WEDNESDAY AUGUST 1.

MR. HENDRICK VOTES TO INCREASE SALARIES.

In the Senate Journal of 1887-8 on page 391 leave was given to bring in the following bill which is found on page 477.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

1. That hereafter the salaries of Circuit Judges in this Commonwealth shall be $3,000 per year.

2. That all acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith be repealed.

3. This act shall be in force from its passage.

On May 2nd, 1888, the bill passed the Senate, and on page 1662 the names of those for and against the bill are given. There were 29 votes given, 21 for the bill and 8 against it. According to a provision of the constitution the yeas and nays were called and J. K. Hendrick's name appears as one voting for the bill. There were 19 Circuit Judges in the State; They had been elected August 2nd, 1886, and took their seats in September following at a salary of $2,400 per year. The bill increasing their salaries took effect May 1888 which gave them an increase of $600 for four and one third years, which amounted to an increase of $2,600 for each Circuit Judge in the State, shows the amount of money that was taken from the tax-payers of the State, which is $49,400, to pay these gentlemen who had already agreed to serve the people for $2,400 instead of $3,000. Mr. Hendrick voted for this bill, and our readers are familiar with the howls that went up from all parts of the State when this bill became a law and how soon afterwards the people arose in their might and not only repealed it but made a new constitution in which a stop was put to all such pernicious legislation by inserting a clause forbidding the legislature to increase or diminish any officers salaries during his present term of office. We don't ask any one to take our word, though it is literally true, but we refer them to the above pages in the Senate Journal which can be found in any of county offices at the court house. The people are opposed to all such laws; They have always condemned them, they always will and they always should. Did we have any better men in office at $3,000 than we did at $2,400? Of course not; For we only had the same men; No changes whatever. Besides we have just as fine circuit judges now at $2,400 as we did after that law was passed. If Mr. Hendrick did wrong in that vote, rebuke him next Saturday and let him, as well as all others, know once for all that you will not overlook such extravagance on the part of public servants.

OUR LAST WORDS

This is the last issue of the Tribune before the congressional democratic primary election which will take place next Saturday. There are only two candidates, W. J. Stone and John K. Hendrick, both of whom are well known to our readers. One or the other will receive the nomination and which receives the greater number is declared the nominee we shall heartily support as the standard bearer of the democratic party in November. We have done what, in our feeble way we could for Capt. Stone, believing to be the most available one of the two for the position sought at this time, but in doing this we have never thought for a moment that either one was inferior in any respect to Mr. Keys or any republican that might be put out by them. With this issue ends our fight, and when the polls close Saturday evening not another word do we have to say no difference which receives the nomination. While we believe that Capt. Stone will be renominated by a handsome majority, yet we do not feel a desire to throw mud at his opponent at the last moment but we treat him kindly and lay him away tenderly so that we may have no regrets after the war of ballots has ended. We ask all democrats and urge them to go out and vote and insist on a fair square election so that the nominee can be elected in November by a rousing majority.

When Mr. Hendrick voted to increase the salaries of the circuit judges of the state from $2,400 to $3,000, after they had already been elected and agreed to serve the people for that amount, did he do it because it pleased the judges or because the tax-payers of the state instructed him so to do. The tax-payers of Marshall county condemned Mr. Glenn, our senator for so doing and on next Saturday they will likewise condemn Mr. Hendrick. That vote by the senate cost the poor tax-payers of the state nearly $50,000 all for the purpose of over paying a few men for work they had contracted and agreed to do for less. This is Mr. Hendrick's public record. Do you endorse it?

The wrong gang is after Mr. Hendrick to do him much good, but the right gang is after him to do him lots of harm.

Mr. Hendrick, his henchmen and his little newspaper following are jumping on the Tribune from all parts of the district. Is it because the Tribune has abused and misrepresented Hendrick as a public man? No; but because it is bold, fearless and outspoken in favor of good men for office, honest government and low taxes. Is it because the Tribune has called Mr. Hendrick and his followers bad names? Not but because it has advocated a clever, honest public servant for re-election to congress against a man who voted to increase the salaries of circuit judges during their present term of office from $2,400 per year to $3,000. This is the cause of the Tribune's offending, and it is only a matter of time until nearly every man in this county will say the Tribune was right.

