Mr. Lee misunderstood the signaling of switchman at the crossing, believing the signals were for him to come across the tracks. The switch engine struck the car, pushed it off the tracks, without injury to occupants.

NEW DOTTY SHOP FOR WOMEN STAGES GRAND OPENING HERE FRIDAY, SEPT. 4

The new Dotty Shop for Women will open Friday in Fulton, under the able management of Charles Sanofsky, formerly of the Style Shop in Cairo, Ill. Mr. Sanofsky came to Fulton several weeks ago, purchasing the stock of the Fulton Department Store from L. Kasnow.

After selling out that stock he started work on remodeling of the building for innovation of one of the smartest shops for women in this section.

Besides Mr. Sanofsky, Mrs. Mabel Huff, Mrs. Beatrice Valentine and

Mrs. Leila Coulter, and W. D. Shively, in charge of the shoe department, will be on hand to serve the patrons. The shop will feature a complete line of merchandise for women at popular prices, offering a wide selection of styles.

The interior of the store has been artistically arranged, and its appearance makes it a worthy place addition to Fulton.

Full details about the opening of this shop are given in a page announcement appearing in this issue of The News.

RECOVERY COMES TO THOSE WHO SEEK IT
If a business man has a suit of clothing or a pair of shoes, or some other article tucked away on a shelf, how can he expect to sell it if the people do not know it is there?

Neighboring merchants long since have learned the value of consistent and persistent advertising, and they reach out to adjoining towns to hold that trade—if they would do even a fraction of the advertising out-of-town firms are constantly placing before the trade in this territory. Recovery will come to those who seek it. It will pass by those who make no effort to achieve it.

People do not have to hunt for THE NEWS. Are you doing anything to keep your business at home? Just call 470 and we will be glad to assist you in your advertising that will keep Fulton dollars in Fulton.

COUNCILMEN SEEK THIRD ST. EXTENSION
In interest of pushing through the opening of Third Street Extension, Councilmen E. N. DeMyer, R. C. Peoples and Kellie Lowe went to Hickman last week to examine the county records on the land through which the street will run. The map was brought back to Fulton and the matter laid before J. R. Graham in order that suitable arrangements could be reached with him for re-lease of property that is expected before the regular monthly meeting of the council Monday night.

Approval of this project was given several months ago, and action has been delayed on account of a lack of an understanding between the city and Mr. Graham who holds property in that area. It is believed that an agreement will soon be reached and work will be started. This across the old jockey yard alongside Baldrige's store to connect with Lake Street.

TEACHERS MEET WITH J. O. LEWIS SATURDAY

S. S. PRESIDENT AT HICKMAN, SEPT. 17
Enroute to New Orleans after a highly successful season at St. Louis, the big all-steel, oil-burning S. S. President, Captain John Streeckus commanding, will stop at Hickman Thursday night, September 17, for a Moonlight Dance Excursion, sponsored by the Elks Lodge, No. 1294. The moonlight cruise will start from Hickman at 8:30 p.m. and return at 11:30 p.m. On its present trip down the Mississippi the S. S. President will feature Charles Crath and his Clouds to Joy, with Fate Marable wizard of the ivories, at the piano. This band is well known to our local dancers and has always been very popular here due to the stirring, rhythmic quality of its music. Some new and distinctive novelty musical numbers are promised for the Elks excursion, which will be the last one the S. S. President will make at Hickman until next spring.

THREE CROPS OF PULLETS
By spreading the hatching of baby chicks over the fall, winter and spring, and by holding hens for 15 months over, poultrymen in eastern Mass. are getting more prices. Eggs are taking advantage of a 13.6 cent spread between spring and fall prices. They have more eggs, particularly large ones, for the summer tourist and retail trade and their plants operate at a greater capacity during the year.

The important parts of the program are holding over of the hens and the time of hatching the pullets for replacements. Hens are culled only lightly throughout the summer, taking out only those of poor vigor, those molting and definitely out of production and those showing persistent broodiness. The flock is fed for a minimum of 50 percent production of eggs, milk, pellets, green feed or other supplementary feeds or feeding methods which increase the total feed consumption aid in holding this production.

The reason for hatching some chicks in the fall or winter is to have pullets in production and laying fair sized eggs during the summer and fall periods. They are needed for replacement in the laying house. They must take the place of birds that are culled, die or those that are moved to summer laying houses. Unless these replacements are made, the plant will operate at 75 percent capacity for the year or 90 percent, with as many layers during the summer and fall as any period of the year.

