Flames Destroy Two Residences Here in One Day

Fire destroyed two residences in Benton last Saturday. The Marvin Watkins residence at 8th and Poplar burned about noon, and at about 10 p. m. the residence of G. Clark in Westville burned.

Flames at the Watkins residence had a big start before the big fire truck arrived. The big truck went on a call to 8th and Olive while the small truck went to the Watkins residence.

The alarm at 8th and Olive proved false and by the time the big truck arrived at 8th and Poplar flames were leaping from all parts of the Watkins residence.

Firemen finally extinguished the blaze after fighting it for more than an hour. They saved the adjoining home of Mrs. Olive Sheppard.

A Mr. and Mrs. Cox were residing in the Watkins house, a four-room frame. The fire started from an overheated coal stove. Mrs. Cox was visiting in the neighborhood when the fire started.

Marvin Watkins, who had a room in the house, now is residing on Route 7 with his son, Sanders Watkins. Marvin Watkins reported there was a little insurance on the house and furniture.

Cause of the fire at the Clark house in Westville was not announced. Mr. Clark married a daughter of Mrs. Addie West.

The three room frame house and contents were destroyed. Donations were being taken this week to help the homeless family.

El Ford Baptised But He Didn't Intend It That Way

El Ford, who is a Methodist and, of course, believes in sprinkling, has been baptised in the Baptist church.

But El still isn't a Baptist.

It seems El was cleaning the baptismal font at the First Missionary Baptist Church late last Saturday — and fell in.

Albert Edgar (Bert) Barnes, prominent Benton merchant back during World War 1, died Jan. 22 in Murray Hospital. He was 74 years old.

Mr. Barnes had been in poor health for about 15 years and had been confined to his home for the last five years. He had been a widower for many years and lived alone at his home here.

Funeral services were held last Saturday afternoon at Filbeck-Cann Chapel, with Rev. E. D. Davis, pastor of First Baptist Church, officiating. Mr. Barnes was an active worker in the church for many years.

Burial was held in the old Stron Cemetery here. Pallbearers were Jess Egner, Louie Maupin, Hayden Draffen, Chester Powell, Edwin Jones and Woodrow Holland.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. W. H. McLeod of Harlingen, Texas, and Mrs. H. S. Chittenden of Burlington, Iowa; 5 sons, John of Worcester, Mass., Prentice of Detroit, Mich., Charles of Baldwin Park, Calif., Paul of Nashville, Tenn., and Jack Barnes of Harlingen, and six grandchildren.

Mr. Barnes was many years operator of the old McElrath's Dry Goods Store on the west side of the Court Square. The site now is occupied by Morgan's.

Mr. Barnes' wife, who preceded him in death, was a member of the McElrath family of Murray.

All of the children were here for the funeral.

Groups of four or five will attend each day from here.

Crash Victims

MR. AND MRS. TULLUS BLACK

Leader's Funeral Held At 1st Baptist Church

Tullus Black, one of Benton's most prominent citizens, was killed and his wife, Oda, was critically injured in an automobile accident last Sunday on Highway 37 three miles south of Marion, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Black were enroute to Marion to visit Sylvia Collins, daughter of Mr. Black's half sister, Mrs. Jane Hudgens. Sylvia was living with her foster grandparents. The Blacks had hoped to bring Sylvia back home with them.

Witnesses said the fatal crash happened on a sweeping curve when a rear wheel of the Black car left the pavement at a place where there was a considerable drop from the blacktop to the ground, and that the car skidded sideways into the path of another auto.

Both occupants of the other car — Bill Monroe, 26 and his mother, both of Marion — were hospitalized and treated for shock.

Mrs. Black suffered a fractured skull and other injuries and remains unconscious and in a critical condition at a Herrin, Ill., hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Trevathan and Rev. E. D. Davis went to Herrin Monday. They stopped at Paducah and employed Mrs. Anita (McNabb) Tianhansky to nurse Mrs. Black. No full-time nurse was available in Herrin.

Mrs. Della Eley and William Eley also went to Herrin to see Mrs. Black.

Mr. Black, known to many oldtimers as "Sug", had been prominent in Benton business and civic life for many years. He was a pioneer oil man in Marshall County, serving as agent for Standard Oil Company for more than a quarter of a century. He retired from his oil business about two years ago.

Previous to that he was associated with his father, the late E. F. Black, in the operation of a tobacco factory here for many years.

Mr. Black had been active in affairs of the Bank of Marshall County for many years and was a veteran director at the time of his death.

In his youth, Mr. Black was an outstanding amateur baseball player. Later he served as amateur coach for high school baseball and football teams and was in demand as an umpire all over West Kentucky.

Mr. Black long had been an active member of First Baptist Church and had served the church as deacon.

Funeral services were held at 2 o'clock this afternoon (Thursday) at First Baptist Church. The pastor, Rev. Mr. Davis, officiated.

Deacons of the church served as pallbearers. They were J. R. Brandon, L. H. Draffen, Chester Powell, Edwin Jones, Dan Myers and Theo Copeland.

