Thousands Join In Celebration

Fulton was host Saturday to five thousand visitors from the rural districts surrounding the city. It was the occasion for celebrating the opening of our new paved streets and white way system. The day was ideal for such an auspicious event and for miles around our country friends came to join in the celebration. Prominent among the visitors were large delegations of children representing twenty or more rural schools—pretty girls with rosy cheeks and handsome boys with character beaming from their bright eyes. These pretty girls and boys added new life to the day's festivities and were warmly greeted on every turn. Arrangements had been made with the photoplay houses to entertain the little ones with the best screen productions for the occasion, and the Grand and Orpheum gave all who attended shows a thrill of enjoyment and pleasure. More than three thousand free tickets were issued.

Prizes Awarded

Free tickets were also given the children representing the rural schools on the Brunswick Panatropes and Victor Orthophones given away. Carmel Rickman of the Water Valley High School captured the Brunswick for her school. Frances Walker of McFadden captured the Victor for her school. Each of the lucky contestants were awarded five dollars in cash and the handsome machines were turned over to the schools they represented.

Other Prizes Awarded

In an effort to promote dairying in this vicinity the visiting farmers were given free tickets on two pure-bred Jersey bulls given away. Lee Walker, residing on Route 1, out of Fulton, captured first prize, and Byron McAllister residing four miles north of Fulton captured second prize.

During the day Hagler & McDade, well known Walnut Street grocers, served hot Chase & Sanborn coffee with Sunshine Krispy crackers and other dainties from a stand conveniently located on Lake street. Three electric urns were required to brew the delicious drinks served free.

No efforts were spared by the committees in charge, and the citizens in general, to entertain their guests and make the celebration sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce a glorious success.

White Way Turned On

Promptly at 6:45 p. m., the fire whistle sounded the alarm for the evening's activities. Chief Lee Roberts and his co-workers of the Fire Department made a record run to Lake street, displaying Fulton's $14,000 fire fighting equipment. This was merely a prelude to the night program.

Standing on an improvised platform, surrounded by a multitude of people, Secretary S. S. Motley, of the Chamber of Commerce, happily introduced Mayor W. O. Shankle, who briefly reviewed Fulton's growth and expansion during the past forty-five years since he first came here, and especially the substantial improvements made within the past two years of his administration, paying a glowing tribute to his associates on the city council and the Chamber of Commerce. Closing his address, the Mayor pressed the button, turning night into day by the illumination of sixty-six brilliantly lighted white way lamps of the very latest type, installed by the Kentucky Utilities Company under the special supervision of Manager E. C. Hardesty.

Fire Works Display

One of the most elaborate and brilliant displays of fireworks ever witnessed in Fulton was given under the special supervision of Chief Lee Roberts opposite Lake street.

All during the day the Elks' orchestra rendered beautiful selections of music, seated in a large Williams' truck, moving from one location to another.

It was a grand celebration and we are glad our country friends accepted the invitation to enjoy it with us. We trust the ties of friendship will last forever and you will come again.

High School Notes

The last football game of the 1927 season will be played Wednesday, with Murray, on their field. The team is in fine shape and after being victorious over Union City last Friday, they hope to win again Wednesday.

Last Wednesday at the regular chapel period, Ruth Miller played a piano solo. Then Mr. Myers discussed the faculty play, which is to be held soon. The money taken in at this play will be used to buy two pictures, copies of master painters.

Thursday, Mrs. Brann's music class had charge of the program. They sang several selections. Mrs. Brann is to be complimented on the splendid work she is doing in this line.

Mary Hughes, Chambers then played Mendelssohn's "Spring Song." Friday a pep meeting was held during chapel.

Monday, Mr. Myers continued a series of discussions on "Little Things That Count in the Making of a Man." This talk was very interesting and useful to all.

Tuesday, Mr. Jack Davis, the human nightingale, gave a wonderful musical program. The students enjoyed this program very much.

School will be out Thursday and Friday for the Thanksgiving holidays. Regular basketball practice is being held in the gym. Miss Thompson is the coach for the girls.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Brown were pleasant visitors for the chapel program last Tuesday. A number of the teachers are planning to attend the Teachers' Conference at Paducah on Friday and Saturday of this week.

Carr Institute had a fine Thanksgiving program last Wednesday.

