COLORED.

Crop is a terror to young mothers, especially during the winter months as it is then most prevalent. It can always be prevented, if properly treated as soon as the first symptoms appear. Hoarseness is the first symptom in the early stage of the disease. The Clarksville Chronicle says: An enterprising party from Hopkinsville is erecting a building at the depot in this city, in which he will serve coffee and lunch. This is a move in the right direction and we believe will pay. Trains arrive and depart at lunch time, and the stand should be well patronized.

Death of Mrs. Ada Lillard.

Nashville American:

Mrs. Ada Lillard, wife of Dr. John W. Lillard, of Hopkinsville, Ky., died while on a visit to her father-in-law, Albert Lillard, 709 South Cherry street, yesterday morning at the age of twenty-six. Mrs. Lillard was born and raised in Memphis. She married four years ago, and from that happy union one child, a boy, was born. Mrs. Lillard was an earnest Christian, and possessed many amiable qualities. She had a sweet disposition, and was very kind to relatives and many friends to whom she was devoted.

Important to Subscribers.

Subscribers to the TRI-WEEKLY NEW ERA will be allowed to change to either the daily or weekly and credit will be given for the amount paid. The daily will give you all the news of the country, both local and general, and is the cheapest paper you can get, being only 6¢ per year. The weekly has been greatly improved by the addition to its news of the more important happenings received by telegraph, and is the best family paper in this section by long odds.

Flesh Pies! Killing Pies!

Symptoms—Moisture; intense itching and stinging in the night; worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. Swiney's Catarrh Remedy is the best remedy for itching, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists or by mail for 50 cents. Dr. Swiney & Son, Philadelphia.

DEATHS.

Cornelia, the thirteen-year-old daughter of Mr. J. C. Caldwell, who lives near this city on the Cadiz road, died Sunday at 10 a. m. The funeral was held Monday at the residence at 1 o'clock, and she was interred at the family burying ground at the Jas. C. Moore place.

Mrs. A. S. Hays died after a protracted illness, Saturday evening, at her place of residence on Ninth street. The remains were sent to Nashville, her former home.

Mrs. W. L. Johnson, who lived on Jessup avenue, died Monday night at 12 o'clock. Her remains were interred at the family burying ground in the Sinking Spring country to-day.

Being More Pleasant.

To the taste, more acceptable to the stomach, and more truly beneficial in its action, the famous California liquid remedy, Syrup of Figs, is rapidly superseding all others. Try it. One bottle will prove its merit. For sale in 50 cent and $1 bottles.

The Ball Started.

A meeting of the Tobacco Board of Trade was held Wednesday to discuss the feasibility of building an exchange in this city. Several good speeches were made and all present were unanimously of the opinion that immediate action should be taken. A committee of three was appointed to examine into the matter, select a suitable site for the building, determine the probable cost, etc., and report at an early meeting. The commercial club was thanked for its offer of assistance. The meeting was an enthusiastic one and it looks very much now like we will have a place at an early day which we will not be ashamed to point out to strangers as our exchange.

$500 Reward for an incurable case of chronic Catarrh in the Head offered by the manufacturers of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. Sold by druggists, etc.

Pencil Goggles.

Pete Baker is the next attraction at the opera house.

Col. Jo Ford, of Nashville, was in the city on business Saturday.

Mrs. W. L. Johnson, who lives on Jessup avenue, is very ill at present.

Mr. A. L. Wilson has taken a position as traveling salesman for R. M. Wall & Co., Cincinnati cigar house.

Parties who carelessly throw banana peels upon the pavement are probably not aware that a penalty is fixed by the council for such an offense.

Mr. M. D. Mendel has adjusted his business matters with his creditors in a manner entirely satisfactory and will hereafter be free to do business at the city Monday.

Capt. Mac J. Davis has purchased a half interest in the live feed and sale stable of Ross Rogers on Ninth street. The style of the firm hereafter will be Rogers & Davis.

A colored gentleman named Frazier was fined $5 and cost before the city court this morning for disturbing the peace at a Christmas tree in Hubardsville on the 25th of last month.

Mr. A. W. Pyle has accepted a position with the Evansville furniture company and will represent this well-known establishment on the road. Mr. Pyle's family will remain in Hopkinsville.

Dr. Clarence Anderson, of Princeton, formerly of this city, and Miss Peachant Wall, of Wallonia, Trigg county, will be united in marriage at the residence of the bride's father, on the 1st inst.

Business for the March term of the Circuit Court is accumulating rapidly. Many important suits have been filed with the clerk and our new sheriff, and his efficient deputies have their hands full.

The stock of Wilson Bros., a firm doing business at Gracey station, about twelve miles west of this city, on the I. A. & T. R. R., has been attached by the sheriff to satisfy a large number of claims in favor of Louisville merchants.

Messrs. Houston Harrison and Terry Hill have formed a collecting agency and fitted up a comfortable office over Howe's jewelry store. They are entreprising young men and business entrusted to them will receive careful attention.

This evening Prof. T. W. Haves, of Louisville, will deliver a lecture at the Baptist church. A private letter to the editor from John O. Rast, says that he is a teacher of elocution in the seminary which he attends and is a very fine speaker.

