FULTON COUNTRY CLUB TO STAGE TOURNEY ON AUGUST 17TH; SECOND ANNUAL EVENT

Members of the Fulton Country Club are busily preparing for the second annual invitation golf tournament to be held on the local links, August 17th.

Last year the first large invitational golf tournament in Fulton was very successful, with 55 players entering from Paducah, Princeton, Mayfield and Fulton, Ky., and Humboldt, Dyersburg and Union City, Tenn.

To date this year the Jackson, (Tenn.) Country Club has notified local tournament officials that a large delegation will enter.

Last year's winner, Harry Richards, from Fulton, will defend his title and attempt to better his own scorching 71, one under par, with which he won the cup last year.

Runner-up Ray Andrus, Mayfield, who shot a 75 in last year's play, will also be on hand to make the competition keener.

This year's tournament will be played Sunday, August 17th out at the Fulton Country Club. A tournament committee, consisting of "Buck" Bushart, Paul Durbin and Joe M. Hall is hard at work getting things organized.

Sunday August 10th the Dyersburg, (Tenn.) Country Club will send out a delegation of 20 golfers to meet the local team.

Earlier this year the Dyersburg team defeated Fulton there, 3 to 1. All caddies are urged to be there Aug. 10th. At least 40 will be needed for the large group.

Work Begins on Dotty Shop Remodeling Plan

The Dotty Shop, one of Fulton's prominent ladies ready-to-wear stores, is undergoing an extensive remodeling program, with work beginning immediately.

The remodeling will include installation of air-conditioning equipment, new fixtures, new ceiling and additional lighting, according to the manager.

Although extensive, the face-lifting program is planned for completion in two weeks, with the shop remaining open for "business as usual" during operations.

EMPLOYEES OF FORD CLOTHING GIVE TO RAT CAMPAIGN

The real "spirit of Fulton" was known yesterday when the entire staff of the Ford Clothing Co., made an individual contribution to the News' Rat Campaign.

The boys think that if the staffs of each store in town do the same, it won't be long before the entire amount will be collected.

How about it? Why not appoint a person in your store, Mr. Merchant, to collect contributions to the campaign that Fulton needs so badly.

FARM BUREAU HEADS MEET AT COLUMBIA; R. L. McNATT ATTENDS

R. L. McNatt, president of the Weakley County Farm Bureau, and Neal Tilman, of Greenfield, Tenn., publicity representative, attended the annual conference of Farm Bureau presidents held at Columbia, August 5-7.

This meeting each year brings together the president and one other delegate from each County Farm Bureau in the State for a discussion of plans for the coming year and a review of progress during the preceding twelve months. Among most important items scheduled for discussion are proposals for a permanent agricultural program to become effective at the end of the present price-support period, Dec. 31, 1948.

This year's conference will be attended by representatives of 93 county organizations.

Mr. McNatt said that progress reports would be made on organization and membership, legislative activities, Young Farmers and Homemakers, publicity and publications, as well as a financial report.

In addition, reports will be made on activities of organizations affiliated with the Farm Bureau and organizations with which the Farm Bureau works closely.

Mr. McNatt states that he received a wire from Washington July 31 with the information that $225,000,000 had been made available for loans for Rural Electrification and the Soil Conservation Program $265,000,000 for 1948, which is enough to pay every cent promised to farmers. For the hot lunch program $65,000,000 was appropriated to provide hot food for the girls and boys in school.

BASEBALL

'FORE and 'AFT

Dear Baseball Fan,

This week, we have two additions to the Chick family. One is Clarence Greaser, who plays centerfield. He is from Gordonville, Mo., is 20 years old, and is bait for the local gals who seem to like baseball players. The other newcomer is George Wessell, a right handed pitcher. George is from Dutchtown, Mo., and is also bait for the bobby soxers in the bleachers. We wish them both lots of luck. Mr. Wessell, who is 22, seems to have already done fairly well in his first attempt which was against Clarksville.

CITY WATER SUPPLY IN DANGER AS DIESEL ENGINE BREAKS DOWN

Only One Engine Running As City Faces Drought

By Marian Maxfield

While Fultonians swelter with a heat wave of unprecedented temperatures a condition is prevalent in the city which could easily paralyze the water supply rendering the city without water for an indefinite period. City Councilman Clarence Pickering advised the News today.

According to the city spokesman the city water supply is furnished by two diesel engines from a deep well. One of the engines is completely out of operation and has been for sometime. Attempts to repair the machine have been made for several days by Robert J. Hahan of the Hartford Steam and Underwriting Association and M. W. Givens, representing Fairbanks-Morse Co., St. Louis, Mo., specialists in diesel engines. Breakdown of the other diesel pumping machine would cripple the city's water supply, necessitating pumping into the city from near-by municipalities, he advised.