Honorary pallbearers were directors and employees of the Bank of Marshall County.

After the funeral, the body was returned to Collier & Peak Funeral Home. Burial plans have not been made, awaiting the outcome of Mrs. Black's condition.

The First Methodist Church in Athens, Ala., was the scene on Sunday afternoon, Jan. 10, for the ceremony uniting in marriage Miss Mary Etna Cobb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William W. Cobb of Benton, and Mr. David Lindsey Wiley, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Wiley, Decatur, Ala.

The background for the altar scene was fashioned of Southern smilax. Fan shaped arrangements of gladioli, chrysanthemums and huckleberry were lighted by white tapers burning in wrought iron cathedral standards.

A program of nuptial music was presented by Jimmy Blackburn, organist, and Mrs. James Woodroof, soloist. The traditional marches, "The Wedding March" from "Lohengrin" by Wagner and Mendelssohn's recessional, were used.

Rev. Glenn A. Williams, Trenton, Tenn., performed the double ring ceremony.

The candles were lighted by Dr. T. M. Wiley, Jr., Fayette, brother of the groom.

Miss Cobb wore a bridal suit of champagne featuring portrait neckline. Her only ornament was a string of pearls, gift of the groom. She wore an orange blossom halo in her hair and carried a prayer book topped with a white orchid with showers of nylon maline and stephanotis. The bride's ensemble was completed with matching accessories.

Miss Nancye Cobb, Benton, served as her sister's only attendant. She was attired in a Copenhagen dressmaker suit with navy accessories. She carried a nosegay of yellow roses with showers of matching ribbons and maline.

O. W. Nunnally of Route 5 was here on business Saturday and renewed his subscription to the Courier.

Frank Wiley was best man for his brother. Ushers were Bill Freeman and Buddy Rogers.

The couple left immediately after the ceremony for a wedding trip to New Orleans. The couple are residing in Athens.

Mrs. T. M. Wiley was hostess for the after rehearsal party. The home was beautifully decorated throughout with bouquets of traditional bridal flowers. The mantel in the living room was centered with a fan shaped arrangement of white stock and huckleberry.

The bride's table was covered with handmade lace cloth over green taffeta. The double wedding ring cake centered with white snapdragons with maline puffs centered the table lighted by white tapers in five branched candelabra.

Mrs. Walter Sundstorm and Mrs. E. M. Rogers assisted the hostess with the entertainment throughout the evening.

Bathtime Is Fun for Baby and Dad

The modern father's role in bringing up his children is more than that of a good provider and disciplinarian. Thanks to a trend toward closer companionship between fathers and their children, he's also frequently a partner in bottle and baby washing.

Child care classes for expectant fathers have stimulated their interest in caring for their children. Armed with the self-confidence of experience in class, they find it's fun to bathe the new baby and handle it during playtime.

In his book, "Being a Good Parent," J. L. Hymes, Jr., professor of education at Columbia University, declares that fathers want to capitalize on bathtime, that they enjoy discovering the baby's daily development and new tricks. He points out that bathtime gives dads a chance to talk to their children, and to enjoy them and cuddle them, thus establishing a good father-child relationship early.

In training offspring, the modern father can capitalize on the young child's desire to be "just like Dad" by example rather than preaching. He can effectively teach that washing with plenty of soap and water is essential, especially before eating. With experience, fathers become nonchalant when toddlers and runabouts smear themselves and everything else while eating. Instead of being disgruntled, they prepare for the inevitable mess by having a basin of warm water and soap at hand.

A highlight of Pop's day is baby's bathtime. Suds may fly high, wide, and handsome, but everyone has a wonderful time.

No doubt about it: the newest method of child training is heartily endorsed by dads.

TWO TURBINES are quicker than One

WE raised our eyebrows the first time the engineers told us about it.

A new Dynaflo Drive? Better than the one that over a million and a third people are so happy with?

That's right, the engineers assured us. A new Dynaflo that's just as smooth, just as simple to operate—but far faster and quieter on getaway, and a great deal more efficient.

This, we told ourselves, we have to see. And we did.

We tried the new Golden Anniversary Buick with Twin-Turbine Dynaflo Drive*—and mister, it's spectacular!

As before, no gears ever shift in this wonder drive.

As before, you have infinite smoothness through every speed range—feel wonderfully fresh and relaxed even after a long day's drive.

But on getaways you can soar to cruising speed in less than a half dozen seconds—and with lullaby quiet.

At every speed range you have more efficient power transfer. Acceleration is increased 20%, but with fewer engine revolutions—which means you get going quicker, with less engine speed, less getaway sound.

What works these wonders is a new kind of engineering which places two turbines instead of one in the Dynaflo transmission. At the same time, fewer parts—four elements instead of five—simplify the unit even more.

But there's more than just this sensational Twin-Turbine Dynaflo to be had in the 1933 Buicks.

There's new power—including the world's most advanced V8 Engine in Supers and Roadmasters. There's a still finer Million Dollar Ride. There's superb new comfort and handling ease, and a host of other advances—87 in all.

Why not come in this week and try one of the greatest Buicks in fifty great years?
