The Doctrine, as practiced in the past, consisted of material aid to foreign nations with few strings attached. It was in the nature of an emergency measure to deal with an emergency condition—as in the case of the Greek loan. The Marshall plan is much more specific, and is designed to be of a permanent character.

No one was surprised at the Soviet Union's efforts to sabotage the plan. Russia's objection was the old one to the effect that the plan marked another step in America's imperialistic march toward world domination, and that it would involve intolerable interference with the internal affairs of other powers.

As the relations between the United States and the Soviet Union continue to deteriorate with fateful rapidity, the power blocs in Europe become more firmly established. The hope for a united Europe, so widely held during and immediately after the war, is at its nadir.

The possibility of another war casts its lengthening shadow over all policies, all negotiations. General Eisenhower, who is certainly no war-monger, has said that the chance of conflict within a year must be considered, and has asked Congress for larger Army appropriations. Dr. Einstein, like some of the other top nuclear physicists and mathematicians, has said that a full-scale atomic war is possible in four to eight years. All this is a harsh commentary on the state of the world less than two years after the end of the most destructive war in history.

EVERY DAY

WE SPEND $100,000 TO HELP

Smooth your Travels

Swift, comfortable, reliable travel by rail is no news. Even the vast forces of Nature seldom ruffle the smooth flow of passengers and freight.

These virtues are no accident. For under the wheels of your speeding train and along the right-of-way that rushes silently past your window, the Illinois Central last year spent $100,000 every 24 hours for up-keep of rails and ties and signals, bridges and buildings and ballast, and many other items that stand still that the trains may move swiftly and safely.

The Illinois Central, and other railroads, pay their own highway up-keep and for all other facilities, besides, and still contribute their full share of taxes that keep governments, both state and local, going.

Last year the Illinois Central spent 36 million dollars on maintenance of way and structures. We know this money is well spent. For the steel highway is the foundation of our firm determination to continue to earn your friendship and patronage.

For Unity And Victory
—March With ClementsHe Offers An Honest Program
For Real State Progress

KENTUCKIANS are tired of four years of uncertainty and discord at Frankfort. The Republicans, in their own words, have "had enough."

The Democratic Party must offer unity and a constructive program. No man is worthy to be Governor who would divide his party. Clements has worked diligently to unite the party. The severest criticism leveled at him is that he has succeeded too well.

Earle Clements' opponent has made nine specific promises: seven to spend more money and one to reduce taxes. He has made only one proposal to increase taxes, which would not raise one-half as much as those he proposes to scrap. He is promising the State of Kentucky to the brink of bankruptcy . . . holding out false hopes . . . bidding for votes with public funds through ridiculous proposals. Clements has his own sound program for Kentucky:

1—Business-like administration of the State Government.

2—No pledge to spend unless the money is available in the State Treasury.

3—Creation of a non-partisan State Agricultural and Industrial Board to develop Kentucky's resources and draw new industries to our State.

4—Creation of a Department of Research to increase the efficiency of the State Government.

5—A deficiency appropriation to raise teachers' pay, retroactively.

6—A program of real co-operation with the farmer and the war veteran.

7—All-out encouragement and assistance to the growth of the R.E.A.

8—Removal of, and safeguarding, the State Fair from politics.

9—A sound State program of assistance to the counties in rural road building.

LETTERS To The EDITOR

Mr. Clifford L. Shields, Secretary
Young Men's Business Club
Fulton, Kentucky
Dear Mr. Shields:

Just a note to acknowledge the receipt of your completed Fulton Industrial Schedules. They are very well done, and Joe M. Hall is to be commended for his thoroughness. I believe they are the best we have received to date.

Rest assured that we will do everything possible to work with you to attempt to secure for Fulton the type of manufacturing that will fit into your economy and utilize your available labor.

Incidentally, I note from your schedules that you have a supply of timber available locally. I am wondering what portion of that is beech as we have a firm with whom we are in contact now, whose annual requirements are five million board feet.

Many thanks for your interest, and kindest personal regards.

Yours for a greater Kentucky
Louis Quinn.

THE AMERICAN WAY

THE REAL BOSS

Often this columnist has criticized the actions of certain businesses and business men. While constantly championing the cause of Free, Competitive, Private Enterprise, I have not been blind to the fact that certain injustices have been committed. After all, business men are simply human beings and as in every other walk of life, some of them have reason for condemning business as a whole, than to condemn religion because an occasional minister or priest or rabbi has failed to live up to the high standards of his noble calling.