Any industry which contributes a billion dollars to agricultural income in one year should challenge the interest and attention not only of farm folks but also of industrialists, bankers and state and government agencies. Such an industry is the poultry business of the United States.

"NO NEW TAX NEEDED" AS BUSINESS SOARS
Business improvement now has gone far enough to be put to practical use by the President. Mr. Roosevelt is at the point where he believes that spending can be brought under closer control—except for drought relief—at a time when revenues promise a sharp increase.

"We have reached the conclusion that now new taxes and no increase in present tax rates are necessary," states Henry Morgenthau, Jr., Secretary of the Treasury. "With continued recovery we are steadily approaching a reversal of yield which will be entirely adequate to cover the expenditures of Government and to reduce the public debt."

Figures from the Treasury Department show that tax receipts are larger by 9 per cent, net expenditures less by 30 per cent. By net expenditures is meant the outlay less repayments which have been made by lending agencies. Deficit less by 63 per cent—$300 million dollars this year as compared with $400 million last year at the same date.

KROGER STORE IS REMODELED IN MODERN STYLE TO BETTER SERVE FULTON PATRONS
The Kroger Store in Fulton is being thoroughly remodeled and redecorated in order to accommodate increasing patronage that this grocery enjoys, according to A. B. Hornsby, director of sales and advertising. Improvements are being made that will cost in the neighborhood of $10,000, which includes innovation of new fixtures in the market department, new type panel walls, and rearrangements in the produce department.

It will be remembered that the Kroger store first opened in Fulton eight years ago, in the building now occupied by the Arcade Beauty Shop. The store removed from that location to the present site on lower Lake Street some six years ago, since which time many improvements have been made from time to time as business increased. Twice in the past year, improvements have been made.

Interior decorators have been busy several days, and the modernistic trend is unusually attractive. A. Huddleston & Co. made improvements in the produce department, R. H. Cowardin the plumbing, S. P. Moore the awning.

Hilary Ray will still remain in charge of the grocery department, with Kenneth Watt market manager, F. H. James is district manager, and L. H. McGee, assistant district manager. A. B. Hornsby is director of sales and advertising.

IT ISN'T YOUR TOWN—IT'S YOU!
If you want to live in the kind of a town you like, you needn't slip your clothes in a grip. And start on a long, long hike. You'll only find what you left behind. For there's nothing that's really new. It's a knock at yourself when you knock your town; it isn't your town, it's you. Real towns are made by men not afraid. Let somebody else get ahead. When everyone works and nobody shirks. You can raise a town from the dead. And if while you make your personal stake, your neighbor can make one, too. Your town will be what you want to see; it isn't your town—it's you!

SOCIAL SECURITY TO AID AGED CITIZENS
This is the first of a series of questions and answers about the actual working plans of Kentucky's Old Age Assistance Law, prepared for interested Kentuckians by Dr. A. Y. Lloyd, Director of Old Age Public Welfare.

Q. What is old age assistance?
A. It is money given in the form of a monthly check to aged, needy citizens from funds provided by the State and Federal Governments.

Q. Then it is a pension?
A. No. A pension is usually a regular allowance given in consideration of past services. Old Age Assistance payments are not necessarily the same amount each month.

As a matter of fact, since they are based on the actual need of the individual, they may vary in amount from month to month or even be discontinued during some months.

Q. How old must I be to receive old age assistance?
A. Sixty-five years of age.

Q. How long must I have lived in Kentucky?
A. Five of the last nine years, and continuously during the twelve months preceding your application.

Q. Must I be a citizen of the United States?
A. Yes.

Q. What do you mean when you say "neediness"?
A. If, after counting all income, all help from relatives and friends, an aged person still does not have enough to live "in decency and in health," he is considered needy.

Q. Are there other requirements?
A. A few. The needy person lives in an institution, public or private, is not eligible because he is already being cared for. (Temporary care in a hospital is not counted as institutional care.) If because of physical or mental condition he should be taken care of in an institution, he cannot be given old age assistance. He must not give away his income or property just so he will be eligible for old age assistance.

Q. How do I go about getting old age assistance?
A. First by making an application to the field workers who are provided by the county judge. Field workers already have hundreds of applications on which they are working. In order to be sure the money goes to those people who need it most and in order to comply with State and Federal regulations, each person who asks for old age assistance must be visited in his home and his application carefully considered.

(Some questions to be answered next week: How soon can I get old age assistance? Will I get two checks each month—one from the State? How much money will I be entitled to? Must I hire a lawyer or some official to help me make out my application?)

