CHEMISTRY AND FREEDOM
In the test tubes of the chemists a new weapon has been created to aid the United States. It is independence of foreign countries and the certain basic materials. As scientists bend to their tasks of research, it is getting us closer to the time when we shall no longer have to speak of "vital interests" in the Far East or elsewhere which might have to be defended by force to keep necessary raw materials coming.

Production has actually begun on a new synthetic rubber made entirely of domestic materials, and by fall a new B. B. Geysen plant will be producing several tons of Ameripol each day. The basic source is petroleum.

The British Government has been actively engaged with the creation of a synthetic rubber. While production of all the various synthetic rubbers last year totaled only 170 tons against 502,000 tons of natural rubber, a start has been made, and there is evidence in the future that a desperate emergency production of these "erasures" could be stepped up enough to provide absolutely essential rubber products.

If by this development of chemistry may literally change the world. In the past, peoples lived on what man could source of raw materials. In the future, they may all be producing within themselves all the vital raw materials needed, thus easing the pressure for access to the sources of natural products. The Rayons and Nylons mean independence of foreign silk, rayon, dyes, gums, and synthetics.

The Dow Chemical Company, the DuPont Company, and the Continental give rubber products.

There is not a single vital element of importance that the United States cannot produce. That was not true 25 years ago when Europe and the country found itself cut off from supplies of raw materials.

The plastic and resins are only beginning to show what they can do, and already airplane fuselages and wings are being molded from such materials.

The production of rubber is flowering, from these tests tube.

SUNSHINE AND SHADOWS
Shelbyville, Ind. — Robert O. Wright, Shelbyville baker, says he expects to be dead when his placed in his mausoleum vault. Asked why he fumes the crypt with radio, clock, cot, rug, towel, and mirror, he has revealed thus far if he is to take advantage of this glorious opportunity.

Charlotte, N. C. — J. R. D. Davis, fishing for herring, was struck by a school of minnows shot under his boat. Then Davis says, he was heavy third and saw a big bass collision on his bow.

The fish buckled in the middle, pitched into the air and out onto the bank—knocked out, cold, he said

Eugene, Ore. — New Meteorology Professor A. C. Coe has a problem of psychology on his hands. In his class of 60 into two groups for an examination. By mistake, he left a list of 10 types of clouds on the blackboard of one of the rooms. The students with the answer before them made a three per cent poorer showing than the others.

Los Angeles — A taxi driver saw a young couple with a girl's purse and started things moving with a "Stop thief!"

One pursuer was felled in the ensuing excitement, which a shop owner's rushed shotgun ended.

"I told the "thief" explained, "it was my girl friend's purse. We were out having a good time and I didn't want her to go home."

Omaha, Neb. — The $52 James Elterlin was held in the nathe when he lost it in Black Lake Park last year. Commissioner a year ago came back to his town by mail.

The victim's sons found the wallet with the money on the lake shore, something艾 towed after a windstorm.

The money, though fallen, was otherwise in good condition.

Tigers Even Series With Oilers By Winning Last Night 10 To 5

The Tigers evened the series at Greenbrier last night by ousting Daily Lambert hard in the late innings of a game which ended with a 10 to 5 victory for the Tigers. Lambert, who won the game for the Oilers, had difficulty in getting the first hit in the game. The Tigers started an early lead and while the Oilers managed to come back in the second inning, the rally was short-lived.
