Poultry-Dairying

SEVEN HUNDRED MILLION FOR WATERMELON RINDS

Do you realize that the value of poultry and eggs produced in the United States annually amount to almost $700,000,000.00?

Due to the fact that a larger percentage of the total farmers raise poultry more than any other class of farm animals, makes this one of the most important crops in America.

Poultry in the East South Central States (including Tennessee and Kentucky) is becoming a crop of greater importance each year. The value of poultry produced in these two states during 1935 amounted to almost $35,000,000.00. Many farmers who took very little notice of the chickens in the past are going about this work the last two years in a very carefully planned, business like, scientific method.

There is one very important reason for this.

A good laying hen will produce more high quality food per dollar invested than any other class of farm animal.

It takes seven months to grow this bird with an investment of $3.00 per bird. If she is a good one, she will have produced 15 dozen eggs by the time she is 18 months old. These eggs should bring 25c per dozen. This amounts to $3.75. The feed cost during this time should not be over one half of this, or $1.87. When eighteen months old there will be a market value of 6 pounds, times 15c cents per pound, or 90c which is over the original investment. Therefore this bird will have brought in $4.65 at a total expense of $2.67. Can you equal this with any other class of farm animal?

By now you are wondering what this has to do with watermelon rinds. It has just this. At this season many farmers have more watermelon than they know what to do with. They eat all they can, then give the rinds and bad melons to the chickens because the chickens act as if they were good food.

If you want to ruin your flock of growing pullets just feed them watermelon. If every farmer in the U. S. fed their chickens watermelon rinds this annual income of $700,000,000.00 would be mostly wiped out.

Now, don't you think this is a high price for watermelon rinds?

SEES VALUE IN HOME DEMONSTRATION WORK

"A new view of life" was recently declared by Mrs. L. B. Bruner of Garrard county to be the most valuable contribution of home demonstration work to the women of that county.

Mrs. Bruner, who is one of Kentucky's Master Homemakers, reviewed the work of her county home demonstration agent and homemakers club. She told what is being done in the county in teaching food values and diets, improved methods of canning and storing foods, facts about fabrics and clothing, the improvement of the home and the social and cultural values of the work.

"Garrard county women agree that through the influence of the home demonstration agent they have become better housekeepers, better neighbors and better citizens," she said.

But perhaps the outstanding value that home demonstration work has given us is a new view of life. We see things from a different angle than that of our parents or even of our earlier experiences. We have seen a vision which will enable us to improve ourselves, our families and our homes. Our work is no longer drudgery but has become a profession—the profession of homemaking.

STRECKFUS STEAMER HEADING SOUTHWARD

Heading southward on her long fall cruise to New Orleans the big sideshell steamer "J. S.", traveling member of the Streckfus Excursion Fleet, will stop at Hickman on Monday, August 24th for a Moonlight Excursion, for which she is famous from Red Wing, Minn., to New Orleans, La.

The popular "garden steamer" whose paddle wheels churn thousands of miles of water in the course of her roaming itinerary, stops at many river ports on her cruise southward, and her excursion and dance outings are long anticipated events.

The coming of the "J. S." means a gala night for dance devotees and a cool, comfortable outing for those who like the charm and romance of "Old Man River." Throughout the season the big ballroom of the steamer has been a popular rendezvous for river city dancers, and the broad decks and comfortable lounges have been a mecca for pleasure seekers.

Piron's widely known "Dixie Cotton Picker's" popular rhythm-maker from one end of the Mississippi to the other, will remain aboard the "J. S." on its down-river cruise. These versatile "dixie" troupers, offering a well-balanced repertory of the latest "hot" dance numbers and romantic music, make a popular hit wherever the "J. S." goes.

The Elks Lodge of Hickman are sponsoring the excursion leaving Hickman at 8:30 p.m.

RAILROADS STAND HIGH AMONG NEWSPAPERS IN ADVERTISING

Proof of the high rank which the railroads occupy among advertisers generally—and newspaper advertisers in particular—is given by a study recently completed covering ten years of railway advertising.

The total expenditures for the ten years were nearly $140,000,000, ranging from a high of $18,700,000 in 1929 to a low of $7,800,000 in 1933. The annual average for the ten years was nearly $13,800,000.

