WEDNESDAY AUGUST 15.

"AT THE MERCY OF TIBER-RIUS."

"At the Mercy of Tiberius" is the subject to be discussed at Briensburg next Saturday by Mr.

Jo. A. Parker, editor of the Kentucky Populist. We wonder if the true character of Tiberius will be held up to his hearers by Mr.

Parker in this oration. Tiberius, like all the Roman kings, had some excellent traits of character as well as many that would not suit the men of this day and time.

It will be remembered he ascended the throne at the age of 56.

One of the great characteristics of this Roman king was his im-penetrability. He never "spoke out" his feelings, desires, passions and ambitions were kept locked in his bosom behind an impassable barrier, and was to be interpreted by the very uncertain lights of his external acts. He never, but one time, took counsel with his officers concerning military operations; he was an unparalleled master of passive and silent dissimulation.

He possessed an intellect of high power; in fact, few men ever possessed the mental vision of this man. His ideal of character was pretty much that of the two Catos; in fact, Gen. Grant had many of the personal resemblance of Tiberius. He has been called one of the wickedest of Roman kings, yet it is said of him that he was never guilty of half the wickedness with which he was accused, but as he grew older he grew more silent and melancholy. Pliny called him the "gloomiest of mankind," and said he was disposed to broad over mysteries and superstitions. As this gloom deepened his will grew weaker and terrors closed in around his mind and his clear vision was perturbed.

Throughout his reign Tiberius strove to do his duty to the em-

Cleveland. Here is a great scheme on foot to deceive and mislead the people by drawing imaginary comparisons with the present conditions of our free and independent people with those under Roman bondage of over 1800 years ago, but such sophistry will not take or be believed by our people.

Still there are a few who sit about and discuss the whys and wherefores of the recent congressional contest. These gentlemen surely understand that these are "old chestnuts," and that life is too short to take up more time in hearing them discussed. Stop it and try something else.

Judge Williams, Judge Lindsay, Judge Hines and Judge Bennett have all illumined the appellate bench as able and distinguished lawyers from this end of the state, and now we are called on to place another one there, and we should do as becomes men of sense and judgment, and make no mistake.

Two years ago Graves county cast 2374 votes in the congressional primary election. This time she only voted 2265, a fall off of 109. There were, two years ago, 2250 votes given for Stone and Hendrick; this time 2265, only an increase of 15 votes. With the exception that Stone lost a few votes and Hendrick gained a few there was no change in that county in the total vote of both elections.

Some of Mr. Hendrick's most ardent supporters are, it is said, sorely disappointed at the small majority he received over Capt.
Stone. Gentlemen, don't worry yourselves over the matter, he received a very handsome majority; enough at least to satisfy everybody that he is the nominee, and that ought to be enough to satisfy his friends. Stone's friends are satisfied, why not you?

A mistake now in selecting a man to the office of judge of the court of appeals will be a mistake not only for eight years but probably for twice that length of time.
Our people should not make up their minds until the race is made up, and then select the man that is best calculated to construe and interpret the laws and the constitution in a way to save the people from oppression.

Hon. Ben-C. Keys, the populist candidate for congress, passed through the city Sunday on his way home from an electioneering tour in the northern part of the district. This is the second canvass as the nominee of that party that he has made, and his friends are louder than ever in their claims to victory at the November election. Mr. Keys is a fine campaigner, and he never gives the fight up until the last gun is fired. Whether he is any stronger now than two years ago we are not prepared to say, but it is said that he will poll quite a number of republican votes when the election rolls around.

In the death of Judge Bennett the first district lost another of its ablest and strongest lawyers.
His master mind never shown with so much ability as when it was tested in the solution of hard and knotty problems of difficult law questions, and it will be sometime we fear, before another Caswell Bennett will rise in our midst and add so much to the judicial ermine as did he. The judge was not socially a favorite in society, yet he was dearly loved by all who knew him. He was a big brainy, blunt man, with a strong mind, yet his bluntness was becoming and his eccentricities endearing. We have been personally acquainted with him from our boyhood and though our associations have been limited yet we have found him with a brain and heart that worked and beat in the interest of both the rich and the poor and for the protection of all the rights that belong to common humanity. But he is gone, and it is the duty of the people of this Appellate district to fill his place with a man possessing as many as possible of the admirable traits of mind and heart as was possessed by him. We do not know who the aspirants for the vacancy will be, but we do know it is the duty of our people to look well to the man they select; see that he has a mind broad and comprehensive and that he is in perfect accord with the rights of the people under our new constitution; that he is and has been free from the influences of corporations and the domination of the demagogue.