HOW FINGERNAILS CAN BE MADE TO GROW FAST

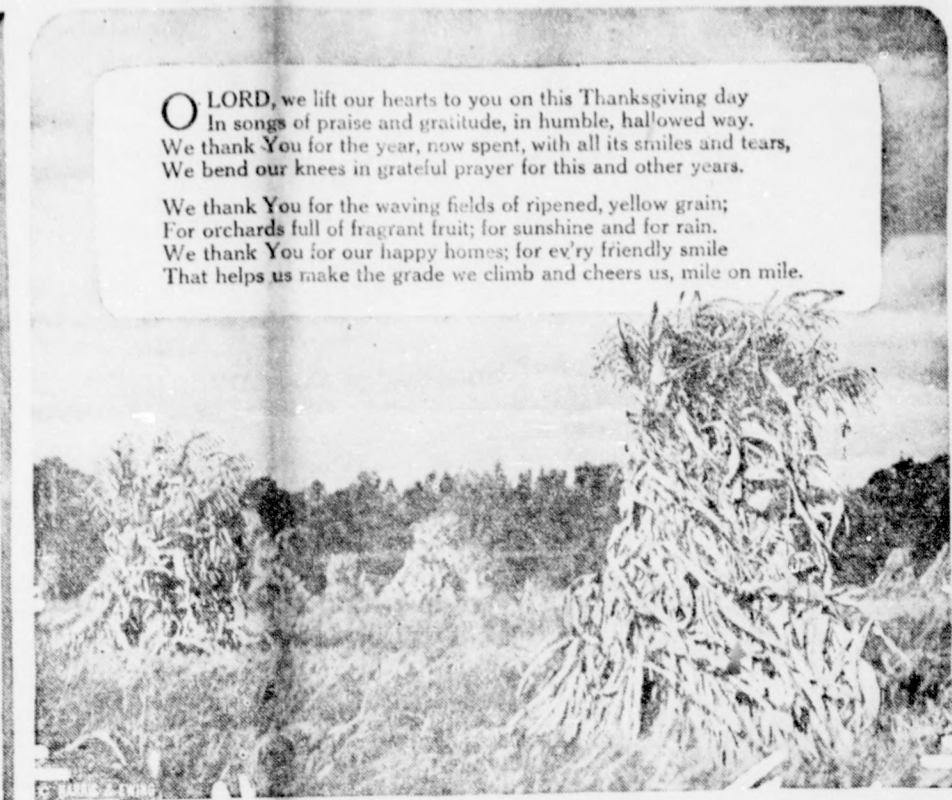

Fingernails, if pulled on regularly and very slightly with automobile pliers, can grow half an inch a week!

This is the scientific fact donated by Lon Chaney, screen star. Chaney tried it on his own fingernails—so he knows.

He had to grow long fingernails to play the uncanny mandarin in "Mr. Wu," his new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer starring vehicle coming to the Grand Theatre Monday, and Tuesday, November 28 and 29. He had heard how people grew taller by stretching themselves—and applied the rule to his digits—with success.

Chaney heads a notable cast in the new picture, a graphic version of Walker Whiteside's famous stage hit. It is a drama of Oriental intrigue and mystery.

Hand us a dollar bill and get your name on the Advertiser list as a regular subscriber.

O LORD, we lift our hearts to you on this Thanksgiving day
In songs of praise and gratitude, in humble, hallowed way.
We thank You for the year, now spent, with all its smiles and tears,
We bend our knees in grateful prayer for this and other years.

We thank You for the waving fields of ripened, yellow grain;
For orchards full of fragrant fruit; for sunshine and for rain.
We thank You for our happy homes; for ev'ry friendly smile
That helps us make the grade we climb and cheers us, mile on mile.

South Fulton Election Dec. 6

With two tickets out for Mayor and Councilmen of South Fulton to be voted on Tuesday, Dec. 6, the political pot is beginning to stew in the sister city across the line. One ticket is composed of Mayor S. A. McDade and all of the old councilmen as follows: Abe Jolly, J. G. Houston, L. B. Reams, Ed Roach, Amos Stubblefield, Joe Gates.

Another ticket is headed by Jim Crockett for mayor, and six councilmen as follows: Ed Roach, L. B. Reams, J. B. Hopkins, H. C. Chitwood, J. E. Mansfield, W. H. Chappel. W. R. Boulton is an independent candidate for councilman.

Both tickets have some mighty good men on them and no doubt it will take the official count of vote to decide the winners.

The present administration has been faithful to their trust and the earmarks of progress are visible on every turn. The public moneys have been carefully guarded and economically expended, yet some no doubt wish for a change of administration for reasons better known to themselves.

South Fulton is making every effort to keep pace with her big brother in Kentucky and it matters not which ticket is elected the wheels of progress should not be halted at this time. It behooves every voter in South Fulton to let his conscience be his guide and go to the polls on December 6, and cast his vote for the men who are the most progressive in spirit and acts—men who will do their utmost to make South Fulton a city to be proud of.

AUDITING SOUTH FULTON BOOKS

We understand that Accountant Thos. H. Chapman is at work auditing the city books for South Fulton for a period of ten or eleven years back so the present and former administrations will have a certified record of all money collected and paid out during that time for future reference, and for the satisfaction of the citizenship.

Pay cash for your street improvement and borrow the money on the easy monthly payment plan from the Fulton Building & Loan Association. J. E. Fall, Secretary.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE MEETING

At a special meeting of the Chamber of Commerce Tuesday night, the road question was the outstanding feature. A large delegation of Dukedom citizens and a number living along the Fulton-Dukedom road were present and joined in the discussion regarding the improvement of said highway.

Messrs. Chas. Ross, Dick Farmer, Jim St. Cavender, J. A. Colley, Joe Browder, Joe Davis, Dr. I. H. Read, W. R. Butt and others made talks stressing the dire need of prompt action in taking steps for the upkeep of the road during the winter months and the feasibility of surfacing with gravel next year. On motion the following committees were appointed:

For Dukedom, Chas. Ross, Dick Farmer, J. T. Jackson, A. D. Bruce. For Fulton, J. A. Colley, W. R. Butt, J. J. Coffman, A. C. Butts.