Even in the depression year 1933 the railroads spent approximately $3,700,000 for the purchase of newspaper space—substantially ten times what they spent for the purchase of space in periodicals. Other large items that year were: folders, maps, photographs, etc., $330,000; handbills and direct mail advertising, $320,000; special displays (fair, window, etc.), $320,000; billboards, posters, etc., $140,000. Advertising expenditures have naturally been stepped up with the subsequent improvement in railway earnings.

bought $1,427,000 tons of bituminous coal in 1935, or 22 percent of the total bituminous coal output.

More than one million six hundred thousand children are being educated in America each year with the taxes paid by the railroads.

Due to the speeding up of freight trains, many communities throughout the United States now enjoy over-night freight service from points 500 miles distant.

SMOOTHER RIDE RESULTS FROM NEW ILLINOIS CENTRAL WHEEL TREAD

Not only longer wearing life of the metal but also smoother riding of passenger equipment are claimed for a new type of wheel tread recently devised by the Illinois Central System and placed in use on many of its trains, according to report by J. D. Younger, general electrical foreman at Chicago, appearing in the Illinois Central magazine for August.

Instead of being beveled and slanting across the rail, as in the former American Railway Association standard, the new tread is made to fit flat upon the top of the rail, curving downward only at the inner flange of the wheel. This equalizes wear and avoids a "shimmying" effect in riding which previously resulted from the formulation of ridges on the old style of tread.

This shimmying motion became especially noticeable at high speeds, and it was necessary to remedy it in order to make possible the successful operation of the Illinois Central's high-speed electric suburban trains in Chicago, as well as its streamline train, the Green Diamond operating between Chicago and St. Louis. The new tread requires shop work for the turning of wheels only about once a year, of every 36,000 miles, as compared with shop work needed every nine months for the old style of tread. It is estimated that in the electric suburban service alone this means an annual saving of between $9,000 and $10,000.

The railroads entering Chicago will be represented by a float in the Carnival of the Lakes, which will be held in that city August 17 to 23. More than fifty beautiful floats are expected to be presented each evening of the carnival. The week's show will be on the site of the Century of Progress Exposition and will dramatize the beauty of the Chicago lakefront.

ILLINOIS CENTRAL HAS THE LARGEST ENGINE OF KIND

A 2,000-horsepower locomotive the largest single engine Diesel-electric locomotive in the world—is now in use on the Chicago Terminal of the Illinois Central System. It is one of the three large transfer locomotives which have been built on order of the railroad to handle freight trains between downtown Chicago and Markham Yard, twenty miles to the south.

The Diesel engine of this locomotive was built by the Bosch-Sulzer Brothers Diesel Engine Company, and the General Electric Company, provided the electrical equipment. Both companies co-operated in the design and construction of the locomotive.

There are six traction motors, one on each driving axle. The locomotive weighs 346,000 pounds and has a wheel base of 46 feet and a maximum speed of 60 miles per hour.

ACTIVITIES ARE GREATLY INCREASED IN N. R. S.

July placement activities of the National Reemployment Service surpassed all other figures for the same month since inauguration of the Service in 1933, according to Myer Freyman, state reemployment director. A total of 5,370 persons were placed which represents a gain of 159.3% over the July 1933 number and 32% above the corresponding month of 1934. The total showed 5,883 persons were placed. Employment was found for 375 veterans.

Public works projects supplied jobs to 4,152 persons in July. This figure was a drop of 5.5% as compared with June, but 171% above the July 1933 number. Seventy-eight PWA projects were serviced with labor during the month. During the month two new were started, schools at Drakeboro and Owensboro, and five were completed. Completed projects included schools at Manchester and in Fleming and Floyd counties; water works at Vine Grove and a reservoir at Paducah.

Placements in private employment numbered 931, 4.9% below June but 106% above the July 1933 number when 452 persons were placed.

Persons placed on security wage jobs numbered 287 as compared to 525 in June.

Of the total placements made, 4,950 were men and 420 were women.

Applications in the active file July 31 numbered 139,602, an increase of 7,473 over the June total. In the active file are included 7,326 veterans. During July, 5,533 new applications were taken; 2,442 registrations recorded; 8,365 renewals made and 16,211 reinterviews given; 6,673 referrals were made. Field visits totaled 344 of which 621 were to private industry.

