"CHEAP CREDIT COSTLY"

"One inherent weakness of government lending," wrote Albert W. Atkins, "is that no man knows how generous it may be, or how different corporations are set up to extend credit. There is never any way of satisfying the pressure groups and the politicians who follow this along with them Anything on the business-like attitude by a government loan administrator towards those borrowers that prefer interest and principal payment, is practically certain to kill any progress.

Too many borrowers from government regard the treasury as a source of limitless financial malnourc, which is behind the conventional or deterred if not. And there is always a slushy group of officials who are ready and eager to defend this to the field of Credit. Private credit agents, which are increasingly struggled with the vested interest, as apparently more than adequate to meet any and all legitimate needs.
The answer was a time when banks were filled with idle capital, and the taxpayers would be eager to pay for the "cheap credit."

Health Follows Adjustments

Abnormal posture of the spinal column interferes with nerve functions. The harmonization of vital functions is disabled, faulty respiration. Adjusting the abnormal posture removes the condition and that is why health follows Chiropractic care so often.