The joint committee retired at once to formulate plans to procure funds for dragging the road during the winter and if possible placing gravel on a part of the road considered extraordinary bad in rainy weather and especially during the winter months.

The Fulton-Dukedom road is a very important highway and strenuous efforts will be made to keep it in as good condition as possible for traffic until a more substantial road can be constructed. When the committee calls upon you to give your mite, "dig deep," and be as liberal as possible.

Representative Morgan Daniel was present and addressed the assembly. He enlightened his hearers with facts regarding the road question, and gave the assurance of his untiring efforts in doing everything possible to assist in the road work.

Union City-Fulton Road

Due to the fact that the Jeff Davis highway between Fulton and Union City will not be completed until some time next year, it behooves the two towns to get together and finance the gravelling of the gap of a little over a mile on another route which will connect Fulton and Union City with a good gravel road this winter. Dr. I. H. Read explained matters regarding can doubt for a moment but said undertaking and no one what this gap should be completed at once, especially when it is considered the only southern outlet we will have this winter over surfaced road. Again, when the contractors begin surfacing the Jeff Davis highway between Fulton and Union City next year, traffic will be abandoned on this road entirely.

The Mayfield-Fulton road is rapidly being completed, the contractors having reached a point near Fulton of approximately one mile from the city limits. With good weather the end of the week will see the completion of the road.

Hospital Campaign Begins the Week of December 4

The Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce was authorized at Tuesday night's meeting to have placards printed, announcing the Hospital Campaign to begin week of December 4.

CLARENCE SAUNDERS STORE CLOSED

One year ago last month the Clarence Saunders Sole Owner of His Name Store, opened for business on Church street. The fixtures were all snowy white, and the merchandise attractively displayed, but for some reason or another the buying public could not be enticed sufficiently to support the institution and after changing hands several times during the year, the celebrated Clarence Saunders store closed its doors and the stocks removed to parts we are unable to learn, and all that is left of the store today is the handsome electric sign in front of the building, which is darkened.

The keen competition in the grocery and meat business in Fulton and the excellent service rendered by long established firms, leaves little room and no encouragement for new establishments along this line to open here, it matters not how gorgeous the displays may be.

AVOID DISAPPOINTMENT

Christmas will soon be here, and we urge all who contemplate having their names engraved on Christmas cards, to place their order without further delay and avoid disappointment.

The same applies to engraved visiting card orders also.

Let the Fulton Building & Loan Association finance your street improvement and sewer connection.—J. E. Fall, Secretary.

TWO BIG DAYS AT THE ORPHEUM

Tuesday and Wednesday, November 29 and 30

The date for the showing of "The Tunney-Dempsey" fight pictures will be November 29 and 30 instead of November 28 and 29 as has been previously advertised.

You want to make your arrangements to see this thrilling picture. The question in the minds of the public, "Was Tunney Knocked Out?" will be answered in slow motion. You will see round by round just as if you had been at the ringside.

Tell your friends about this attraction. Call them over phone or write them and have them on hand to see the fight.

LIONS CLUB BANQUET

The Lions Club will hold their annual Thanksgiving banquet tonight, Nov. 25, at the Usona Hotel for the members and guest. Hon. L. L. Hindman, city judge of Clinton, will be the principal speaker of the evening. An interesting program has been prepared for the occasion with speeches, entertainment and delightful music by the Elks orchestra. The entire program will be under the supervision of President E. C. Hardesty of the Lions Club.

Rev. Hinch Accepts Call to Dyersburg Church.

The Rev. H. L. Hinch, pastor of the First Cumberland Presbyterian Church, of Fulton, has accepted a call to the First Cumberland Presbyterian Church at Dyersburg and will enter upon his duties as pastor the first Sunday in December.

During his pastorate here Rev. Hinch has made many personal friends who will regret to see him leave the city, but wish for him every success in his new field of endeavor. His good work here will remain as a lasting tribute, and he will not soon be forgotten.

MAKE YOUR CHRISTMAS CARD A TRULY PERSONAL GREETING

It's only a very short time until the busy Holiday season is here again. Before we realize it, all of us—old and young—will be counting the days until Christmas.

We want to suggest right now, while there is time to decide without haste, that you make your Christmas greeting decidedly personal this year.

Select from our display of beautiful designs and charming sentiments the card that exactly expresses your good wishes. Then permit us to print your name below the verse or seasonal greeting, and the message will be doubly personal.

Call at our office whenever convenient—but remember, those who come early will have first choice of a delightful assortment.

No extra charge for printing your name on Christmas cards purchased from us.

HURT AS CAR OVERTURNS

Union City, Tenn., Nov. 21.—Jack Harrison, of this place, was seriously injured yesterday on the highway from Union City to Fulton, as the steering wheel of a small roadster came uncoupled, and the car plunged headlong into the ditch. As the car turned off the highway, Mr. Harrison was caught under the top and suffered from a wound in the chest where one of the upright rods of the top struck him.

He was brought to town for medical treatment, and it is thought he will recover from the accident.

HICKMAN NEWS

Hickman, Nov. 14.—Special —Ira L. Burgess, 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Burgess, died at their home in West Hickman yesterday after a seven week's illness. The child was first stricken with diphtheria, partly recovered from that and then developed tuberculosis, and death had been expected the past ten days. The body was taken this morning to Sharon, Tenn., their former home, where burial took place this afternoon.

