Team Work

We SENT this to the big game! "writes an ardent follower of football, "and our party took a car on an Illinois Central train for the meeting. The service on route was perfect. Meals were served on the run, and the waiters were most obliging.

"We thought that was mighty fine, and we never expected anything more. "When our delight then, as we sat chilled to the bones between halos, to see our knitting women watching up the stadium sides with pots of steaming coffee,

"We wish many football games, and you may be sure that the Illinois Central is all Americans with us."

National Topics Interpreted by William Bruckart

WASHINGTON, D.C. — It is only a few short weeks until the Seventy-third Congress meets in session, and already the President has announced that he will continue to be strongly active in the political arena in preparation for his re-election in November. The United States is now in the midst of an important election campaign, and the President is expected to campaign vigorously.

Work for Congress
The President recently announced that he will conduct a national political campaign in support of the Republican candidate for President. The President has appointed a number of prominent Republicans to assist him in the campaign, and he has already begun to travel extensively to promote his candidacy.

strongly active in the political arena in preparation for his re-election in November.

From Us and Get the Best Frequent references have been made to the important question of federal government regulation of business activities. The President has indicated that he is willing to support legislation that will promote economic growth and development. He has also stated that he is willing to support legislation that will ensure fair competition among businesses.