EATING CROW.

This eating crow that so much has been said about recently in the Hendrick papers. What does it mean and who is it that has been eating so much crow? There has been no crow eaten at this office, and if a man were to bring one here and offer it for sale he would never live to see his loved ones at home again. The editor of the Tribune don't eat crow, and so far has never placed himself in a condition that he would be forced to eat it, but there is one diet that he does delight to enjoy and that is "bread and butter." There are some editors who supported the successful candidate that has been taking a dish of crow, but this editor is content to sit with "the boys in the trenches" and dine like a lord on "bread and butter."

For the benefit of a few town farmers we will state that Capt.
Stone has sold some of his wheat.
The many friends of Mr. Hendrick will regret to learn that his wife is very sick at her home in Smithland.

Tariff reform should never be given up until it is thoroughly tried. It has been talked of so long, and so many people have believed in its efficacy so far as a relief to the people is concerned that they are still unwilling to give it up without a fair trial.

The people of Marshall county have "got it in" for Jim Thompson the late lamented, disappointed and unknown editor of the P. D.; that journal of love and affection that came into existence like a mushroom and existed and flourished like the green bay tree, for a short time, and passed away like a snowdrop in Hades. If he ever comes up in this county and partakes of the hospitality of our people he shall have nothing to eat but "bread and butter." A man that has been in the newspaper business for at least a half century, as he has, and never knew the difference between the "pieeaters" and the "bread and butter brigade" should pay one visit to the denizens of Marshall and there witness the difference in its native simplicity.

Judge Bennett Dead.

At 8:15 A. M. of last Thursday Judge Caswell Bennett died at Hopkinsville, Kentucky, where he had been brought from Cerulean Springs the day before. He died of both paralysis and neuralgia of the heart. He was too well-known to the readers of the Tribune for us to say more than his death is universally regretted by our people, for they have lived near him for almost a lifetime and have only known him but to admire him for his great abilities and his many excellent qualities of mind and heart. Below we give a sketch of his life.

SKETCH OF HIS LIFE.

Caswell Bennett was born August 27, 1836, in Halifax county, Va. His father, Ambrose L. Bennett, was a lawyer, and for many years a farmer in that county.
He was of Scotch-Irish origin. Judge Bennett was liberally educated in the neighborhood schools and at Millwood College, in Tennessee, under James B.
Rains, who became a general in the confederate army and was killed in the battle of Murfreesboro. He commenced the study of law at Lebanon, Tenn., subsequently read with Judge Joseph R. Underwood, of Bowling Green, this state, and finished his legal preparation with Hon. F. H. Bristow. In 1857 he was admitted to practice. His first office was at Smithland, in Livingston county, where he has ever since continued to hold his residence. Very soon he became known as one of the best lawyers in that region. In 1867 he was elected circuit judge of the Third judicial district, holding the position six years, whereupon he was re-elected without opposition. In 1870 he was a candidate for a seat on the appellate bench, but was defeated by Judge Lindsay. Eight years later he was again a candidate and was elected. He continued to serve and at the time of his death was presiding Chief Justice of the state's highest tribunal. Recently he secured the nomination to again succeed himself.
He was married in 1868 to Miss M. T.
Cruse, of Smithland. She died a number of years ago and Judge Bennett was again married in 1880 to Miss Mollie Crumbaugh, of Lyon county, who survives him. Two children, a son and daughter, were born of the first marriage, and one, a daughter, of the last, and all are living.

The Vote Counted.