A county farm agent for Fulton county in 1928 is now practically assured. The Fulton county board of education has unanimously voted an appropriation of $83 a month for 36 months, as requested of them more than a week ago, which means $1,000 a year for three years toward employing an agent provided the Fulton County Farm Improvement Association raises the other $1,000 a year necessary to obtain the state aid for an agent.

The Fulton County Farm association was formed last year when a drive for an agent was made, and they now have more than 90 members pledged to pay $10 a year for 3 years to employ an agent, so it is felt there will be no difficulty in obtaining this $1,000. Those who signed the pledge will be asked to sign a new one when they pay their first $10.
 Fulton county hasn't had an agent for six years, although efforts have been made several times during that time to employ another. The Board of Education was asked as much time be given to forming junior clubs, thus interesting the boys and girls.

Hugh Swayne, young artist of Hickman, is entering 10 paintings in the Indiana-Kentucky exhibit to be held in Louisville, starting today and lasting two weeks. His paintings are all in and consist of one figure, one portrait, that of his aunt, Mrs. Lou Rogers, aged lady of Hickman, and eight landscape scenes.

Mr. Swayne, who is only 23 years old, is a member of the Louisville Art Association and has shown rare ability. He is a son of Mayor and Mrs. T. T.
 Swayne, of Hickman, and has studied in Lexington, New Orleans, the Natchitoches Art College in Louisiana and New York City and he intends to study further in Europe.

Look On The Inside of the Bridge-Beach Superior Circulator

It is built like a furnace—a stove within a stove

Will heat three or four adjoining rooms

The cold air enters at the bottom, is heated and humidified between the fire-pot and the outer casing—and passes out through the top, CIRCULATING the warm, moist, healthful air to the most distant corners of the adjoining rooms. Has wonderful heating capacity—will heat three or four rooms comfortably in the coldest weather—takes the place of several stoves and requires no more fuel than an ordinary heater. The price is less than you would expect for a heating stove of such outstanding superiority. Shown in various finishes—the mahogany enameled finish is especially popular.

Your Suit and Overcoat need the Wrinkles taken out

You know what a beauty shop can do for faces—how it can remove wrinkles from cheeks and crow's feet from eyes. But did you ever visit a "beauty shop for suits"—a modern dry cleaning and sanitary pressing establishment? Here, again, is a "fountain of youth"—this time for clothes.

For example, take one of your own suits to the O. K. Steam Laundry—one you've worn often. If it's a light suit, the grime is plainly visible at collar and cuffs; perhaps there is a bit of grease on it from your car. If the suit is dark, the dirt may not show—but it's there. One cannot ride in automobiles and taxis, and not gather dirt.

But see what your dry cleaner, the O. K. Laundry, can do for this suit.

First, it is tumbled in warm, drying air; the moisture is removed, the dust shaken out, obstinate spots loosened. An expert "spotter" then goes over the garment by hand—stains and spots vanish before his skill. Next, the suit is soured gently, thoroughly, back and forth, in the purest of cleaning fluids. Soil embedded in the fabric is filtered out; grime and grease are dissolved away. After most of the moisture has been whirled out, the suit is carefully dried in a breeze of fresh, warm, sterile air, then with the warm air sifting thru it, it is fluffed softly. The nap comes to life, the cloth becomes fresh and smart again.

Nor is this dry cleaning "magic" limited to men's suits and overcoats, Hats and gloves, women's coats, suits, dresses and blouses, children's clothes—almost every article of wearing apparel can be given this same renewing, refreshing treatment. And how much longer clothes wear when they receive it. Truly dry cleaning pays its own bills.

Of course, we make a specialty of dry cleaning draperies, rugs, etc. Don't overlook this

BARGAINS GALORE IN FULTON STORES

Business firms who took advantage of the opportunity Saturday to cement new friendships among the visitors attracted to the celebration acted wisely. We took occasion to visit the various stores for first hand information and from all appearances price tags told the whole story at a glance. In many cases profit had been lost sight of entirely. It just looked like the merchants were determined to prove conclusively that Fulton was the ideal trading center of Western Kentucky and Tennessee. Some of the merchants were in the midst of special sales and had reduced prices generally, while others specialized on one or more seasonal articles at around cost.

One well known farmer of Beelerton neighborhood said he came to town to celebrate, and did not intend to buy anything, but after seeing the irresistible values offered, and knowing that blankets and other things were needed at home, he just loaded up his car and returned home happy with his purchases.

One merchant assured us that Saturday's sales were the best one day receipts he has had in several years. We attempted to go into his store twice during the day and found it crowded each time. People were buying and supplying their needs for the winter months to come. Said merchant was greatly handicapped. He needed twice the sales force to wait on the trade. Had he not had price tags on practically every article, it would have required a week to handle the business he did Saturday. Again, many would have left the store before being waited on. The price tag, in many instances was the silent salesman and caused the customer to patiently wait until someone could wrap the article up and accept the cash.

We are glad our merchants had an opportunity to demonstrate to the buying public that Fulton is the place to trade.

KENTUCKY PLANS FOR DAY OF INAUGURATION

Brilliant Ball Will Be Feature of Program

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 23. — Frankfort is now busy planning for its day of days—Inauguration Day. Already T. B. McGregor, who served as attorney general under Gov. Morrow, has been selected as Inaugural Day chairman, and he is busy at work to make the inauguration of Governor-elect Flem D. Sampson, one of the greatest in the history of Frankfort.

