Solid South's 228 Delegates May Oppose Al Smith

Mrs. M. C. Nall, New President of Women's Club

A well attended meeting of the Women's Club was held Friday afternoon at the Chamber of Commerce, rooms on Main street, Mrs. J. E. England, president, in the chair. Mrs. M. C. Nall, new president of the club, was also introduced. She is from New York and has been a resident in Fulton for two years. Mrs. Nall was elected a member of the board of directors and the club will work during the next two months in order to have the club ready for the spring convention. The club work during this time has been almost impossible, in fact it is practically impossible.

The "solid South" consists of the states in the south, beginning with Virginia, then going south to Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, and Louisiana. The "solid South" is limited to the states which have never voted Republican since Reconstruction days. It does include Maryland and West Virginia which have been divided from the South on account of their Republicanism, such as Kentucky, Tennessee, New Jersey, and Pennsylvania. The "solid South" includes states which have a large black population and the white people of which have never voted Republican since Reconstruction days. HOME MIXED RATIONS FOR
HATCH CHICKS
By Hunter Whittemore.

Most experimental stations recommend some milk or the very first feed to be given at the age of 3 days. Feed nothing before that.

For the first eight or ten days, a mixture of bran, oats and milk is best. Start with an equal amount of bran and milk; feed only a little four times each day. After ten days and for the next two months, milk should be increased to two parts milkings, two parts cereal. Keep the milk lather in a hopper, at all times. If milk is not before them at all times, and should always be kept near during the games. After two months feed a mixture of three parts bran, two parts milkings.

The Smoothness and Snap
That All America is Demanding

Here's no longer any doubt about the American demand for the new "American Six" type of automobile. Not only are orders for the Auburn, Nash and American continuing to mount daily, but the Oakland and Pontiac Six are being pressed into service ahead of their scheduled introduction this month.

As for the Oakland, it already appears as the equal, if not the superior, of the Six. At least, according to the company's president, Mr. E. B. Hopkins, the corporation is anticipating an order for the new model, which is scheduled for release in May. The company has already surpassed its total for the year in March, with a reported 10,000 cars produced during the month. This is now the company's second highest March production ever, after the record production of 1927.

The Pontiac, on the other hand, is expected to face a much tougher market this year, as the company is anticipating a decline in demand. Nevertheless, the company has remained optimistic about its prospects, and is preparing to introduce a new model, the Pontiac Six, in May. The company is also considering the possibility of introducing a new model, the Pontiac Eight, in the near future.

Farm Notes

By R. A. McPherson, County Agent

The type of certified Triumph potato came in last week and Most of them have been discarded, but if you haven't put them away yet, you can put them at any convenient time and they will be ready for planting this fall. They are taking around half of the crop of potatoes. The mechanics and farmers are to be congratulated on getting the first out of the field. They have been put in with the help of the state. Position to be used in the planting should have red beds and a soil for improving the yield of the crop. All potatoes should be stored in wood boxes and kept dry until planted.

Farm Notes

By R. A. McPherson, County Agent

The type of certified Triumph potato came in last week and Most of them have been discarded, but if you haven't put them away yet, you can put them at any convenient time and they will be ready for planting this fall. They are taking around half of the crop of potatoes. The mechanics and farmers are to be congratulated on getting the first out of the field. They have been put in with the help of the state. Position to be used in the planting should have red beds and a soil for improving the yield of the crop. All potatoes should be stored in wood boxes and kept dry until planted.

INSTRUCTIVE FARM NOTES

In this issue of the Advertiser, we will find interesting and instructive "Farm Notes." By R. H. McPherson, county agent.

In this issue, Mr. McPherson directs our attention to the importance of using certified seed. Potato growers interested in making the greatest return from their crops should follow the advice given in the following notes.

One of the most common causes of reduced potato yields is the use of non-certified seed. This practice is often the result of farmers failing to purchase certified seed because of the cost or the belief that it is unnecessary.

BETTER THINGS SURELY EXIST

One place where better things surely exist is in the use of certified seed. Certified seed is grown under strict standards to ensure high quality and disease resistance.

The following notes will provide guidance on how to choose and use certified seed effectively.

POULTRY DEVELOPMENT

The future success of poultry production in your area depends on the quality of your starting stock. Certified stock is essential for a successful flock.

In this issue of "Farm Notes," Mr. McPherson emphasizes the importance of using certified stock for poultry production. He advises growers to purchase stock from reputable sources.

In closing, Mr. McPherson reminds us that the use of certified stock will greatly reduce production costs and provide for better profits.

(Following are the notes as they appear in the original document.)

TEACHING YOU

Practise makes perfect. Schoolmasters of today do as well as yesterday constantly report that truth. Pupils learn by applying it.

Application of that principle to our everyday habits proves a practical help. We learn by practicing whether it be a good habit or a bad habit. This book teaches you to practice by leading you to practice it. The lessons are easily learned once it is begun. To become perfect in it requires constant practice. A savings account is the most consistent method of practicing itself.