The democratic committee of the First congressional district met last Monday in Paducah according to previous appointment for the purpose of counting the vote and declaring the nominee for congress in the district. Gus Coulter, W. P. Gatlin and Dr.
Moore were appointed a committee to count the vote and make a report. After carefully counting the vote of the various counties in the district, the committee reported the following vote as the result of the primary election:

Counties.	Hendrick	Stone.
Ballard	338	258
Caldwell	504	568
Calloway	1116	465
Carlisle	406	537
Crittenden	413	318
Fulton	407	318
Graves	945	1322
Hickman	491	148
Livingston	848	200
Lyon	191	576
Marshall	437	466
McCracken	872	776
Trigg	529	509
Total	7497	6456

Hendrick's majority 1,041.

The following resolution was then adopted:

Resolved, That John K. Hendrick having received a majority of all the votes cast at the primary election held August 4, '94, to select a democratic candidate for congress in the First congressional district is now declared the nominee of the democratic party for congress from the First congressional district of Kentucky.

The secretary was instructed to furnish the chairman of each county committee with a copy of the foregoing resolution.

The committee then adjourned.

Primary Echoes.

The counties of Calloway, Caldwell and Fulton did the work for Mr. Stone.

Two years ago there were 11,804 votes polled; this year 13,953, an increase of 2,149 votes.

Mr. Hendrick, two years ago, received 4,066 votes; this time his vote was 7,497, an increase of 3,431 votes.

Stone's majority over Hendrick two years ago was 2,610; now Hendrick's majority over Stone is 1,041.

Two years ago Stone received 6,656 votes; this time he received 6,456 votes, a difference of only 200 votes, which shows his friends stuck to him almost to a man.

What is the matter in Carlisle county! In the primary two years ago only 489 were, this time, 943, an increase of 454. Hugh brought 'em out but did not carry it for Hendrick.

The vote in Caldwell county two years ago was 660; this time 1,072 an increase of 412 votes, and it is said over 300 republicans and populists voted in that county this time. Caldwell county cannot find 800 democrats in it.

The Magic Touch

OF

Hood's Sarsaparilla

You smile at the idea. But if you are a sufferer from

Dyspepsia

And indigestion, try a bottle, and before you have taken half a dozen doses, you will involuntarily think, and no doubt exclaim,
"That Just Hits It!"

"That soothing effect is a magic touch!" Hood's Sarsaparilla gently tones and strengthens the stomach and digestive organs, invigorates the liver, creates a natural, healthy desire for food, gives refreshing sleep, and in short, raises the health tone of the entire system. Remember

Mrs. Francis Holmes.

Francis Holmes, the wife of Uncle Reuben Holmes, was born in 1817 in the State of Georgia, came with her father to Kentucky over a half century ago, lived to the ripe old age of 77 and died at the home of her son, Eb Holmes, in Graves county on July 15, 1894.
She was the mother of six children three of whom are now living.
Eb Holmes, her oldest son, who is now 61 years old and is a resident of Graves county, Reuben Holmes who lives near Oak Level and Mrs.
L. J. Gilbert of Florida. She was a true and exemplary member of the Primitive Baptist church with her membership at Harmony church.
She was worthy of the name in all that the word implies, a kind mother and a neighbor whose friendship knew no bounds. She was an industrious, kind and useful woman whose example as a christian lady will shine for many years yet to come as an example worthy to follow. Her husband died many years ago, but the form and face is yet familiar to hundreds of the old citizens of the county as a frequent visitor at county courts. The death of his wife Mrs. Francis Holmes removed from the southwest part of the county the last one of the oldest and best families in it, but when the people live to, be as old as Mrs. Holmes, it is a relief to them for death to take them away.

Mammoth Cave.

Remarkable as it may seem one meets comparatively few people who have ever been through the Cave, although, so to speak, its entrance, compared to other places where almost everybody has been, lies almost at our doors.

A recent writer in Demorest's Magazine wonders at this fact and remarks that of the people visiting the Cave at the same time one was from New Zealand, one from Alabama, one from a small coast town in Scotland, one from Chicago, and one from British Honduras.

What a humiliating commentary, even the tropics and the antipodes represented, and only two people from our own country.

The people in Central and Western Kentucky and Western Tennessee, however, will not be able to say that they have never had an opportunity, as the C. O. & S. W. R. R. will on August 15 run an Excursion to Mammoth Cave at Hard Times Prices.