The inauguration this year will take place December 13, with the inaugural ball, one of the most brilliant social events of the state, scheduled for that night.

The people of Frankfort usually give the "party," and committees are now busy raising the five or six thousand dollars that the city will spend to welcome its new governor.

Chairman McGregor expects thousands upon thousands of people here for the day.

The general outline of the day goes like this:

Reception at the railroad station of Gov. Sampson and wife and family. The inaugural parade will then follow the arrival of the new governor, and usually starts from the Capitol Hotel about 11 o'clock.

The march is then made to the front of the capitol building where Chief Justice Rogers Clay, of the court of appeals, will swear in the new governor at 12 sharp. Following the swearing in of the next executive, Gov. William J. Fields will then deliver his retiring address and Gov. Sampson will give his inaugural address.

A reception that evening will be next. It will be given either at the governor's mansion or in the reception room of the capitol. Gov.-elect Sampson and wife and the incoming minor office holders and their wives, and the judges of the court of appeals with their wives will be in the receiving line.

Following the reception will be the inaugural ball, an event which brings forth Kentucky's most prized possession—its beautiful women.

Chairman McGregor said he was undecided about the location of the ball, but the committee would arrange those details.

At the inauguration of Gov. Morrow, the marble floors of the capitol were used. McGregor, however, said it was likely that the ballroom of the governor's mansion and also the second and third floors of the capitol would be the scenes of the dance, in which thousands are expected to sway to the strains of several orchestras that will be on hand.

Gov.-elect Sampson and Mrs. Sampson will lead the grand march, followed by the incoming minor office holders and their wives and the judges of the court of appeals and their wives.

"My, how times do change," said "Gov.-elect Flem D. Sampson, when speaking of the inauguration plans.

Four years ago Sampson, as chief justice of the court of appeals gave Gov. W. J. Fields the oath of office.

On Dec. 13, Chief Justice Rogers Clay will administer the same oath, but this time Judge Sampson will be on the opposite side of the rostrum.

COOPERATION OF THE PUBLIC IN PREPARING CHRISTMAS MAIL

The tang in the air and the wonderful colors of autumn leaves evidence the fact that another year is nearing its close and that the holiday season with its spirit of good will and cheer will soon be here.

Christmas is a time of joy and gladness, and the custom of exchanging gifts, greeting cards and other remembrances which is so generally followed during the holiday season is one of the main factors in promoting this happy condition. The observance of the custom of exchanging gifts greatly increases the volume of mail during the month of December, and it is therefore necessary to do everything possible to facilitate and expedite its handling.

A sentimental value is attached to Christmas mail, and, in order to be in keeping with the purpose for which sent, it should reach the addressee in time to give its full measure of happiness and cheer on Christmas Day.

If you will observe the following suggestions your mail will be sure to reach its destination in time to give its full measure of happiness and cheer on Christmas Day.

Address all mail plainly and completely in ink.

Pack carefully in strong containers. Wrap parcels securely but do not seal.

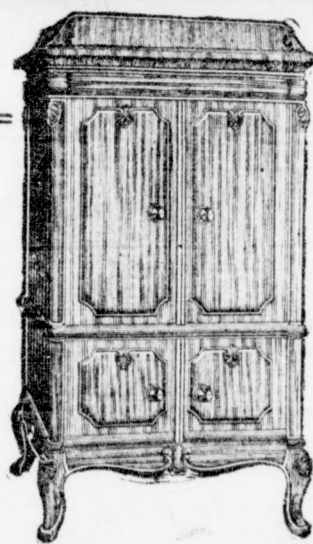

Do not place Christmas seals or stickers on address side of package.

Do not enclose any written matter in parcel post packages. Parcels may be marked "Do not open until Christmas," or with similar inscriptions.

Mail Early. And it is more important that Christmas mail be mailed early this year than before because Christmas Day falls on Sunday.

OLD FIDDLER'S CONTEST

When it comes to planning and putting over a real entertainment, our neighbor town of Crutchfield knows just how it is done. The Old-time Fiddlers Contest which was put on last Friday night under the auspices of the Crutchfield High school proved to be an occasion of much merriment as well as a rare feast of good music.

The first contest was for a safety razor prize offered by Evans Drug Co., Fulton, for best violinist playing "Over the Waves," which was won by Mr. Dildine.

The next contest was best French Harp solo for prize given by Griffin Bros., Clinton, and was won by Leroy Latta. In the contest for best violinist playing "Arkansas Traveler," the prize was offered by Franklin Dry Goods Co., and won by Mr. Dildine, who also won the prize offered by W. B. Williams & Son, of Clinton, for best guitar solo.

There were four contestants for "best hog caller," and the prize offered by T. E. Murdeau was won by Mr. Wade. A prize was offered by the faculty of Crutchfield high school for best string band, and this was won by Griffin string band of Clinton.

Smith Cafe, of Fulton offered a box of cigars for best male quartet and this prize was won by the Latta quartet. The prize for best child performer under six years old was offered by M. F. DeMyer & Sons, and won by little Elaine Vaughn of South Fulton. The oldest married couple present was Mr. and Mrs. D. Wade and the prize was given by K. H. Moore of Crutchfield. The prize for the Most Natural Call to Dinner was offered by Roberts Clothing Co., Fulton, and was won by Mrs. Latta.