IT ISN'T YOUR TOWN—IT'S YOU!
If you want to live in the kind of a town you like, you needn't slip your clothes in a grip. And start on a long, long hike. You'll only find what you left behind. For there's nothing that's really new. It's a knock at yourself when you knock your town; it isn't your town, it's you. Real towns are made by men not afraid. Let somebody else get ahead. When everyone works and nobody shirks. You can raise a town from the dead. And if while you make your personal stake, your neighbor can make one, too. Your town will be what you want to see; it isn't your town—it's you!

SOCIAL SECURITY TO AID AGED CITIZENS
This is the first of a series of questions and answers about the actual working plans of Kentucky's Old Age Assistance Law, prepared for interested Kentuckians by Dr. A. Y. Lloyd, Director of Old Age Public Welfare.

Q. What is old age assistance?
A. It is money given in the form of a monthly check to aged, needy citizens from funds provided by the State and Federal Governments.

Q. Then it is a pension?

CAN THE CULL HENS FOR FUTURE CHICKEN DINNERS

During the month of September when farm flocks are being culled of hens past their most productive age the culling of chickens will be most convenient and economical, according to Miss Inez Hobart, extension nutrition specialist, University Farm, St. Paul.

Pump 2-year-old hens, no longer profitable members of the flock, are ideal for culling, says Miss Hobart, for their meat has a better favor and texture than that of younger chicken.

Among the safer and more common ways in which chicken may be canned are putting it up as just plain canned chicken or plain chicken broth. The canned chicken may be put up with or without the bone.

Because canned chicken in any form needs processing under steam for safety, a pressure canner is the first essential piece of equipment, states Miss Hobart. Chicken is a non-acid food and requires a higher temperature than merely boiling for sterilization.

Chicken may be canned in either glass or tin containers up to the size of a quart, but it has a better flavor and texture when canned in smaller jars, because of the shorter processing time. Chicken meat darkens more easily than other meat, and sheet iron and copper utensils should be avoided when it is canned. The use of stainless steel knives is recommended when preparing the chicken.

IF YOU HAVE ANY QUESTIONS ABOUT POULTRY RAISING, just send them to The News and they will be answered the following week.

9 THINGS POULTRY RAISERS SHOULD DO IN SEPTEMBER

(We suggest that you keep this list handy and that you check the work you need to do this month against it—Ed.)

1. Be sure that your laying house has been thoroughly cleaned and disinfected before housing the pullets.
2. Make all necessary repairs on the laying house and be sure that you have plenty of nests, feeders and other equipment.
3. Assure yourself of more winter eggs and less mortality among your birds this winter by insulating your laying house.
4. House the pullets as soon as they start to show signs of coming into egg production.
5. Keep a good laying mash before your pullets at all times after they are housed.
6. If green feed is available, it will give the pullets something to do and will help them in becoming accustomed to the laying house.
7. Get a few more eggs from the old hens by continuing to feed laying mash, using lights, and feeding in the morning or at noon all they will clean up in 15 to 20 minutes of a wet mash made by moistening their regular mash with water or milk.
8. Be sure that both the houses and the birds are free from lice and mites.
9. Attend the state and county

TRAINING SCHOOL HELD THURSDAY FOR HOMEMAERS

Miss Iris Davenport, Clothing Specialist from the Extension Department of the University of Kentucky will conduct a clothing and millinery renovation training school at the home of Mrs. Dean Collier, Thursday, Sept. 3, at 10 a. m. for the clothing leaders of Fulton-Hickman County Homemakers Association.

The lesson was suggestions on renovating clothing and millinery according to Fall style. The leaders who attend the school.

Mrs. Rupert Guthrie Montgomery, Mrs. Annie Kimbro, Mrs. Hattie Kimbro, New Hope; Mrs. Bertha Nugent, Mrs. Henry McMullins, Hickman; Mrs. H. P. Roberts, Mrs. C. R. ### THE FARM AND HOME

To remove fruit stains from cottons and linens, spread cloth over bucket and pour boiling water through the stain. If the material has been washed it may be necessary to use a bleach, or soak in water to which has been added ammonia or peroxide of hydrogen. Soap sets the stain.

Unless a pressure canner is available, it is better to dry corn than to attempt to can it. Dip ears in hot water from 8 to 12 minutes, drain, cool and cut off the grains spread on trays half to three quarters of inch deep, and stir frequently during drying process.