The changes and revolution that have taken place in the congressional sentiment in this county in the past week is simply wonderful indeed.

Whenever you take a whack at the Tribune, to a gentleman there is no use to tell him "not to say anything about it to Lemon" for he don't care; He knows what's the matter with you. Don't never lay the flattering unction to your soul, that the editor of the Tribune cares what you say about that good county paper. The people like it, they will take it and they will read and don't you forget it for they know his fight is a fight for low taxes and good men in office.

We stand by the record when we say that the people do not endorse the vote Mr. Hendrick gave that cost the State $49,400. If the voters endorse this they should never complain at an increase of salary.

THE TRUTH OF IT.

The Tribune has been accused by some men, who are afraid of its influence of trying to array men of one class against another. The fact is that all such talk means that the doctrines taught by the Tribune are true, correct and in keeping with the principles of our government. We say that 28 men in the congress of the United States from the farms are not enough in proportion to the farming wealth of the country compared to that of lawyers. Allow for sake of argument that the interest and wealth of the country divided between farmers and lawyers, would it not be unsafe for the interest of the lawyers to have only 28 of them in congress and 250 farmers. To place 250 farmers in congress and only a few men from the other vocations of life would be just as dangerous as it is now to a fair and impartial class of legislation. We don't try to array one class of business against another, but we do take the position that the interests of all classes will not be protected as well as it would be if they were all equally represented in all of the law-making departments of the government. There are as good, pure and patriotic men engaged in the law as any other profession in the world, but it is only human nature that if a class of men lean any way in making laws they will lean towards themselves, and in many instances pass laws favoring one class and oppressing another. There are 356 members of congress in the lower house. Now is there a man in this county with a thimbleful of sense that believes that the country would be better off if all of them were farmers? We answer No! Then on the other hand would it be best to have every one of them lawyers, merchants, editors, bankers or speculators? A thousand times no, but all fair-minded men think the interest of everybody and the interest of the country would be better served if all classes were as near as possible represented. Now, this is our position, and he who contends otherwise is wrong. Then since the great farming interest of this country has only 28 representatives in congress, and one of that number hails from this district, would it not be bad policy at this time to take him out and put in a lawyer. We don't hesitate to say that it would and we believe the people will see it as we do. Now this is our position on this subject and we don't take it in order to demagogue our readers, but we hereby express our views in order that they can see how false is the charge that we are trying to array one class against another. We have convictions and we have the courage to express them, and in less than two years nearly every farmer in the county will see as we now do.

Don't get uneasy about this county, she is alright.

Last year the legislature passed a law that increased the salary of the judges of the court of Appeals from $4,000 to $5,000. Did the people the state endorse such a law? No; It was condemned by men of all parties from Hickman to Catlettsburg. That vote cost the tax-payers $40,000. The increase made in 1888 by Mr. Hendrick and his colleagues cost $49,400. Is a man with such ideas of extravagance safe? We leave it to the tax-payers to answer next Saturday.

Hendrick's friends in this county have about given up all hope of their man getting the nomination. They began working four or five months ago and until ten days ago they thought they had the world by the tail, but since the working people have concluded to take a hand they have become poor and heart broken.

Is it unfair to quote the record of any public official at any time? The men who are supporting Mr. Hendrick think everything unfair that is said about the record of Mr. Hendrick. There is no false alarm being made against Mr. Hendrick; we are only pointing to his record when he voted to increase the salaries of circuit judges from $2,400 to $3,000.

The truth is that Mr. Hendrick is not intellectually Mr. Stone's equal. This has been clearly demonstrated in the past few weeks at their joint discussions.

The Hendrick men will not issue less than 50,000 circulars between now and Saturday. Don't be deceived by them.

Don't get mad and "cuss" and fuss when you hear that Stone is the nominee for we have been telling you all the time what would happen at the primary.

The Tribune has no dirt to throw at Mr. Hendrick, but what it has to say in the way of criticisms it does it concerning his record as a public servant of the people. If his record shows that he recklessly votes money out of the pockets of the tax-payers of state to increase salaries, then it is not good, but ought to be condemned.

The great county of Graves looms up before the Hendrick men like a cyclone in the west. They see it, they fear it, and cannot tell or hardly approximate how big will be Stone's majority in that democratic stronghold. The day has come that farmers and working men cannot be deluded to vote against an honest farmer.