Prize given by Ringo Drug Co., Clinton, for best violinist playing "Turkey in the Straw" was won by Walter Griffin of Clinton. Prize for best piano solo was won by Miss Howard. Prize for best cow caller was won by Mr. Orvell Green. Prize for best reading by contestants under eight years was won by Gerald Elliott. Bennett Drug Co., Fulton, offered prize for best whistler of "Yankee Doodle," and was won by C. A. Turner. Walter Griffin, Clinton, won the prize offered by J. P. Williams for best playing of "Red Wing." Prize for best vocal duet given by Miss Hannah Singletary for Clinton Rexall Store, was won by the Roberts sisters. Prize given by Homra Bros., for youngest married couple was won by C. D. Hastings (18) and his wife (14).

The reporter for The Advertiser failed to get the names of a few prize winners. The program required more than two hours and the audience seemed highly entertained throughout.

SPECIAL OFFER

For a short time we will accept subscriptions to The Advertiser and Memphis Weekly Commercial Appeal, both papers one year, for $1.25. This is a splendid opportunity to get your home paper and city paper for only $1.25 a year.

What are a few cents a day compared to the protection and convenience afforded by a telephone in your home?

The telephone has become so vital to the social needs of every community nowadays that no one thinks of it as a luxury. On the contrary, the subscriber regards it as indispensable. And why not? For it is the cheapest and most dependable means of transmitting the human voice. Hence it serves to overcome isolation, dispel loneliness, save many needless steps, and provides a sense of security that contributes so much toward happiness and contentment in the home.

DAYS OF THANKS FOR GOD'S MERCY ENGLISH CUSTOM

Ours by Adoption

Made a Stated Instead of Special Day Is Only Change That Has Taken Place.

Thanksgiving day, like most of what we have, is not our own being English in its origin and receiving merely new significance from its adoption. Englishmen have always followed the custom of setting aside days to commemorate public blessings. The discovery of the Gunpowder plot was marked so and, similarly, special events have been marked. We have made it a stated instead of a special day and that is all of the American character that it has and it was not until New England had been settled eighty years that it became a stated day, and there it was a stated, annual day for a long, long time before it obtained national adoption in any shape.

The first public thanksgiving observed by the Plymouth colony was in the autumn of 1623. A long drought was met by a day of fasting and prayer. The drought ended, abundant rains came, good crops followed and the Puritans remembered the event in a thanksgiving day. Oliver Cromwell's victories they similarly marked. From that time until the union with the Massachusetts Bay colony in 1631 seven thanksgiving days were observed.

First Thanksgiving.

The Massachusetts Bay colony kept its first thanksgiving day as soon as the last of Governor Winthrop's ships arrived in Boston harbor. "So now," says the chronicler, "all the whole fleet being safely come to their port they kept a public day of thanksgiving, July 8, 1630, to give thanks to Almighty God for all His goodness and wonderful works which they had seen on the voyage." Here was the old English custom of thanksgiving for a special thing. Nearly every year after that a similar public day of thanks was observed in this colony for some special thing. In 1633 it was for "bountiful harvests and a great arrival of persons of special use and quality."

Since 1700 the annual thanksgiving has been observed in all New England, and the clergy with commendable zeal have improved the occasion to "set in their work" on topics which the Sunday sermon would not admit of. It is said a collection of New England Thanksgiving day sermons arranged chronologically would be a complete index and annotation of the social and political questions that have engaged attention for the last two centuries.

When Dutch Gave Thanks.

But New England did not monopolize the custom. The Dutch in New York gave public thanks on extraorinary occasions and the journal of the Continental congress shows eight appointments by that body of thanksgiving days, recommending to the observance of the various colonies the observance, and with one exception the congress suspended on the thanksgiving days that it had appointed.

The Protestant Episcopal prayer book, ratified in 1789, appoints the first Thursday of November as a thanksgiving day unless another day shall be appointed by the civil authorities, and it was frequently observed in New York before the civil authorities fell into the custom of appointing similar days. On several occasions bishops of the Episcopal and of the Roman Catholic church have issued letters recommending the observance of such a day and prescribing forms. The plenary council of the latter church at Baltimore, in 1885, recommended that the observance of the day be regarded as a church feast, but nothing further has since been done concerning it and it stands here simply as a civil observance.

Thomas Jefferson's Attitude.

George Washington issued thanks giving proclamations twice and during John Adams' administration two also were issued. Jefferson would have none of them. In a letter to Gov. Mr. Miller, in 1808, after setting out that the national government was

Thanksgiving

For peaceful vales that lie between
The hills bathed in unclouded light;
For harvests with their golden sheen,
The earth's increase that greets the sight.

We thank Thee, Giver of every true
And perfect gift that fills our days;
Our vows to Thee we now renew,
And lift the voice in tuneful praise.

But let not too much thought of self Obscure and hide the ones in need,
In other lands where pride and selfish
Are placed above the kindly deed.
We thank Thee for the generous store;
The fruited bough, the golden grain;
Nor shall the stranger at our door
Knock in distress and all in vain!
—Alonso Rice.

