DOWN ON COXEY.

The Populists, too, Get a Small Dose.

Our Friend, John C. Noble, Jr., Defines His Position Other Items of Interest

FOR OUR READERS.

Calvert City, Ky., April 9, 1894.

I see an article in the last issue of the Tribune that says: "It is reported that our tried and true democratic friend, Jno. C. Noble, Jr., of Calvert City, has left the democratic party and gone over to the populists."

In reply I will simply ask you, "Jimmie," to please loan me your ear so that I can whisper therein in my most gentle tones that I am still in the ranks of democracy and am still shoulder to shoulder with the boys in the trenches. Times are hard, money scarce, and all classes of people are having an unusual hard struggle to get along in their ordinary business ways and methods, and the poorer the individual the harder is the burdens to bear and harder the struggle for existence, yet we should all have patience and fortitude and do the best we can; be upright and honorable and place the blame where it belongs, if we are wise enough to find out where the blame lies. I hear men accuse the democratic party for every conceivable misfortune that can be imagined (even to the last cold spell), all of which is wrong, until at least some reasonable grounds are found on which to base their accusations. Many lay great stress upon the fact of the president vetoing the seigniorage bill. Well, the fact is, I like ninety-nine men out of every hundred in every country or city, do not understand the matter and are only echoing the "battle cry" of one political faction, and the "calamity howler" of another faction. I believe President Cleveland to be a wise, upright, sensible man, who has nerve to oppose public sentiment when he believes it is to the interest of the people of the United States as a whole to do so; and if he in his wisdom saw fit to veto the bill I say amen to it, and surrender my opinion to one who is superior to the average man at least.

As to my use of the term "calamity howlers" I want it distinctly understood I do not mean the populist alone, separately or distinctly. I mean "calamity howlers" from all or any political party or any other party. You will find chronic kickers, sore head grumblers and calamity howlers in every community; every society and every organization, let it be political, social or whatever it may be. I have some good neighbors, good friends, and I know they are good christian people, who belong to the populist party, and do not think they are any the worse for it, and I do not fall out with them on that account any more than I would expect them to fall out with me because I belong to the democratic party. Neither do I like to read in the newspaper the vulgar, sneering, sarcastic and frequent rude allusions to the populists, when so frequently it is undeserved and includes some of my very best friends, for some of my kindest and most sensible friends and neighbors belong to that political faith. I will admit it is a sad thing to meditate upon when you think of so many "brave men" and true, fighting in a cause they believe right and are honest in it; yet fighting hopelessly without a shadow of a chance of success at the coming November election.

The democratic party has beyond a doubt grown much stronger in Marshall county during the past year, and the coming vote will be the strongest democratic vote ever cast in the county. I cannot discover at the present anything to bear the belief that the populist will elect a single solitary man in November. Even if they had a chance before they lost it when they "fused" at Briensburg. That shattered them from "stem to stern" and knocked the faith out of many a well wisher to the populist party.

It is really with sadness that I sit on a log in a sunny spot (and watch the boys do the work) and ruminate and cogitate upon the utter hopelessness of the desperate struggles and convulsions of my good friends. When I use the word populist, I only mean good, honest, christian people, who believe honestly in the political platform of the populist party. I do not mean thugs, thieves, cut-throats, pick-pockets, nihilists, socialist, bombthrowers, etc. Neither do I mean tramps; neither do I mean Coxey or Coxey's followers. I think the sooner Coxey and his mob of idlers are disposed of the better it will be for the country. It is one of the most dangerous examples of trampism ever set before a nation of people. They have no right to go idling, loafing, howling and pilfering through this or any other country, and I think this is about the only country that would ever have allowed them to start. Until the populists cut aloof from all such gangs and shun and steer clear of them it is hardly reasonable for them to expect law-abiding people to ever wish them success, much less help them toward it. Upright honesty is the road, and the party or individual who fails to follow it will only meet with the bitter fruits of disappointment and regret.