"At the present time we are pumping a great deal more water than we have in the history of Fulton and the city officials feel it highly important that the users of water cooperate by conserving the supply as much as possible," Mr. Pickering said.

In view of the near drought in the city and the efforts of citizens to keep the lawns watered, Mr. Pickering warned that the constant practice of sprinkling would work an even greater hardship on the supply and appealed to consumers to curtail this use of water whenever possible.

Plans for the broken engine have been ordered air express from St. Louis and cities in Wisconsin, but as yet they have not arrived. A trip by motor was made to cities in Mississippi to secure needed repair materials, the councilman added.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Winstead are the parents of a little daughter, Linda Dianne born at the Fulton hospital August 1 at 11 a. m., weight 7 pounds, and 8 ounces.

Rev. E. T. Shauf, pastor will assist the evangelist.

A. C. BUTTS PLANS NEW MILL AND SEED HOUSE ON HIGHWAY

A. C. Butts and Sons, long-time operators of a grinding and hammer mill in Fulton, announce the acquisition of property on the Martin highway where construction will be started immediately on a new mill and seed house.

The property, located at the railroad spur directly across from the Kentucky Cement Products Co. block plant, is approximately three acres in extent.

According to Aaron Butts, the firm will construct a grain elevator and seed house, in addition to the hammer mill, molasses mixer and grain grinder. The building is planned for completion the last of October.

Mill equipment, which for 20 years was in operation in a building behind the Pierce-Cequin Lumber Company, will be moved in for immediate operation when construction is completed.

Roundhouse Round-Up

By Alice Clark

Hi gang! Here's your Roundhouse reporter with the hot news again! Well, we have news of friends and relatives any way. To make a long story long leave us commence to spread the gossip. However let us first consider the safety rule for the week. This is rule No. 6, one of the most important. "We must exercise care to avoid injury to ourselves or others by observing the condition of equipment, material and tools which we use in performing our duties. When such things are found defective each employee will, if practicable, put them in safe condition, reporting defects to supervising officers. No work is to be undertaken with defective unstable tools."

Now on with the news of the week.

REV. SAM ED BRADLEY
RESIGNS POST

The Rev. Sam Ed Bradley, pastor of the First Baptist church since Feb. 1, 1945, has resigned his position here to become field superintendent of the Louisville Baptist Orphan Home. His resignation, effective Sept. 1, was accepted by the church congregation at the services Sunday morning.

In his new position, the Fulton pastor will spend the major part of his time traveling over Kentucky on international and good will missions for the orphanage.

He will also direct plans for the new orphanage on the 160-acre site near Buechel, a Louisville suburb, recently purchased by Kentucky Baptists.

The orphanage, located at 1022 South First street in Louisville, is the oldest institution of its kind in the Southern Baptist Convention.

During his pastorate here Rev. Bradley has endeared himself not only to the congregation of the First Baptist Church, but to the entire City of Fulton as well.

His departure with that of his interesting family to other fields of endeavor, will be a distinct loss to the civic, cultural, and social life of Fulton.

The News joins his hundreds of friends in wishing him Godspeed in his new position.

Father and Son Both Praise Retonga Now

Distress From Sour Indigestion And Sluggish Elimination Promptly Relieved And He Feels As Good As Ever, States Prominent Farmer. Discusses His Case.

"After seeing what Retonga did for me, my son is now taking it which shows what we think of the medicine," states Mr. R. A. Griffey, widely known farmer of Route 1, Adams, Tenn. Mr. Griffey's 350 acre farm is one of the best in his section. Discussing Retonga, he gratefully stated:

"About a year ago I began to have trouble with sour stomach and indigestion. I soon found that I had to resort to laxatives frequently. I began to feel sluggish and run-down, my appetite left me, and I was afraid I would get in worse shape if I didn't find relief.

"By the time I had finished the second bottle of Retonga, I felt so greatly relieved that I felt as if I had never had any sour stomach or indigestion. The constipation is relieved, too, and I feel as good as ever. As I said, my son is now taking Retonga. It deserves all the praise we can give it."

Retonga is intended to relieve distress due to insufficient flow of digestive juices in the stomach, loss of appetite, Vitamin B-1 deficiency and constipation. Accept no substitute. Retonga may be obtained at the City Drug Co., in Fulton.

LOUISA'S LETTER

Dear Louisa:

We are two girls aged 21 and 22. We are considered good-looking and quite popular. However, we do not drink, pet, nor do we approve of parking.

A few weeks ago we met two boys and we have dated them a few times. They have in every way measured up to what we call gentlemen, but one of our boy friends has told us that they have a bad reputation in their home town.

Please tell us if we should not date them again or should we wait until they proved themselves otherwise?