Interdicted by the Constitution from intermeddling with religious institutions not only because of the provision for the free exercise of religion but also because of the powers reserved to the states, with which, if with any human authority, must rest religious discipline, he says:

"But is it only proposed that I should recommend, not prescribe, a day of fasting and prayer. This is, that I should indirectly assume to the United States an authority over religious exercises which the Constitution has directly precluded them from. It must be meant, too, that this recommendation is to carry some penalty on those who disregard it; not indeed of fines and imprisonment, but of some degree of persecution, perhaps, in public opinion. And does the change in the nature of the penalty make the recommendation less a law of conduct for those to whom it is directed? I do not believe it is for the interest of religion to invite the civil magistrate to direct its exercises, its disciplines or its doctrines, nor of the religious societies that the general government should be invested with the power of effecting any uniformity of time or matter among them. Fasting and prayer are religious exercises, the enjoining them an act of discipline. Every religious society has a right to determine for itself the times for these exercises, and the objects proper for them according to their particular tenets, and the right can never be safer in their own hands, where the Constitution has placed it."

Colonial Heritage.

But the observance of the day came as an old New England and New York custom, a Colonial heritage. Lincoln appointed November 26, 1863, as a day of national thanksgiving. That was at a time when Gettysburg had been won and Vicksburg had fallen. Before the appointed day came the Southern forces had been flanked on Lookout mountain and Missionary ridge, and Bragg's army was retreating. So with the North that year the thanks of the day had the fervor of praise to the God of battles as well as to the Giver of good.

We have kept pace with the custom since and it has become a day of fasting and less of fast; a day of devotion to pleasure and rest, though with a day of thanksgiving marked by scant church attendance and more or less quiet hours.

Lesson in Observance of Thanksgiving Day

Thanksgiving day is an American institution. It has come down to us from the sturdy pioneers who on their stern and rock-bound coast found so much even in their lives of privation and hardship to be grateful for, that they set aside this day each year for the offering up of thanks for the blessings that Providence had bestowed.

Through these centuries the custom has been observed, and that very fact reveals a characteristic of the American people. Thanksgiving day is essentially and primarily a day of worship, for to offer thanks to God for His goodness is one of the most noble forms of worship.

The observance of Thanksgiving is an acknowledgment that there is a higher power playing a part in directing the lives and fortunes of men here.

Our Thanksgiving is therefore a recognition of dependence upon one greater than ourselves, and the contemplation of such dependence can but work toward making us more unselfish, more generous, more charitable toward our fellow men.—Hous-ton Post-Dispatch.

The Thankful Heart

If anyone should give me a dish of sand, and tell me there were particles of iron in it, I might look for them with my eyes and search for them with my clumsy fingers, and be unable to detect them; but let me take a magnet and sweep through it, and how it would draw to itself the almost invisible particles by the mere power of attraction. The unthankful heart, like my fingers in the sand, discovers no mercies; but let the thankful heart sweep through the day, and as the magnet finds the iron, so it will find in every hour some heavenly blessings—only the iron in God's sand is gold.—Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes

Rev. and Mrs. E. S. Hicks spent last Monday in Paducah. The P. T. A. meeting Friday night was enjoyed by all present, but we hope to see a larger crowd next time.

"Electricity!—

The New Helper on the Farm"

Says William M. Jardine
Secretary of Agriculture

"Electricity has already made important contributions both to labor saving on the farm and to a more modern, satisfying rural life. I am confident it is going to make further contributions of equal or greater importance."

WHAT cheap and abundant electric power has done for the industrial worker and his family in the alleviation of drudgery and the betterment of living and economic conditions, it now promises to do for the farmer.

Through the activities of the Committee on Rural Electrification, with the cooperation of electric power companies, farm electrification is a fact today in twenty-three states.

One hundred and forty practical applications of electricity to the farm have already been developed. As a result of the cooperation between farmers and the power companies there has been an increase of approximately eighty-three percent in the number of farms using electricity in the last three years.

In simplifying the labor problem on the farm; lightening the load of physical toil; and increasing the comfort, convenience and cheer of the farm home, this extension of electrical facilities to rural communities is rendering a social and economic service of utmost national importance.

To insure the continued extension of farm service, it is essential that the American principle of individual initiative, by means of which these advantages have been made possible, should be encouraged and maintained.

ISAIAH TEACHES TRUE WORSHIP

LESSON TEXT—Isa. 1:1-20

GOLDEN TEXT—O worship the Lord with me and let us exult his name together. I saw the Lord and he heard me and delivered me from all my fears.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Worshiping God

JUNIOR TOPIC—Worship That Pleases God

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Worship That Pleases God

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Nature of True Worship.

Isaiah had a long ministry beginning in the days of Uzziah and extending through the reign of Jotham, Ahaz and Hezekiah. For a history of the nation in this time see II Kings, chapters 15 to 20. Isaiah's visions present the redemptive purpose of God through the consummation of Messiah's kingdom. Chapter 1 is the title to the whole book. It contains the great arraignment of the people for their sins.

I. The Moral State of the People (vv. 2-4).

1. Filial ingratitude (v. 2).

The universe is summoned to bear the Lord's complaint against Judah and Israel for their base ingratitude.