With this I will close, as I have written more than I intended when I began. I will say I am fighting in the trenches for democracy and am fighting upon the basis of reason and not fanaticism. Aim your gun accordingly and let her blaze away. It is the hand of gentleness that leads, and the hand of brutality that drives. Let's lead our mistaken brothers back to the road of democracy and out of the by-paths and labyrinth of the mistaken belief of third partyism. Your tried and true democratic friend,

JNO. C. NOBLE, JR.

PERMANENTLY CURED BY USING

Ayer's Pills

"My husband was subject to severe attacks of neuralgia which caused him great pain and suffering. The pains were principally about his eyes, and he often had to remain in a darkened room, not being able to stand the light. Ayer's Pills being recommended, he tried them, using one before each meal. They very soon afforded relief, followed by permanent cure. I am a strong believer in the efficacy of Ayer's Pills, and would not be without them for ten times their cost."—Mrs. M. E. MAX TO TOM.

An Acquiescence to the Victor.

A Young Missourian's Condolence to a Grief-Stricken Kentuckian.

WE'RE "IN IT," TOM.

Springfield, Mo., April 2, 1894.

The unexpected is announced and the news has been heralded Eastward while Kentucky and Missouri mourns under one common cause.

The mediums of the Tribune through which fate had chosen to notify us of the inevitable must return the reluctant congratulations, together with the pangs of disappointment.

Now Thomas, in all candor and with strict confidence on your part in keeping this from the public, I attribute our loss wholly to your inactivity, while it was day and cupid's influence was near. I had hoped against hope that the subject of this letter should have remained under the balm influence of the Stars and Stripes, and had I not relied absolutely upon your ability to win the cause, I should have made one other desperate effort to reach the goal. Had I not followed Greely's advice perhaps I could have outdistanced you in the race, but wealth you'll observe, comes slowly under "The Wilson Bill," and I had with all the instinct and love of life in me, abandoned my sincere aspirations in order that harmony might prevail. However since discretion is the better part of valor, and the face that knew us once will know us no more, as of old, it behooves us not to give up in despair, but reorganize our efforts with different devotion at another shrine.

The poet has said that Love builds its nest but once within the human heart; now it remains with us to determine the truth of this statement; perhaps by and bye, we will be able to shed some light upon this subject.

Tom, suppose we try the fisherman's mascot next time; spit on the bait, and I wager you the result will be satisfactory.

Now since the sequel is known and the problem submitted is to be solved the 10th day of July, I fully acquiesce to the victor. While we shall have a retentive memory of the past, still we should endeavor to dispel this from our minds and wave low the white feather, get all the sleep that's possible, say nothing and "saw wood," and Marshall county will never know where we "are at."

My adieu follows, That may the current of their oriental lines be permitted to flow into the same channel through to eternity without a ripple caused by the idle and disappointments of life.

Long, long be our hearts with dear memories filled. Like a vase in which roses have once been distilled. You may break, you may ruin the vase if you will. But the scent of the roses must hang around it still.

Lookout for the coming influence of the A. P. A.

The noisy Hendrick men are not so jubilant since they see the hand writing on the wall.

The democratic party may go down by the treachery of some of its leaders, but its principles will shine the brighter.

The Sunday Blade is a new paper that has just come to light. It is neatly printed and will soon be a popular journal.

Coxey's army has about disbanded. This is as it was bound to be. It in the very nature of things could not be otherwise.

The people of the country should keep clearly in mind the names of such democratic traitors as Hill, Gorman, Morgan, Murphy and a few others.

Though a democrat may stray away from the path of duty, yet the beauties of democracy shine the brighter. Traitors in the party may bring about defeat, but the party is a party of the people.

The great apostle of the third party, Col. J. H. McDowell, went down in defeat again last week at the hands of his party. He wanted to be nominated for governor, but his party said "no never, we don't want you."

Stone's majority over Hendrick in the last primary election was 2,610 votes. This was a fine vindication of the high appreciation in which our congressman is held by his constituents. His majority this time will not vary much from what it was two years ago.