Due to a possible scarcity of seed next year, farmers are cutting red clover for hay and then will hull it for seed. Since the straw is about as valuable as hay, both seed and a good roughage can thus be had.

Only rams of good conformation and strong breed characteristics should be used. Narrow-chested, ewe-necked and weak-headed rams should be avoided, as should over-fat and unthrifty animals. Rams heavily fitted for show or sale may prove unsatisfactory.

High quality women's coats have carefully matched seams stitched with firm thread in close, even stitches. Armholes, seams and front edges are reinforced with narrow pre-shrunk tape to prevent stretching and possible tears.

Homemakers fortunate to have gardens often can a few soups. Good soup vegetables include tomatoes, corn, lima beans, peas okra, onions, carrots, turnips, celery, pimientos, and red and green peppers. One popular mixture combines equal parts of lima beans, corn and tomatoes.

UNCLE SAM'S TREASURE CHEST WILL BE MOVED TO KENTUCKY HILLS

Fifty armored trains carrying more than six billion dollars worth of Uncle Sam's gold stock will soon be heading for a modern "cold storage" strong box in the Kentucky hills. In line with the new governmental policy of transferring gold reserves from coastal cities to interior points one of the most modern vaults is rapidly nearing completion on the Camp Knox, Ky., military reservation.

Reason back of the interior "strong box" is the ever-present shadow even in peace-time, of the possibility of invasion by foreign foes. In 1935 it will be remembered more than $2,000,000,000 in gold bullion was removed from San Francisco to the impregnable Denver mint.

The treasure chest under construction in the Kentucky hills is a marvel of modern engineering. Equipped with every known "burglar proof" device it is situated on a military reservation, occupied by 1,400 regular Army troops. Mechanized cavalry and artillery units compose the outer circle of the immediate gold box.

The huge treasure will be checked out of New York and Philadelphia mints under the armed supervision of postal inspectors and secret service agents. Every precaution will be taken to safeguard the bullion, which will require fifty or more armored trains to transfer.

She is also survived by four grandchildren, Dorothy Wade, Jarvis Dell Jones, Helen June and Jas. Royce Vick. Two brothers, Clyde and Walter Corum. Mrs. Pewitt joined the church early in life and ever since, even in her long hours of suffering affliction, has remained loyal to its cause. Even in death her countenance is beautifully lit with a smile which seems to carry with it the assurance that all is well with her soul, and she is at rest in peace with her Maker. Mrs. Pewitt's life was one of usefulness and of good works. She was always associated with any movement which might promote the best interest of society, beautify her community or relieve suffering humanity. TRAINING SCHOOL HELD THURSDAY FOR HOMEMAERS

Miss Iris Davenport, Clothing Specialist from the Extension Department of the University of Kentucky will conduct a clothing and millinery renovation training school at the home of Mrs. Doan Collier, Thursday, Sept. 3, at 10 a. m. for the clothing leaders of Fulton-Hickman County Homemakers Association.

The lesson was suggestions on renovating clothing and millinery according to Fall style. The leaders who attend the school:

Mrs. Rupert Guthrie Montgomery, Mrs. Annie Kimbro, Mrs. Hattie Kimbro, New Hope; Mrs. Bertha Nugent, Mrs. Henry McMullins, Hickman; Mrs. H. P. Roberts, Mrs. C. R. Crawford, Loggston; Miss Alice Sowell, Mrs. Homer Kelly, Jordan; Mrs. Harold White, Mrs. Vernon McAllister, Enon; Mrs. Desie Wyatt, Mrs. Swanie Weatherford, Croley; Mrs. Erie Dublin, Mrs. O. L. Sutton, Sassafras Ridge; Mrs. Clarence Caldwell, Mrs. Harvey Pewitt, Palestine; Mrs. Ramer Jewell, Mrs. Vester Campbell, of Clinton; Mrs. Freeman Dallas, Mrs. Ernest arver, McFadden and Mrs. Percy Allen, Mrs. Homer Davis of Oakton.

THE FARM AND HOME

To remove fruit stains from cottons and linens, spread cloth over bucket and pour boiling water through the stain. If the material has been washed it may be necessary to use a bleach, or soak in water to which has been added ammonia or peroxide of hydrogen. Soap sets the stains.

Unless a pressure canner is available, it is better to dry corn than to attempt to can it. Dip ears in hot water from 8 to 12 minutes, drain, cool and cut off the grains spread on trays half to three quarters of inch deep, and stir frequently during drying process.