Placement activities for District I show Public 259, private, 24, others 62, total 345 of which 27 were veterans.

AMERICAN BOY OFFERS WORLD OF ADVENTURE

During the coming year AMERICAN BOY stories will take readers into thundering transport planes, into Annapolis and through the Caribbean with the Navy, into the soundless tangles of Georgia's Okefenokee swamp, and even into an imaginary future of space ships, strange machines and science. All are swift-moving, instructive and gripping.

There'll be stories of the true adventures of David Irwin, the young maverick, for four years, alone, wandered across the arctic barrens by dog team, going for mon-the without seeing a human being and eating only frozen fish. And there'll be Roscoe Turner's inside story of the famous London-to-Melbourne air race.

There'll be advice on hobbies, sports tips from famous coaches and players, suggestions on money-earning and low-cost travel, and articles on dog training, nature's oddities and tomorrow's airplanes.

There'll be stories about the favorite characters of a million boys—Boneshead Tierney, detective; Square Jaw Davis, engineer; Hide-a-ack, the red-gold collie; Alan Kane, scientist; and Lee, midshipman.

THE AMERICAN BOY costs only $1 a year, or $2 for three years, foreign subscriptions 50 cents a year extra. Send your name, address and remittance to THE AMERICAN BOY, 7430 Second Blvd., Detroit.

Mich. Service will start with the issue you specify. On newsstands, 10 cents a copy.

A MORATORIUM ON PREACHING

The rector of Trinity Church, New York, in a Sunday sermon, called for a moratorium on preaching for a year or two. Thus he hoped the better to bring about the salvation of the world and strengthen the church which, he complained, had failed lamentably in recent years.

Dr. Fleming may be in step with modernism and the new idea. These in many lands would put the churches out of business, but he has certainly forgotten the first duty of his calling, which is to spread the gospel. Perhaps he is thinking of those who advance political ideas from the pulpit. Isn't that a practice as old as Christianity itself? Did not the earliest acts of persecution and repression propose to stamp out a rebellious sect that refused divine homage to the emperor and, so doing, sapped the very foundations of Roman authority and power? It was the political rather than the religious side of their teaching for which men and women suffered in the centuries before the empire surrendered to the church. Heresy, in the modern sense, was a later invention. A Savonarola was done to death less as pestilent reformer of sacerdotalism than as a public nuisance and a menace to the state.

Priests, clerics, ministers, are not just that and nothing more. They may be portents, possibly prophets. Very certainly those old Hebrews awayed the politics of their hectic day.

One can, however, understand the rector of Old Trinity. Neither he or his forebears have been successful with Wall Street, which falls within their sphere of what is not, perhaps, correctly denoted "influence."—(Herald Post)

A NEW COURT HOUSE

E. H. Marshall, who for forty years, has had a part in the progressiveness of Union City and Obion county, is addressing a communication to the public in this issue on the subject of a new court house for Obion county. Mr. Marshall's suggestion that the matter of securing a new court house is timely, and in this communication he shows why the matter should be taken up now. He is taking the right view of the subject, and his suggestion should be taken seriously. In the past various handicaps have held down the possibility of the county court going into the matter. But now something should be done. If a new courthouse is not secured now while reasonable terms of financing such a project are available it will not be probable that this county will have a respectable building for sometime to come. A new building now would seem to be a measure of economy. It would certainly tend to efficiency. The next session of the county court should bury prejudices and differences and go into this matter thoroughly while an opportunity for financing the project is available.—(Union City Messenger)

ROOSEVELT RUINING THE COUNTRY?

If the screams of the president's critics the true then business in the country has indeed gone to the bottomless pit. They insist that the sole aim of the New Deal is to ruin business. The details of this persecution and torture are indeed horrifying. Let's look at some of the dreadful things the New Deal is doing to business. Let's go over the Financial Page of the New York Times. In one issue of the paper we pick the following headlines at random.

"Savings Banks Top Ten Billion Mark. Deposits within $10,000,000 of Record July 1.—Accounts at New Peak in Number. Assets at Highest Point Reach $11,349,335,582, with surplus account also largest in History."

Texas Beauty

This is Georgia Carroll, 17-year-old Dallas high school girl, who won second place in the contest to select the Texas Centennial Exposition's "Blue-bonnet Girl." She will have an important part in the ceremonies when President Roosevelt visits Dallas.