Those business men, who in the past, resorted to unfair practices, automatically eliminated themselves from the business picture. Boss Public tended to that. Those few business men who now are not playing the game according to the rules set up by our society, eventually will be expelled from the business arena. Those who in the future selfishly disregard the rights of others, likewise will fall by the wayside. As in the past and present, Boss Public will see to that.

However, more and more business men are realizing that it is good business to deal the cards off the top of the deck—that honesty, fairness and consideration are absolutely necessary for permanent success in the realm of competitive business—that the real Boss, the Public, must be obeyed. Honest, fair business men more and more decry the small minority of "Gyps" among them, and are doing everything in their power to expose and expell these parasites from the halls of trade and commerce. Thus, business, without any outside regulation, purges itself and moves closer and closer to an idealistic condition.

A business man who came from the cornfields of Iowa, recognizes this Boss Public. Six years ago, this ex-Iowan, Lewis H. Brown, Chairman of the Board of Johns-Manville Corporation expressed most aptly a "Creed of Management." Said he in part:

"We who are responsible for the management of business in supplying the needs of the public for goods and services and who recognize our obligations to stockholders and employees, believe:

"That we should constantly seek to provide better values at lower costs so that more people can enjoy more of the world's goods; that we should strive to develop the efficiency of industry so as to earn a fair return for the investing public and provide the highest possible reward for the productivity of labor; that we should stimulate the genius of science and utilize the methods of research to improve old products and create new ones so as to continuously provide new fields of employment for the present and coming generations; that management should encourage fair trade practices in business which, either effected by competition or cooperation, will be so shaped as to be for the best interests of our customers and of society as a whole; that it is management's duty to be alert to its own shortcomings, to the need for improvement, and to the new requirements of society, while always recognizing the responsibility of its trusteeship; that business in this country has never been what it could be and never what it yet will be; that Business, Labor, Government and Agriculture working hand in hand can provide jobs and the opportunity for all to work for security without loss of our liberty and rights as free men."

One out of every 350 farm families will suffer the pain and sorrow which accompany accidental deaths in 1946, unless extra precautions are taken.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"Truth" is the subject of the lesson-sermon which will be read in all Christian Science churches throughout the world on Sunday, July 27, 1947.

The Golden Text is: "O Lord, thou art my God; I will exalt thee, I will praise thy name; . . . thy counsels of old are faithfulness and truth." (Isa. 25:1)

Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible: "Ye did run well; who did hinder you that ye should not obey the truth?" (Gal. 5:7).

Felt Like She Might Collapse Any Time

Retonga Proves Merit To Mrs. Lisenbee. Only The Care Of Three Youngsters Spurred Her On From Day To Day. Says Well-Known Resident.

"I was fortunate to try Retonga for I feel so much better I have an entirely different outlook on life," gratefully declares Mrs. Bailey Lisenbee, well-known young matron of Route 4, Clarksville, Tenn.

"For a couple of years," continued Mrs. Lisenbee, "I went down hill until I felt that any day I might collapse. My food did not digest properly, my appetite was gone, and I felt so high strung that I could sleep only a few hours out of the twenty-four. I had to take laxatives almost every day. My weight went down to an even 100 pounds and I felt so weakened it was a struggle to keep on my feet, but having three youngsters to look after spurred me on from day to day.

"Retonga relieved all this distress far beyond anything I hoped for. I eat heartily without any gas or sourness, and I have regained seven pounds. I don't feel high strung, I sleep soundly, and the sluggish elimination is relieved. I feel so much stronger and better there is nothing too good I can say for Retonga."

Retonga is intended to relieve distress due to insufficient flow of digestive juices in the stomach, loss of appetite, Vitamin B-1 deficiency and constipation. Accept no substitute. Retonga may be obtained at City Drug Co., Fulton. —Adv.

Vote For Harry F. Walters, Advocate of Good Farm Laws

Known far and wide as a champion of good farm laws Harry F. Walters of Shelby County is a candidate well qualified for the office of Commissioner of Agriculture.

He is FIRST a farmer. He has owned and operated a large body of Shelby County land all his life. He is one of Shelby county's outstanding business men. He served as a county judge for six years and installed the balanced budget system, placing the county on the road of freedom from debt.