Both are fine young men and both have cars of their own. We are between the devil and the deep blue sea, so please tell us what we should do.

POLLY AND CHIC

Answer:

It is hard to advise you what to do under the circumstances. Of course you two girls are old enough to be pretty good judges of the men you go with, but some of the rottenest men can put up a good front when they want to. On the other hand, the boy may be interested in keeping them away.

The safest thing to do is to find out about them from some responsible person in their home town and if they have bad reputations let them alone, no matter how attractive they seem. It never pays to play with fire.

Good luck,

LOUISA.

Dear Louisa:

I hope and pray you can help me. I met a boy about two weeks ago with whom I fell in love at first sight. I have never been in love like this before. I can't eat, sleep or study for thinking about him. I can tell by the way he talked to me that he loves me too. I am sixteen and go to school, while he is a college boy.

The way I met him was at a concert and when he left me that night he asked where I lived and smiled at me. I saw him two days later and he spoke to me and smiled.

Don't you think by this letter that he loves me and will try to get in touch with me?

BLUE EYES.

Answer:

My Dear "Blue Eyes," you are just at the stage where falling in love at sight is the easiest thing in the world to do. The whole world looks so rosy and romantic to you that a nice boy who is just ordinarily polite to you can seem to return your adoration.

Judy and Jane Keiser Enjoy Fifth Birthday

Mrs. E. D. Keiser honored her twin daughters, Judy and Jane, on their fifth birthday, Monday afternoon at their home on Norman street.

The twins were a pretty picture dressed in yellow pinafores and miniature corsages of yellow flowers in their hair.

Games and contests were enjoyed during the afternoon. Later in the afternoon Judy and Jane opened their lovely gifts, after which the little guests were invited into the dining room where ice cream and cake were served.

The dining table was overlaid with a lace cloth centered with a beautiful birthday cake, decorated with garlands of pink, blue and yellow with tiny pink rose buds scattered over the cake. On each end of the cake was the numeral 5 and Judy and Jane. Five tiny pink candles in forms of small girls and boys centered the cake with small pink and blue baskets at each corner. Lighted blue candles in crystal holders cast a glow over the festive scene.

Favors of spin tops and suckers were given each guest.

Mrs. Keiser was assisted in serving by Miss Margherita Keiser of Leavenworth, Kan., aunt of the twins, who came to attend the party.

Invited guests were Pamela Homma, Joan and Jerry Carter, Bobby Hyland, Dianne and Sam Trinca, Susan McDaniels, Dorothea Shields, Cynthia Campbell, Rose Hyland, Anita Hyland, Duncan Bushart, Jo Ed Bush, Richard Cardwell, Reta Keiser.

Those who sent gifts but didn't attend were Danny Robbins and Mickey Rooney.

Mrs. Brady Entertains Friends With Luncheon

Mrs. Frank Brady entertained Tuesday at her home on Eddings street complimenting old school friends of Beelerton High. At 12:30 a delicious luncheon was served to Madames Guy Brown, Ray Pharis, Cecil Binford and Misses Bonnie Walker and Pauline Thompson.

Totany Brady had as guests Tuesday Dale Pharis of Beelerton and Jane Murphy of Water Valley.

Victory Club Gathers For Picnic on Grounds

Under the giant oaks on the Union Church grounds the Victory Club gathered for their annual picnic.

Covers were laid for forty, and a sumptuous meal was served. Mrs. R. P. Roberts, club president, called the group around the table and led in singing a familiar grace.

After the table was cleared Mrs. Roberts asked Mr. Gray, the assistant Fulton County Agent, to present some color slides, which she had requested him to bring. The pictures were taken here and there in Fulton County. Among them were three pictures of Cecil Burnett's registered Guernseys. One of Mr. Burnett's animals, Gloria, is a grand-daughter of Fore Most Prediction. Gloria's half sister recently sold for $2050.00. Gloria will be on exhibition at the Farm Bureau picnic August 27, 1947.

Mrs. Bertha McLeod was called upon to make an extemporaneous speech, which she responded to graciously.

Mrs. Roberts expressed appreciation in behalf of the club for the pictures and to Mrs. McLeod. She then asked Mrs. Jon Dawes, program conductor to take charge.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Byrd of Beelerton announce the birth of twin boys born August 3 at the Fulton hospital.

Roundhouse Round-up

one having less than ten years of service with the railroad is considered a youngster. We're talking about our young machinist Charlie Jones.