"Financing concern Shows Record Net Commercial Investment Trust for the half year earns $3.16 a common share. Business also at a peak. Total assets on June 30 at $409,587,591, compared with $297,183,889 on December 31."

"General Motors Increases Income, $18,108,372 net for quarter of June 30 is reported for period since 1929. Half-year total also up 12 months profits $224,069,218. Bringing earnings on Common to $5.91 a share."

"New York Utility Votes 50c Dividend. Directors of the Consolidated Edison Company of New York at a meeting held recently declared a dividend of 50c a share on the common stock, against 25c a share paid in the five preceding quarters."

"Youngstown Steel Rate at 80 percent, the best July from an operating standpoint since 1929."

"Sterling Securities Gains. Net assets were $19,406,550 at close of first half of the year."

So it would be plain to the dullest that the New Deal is ruining the country and sending the people back to the days of chaos and despair such as we experienced before the advent of the Roosevelt Administration.—(Mayfield Messenger)

BRIEF EDITORIALS

Policemen in a Western city are studying oratory. These arm of the law is going to acquire a silver tongue.

A Tennessee boy has undergone 1,800 operations in three years. That is one way to endow a hospital. An evangelist chose for his sermon topic: "An Excursion to Hell." We imagine there were many strap-hangers.

A problem that can't be solved by a commencement orator isn't much of a problem.

One-half of the world is all the time trying to skin the other half.

THE FARM AND HOME

(Kentucky Agricultural Experiment Station.)

Home-produced wool is sometimes used for comforters, baby quilts, and even pillows and mattresses. Probably put together, wool makes an ideal comforter, light in weight and yet warm. It takes about three to five pounds of washed and carded wool to make a comforter, and about that much raw wool before scouring and carding.

Much progress has been made in producing summer wash fabrics that are shrink-proof and fast in color. Most garments are now guaranteed against shrinking and fading either as a result of washing or exposure to sun.

Extensive tests point to the value of fertilizers on pastures. In some cases $1 invested in fertilizer returns $3 to $11 in increased feed. Problems of soil conservation and land use tend to revolve around pasture improvement.

Sudan grass may make good fall pasture and even hay when sown as late as middle August, depending on growing conditions. It should be drilled at the rate of 25 pounds per acre rather than broadcast. The seed is not expensive.

Kentucky is one of the states actively interested in the national poultry improvement plan, which has for its purpose the improvement of eggs and other market products, the quality of hatching eggs, baby chicks and breeding stock.

Tests at the Kentucky Experiment Station indicate that rye is slightly better than bluegrass for ewes and lambs. Ewes grazing rye consumed less hay, their lambs averaged a pound heavier at birth, and both ewes and lambs gained better than where bluegrass was grazed.

46 COUNTIES INVITED TO DISTRICT 4-H FAIR

Forty-six counties containing more than 10,000 club boys and girls have been invited to participate in the district 4-H club fair to be held at the Kentucky Trotting Horse Breeders Association grounds in Lexington Sept. 2-3. This is one of the largest events of its kind in America. Departments include swine, beef, cattle, dairy cattle, sheep, poultry, potatoes, garden products, corn, clothing, canning foods and room improvement exhibits for 4-H club members, and similar departments for Future Farmers. There also will be athletic and recreational events.

Several thousand dollars in cash premiums will be divided among winning exhibitors.

The fair is being sponsored by the Fayette County 4-H Club Leaders Council, the Lexington Board of Commerce and the Man O' War Post of the American Legion.

Only members of the 4-H clubs in the 46 counties and of the Future Farmers of Fayette county may make exhibits.

"THE WORLD FOR GOD"

Salvation takes the bad out of a fellow without subtracting any of the pep from his make-up. Thousands of spiritual firebrands whose effective fighting is due in large measure to the "Will-To-Do" with which they were born, give ample testimony to this fact.

The will to do evil has been changed in the twinkling of an eye, by the grace of God, into the will to do good. They retained all of the fire, all of the vehemence of speech, all of the vigor of action, that was theirs when evil had a strangle-hold upon them. In fact, they developed more of it because of the cessation of evil habits which had been a constant drain on their physical strength.