The Princeton Banner must have but little regard for the feelings of its readers when it urges them to vote for a man for congress that could only get but 16 votes in the good county of Caldwell two years ago. But some men never care for the tender and delicate feelings of their door neighbors.

13 Indictments.

Cyclones, snow storms, biting frosts, Breckinridge scandals, failure of the fruit crop, the death of tobacco plants, the failure of banks, the strikes in the mines, the cheapness of tobacco and wheat, the veto of the seigniorage bill, the cry of hard times by the populists and traitors among the democrats at Washington seems to be playing the Devil with the democratic party just at this particular time. All the above 13 indictments have been found against the democratic party by a grand jury composed of populists and republicans. (Fused.)

EDITORIAL CORRESPONDENCE.

The Editor at Jackson, Tenn.

Sunday morning at 8 o'clock we left home for a jaunt south. We came via the P. T. & A. railroad. Nothing worthy of note was seen worth mentioning until we came to Hazel, in Calloway county; there we saw a small town that had improved more than any place along the line. Quite a number of new substantial buildings had gone up in the past year, notwithstanding the hard times that are said to be upon us. Several new houses have been built at Puryear, but not near so many as at Hazel.

Paris is the same old town with but little visible improvements. No other places along the line could we discover any especial signs of immediate improvements, but we did notice that the P. T. & A. part of Hollow Rock was as dead as a door nail.

Lexington is holding its own and improving all the time.

Jackson is a good town. It has been seven or eight years since we were here before, and now we would not have known the town by the way it looked then and its appearance today. It has grown to be a beautiful little city of 12,000 souls with an elegant court house, custom house, water works, street cars, a dozen churches, large and commodious business houses and elegant streets and magnificent residences. There are three railroads crossing each other here, the M. & O., the I. C., and the P. T. & A., all of which contribute largely to the growth and prosperity of Jackson. This city, like all prosperous southern towns, has its share of Kentuckians living in it, and Marshall county contributes her part of them. While here we met Robt. E. Nelson, who is in the employ of the M. & O., and is located here at least for an indefinite length of time. He is a sober, industrious, hardworking young man and is doing well, and his services are highly appreciated by the company for which he works.

E. D. Palmer and family live here. He is one of the true and tried mail messengers on the I. C. from Cairo to New Orleans. He has been at this work for seven or eight years, and ranks high among his fellows for punctuality and ability. He secured his place during Cleveland's first administration through the influence of Capt. Stone, our present popular congressman, and the captain has never yet regretted his endorsement, because Ed has made one of the best of the line.

"The many friends of Mr. Jas. M. Troutt in Marshall county will be glad to learn that he is one of the foremost lawyers at the Jackson bar, and is now a prominent candidate in that judicial district for the democratic nomination for attorney general with excellent prospect of becoming the standard bearer of his party for that important position. It will be remembered that he was born and raised in this county and remained here until he was sixteen years old, when he was sworn in as a member of the famous "3rd Ky." for life or during the war. Though young, he made a brave and gallant soldier, but as soon as the war closed he returned home a fatherless and penniless boy, his father having died when he was quite young. But his energy and ambition knew no bounds, it took both however to regain what he lost by the time spent in the war. The few years following his return from the army were spent in teaching and educating himself, which in those days required pluck and nerve, both of which he was amply endowed by nature. As soon as he completed his education he cast his lot with the south and for over 23 years has been an enterprising citizen of the state of Tennessee among whose people he is today thoroughly identified. Mr. Troutt can certainly be recognized among our most successful self-made men. It has been by his strong will and indomitable energy that he has made himself what he is, and if the democrats in his district give him the nomination for attorney general he will not only carry the party to victory, but will make the people of that district one of the ablest attorney generals in its history. He is truly a self-made man and deserves promotion at the hands of our Tennessee neighbors."

The more Chamberlain's Cough remedy is used the better it is liked. We know of no other remedy that always gives satisfaction. It is good when you first catch cold. It is good when your cough is seated and your lungs are sore. It is good in any kind of a cough. We have sold twenty-five dozen of it and every bottle has given satisfaction. Steadman & Friedman, druggist, Minnesota Lake, Minn. 50 cent bottles for sale by R. H. Starks.

