Fulton Planning Big Celebration

As a called meeting of the Chamber of Commerce was held Wednesday night, plans were discussed for a big celebration in honor of the new White Way turned on Friday.

The celebration will be held Saturday and Sunday. The public will be invited to the festivities. The plans for the celebration include a parade, speeches, prizes, and a grand bonfire. The parade will feature floats, bands, and a variety of groups from the community.

The bonfire will be held on the grounds of the new White Way, and it is expected to be a huge event. The community is encouraged to participate in the celebration and enjoy the festivities.

Secretary of State of the Chamber of Commerce, Mr. Walker, who is here entertaining a visiting student from Oxford, said the celebration will be a grand event for the community. He said the Chamber of Commerce is working hard to ensure the success of the celebration.

The celebration is expected to attract a large number of visitors to the community, and it is hoped that it will boost the local economy.

More details about the celebration will be announced in the coming days, and the community is encouraged to mark their calendars for this exciting event.

REPUBLIC CONTINUES AT FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Biden's Revival Continues

The Revival at the First Christian Church, Rev. J. J. Yancey, is continuing through the week, climaxing with a grand meeting on Monday. An enthusiastic crowd from Thistle, both of Lexington, Ky., was on hand as the Revival closed.

The service was characterized by the usual features of the meeting. Rev. Mr. Yancey, the leading one of the best revival leaders ever seen in Fulton, conducted the meeting with the usual sermon and song night. The meeting will continue until Monday, when the last meetings will be held.

The Revival will be conducted under the leadership of Mr. Yancey, who has been a leading revival leader for many years.

The Revival will be open to everyone, and everyone is invited to attend.

FULTON CHICKENS WIN PRIZES AT TRISTATE FAIR

The Fulton Poultry Association was well represented at the Tristate Poultry Show held at Memphis last week. There were three of the members who were not afraid to go up against fast company. They came away with three of their winnings as follows:

- Mrs. J. Perry, on Bull Oprah, won first, second and third place in the one and older age. Second old was owned by Mrs. M. Chambers.
- E. E. Travis, on White Minors, won first and second cock and first and second pullet.
- J. T. Watkins, on Buff Wyandottes, won first, second and third cock and first, second and third pullet.

Mr. W. C. McAlister, the owner of the Poultry Association, was well represented at the poultry show in Monroe County, Tennessee. Misses Nao and Nellie, the latter, McAlister, have been adjourned and the state's poultry show for the next season.