Herein lies a great difference between an individual who has been reformed and one who has been "Saved."

The reformed fellow is quiet, he is educated out of his wild, impetuous habits, he acts with decorum and his ways are the ways of peace and quiet. He gravitates naturally into a condition of respectability.

The saved individual who becomes "respectable", that is, observant of all the niceties and conventions of social usage is not a whole lot of good to the work of extending the Kingdom of God. He is afraid to do anything that will challenge public opinion, he shrinks from publicity attendant upon anything "freakish" or unusual.

The people and things in God's world have always been "foolish" to the worldly wise. But where are the worldly wise? God's world still goes onward.

Let us make this world a World For God.

Have you read the Gospels lately? If not, get down that old Bible and read of the Man of Galilee, read about a Savior who was so filled with the affairs of heaven and of earth that He never lost sight of both. Read how He brought the Sunlight to the dark places and how He revealed to the careless ones the serious side of life.

Let the writers of those Gospels portray for you again a picture of a God-Man, so wonderfully made that He includes in His make-up every part and phase of heaven and earth. He knows all about you—about the happy hours and about the blue days.

He can mend your broken heart. He can wipe away all your tears. He will forgive your sins—and they will be remembered no more against you forever.

Are you up against a dirty brick wall of circumstance and sin? Let the raindrops and the sunshine of His love and mercy wash and warm your heart and soul.

Those who leave the world of sin behind and put their feet on the straight and narrow path that leads to God's world, learn facts that this world cannot teach.

Let us make this a World For God.

Richmond is Host to Grad-uating Seniors in Reception

Murray, Ky.—August 19—Fifty six Murray State College graduating seniors were guests of honor at a reception Wednesday night, August 12, given by President James H. Richmond in the lobby of the men's dormitory, conceded to be one of the finest in the South.

Other guests included Dean and Mrs. J. W. Carr, who had just returned from a three week's vacation to New York City in the suburban villa of East Harbor. Many faculty members and administrative personnel staff members were guests.

Palm trees decorated the spacious hall and weak lights glowed from shaded chandeliers. The reception was completely informal, and, beginning at 8 o'clock, its duration was no more than an hour. A short receiving line served punch to the guests as they entered by the plaza or leaned on the white stone balustrade overlooking the campus.

President Richmond Hill will confer degrees upon the graduating seniors after Dr. Herbert Drennon's commencement address in the auditorium Friday night, August 18.

No Ballyhoo

No, sir! No ballyhoo, no loud talk or exaggerated claims ever put BROWDER'S FLOUR on the level it now stands. It was facts—plain facts that passed from neighbor to neighbor—concerning the SUPERB BAKING qualities of our flour.

It is to this, mainly, that we attribute the popularity of these famous brands:

IN MEMORY

In sad but loving memory of our dear Mother Mary Bard who passed away five years ago, August 23, 1931. Today recalls sad memories.
Of our dear mother gone to rest,
And the ones who think of her today
Are the ones that loved her best.
The sweetest of memories are all that is left
Of our darling mother, one of the best.
When days are dark and friends seem few,
Dear mother how we long for you
Oh! how we miss you, mother,
And if we could recall the day
When you, dear mother, passed away.
Everything would be different.
Our hearts still ache with sadness,
Our eyes have shed many tears,
God alone knows how we miss her
As this ends five short years.
And you, dear mother, in your grave lie,
Free from sorrow and from pain,
And we are trusting in Jesus to meet you again.
Just a thought so true and tender,
Just to show, mother, we remember.
Constantly missed by family, J. F. Bard, Cleveland and Clarence Bard and Miss Lillian Bard.

"For Want of a Nail—"

A SHOE, A HORSE AND A RIDER all were lost, according to Benjamin Franklin.
Preparing to leave the train at Memphis, where he was to play golf the following day with an important customer, a business man discovered his golf bag was missing. It had been left on another train when he transferred the night before.
An appeal was made to the Illinois Central—and the next morning at 8 the missing bag was delivered to him.
This business man has told this story many times, and it always ends: "I travel on the Illinois Central whenever I go where it goes."

ILLINOIS CENTRAL SYSTEM

JUST as far as the standard of golf, so is satisfactory service the standard of good railroading. Champion golfers best put, however, and champion railroads give patrons a little more for their money than they ordinarily expect.