Excursion tickets including transportation to the Cave and return, trips through the Long and Short Routes and one and one quarter days' board at the Mammoth Cave hotel, will be sold at the low rate of $14.75 from Paducah, Ky.

Questions Answered.

The following Bible questions were asked in the Tribune on March 7, 1894:

1. In choosing an apostle to fill the place of Judas upon whom did the lot fall?

2. Where is money first mentioned in the Bible?

3. Where do we read, "Woe unto him that giveth his neighbor drink?"

4. What is the difference between a day's journey and a Sabbath day's journey?

5. What king was dethroned and became a beast of the field?

6. When and why was the pass-over instituted?

7. Who said, "Man is born unto trouble as the sparks fly upward?"

8. What is meant by the earth being divided in the days of Peleg?

9. Where do we read and who said, "Master, which is the great commandment in the law?"

10. Where do we read, "I said in my haste, all men are liars?"

On April the first we received the following answers from D. H. Collier, of Hamlet, which we believe will prove interesting to all Bible readers who may see the questions and answers as they appear in to-day's Tribune. Here they are:

1. The lot fell on Matthias. Acts 1:26.

2. Genesis 23:9.

3. Habakkuk 2:15.

4. A day's journey, 30 miles; a Sabbath day's journey, six-tenths of a mile or 1056 yards.

5. Nebuchadnezzar. Daniel 4:33.

HIGHEST HONORS GIVEN To Dr. Price's at the World's Fair.

For leavening power, keeping qualities, purity and general excellence the World's Fair jury decided that Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder had no equal. On each of its claims it was awarded a first prize or a diploma. All the baking powders entered for prizes were subjected to a most exhaustive examination, and the jury was the best equipped to make the decision of any ever got together. Their verdict was supported by the testimony of Dr. H. W. Wiley, chief chemist of the United States Department of Agriculture at Washington. Dr. Wiley is an expert on food products and the highest authority on such matters in America. This verdict settles a long debated question as to which among the many baking powders is the best.—Chicago Tribune.

"I know an old soldier who had chronic diarrhoea of long standing to have been permanently cured by taking Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Edward Shumplik, a prominent druggist of Minneapolis, Minn. "I have sold the remedy in this city for over seven years and consider it superior to any other medicine now on the market for bowel complaints." 25 and 50 cent bottles of this remedy for sale by R. The Little Doctor.

The great curative agent, Electropoise, rented two months for $5. Don't miss this opportunity of leasing the most skillful physician in the State; makes no errors, gives no medicine, but does cure disease where all else fails. One thousand of these instruments will be rented for the above nominal price. After this supply has been exhausted, old terms, which were much higher will be resumed. The Electropoise proves its worth by its works. Read the following letters which give testimony of its merits:

Irvine, Ky., Feb. 7, 1894. Dear Sirs:—I was very much pleased with your reply to my letter of January 26. Such candor is not to be found among quacks. It gave me more faith in you and your Electropoise. I will rent it and take the chances of being cured. Yours truly, E. A. McCURE.

In the letter to which Mr. McCure refers, we stated to him that his disease was of such a nature that we could not assure him a cure, even with the Electropoise; but there was a chance, and certainly nothing else would do him good if the Electropoise failed. This second letter, received a few days ago, shows that we were mistaken, and that his case, though pronounced hopeless, was not so when the greatest of all remedies was applied.

Irvine, Ky., June 20, 1894. Dear Sirs:—I am well pleased with the Electropoise. Have thoroughly tested it by four months' use, and found that it has done all and more for me than you said it would. A friend who has been watching its effects on me came this morning and asked me to send for one for her. Yours truly, E. A. McCURE.

No August Guessing Contest. The Weekly Courier-Journal has withdrawn its offer of $1,000 to be given to subscribers who could name the hottest day in August, and guess closest to the highest temperature on that day. This action was taken because of the serious interruption of mails, caused by the great railroad strike.

A simple and liberal guessing contest on the November Congressional Elections is now being prepared, and will be announced by the Weekly Courier-Journal shortly.