Due to a possible scarcity of seed next year, farmers are cutting red clover for hay and then will hull it for seed. Since the straw is about as valuable as hay, both seed and a good roughage can thus be had.

Only rams of good conformation and strong breed characteristics should be used. Narrow-chested, ewe-necked and weak-headed rams should be avoided, as should over-fat and unthrifty animals. Rams heavily fitted for show or sale may prove unsatisfactory.

High quality women's coats have carefully matched seams stitched with firm thread in close, even stitches. Armholes, seams and front edges are reinforced with narrow pre-shrunk tape to prevent stretching and possible tears.

Homemakers fortunate to have gardens often can a few soups. Good soup vegetables include tomatoes, corn, lima beans, peas okra, onions, carrots, turnips, celery, pimientos, and red and green peppers. One popular mixture combines equal parts of lima beans, corn and tomatoes.

UNCLE SAM'S TREASURE CHEST WILL BE MOVED TO KENTUCKY HILLS

Fifty armored trains carrying more than six billion dollars worth of Uncle Sam's gold stock will soon be heading for a modern "cold storage" strong box in the Kentucky hills. In line with the new governmental policy of transferring gold reserves from coastal cities to interior points one of the most modern vaults is rapidly nearing completion on the Camp Knox, Ky., military reservation.

Reason back of the interior "strong box" is the ever-present shadow even in peace-time, of the possibility of invasion by foreign foes. In 1935 it will be remembered more than $2,000,000,000 in gold bullion was removed from San Francisco to the impregnable Denver mint.

The treasure chest under construction in the Kentucky hills is a marvel of modern engineering. Equipped with every known "burglar proof" device it is situated on a military reservation occupied by 1,400 regular Army troops. Mechanized cavalry and artillery units compose the outer circle of the immediate gold box.

The huge treasure will be checked out of New York and Philadelphia mints under the armed supervision of postal inspectors and secret service agents. Every precaution will be taken to safeguard the bullion, which will require fifty or more armored trains to transfer.

What a 50 percent retail sales tax on each dollar and these two taxes alone produce 40 percent of the entire income. With such an excessive tax rate, it's no wonder the tax funds are raided and diverted to other than road purposes, and "bootleggers" find it a profitable evasion and avoidance of the tax. Mr. Morson declared.

DEPT. OF COMMERCE BUSINESS SURVEY

Intense heat combined with dry weather to adversely retard retail trade advances in many sections of the country but most cities maintained substantial gains over last year, while wholesale markets were more active, according to reports to the Department of Commerce from all parts of the country. While abnormally hot weather was nationwide, the South and Midwest were more seriously affected, Kansas City reporting record temperature of 112.

The condition tended to curtail Fall shopping, but in many cities, promotionalists boosted the volume. Furniture and housefurnishings continued in strong demand. Leading wholesale markets reported some tapering off of enthusiasm over Fall goods as a result of the heat, but the turnover was considerably ahead of last year. Retail trade in Eastern and Pacific Coast cities was not as seriously affected by the heat.

Notwithstanding severe drought conditions in the Minneapolis area, merchants in Minnesota, the Dakotas, Northern Idaho and Montana were optimistic, a survey showed, and people were in a spending mood. The region in the St. Louis and Kansas City areas were enlarged by the intense heat with water supplies lowest in years and many farmers hauling water and buying feed. Beneficial rains fell in the Cincinnati area. The Dallas report said intense heat had checked cotton picking, but that all unemployed would be absorbed. Corn and pastures continued to suffer in the Louisville section, but tobacco was in good shape and the wheat crop was estimated at two million bushels greater than last year. Good rains improved the situation in Alabama according to the Birmingham report, but prospects in the Memphis region were not as good as ten days ago. It was said in Portland that the hop harvest would employ 30,000 pickers in the Willamette Valley. Weather was ideal for wheat and oat harvest in the Seattle region with the State of Washington ranking first in Spring wheat and apple production and second in pears. The second week of tobacco sales in Georgia resulted in the distribution of $7,200,000 to growers at an average of 23 cents a pound, according to the Atlanta report, which also said Georgia farmers received $3,000,000 more from principal crops in the first half of the year than in the same period last year, although the corn crop is 13,000,000 bushels shorter. Jacksonville estimated the season's shipment of citrus fruits at 27 million boxes.