An exchange says that a man can't be desperately in love for ever, any more than he can live on pickles.

Persons who are subject to attacks of bilious colic can almost invariably tell, by their feelings, when to expect attack. If Chamberlain's colic, cholera and diarrhoea remedy is taken as soon as these symptoms appear, they can ward off the disease. Such persons should always keep the remedy at hand, ready for immediate use when needed. Two or three doses of it at the right time will save them much suffering. For sale by R. H. Starks.

$1000 Worth
Of Other Medicines Failed
But Hood's Sarsaparilla Gave Perfect Health.

Mr. Arthur McConnell
Pensacola, Florida.

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:
"One thousand dollars' worth of other medicines, prescriptions, etc., have failed to do for me what Hood's Sarsaparilla has done. My home is in Florida, but in 1884 I went to California and lived there four years. I was taken sick in 1886 and had medical assistance, but found no relief. The doctors said I had chronic bronchitis. I was in the Marine Hospital at San Francisco several months and at Rush Medical College, Chicago, 11 months, but still did not get better, so came back to Pensacola. My weight was then 120 pounds with a heavy overcoat on.

My Friends Did Not Know Me.
I was so thin and broken down. But the climate and being at home gave me a little courage and I began trying various medicines. In August, 1890, I was appointed to a position in the United States custom house. My friends urged my wife to have me try Hood's Sarsaparilla. I took it three times a day just to please her. But to my surprise I commenced to feel differently after a week on Hood's. I found I was hungry and that I could sleep better; that tired feeling also left me. So I continued taking Hood's Sarsaparilla; have used nine bottles and four boxes of Hood's Pills, with the result that I am Now in Good Health.

I weigh 162 pounds, have a good appetite, sleep well, and have not lost a day's work since I began to take this medicine. When everything else has failed, I found that Hood's Sarsaparilla cured. ARTHUR MCCONNELL, United States Custom House Officer, Pensacola, Florida.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures

Hood's Pills act easily, yet promptly and efficiently, on the liver and bowels. 25c.

Farmers; Your Attention, Please!

68 YEARS B. F. Avery & Sons' Plows

Have been in use, and last season there were some valuable improvements made on all steel plows by making the handles open at bottom to prevent the carrying of dirt. One main reason why you should buy one of Avery's plows is that it is an old established factory and will continue perhaps for 100 years yet to come; thereby you are assured when you buy one of Avery's you can get points and bars for your old plows; which ought to be considered before you buy a plow.

DO YOU KNOW WE HANDLE VEHICLES?

Why, Of Course We Do.

We are the Largest Dealers South of the Ohio River.

We handle them by the train loads, and can knock them all out on prices.

We will sell you anything in the Vehicle line for less money than you can buy it direct from the factory. We handle twenty-two different brands of Carriages, Phaetons, Surreys, Buggies, Carts, Spring Wagons and everything on wheels.

There is nothing in the Vehicle line that we don't handle, and we will sell to you at less than factory prices. We mean what we say.

Call and see our stock and get prices before buying.

WHY SUFFER

From that old complaint when you can be permanently cured by an

ELECTROPOISE

Others have been cured, why not you?

Disease Cured Without Medicine

Not an electric belt or battery, but a simple home treatment, which causes the entire body of the patient to absorb

OXYGEN

Ask your neighbor about it; if he can not tell you write to us for one of our books—sent free.

Nothing has ever received so many testimonials from trustworthy person, many of whom are known to us.—Western Recorder, Louisville.

The Electropoise is a mystery to me—almost a miracle.—(Elder.) John I. Rodgers.

In one night the Electropoise relieved me of congestion of the brain and vertigo.—Rev. Geo. H. Means, Covington, Ky.

A friend of mine was entirely cured of opium habit with the Electropoise.—Rev. W. W. Bince, Houstonville, Ky.

The Electropoise is a wonderful instrument, and it is more wonderful as to how it does its work, yet it does it.—T. E. C. Brinley (plows) Louisville, Ky.