Charles B. Jones, Jr., machinist, was born in Jackson, Tennessee May 20, 1916. He is the son of Charles B. Jones, Sr., of course. Charlie attended school at Jackson, Tenn., graduating from high school in 1936. He then went to work in Jackson as a machinist apprentice in 1937. After serving four years apprenticeship Charlie became a full fledged machinist. He then was transferred to the Paducah roundhouse where he worked for three months as a machinist inspector. Charlie was transferred to Fulton June 2, 1941 where he has since worked as a machinist inspector. Charlie married Miss Harriet McHugh of Union City, Tenn., on February 3, 1940. They have one child, Patricia Katherine, age 2. Charlie has a very interesting grand parent. We're talking about the famed Casey Jones, who was his grandfather. Casey was killed April 30, 1900 at Vaughn, Mississippi in a train wreck. We don't know who wrote the song "Casey Jones" but Charlie says it certainly describes his grand father.

J. E. Ballard, assistant supt., perishable freight service and W. W. Anderson, perishable freight inspector, both of Chicago, was in Fulton Wednesday.

Trainmaster H. A. Rust and Traveling Engineer T. C. Nelms have been in Millington for several days this week assisting in the handling of traffic between Millington and Atoka where new 131 pd rails are being installed on the southward track.

R. H. Carter, supt., and J. C. Jacobs, div. engineer, Jackson were in Fulton Wednesday.

Jack Southerland, traveling car agent, Chicago was in Fulton Wednesday.

returned, Ray Pechous was out with a pulled muscle in his leg. He got back in there, and in the same game, Seawright was taken out because of his collar bone. They say that when trouble comes it always comes in threes. It did with the infield the last time, and has again with the outfield. I sincerely hope that this is the end, and that rest of the season finds our Chicks with a perfect attendance record. We need every one of them.

What could be more disgusting than to sit in the grandstand, (in the shade, mind you), and watch a group of boys sweating putty balls on a Sunday afternoon trying to entertain us, and hear a "fair weather fan" moan about an error? Mister, you were right behind me, with a fan and a bottle of Coca-Cola, in the shade, and dressed for hot weather. I'd like to tell you, just for the records, what that little guy has on under that white uniform with the blue number on the back. You may count these if you wish; one long sleeved cotton undershirt . . . the kind you wore last winter; one pair of quilted sliding pads . . . quite thick; one pair of long white sanitary stockings . . . the cotton ones which are so warm in January, one set of unmentionable elastic and plastic gear; one pair of blue woolen socks; spikes, and a cap. (Which is by no means a Panama). And if you think that uniform is white eyelet, you've got another think coming. It is all wool . . . must say. And so, dressed for Christmas in Connecticut, the poor guy commits an error. Out comes, "I paid fifty cents to see a ballgame, not a bunch of errors. Get in the game, Lunkhead!" Now wait a minute, Buddy, we know all about that fifty cents of yours. If these boys didn't make errors once in awhile, they not only wouldn't be in the Kitty League; they wouldn't exist. Seems to me, I've heard of quite a few Major Leaguers with numerals under that "E" column, too. So the next time, Kind Sir, instead of sitting there griping about that error, just say to yourself, "I guess the perspiration rolled off his forehead and into his eyes. Bound to, in this heat! And come to think of it, I couldn't have gotten that one, myself!" You'd be surprised how much more enjoyment that fifty cents will bring. (And fifty cents isn't a bit more than those two quarters you lost betting on the other team.) And while we're on the subject, think back a bit, and remember the time whenever you were starting out on a career. I'll bet you pulled plenty of boners before you got to where you are now. Didn't you? And didn't it make you mad when people got on your back about them? Do unto others . . . as you wish others had done unto you.

Cards which came into the News office addressed to yours truly, dealt mainly with Propst, Lis, and Litzelfelner, this week. You wanted "statistics," but didn't say exactly what kind. Jake is 22, from Columbus, Miss., and is single. (Is there still a manpower shortage? Everybody wants to know if they're married or not). Joe is 23, hails from Detroit, Mich., and likes soup. Jack is seventeen, from Jackson, Mo., and he, too, is unattached, at present. Jack was high school basketball star, and has an accent that makes the word "leg" come out "lag." Pet expression is "Hang in there, Kid."

Mrs. Whitey Lynch's father, an undertaker, has gone to Manila to aid in returning the dead American soldiers to the United States for burial. He left his home in Upland, Indiana, last week, and was flown to Manila by the Army Air Corps.

Sunday was a perfect day for Mrs. Dutch Gray. Even losing to Hoptown didn't dim her spirits. The reason for her joyousness was that she had talked to her mother in Pittsburgh, Penn. (The fact that her dinner for Hardecastle, Litzelfelner, Tootie Roberts, Dutch, etc., was a success, helped matters, also.) Butch's mother wanted to know where her insurance policy is, now that she's learning to drive. Trusty old soul, isn't she?

That concludes the news of the Chick family for another week. Tune in again in our next issue. And in the meantime, try Wespelling's Soap. It doesn't lather, doesn't bubble, doesn't float, doesn't smell good . . . it's just company in the tub.

Avidly yours,
George
