ROCKWELL'S OFFICE TO BE SITUATED ON WEDNESDAY

World Wide Parts Were Used and Knows the Company's Dealing West.

WILLING TO ANSWER BEFORE COMMISSION

New York, Jan. 14.—Through an anonymous letter, signed "Mr. Liberty," Rockwell, General Manager of the American Standard Oil company, distributed yesterday a letter where he intimates, it is declared, with probable chances to decision the secret workings of the Standard Oil company this time of the witnesses who have been called in for the investigation of the Rockefeller interests. The Rockefeller company's attorney, John C. Bell, refused to comment on the letter, even though he was called on for a statement.

The Standard Oil laws have been a matter of public interest for many years. The Standard Oil company has always denied the charges made against it, and has contended that it has acted in accordance with the laws of the United States and the states in which it operates. However, the Rockefeller company has been accused of monopolizing various lines of business, and of using its power to control prices and restrict competition.

FINE PIECE

THE KENTUCKY WAS CROWED.

Eldo's Piece Captured Atchison, Threshing Machine to Be Used in Support.

The Kentucky was crowsed yesterday as a result of a plot by a group of farmers in the Atchison area. The farmers, seeking to improve their living conditions, planned an action against the company that was responsible for the crowding.

The company, which is known for its use of threshing machines, was caught off guard by the farmers' action. The farmers had been frustrated by the company's practices, and decided to take matters into their own hands.

The farmers' action was a success, and the company was forced to take steps to correct its practices. The farmers were able to improve their living conditions, and the company was forced to change its ways.

Our Clean-Up Sales Grow More Attractive

Each clean up because of the larger stock and the greater selections — and the choice of our high-grade merchandise — always the newest and the best. Many customers buy in these sales when they don't really need the clothing, only that they find it cheaper to buy for the future. This policy of this House has always been to reduce stock to the lowest possible limit by the end of the season. In order to do this prices reductions and clean-up sales are necessary. Each week more prices are reduced and more lowes added to those already cut. It's w8rth your time to follow them up. you'll find many opportunities to save on your wearing apparel.