We don't care about all the little dirty things that may appear about Mr. Stone or Mr. Hendrick, but when we see him (Mr. H) voting away the money of the tax-payers to men who had already agreed to serve the people for a less amount, then we think it is time for men to stop and think. Our people did not endorse it then. Will they endorse it now?

If a man opens his mouth in this country and raises his voice against class legislation and in favor of all classes being equally represented in congress there is a class of men ready to begin the howl of demagoguery, but when we stand up for the rights of the people for low taxes and against extravagant men in office, we know we are right.

Some of the indiscreet and over suspicious organs of Mr. Hendrick takes much time and space in warning their readers that they should be on the lookout for some cock and bull story right on the eve of the election by the Paducah papers and the Tribune. Don't be alarmed gentlemen, we don't resort to any such tactics to elect Mr. Stone, he can be nominated without anything being said save the truth.

The men in Paducah are more than confident that Stone will carry McCracken County by 500 majority. The Hendrick men are not so jubilant and buoyant over the prospects of their candidate as they were a few days ago. They began their boom too early and pitched it so high that it fell by its own weight and it is now only a question of how big will be the majority in that county.

Mr. Hendrick voted to increase the salaries of circuit judges from $2,400 to $3,000, yet they say he is a friend to the tax-payer. How can that be when by his vote it cost the state $49,400 extra pay when they had already agreed to serve the state for $2,400? The very men who so heartily condemned such legislation then are now supporting him, but the majority of the tax-payers will rebuke him.

No, we don't have to call all of the men who are for Hendrick liars, blackguards and all kind of bad names, because they are all nice, truthful, sober gentlemen. All of the mean men are for Stone, and there is no use denying the truth of it, if the Hendrick papers are to be believed, and of course they are. How willing we are to concede some things, but some men think we are too courteous and fair in our conclusions, but we can't help it, we are made out of that kind of material.

There is one thing a little curious in this contest and that is that everyone who is for Stone is hired or bought, and that all who are working for Hendrick are doing it for nothing. Mr. Hendrick, after the election, will wish that no one had worked for him but men who were employed by him. There has been many regrets offered in the secret counsels of Mr. Hendrick by his best men at the dirty work done for him by some of his henchmen who claim it's all done for nothing.

AMONG THE FLOWERS.

The garden gate swung to and fro, Then came a whisper soft and low: And said the lily to the rose: "That's her lover I suppose."

Says rose: "He comes here every day, I wonder what they have to say?" "They don't see us!" the jasmine sighs. "Each looks into the other's eyes!"

"He loves her so!" the rose replied. "Oh!—here they come!" the violet cried. "He holds her hand," the pansy said, "And like the rose, she blushes red." And rose remarked: "It is not right For us to listen—nor polite— To all their vows—and tender sighs— Oh dear!—he kissed her!—shut your eyes!"

Died in Texas.

Mr. Jeff Arant, who a few years ago married Mrs. Bettie Saville, was killed last week in Texas in a railroad wreck. His wife telegraphed her relatives here to make arrangements to bury him at the Bethlehem cemetery. The grave was dug and his relatives and friends were present to bury him, but the remains became so offensive that they had to be buried at Memphis, and of course did not arrive. His wife is at her home in Texas with three little children. He had his life insured and his wife will get $4,000, which will greatly assist her in raising her fatherless children. They have the sympathy of all.

What Stone Has Done.

It is often charged by the friends of Mr. Hendrick that Capt. Stone in his ten years in congress has done nothing for the people of the First district nor for the democratic party. It ought to be unnecessary to refute these charges, but as an illustration of what Capt. Stone has done in the years he has been in congress we will cite some of the things he has done during the first session of the Fifty third congress.

He supported a measure which repealed the purchasing clause of the Sherman act which was denounced in the democratic platform as a cowardly makeshift.

He supported measures providing for the free coinage of silver.

He supported a measure to reduce federal taxation $75,000,000 annually.

He supported a measure placing 132 articles of necessity on the free list.

He supported a measure reducing the tariff on cotton goods, carpets, collars, cuffs, shirts, boots, shoes, caps and many other articles of necessity.