The livestock, dairy, tobacco, and other agricultural men have learned to turn to Judge Walters for sympathetic and effective aid. In the legislature since 1940 he has sponsored more farm legislation than any other member. He is a member of the agriculture committee and for three terms its chairman. He fought for and secured enactment of the pure seed act, Kentucky filled milk law, and a law enabling the old burley pool to make advance payments. He sponsored and fought through the Legislature the bill to take the State Fair out of politics, a law which means so much to Kentucky's great horse show and livestock exposition.

Judge Walters has served as a member of the State Board of Agriculture and a member of the Board of Trustees of the University of Kentucky. His son and two sons-in-law were members of the Armed Forces in World War II and all three of them saw overseas service. He has been a member of the Board of Trustees of the Old Masons Home in Kentucky for many years. He is a charter member of the Farm Bureau, a Rotarian, a lifelong member of the Christian church and chairman of the official board.

No candidate has better qualifications for the office sought than Harry F. Walters. Give him your vote in the Democratic primary election August 2.

Ray fell to the ground with a sprained muscle in his thigh. He is up and around, but must rely on a cane for support. Unable to make the road trip, he hopes to be able to play again when the boys return. Although Joe Lis is doing a mighty fine job in the outfield, we will be glad to see Ray in uniform again.

A fan has written and asked for statistics about Dusty Rhodes and Whitey Lynch. Dusty is eighteen, single, and naturally, does not have a baby. If he did, I'd be first in line to view it. Mother told me all about the birds and the bees but left out the part about short-stops giving birth to children. Whitey is twenty, and his wife, Pagsy, is seventeen. Both are from Upland, Ind.

Recently I read a Greenville, Miss., paper, and it stated that Morara, who was released by Fulton, is now playing for Clarksdale, Miss., and is doing a fine job on the mound. Schultz' record to date is nine wins and six losses.

Last year's Frank Brucella sent a picture of he and his pretty wife, Mildred, and if it hadn't been for that familiar smile, I would've mistaken him for Frank Sinatra. He certainly has gotten thin since he left Fulton. His team, the Greenville Bucks, is currently in first place, in the Cotton States League.

I don't know much about these triple plays, but I think our infield deserves a big hand for the one they pulled in Sunday's game. With men on first and second, a ground ball was hit to Buck, who tagged third, threw it to Gray, who tagged second and then threw it to Propst at first for the third out. I've seen triple plays in the Major Leagues, but none that way. Our boys' throws were accurate, their timing excellent, and their smiles? Well, it was like payday at Evans' Drug Store.

Monday night at the Legion Cabin was really a sight to behold. After battling for two hours, at Fairfield, the Oilers and the Chicks were gathered in perfect harmony shooting pool, playing pingpong, and singing old fashioned songs around the piano. How bitter enemies can be such good friends is a mark of true sportsmanship.

Poor Sammy Cooper! If I had to take a beating from the Fulton fans the way he does, I think I'd pitch elsewhere! A boy behind me remarked that his legs were so long and thin, it made him feel like picking his teeth. Others were yelling about a Western Union boy waiting to wire brother Mort, of the Giants, for information about what to do next. (At the time, the bases were loaded.) Still others were riding him about being a Major League player, and having to use Kitty League baseballs. Sit in the bleachers during a game, and you'll get double your money's worth. Fulton fans can strictly dish out a lot of laughs.

That's all for this week. Ill be back again in next week's issue to answer your questions, and tell you what I know, that you don't, about the Chick family.
Unconsciously yours,
George,

Pepper Hash

2 dozen red bell peppers
1 quart vinegar
3 cups sugar
6 onions

Wash and remove the white fiber and seed from the pepper. Peel the onions. Chop very fine then pour boiling water over them. Let stand 5 minutes and drain. Cook the vinegar, sugar and salt. Add the chopped pepper and onions. Boil sugar up once. Put in sterilized jars and seal.

Cucumber Catsup

6 large cucumbers
1 tablespoon salt
1 large onion chopped very fine
1 teaspoon white pepper
1 pint vinegar

Pare the cucumbers, chop very fine, add the salt and let drain in colander for an hour or two. Add the chopped onion, white pepper and vinegar. Stir thoroughly and seal in jars. This keeps well and retains the flavor of fresh cucumbers so perfectly that those who like the vegetables are sure to like the catsup.
