Noted Speakers
Visit Fulton

On Thursday, January 13th, the City of Fulton was honored by the visit of two of the most noted speakers in the country, Senator Garth Ferguson and Governor Walter Page.

The Governor spoke on the subject of the importance of education, and the Senator spoke on the subject of the necessity of reforming the State's educational system.

The speeches were well received, and the audience was greatly impressed by the speakers' ability and knowledge.

FOOD LIKE YOU GET AT HOME

This is truly a homelike restaurant because it has emphasized to break down the prejudice based on the theory that restaurants could not serve food like you get at home. Many patrons will testify that there is no difference between our meals and the meals you get at home. That's the reason they come here so frequently to eat.

Years of catering to the appetites of particular people make it possible for us to serve appetizing meals.

EXAMINATION FOR RURAL CARRIER AT CRUTCHFIELD

The U. S. Post Office Department has announced an examination for rural carriers for the post office of Fulton, Ky., to be held on November 17.

Application blanks will be furnished free of charge at the Post Office Department, Fulton, Ky. Any applicant who shall pass the examination will be appointed by the United States Postmaster General and will receive the minimum rate of wages paid for rural carriers in Kentucky, viz.: $10.00 per month.

The salary of a rural carrier is a monthly payment of $10.00, which consists of $5.00 per month for the time spent in traveling to and from the postal business, and $5.00 per month for the work performed in the community.

Applications will be received until the close of business on November 17, 1923.

The examination will consist of an interview by the Postmaster General, who will determine the applicant's qualifications and fitness for the position of rural carrier.

The examination will be held at the post office of Fulton, Ky., on November 17, 1923.

Applications should be addressed to the Postmaster General, Fulton, Ky.

Does Thoroughbred Poultry Pay?

During a recent conversation with J. C. Walkins, secretary of the Fulton Poultry Association, I asked him, "Does the thoroughbred poultry pay?" He replied, "No, not much at all.

Now, I am not going to say you won't have good luck, but some folks say, "Well, you can't make much of an honest living out of a thoroughbred chicken.

The answer is, "You can make your living out of it.