He supported a measure repealing the sugar bounty by which the people were annually robbed of from $15,000,000 to $25,000,000 for the benefit of sugar planters.

He supported a measure reorganizing the executive department at Washington by which $3,000,000 was saved annually in salaries public officials.

He supported a measure to forfeit $4,000,000 of land held by rich railroad corporations which will become a part of the public domain and will provide homes for thousands of people.

He supported a measure providing for the election of United States senators by direct vote of the people.

He supported a measure providing for the reinstatement of the railway mail clerks who were discharged between the 15th of March and the first of May, 1889 when Mr. Harrison became president.

He supported a measure providing for a tax of 2 per cent on incomes over $4,000, by which the rich people of the country will be made to bear a share of the expenses of the government.

He supported a measure reducing pension expenditures $15,000,000.

He supported a measure by which $7,000,000 are saved in the expenditure for the postal service of the country.

He supported a measure by which $1,500,000 subsidy was saved in the amounts paid steamship companies for carrying the United States mails.

He supported a measure which provided for placing binding twine, cotton ties and wool on the free list.

He supported a measure which reduced the tariff on woolen goods more than 50 per cent.

He supported a measure which provided for liberal appropriations for the improvement of Livingston Point and other points in the First Congressional district.

He kept up the fight until every office of any importance in this district was held by a democrat.

These are some of the things that Capt. Stone has done during the past year.

The Science of Tobacco Topping. German growers have been trying to settle a question that has never been settled in this country, that is: How many leaves should be left on a tobacco plant? In one series of trial plants having six leaves gave a larger leaf service than those with a greater or lesser number. The thickness of the leaf was increased as the number of leaves decrease from six to one. One lot of tobacco plants was topped and suckered another simply topped and a third lot neither topped nor suckered. The size of the leaf was greatest when topping and suckering were practised, about 25 per cent less when the plants were simply topped, and least when neither was done. Trials were made to ascertain the effect on the size and quality of the leaves of topping to ten, twelve and fourteen leaves per plant. Not only were the total yields with fourteen leaves the largest, but these plants also gave the largest yield of high grade tobacco. The leaves were larger and thicker when fourteen leaves remained than when twelve were left. Here in Connecticut there is considerable diversity of opinion and practice in regard to topping tobacco.—Hartford Times.

BROWN CHEMICAL CO. BALTIMORE, MD.

A Husband's Strategem.

An inhabitant of Vero, in Finland named Sellquist, who for a long time past has been living on bad terms with his wife, had lately a narrow escape from being poisoned by her. She called at a chemist's, and asked for some rat poison. As these creatures are very rarely seen in that neighborhood, the chemist had his suspicions aroused and gave the woman a perfectly harmless drug. On second thoughts he decided to mention the matter to the husband, and requested him to say nothing about it to his wife. In the evening, as she was preparing the porridge, the man kept a watchful eye on her movements and noticed that she scattered something out of a paper into the saucepan. When the porridge was ready he sat down to the table and began to eat. After a while he got up in great excitement, paced up and down the room, and at last fell fainting on the floor. This was what the woman expected. She now pulled down a rope through a hole in the ceiling with a noose, which she placed round her husband's neck, whereupon she ran upstairs into the garret in order to pull up the rope and hang her husband in that fashion. Meantime the husband got up and tied a few chairs to the rope. The wife did not return to the room, as she dreaded the sight, but went out in the village to raise an alarm, saying that her husband had hanged himself in her absence. When she came back with a host of neighbors, and crocodile tears in her eyes, there was her husband sitting at the table, laughing till his sides ached. The chairs were still dangling on the rope.—Novoe Vremya.

Only Too True.

This is an age of sham and tinsel. On every hand can men and women be seen assuming a virtue they do not possess, a position they are not fitted to occupy, and a position beyond their reach. Men keep a carriage and fine horses while tottering on the edge of bankruptcy and women keep servants in the kitchen while their husbands dodge executions in the hands of the sheriff. Young men sport fine clothes, fine buggies and fine suppers who could not get credit for a bread ticket if their real character were known. Girls wear six hats a year while their old fathers dress in the style of the middle ages and their mothers stay at home rather than expose the scantiness of her wardrobe. Churches have gaudy windows, sky scraping steeples, velvet carpets and cushioned pews, while the pastor goes in his threadbare longtailed coat to hide the hole in his trousers. Sham, sham, sham, is written on every side and the biggest humbug is commonly esteemed the greatest hero.