2. Brutal stupidity (v. 3).

The ox and the ass are proverbially stupid, but Israel's stupidity exceeded theirs. Israel would not recognize His right as sovereign, nor author of mercies.

3. Habitual evil doers (v. 4).

They were not sinners in act merely, but in nature and heart were laden with iniquity. By heredity they passed their vices from generation to generation.

II. Their Consequent Miseries (vv. 5-9).

1. Their perplexity (v. 5).

Chastisement only hardened them. Their afflictions were followed by deeper and more heinous sins.

2. Their awful confusion (v. 6).

The calamity which befell them extended to all classes. No one was able to minister to their comfort.

3. Desolations in the country (vv. 7, 8).

Revolts from within and invasions from without left their country desolate. Physical ruin always follows moral and spiritual decay.

4. A saved remnant assured (v. 9).

God's purposes cannot fail. A remnant was saved in Israel—a remnant shall be saved in the church.

III. Formal Worship Rebuked (vv. 10-15).

Their awful calamities were not due to the neglect of religious rites and ceremonies. They punctiliously observed the forms of religion while indulging in iniquitous practices.

1. God does not need sacrifices (v. 11).

Worship and service are not for God's benefit, but for that of the worshippers themselves.

2. God's attitude toward formal worship (vv. 12-14).

The very rites and ceremonies which God ordained for the purpose of helping men to approach Him become disgusting and irksome to Him.

3. God's refusal (v. 15).

Every act of worship while the heart and life are steeped with iniquity only incites the anger of the Holy One.

IV. An Amended Life God's Requirement (vv. 16-20).

Though the nation had so grievous sins, their case was not hopeless. In order to enjoy that mercy there must be:

1. A cleansing.

"Wash you, make you clean." The washing by water symbolized the cleansing by the blood of the Son of God.

2. "Put away the evil of your doings."

There could be no cleansing while continuing in sin.

3. "Cease to do evil."

4. "Learn to do well" (v. 17).

One can only cease to do evil by learning to do well.

5. "Seek judgment."

One must not only be upright himself but should protest against the wrongdoing of others. Burdens should be removed from the oppressed. Justice should be done to the fatherless and the widows should be befriended.

6. Encouragement to come to God (v. 18).

Though their guilt was great and the judgment which befell them was awful, God's pardoning and cleansing grace were sufficient.

7. Conditional promise (v. 19).

This means that they could only enjoy good on God's terms.

8. Solemn warning (v. 20).

Rebellion against God brings ruin.

Religion

Trusting God with a sincere and open heart, ready to obey what He suggests, asking His guidance, and ready to take it, believing in Him and simply trusting life to Him—that is religion.—James Reid.

Cost of Discipleship

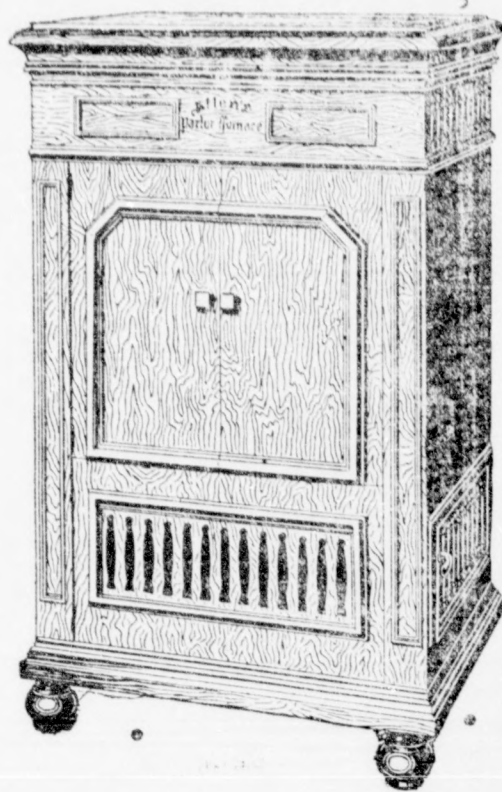

Christ tells us to count the cost of discipleship, but He never asks us to count the gain. He knew we could not; there is no arithmetic to compute that.—W. L. Watkinson.

DEFUNCT BANK IS USED FOR U. OF T. DEPOSITS

$30,500 in Martin Institution
Needed for New Buildings

Martin, Tenn., Nov. 21.—The University of Tennessee has filed suit in the chancery court of Dresden against the Peoples Bank of Martin for the amount the university had on deposit at the time of the closing of the bank, September 15, last.

This amount is approximately $35,500. The university had received $100,000 from the Weakley county court for new buildings and deposited $30,000 in the Peoples Bank, bearing four per cent on daily balance, secured by bond signed by several directors of the bank.

In the meantime, the Peoples Bank voluntarily closed its doors and turned its affairs over to the state banking department for liquidation. The cause given was frozen loans.

The University Junior College here has started construction work on two buildings, the home economics and science hall and the suit is brought so that there will be no delay in obtaining the money for building operations.

The sureties on this bond claim that the deposit of $35,000 is of a preferred nature and would be paid out of the assets of the bank before paying the general creditors and depositors. The university is suing both the bondsmen and H. L. Grigsby, of the state banking department, who is receiver of the bank. Mr. Grigsby is named in the suit in order to determine the preferred claim. The suit will be tried immediately.