Industrial schedules showed no signs of slackening, with the Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Chicago and Birmingham steel rates holding to the recent high levels. The St. Louis Car Co. received a million dollar direct car order from Los Angeles. Chrysler announced a new $100,000 distribution plant for Kansas City. The Palace Travel Co. announced plans for a new plant at Flint, Michigan. Dallas reported two petroleum refineries with 3,000 barrels daily capacity at Gainesville. The Aircraft Corporation at Los Angeles planned a 35% plant expansion. Work started in San Francisco in a $3,000,000 livestock building and ground was broken for the administration building for the 1939 World's Fair. The Tennessee Coal, Iron and Railroad Co. announced a $2,000,000 renovating program at the by-product coke plant in Birmingham. The actual supply of raw cotton caused considerable concern to New England mills in view of the small carryover of 1" to 1-3" length staple. In Buffalo, 140 factories employed 46,956, compared with 38,738 in July of last year.

The Detroit report said the coal movement on the Great Lakes in July was the largest in history, while Cleveland reported the lake cargo of coal and iron ore largest since 1920. River tonnage in Memphis was the heaviest in history. In Chicago, 112 air-conditioning plants were installed an increase of 86% over last year. Jacksonville reported an acute shortage of rental property, while permits for 34 new hotels and apartments were issued in Miami in July. Real estate generally experienced a sharp upturn. Cash receipts from crops in June for the country as a whole were 60% larger than in June 1935; livestock receipts 17% greater.

LAKE STREET

Lake Street has been finished and opened to traffic. Parking zones have been marked out by the police department in order to avoid traffic congestion. Now it is up to the motoring public to co-operate with the city by observing these regulations so that everyone will obtain the advantages of this wider and finer thoroughfare.

Widening of Lake Street is one of the finest progressive steps in improvement taken here in recent years, and every citizen should be proud that we have this fine street. Every merchant has expressed his appreciation of the street and those who shop in Fulton find that opening of this wider street enables the traffic to move more easily through the downtown district.

The next project on program, which has been approved but awaits agreement between the city and property owner for right of way is that of Third Street Extension, connecting with Lake Street near Baldridge's Store. Opening of this street would be a material help in regulating the flow of traffic in the business section of Fulton.

DEATH OR SAFETY

In recent months Fulton and near-by vicinities have been visited by several automobiles accident fatalities, while others have brought about painful and often lifetime injuries and untold property damage.

It is time that a check be brought upon this increasing number of wrecks. We must either drive in safety or ride with death.

Most of these accidents are the result of carelessness, speeding, or drunkenness.

Kentucky has a law enacted to bring about greater care in driving and it should be rigidly enforced. Those drivers who have no regard for the lives and property of others should have their drivers' licenses taken away from them. For when they run down and fatally injure another person as a result of their own carelessness, it approaches murder.

All drivers of automobiles should drive at reasonable rates of speed, observe safety regulations set up for their own protection, and refrain from driving a car while drinking.

SELF-SUFFICIENT

There is only a handful of countries in the world that are self-sufficient. Happily, ours leads this thin procession. In the past century and a half it has been proved that our common and natural interests are bound up with Central and South America and Canada.

New highways are spreading to the far South, shipping conditions are being improved, air travel is an established fact. It will be remembered that Theodore Roosevelt, when he was President, sent Elihu Root, a member of his Cabinet on a mission of good-will to the Latin American countries.

The Pan-American Union of Washington is the central meeting place of the diplomats and representatives of these many countries. In a few weeks another great Pan American conference will be held.

That gathering should be composed of other classes representatives, besides politicians who specialize on tariff ideas of questionable soundness, like those of Secretary of State Hull. His tariff-ideas are purely theoretical, and objectionable to agricultural and other interests.

PAST AND PRESENT

American brains have furnished us new methods to replace old methods. It has been a struggle of progress that has engaged the brain and muscle of millions of our citizens. All of a sudden a temperamental Administration at Washington seeks to take charge and direct private enterprises and institutions against imaginary dangers of exploitation. Exploitation by whom? Is it against those who own our great industries? Apparently the politicians have such illusions.

The new order is here to stay—and we might just as well make up our minds to it. Even agriculture, which was once about the only industry in the nation, has undergone revolutionary changes. Conditions are better because of the struggles of farm folks.

The luxuries enjoyed by practically all of our population were once confined only to those who possessed wealth.

Should business be harassed by political and bureaucratic rule? Such conditions should not be a question of politics at all. Politics did not make our nation, and politicians should not be permitted to weaken it.