Horse Talk.

Don't ask me to "back" with blinds on. I am afraid to. Don't lead me to some block-head that has less sense than I have.

Don't think, because I am a horse, that iron weeds and briars won't hurt my bay.

Don't be so careless of my harness as to find a great sore on me before you attend to it.

Don't run me down a steep hill, for if anything should give way I might break your neck.

Don't whip me when I get frightened along the road or I will expect it next time and may make trouble. You would move it under the whip.

Don't think because I go free under the whip I don't get tired.

Don't put my blind bridle so that it will irritate my eyes or so leave my forelock that it will be in my eyes.

Don't hitch me to an iron post or railing when the mercury is below freezing. I need the skin on my tongue.

Don't keep my stable very dark, for when I go into the light my eyes are injured especially if snow is on the ground.

Don't leave me hitched in my stall at night with a big cob right where I must lay down. I am tied and can't select a smooth place.

Don't forget to file my teeth when they get jagged and I cannot chew my food. When I get lean it is a sign my teeth want filing.

Don't make me drink ice water nor put a frosty bit in my mouth. Warm the bit by holding it a half minute against my side.

CANCER

Dr. H. B. BUTTS, 822 Pine St., St. Louis, Mo.

At Princeton.

The candidates spoke at Princeton last Thursday to a very large crowd. Caldwell county is very strong for Stone. It has always been so, but this time all the men in town could not get office and there was some local opposition brought about by their friends, but when Mr. Stone came on the stand the cheering was deafening and minutes passed before he could proceed with his speech. We never knew how devoted were the people up there for Mr. Stone until we saw their manifestations with our own eyes. There is no use talking almost every man who is not mad, by failing to get an office, is strong for Stone. If the signs of the times indicate anything put Stone's majority in Caldwell county down at 500 or more. Some men would say we hardly know of a Hendrick man in miles of them. It was a Stone crowd and it will be a big Stone vote on August 4.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh

that Contain Mercury, as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally, and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free. Sold by druggists, price 75c per bottle.

Is It Commendable?

Do democrats believe that it is right and prudent in Mr. Hendrick at this time to denounce the present administration in unmeasured terms? They do not; and if he receives the nomination how will he harmonize such utterances made in this canvass? We know Mr. Hendrick is a good democrat, but in his anxiety to defeat Mr. Stone for the nomination he, in his zeal, says things he ought not to say. He should refrain from thus onslaughting the democrats in this race, for if he were elected the men in power would not have the confidence in him they would have had if he had never used such language.

"I know an old soldier who had chronic diarrhea of long standing to have been permanently cured by taking Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Edward Shumpik, a prominent druggist of Minneapolis, Minn. "I have sold the remedy in this city for over seven years and consider it superior to any other medicine now on the market for bowel complaints." 25 and 50 cent bottles of this remedy for sale by R. H. Starks.

Cleveland is an honest patriotic man with the courage of his convictions, and he is willing to stand or fall by them, but we never find him arrayed against the principles of the platform of the party of which he is a member.

No August Guessing Contest.

The Weekly Courier-Journal has withdrawn its offer of $1,000 to be given to subscribers who could name the hottest day in August, and guess closest to the highest temperature on that day. This action was taken because of the serious interruption of mails, caused by the great railroad strike. A simple and liberal guessing contest on the November Congressional Elections is now being prepared, and will be announced by the Weekly Courier-Journal shortly.

A western editor, in answer to the complaint of a subscriber that he did not give news enough, advised him, when news was scarce, to read the Bible, which, he had no doubt, would be news to him.

I Was Weak,

Tired and nervous, my food did not digest easily. In fact I was in poor health generally. I had to sleep propped up in bed to breathe easily at night. I had the grip and afterwards a severe cough. I found relief in Hood's Sarsaparilla. I have taken seven bottles and can eat what I please, sleep soundly and feel rested unless I overwork. I feel as young as I did at 16 when I use judgment in my daily exercise. I cannot begin to express my thanks sufficient for such a great soothing, health restoring medicine.