THIS IS DEMOCRACY

No one can tune in very long on the current presidential campaign without developing a pretty good case of distrust of the professional name-callers. With the campaign still in its early stages candidates seem to have gone at one another tooth and nail and there seems to be no limit or let-up to the battle. It's just a good old American custom, that's all.

Nobody is rebuffed for his campaign utterances. There may be a few proprietary restrictions on the freedom of speech and of the press, but fundamentally the campaign goes along with the throttle wide open.

You may not like the name-calling but it's democracy in the raw. And you have the inherent right to do a little calling of your own. That's a privilege not to be sniffed at in these days of totalitarian states.

NO CHANCE.

Horatio Alger made a name for himself by writing books about something that is peculiarly American—the fact that every man in the country has a chance to win fame and fortune no matter what his start in life. In recent years, however, a lot of malcontents and demagogues have been taking advantage of the depression to insist that all that is changed.

The facts are that the depression slowed up the speed with which everybody was getting ahead. But something that happened in West Virginia the other day shows that the country of which Horatio Alger wrote still exists.

Twenty-two years ago, a lad of 15 went to work in the Carnegie Steel Company plant at Sharon, Pa. He served in the World War as an aviator, and afterwards for a time he traveled around as a "barnstorming" stunt flier.

Later, this same lad, then a young man, worked as a mechanic, a riveter, and a salesman. In 1925, he joined the Weirton Steel Company as a salesman. In January, 1929, he became assistant sales manager; in May, 1931, he was appointed assistant to the president, and in July, 1934, he was elected vice president. The other day the Weirton Steel Company elected that same man as its president—T. E. Millsop. He probably is, at 37, the youngest high executive in the steel industry.

His start from scratch, and his rise to the presidency of one of the biggest steel companies in the land is just one of thousands of similar cases. But the malcontents and demagogues can't afford to admit it for such an admission would make their arguments look as silly as they are. —(Mayfield Messenger.)

President Roosevelt In Jackson's Footsteps

Declaring that President Roosevelt has followed the footsteps of Andrew Jackson in alienating the over-privileged, Charles M. Thomas, a writer in the Washington Post, draws an interesting parallel between Old Hickory and the father of the New Deal.

"It has been disconcerting to students of our political history," says Mr. Thomas, "to read about objections to Mr. Roosevelt as a Democrat. It was the friends of the administration of Andrew Jackson who adhered to the party name of 'Democrats' and it was the acts of President Jackson, like those of Mr. Roosevelt, that alienated the commercial sections of the voting population one hundred years ago."

In President Jackson's administration, the weight of the gold eagle of the United States was reduced, twelve grains, being equal to 66 2/3 cents less in value than the old coin of that denomination. He closed the Bank of the United States, which dominated the economic life of the nation, saying in his veto message of July 10, 1832: "It is to be regretted that the rich and powerful too often bend the acts of government to their selfish purposes. . . . Many of our rich men have not been content with equal protection and equal benefits, but have besought us to make them richer by acts of Congress."

"If we cannot at once, in justice to vested interests, make our government what it ought to be, because of improvident legislation, we can at least take a stand against all new grants of monopolies and exclusive privileges, against any prostitution of our government to the advancement of the few at the expense of the many."

"Certainly Mr. Roosevelt has followed the path outlined by the father of the Democratic party."

The only dirt in a political campaign should be the landslide.

INVITATIONAL GOLF TOURNAMENT SUNDAY

An invitational golf tournament will be held at the Fulton Country Club Sunday, with special awards to be given for the day's best scores. Play will start in the morning and continue through the day.

The tournament is expected to attract golfers from many cities in West Kentucky and West Tennessee, and will probably be the outstanding tournament held here this season.

DYERSBURG GOLFERS EVEN UP RECENT DEFEAT

Seventeen golfers from Fulton journeyed to Dyersburg Sunday for a return match with golfers of that city. The Tennesseans evened up a recent defeat here, by beating Fulton 22 to 12. Harold Owen and James Nanney tied for low score for Fulton with 78 each, while Johnson of Dyersburg was medalist with 76 for 18 holes. Following are the scores of Fulton players: Nanney 78, Owen 78, Peckering 82, Howard 83, McCreath 88, Latimer 87, Harris 88, Williams 89, Carr 85, Billy Carr 89, H. Carr 90, Blagg 88, Keaton 89, Jones 100, Davis 89, Bug 90, Beadles 93.

AUTO OWNERS PAY STAGGERING TAXES

Nashville, Tenn.—Motor vehicle registration fees cost citizens of Tennessee the sum of $3,658,000 in 1935, in addition to the state gasoline sales taxes costing $14,966,000. It was recently reported by P. H. Morson, vice-chairman of Petroleum Industries Committee, Mr. Morson said that the total cost of these two taxes in 1935 was $18,624,000 as compared with $17,473,000 in 1934. Total registration of motor vehicles in this state was 351,898 in 1935, against 336,313 in 1934. Tennessee motorists pay, with Florida, the highest gasoline tax in the nation—16 per gallon. This, with the federal tax of 1c, is the equivalent to a 40 per cent retail sales tax on each gallon and these two motor taxes alone produce 40 percent of the state's entire income. With such an excessive tax rate, it's no wonder the gas tax funds are raided and diverted to other than road purposes, and "bootleggers" find it a paradise for evasion and avoidance of gas tax," Mr. Morson declared.

Labor, it seems, is determined to stage a real fight within its own ranks. Employers are not worrying.

Japan, Italy and Germany is a combination that might some day assume the right to tell the rest of the world to head in.

DEPT. OF COMMERCE BUSINESS SURVEY

Intense heat combined with dry weather to adversely retard retail trade advances in many sections of the country but most cities maintained substantial gains over last year, while wholesale markets were more active, according to reports to the Department of Commerce from all parts of the country. While abnormally hot weather was nationwide, the South and Midwest were more seriously affected. Kansas City reported record temperature of 112. The conditions tended to curtail Fall shopping, but in many cities, professional and housefurnishings continued in strong demand. Leading wholesale markets reported some tapering off of enthusiasm over Fall goods as a result of the heat, but the turnover was considerably ahead of last year. Retail trade in Eastern and Pacific Coast cities was not as seriously affected by the heat.

Notwithstanding severe drought conditions in the Minneapolis area, merchants in Minnesota, the Dakotas, Northern Idaho and Montana were optimistic, a survey showed, and people were in a spending mood. The region in the St. Louis and Kansas City areas were enlarged by the intense heat with water supplies lowest in years and many farmers hauling water and buying feed. Beneficial rains fell in the Cincinnati area. The Dallas report said intense heat had checked cotton picking, but that all unemployed would be absorbed. Corn and pastures continued to suffer in the Louisville section, but tobacco was in good shape and the wheat crop was estimated at two million bushels greater than last year. Good rains improved the situation in Alabama according to the Birmingham report, but prospects in the Memphis region were not as good as ten days ago. It was said in Portland that the hop harvest would employ 30,000 pickers in the Willamette Valley. Weather was ideal for wheat and oat harvesting in the Seattle region with the State of Washington ranking first in Spring wheat and apple production and second in pears. The second week of tobacco sales in Georgia resulted in the distribution of $7,260,000 to growers at an average of 23 cents a pound, according to the Atlanta report, which also said Georgia farmers received $3,000,000 more from principal crops in the first half of the year than in the same period last year, although the corn crop is 15,000,000 bushels shorter. Jacksonville estimated the season's shipment of citrus fruits at 27 million boxes.

Industrial schedules showed no signs of slackening, with the Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Chicago and Birmingham steel rates holding to the recent high levels. The St. Louis Car Co. received a million dollar street car order from Los Angeles. Chrysler announced a new $100,000 distribution plant for Kansas City. The Palace Travel Coach Co. announced plans for a new plant at Flint, Michigan. Dallas reported two petroleum refineries with 3,000 barrels rel daily capacity at Gainesville. The Aircraft Corporation at Los Angeles planned an 85% plant expansion. Work started in San Francisco in a $3,000,000 livestock building and ground was broken for the administration building for the 1939 World's Fair. The Tennessee Coal, Iron and Railroad Co. announced a $2,000,000 renovating program at the by-product coke plant in Birmingham. The actual supply of raw cotton caused considerable concern to New England mills in view of the small carryover of 1 to 1.8" length staple. In Buffalo, 140 factories employed 46,956, compared with 38,738 in July of last year.

The Detroit report said the coal movement on the Great Lakes in July was the largest in history, while Cleveland reported the lake cargo of coal and iron ore largest since 1929. River tonnage in Memphis was the heaviest in history. In Chicago, 112 air-conditioning plants were installed an increase of 86% over last year. Jacksonville reported an acute shortage of rental property, while permits for 34 new hotels and apartments were issued in Miami in July. Real estate generally experienced a sharp upturn. Cash receipts from crops in June for the country as a whole were 60% larger than in June 1935; livestock receipts 17% greater.