The Grand Lodge of K. of P., of the United States has issued a request to all subordinate lodges to properly celebrate the twenty-fifth anniversary of the founding of the order, which occurs on February 19th. The lodge here will give an entertainment of some kind.

Clarksville Tobacco Leaf: T. H. Elliott and wife and daughter, Miss Pauline, of Clarksville, county, have moved to the city and occupy rooms at L. B. Askew's, on Franklin street. The substantial business and social circles of the city will profit by the residence of this family in our midst.

The Clarksville Chronicle says: An enterprising party from Hopkinsville is erecting a building at the depot in this city, in which he will serve coffee and lunch. This is a move in the right direction and we believe will pay. Trains arrive and depart at lunch time, and the stand should be well patronized.

Mr. Thomas R. Perry, manager of the favorite comedian Pete Baker, was in the city Saturday, perfecting arrangements for the appearance of his star in this city on the 21st inst. The probabilities are that the largest audience of the season will greet him in his beautiful musical comedy, "The Emigrant."

Mr. W. B. Weeks has resigned his position with Ragon Bros., and in company with his brother will embark in the boot and shoe business at Nashville. Mr. Weeks has many friends in Hopkinsville who wish him success and who regret to lose him. He is succeeded by Mr. H. C. Moore, who will make headquarters at this place.

An amusing incident occurred at the depot Friday evening, which occasioned considerable mirth to those who witnessed it. An old negro man, who is well-known around the depot, had climbed upon a flat to pick up small luggage which had been left where the car was unloaded. While the old fellow was at his work, the car which was one of a long train started, and before he could jump off, was going at a rate which made it dangerous to attempt. When last seen he was quietly standing on the car as it rushed on to Crofton.

As soon as is possible the city of Hopkinsville should make a new contract with the gas company or contractors to comply with the requirements of the existing contract. The flagrant violations of the stipulations of this contract on the part of the company is a subject of general comment. The gas furnished is of the most inferior quality; the street lamps are generally extinguished by 9:30 o'clock and it is very rarely that all the lamps are lighted at night. The merchants complain that the gas furnished them has not the power of an ordinary lamp and yet they are forced to pay an exorbitant price for it.

A petition is being circulated praying the council to remove the trading ground from Seventh to Main street, said a prominent citizen to the NEW ERA man yesterday. "This time-honored institution is proving a nuisance to many families living in the immediate vicinity where the 'society' of horse traders are wont to meet. These people are generally orderly, and there is no disposition on the part of the citizens of Hopkinsville to break up their organization, or to interfere with their monthly salary. These should be, if possible some place selected where the speed and motion of their animals will not interfere with private rights, and at the same time do no injury to this society, who meet regularly the first Monday in each month."

The examining trial of Newton Helm charged with killing Benjamin Starnett at Garrettsburg Station, was held before Judge Brasher Wednesday. A large number of witnesses were introduced for the defense and the fact that the defendant acted purely in self-defense and in defense of his home and family was clearly established. Helm proved a good character and showed very clearly that he is a quiet and orderly citizen and that he is respected in his community by the best men of both races. The character of his victim on the other hand, was shown by responsible witnesses to have been that of a daring ruffian and a bully without principle and without fear. It was shown that he had been a nuisance to the neighborhood and a menace to his own people.

After hearing all of the evidence the court very properly released the defendant who went on his way rejoicing.

Did You Draw One?

The following numbers drew the large prizes in the Louisiana state lottery Tuesday: 5,882 drew the first prize; 40,780 the second, and 94,127 the third.

Down at Last.

Well you need not be afraid to stand in the vicinity of the court house now. The flag poll is no more; it stands in its length upon the street this morning and has by this time been split into a thousand splinters for kindling.

Ready for Business.

Mr. Thos. L. Metcalfe has succeeded in securing the services of Mr. J. J. Teeling, of Chicago, Ill., to superintend the building of the hotel. Feeling comes well recommended, and has had several years experience, having worked in some of the best landings in the United States. The turning out as good work as any lander in the country, and the enterprise should be encouraged.

The Felands.

Elsewhere appears the law card of the Felands, the attorneys so well and favorably known to Christian county and Kentucky. They practice in all the courts of the United States and court and pay prompt attention to business placed in their hands. They have resigned the attorneys for the L. & N. road, John Feland, Sr., has been known to the law practice of this state for many years, and stands high in the estimation of the people. His sons, John and William, are young lawyers of bright prospects and to the fame already won at the bar will add more. It is one of the strongest firms in the state.

A Hard, Cold Fact.

The two tobacco salesmen are now engaged in a controversy growing out of the assertion on the part of the Chronicle that Clarksville was at a standstill and that many of its leading citizens contemplated leaving that place. The Progress thinks that such facts should not be given to the world and that the press should do everything in its power to conceal them. The Chronicle, in reply, says: "It is sometimes necessary to deal with hard, cold facts, and when we made the above statement it was with the hope that some of our readers would see the point, and keep these citizens within our borders, by getting some manufacturers here, and furnishing employment for more men."

Immigration to the South Attracting Attention.
 President-Elect Harrison's Civil Service Ideas, and the way he Proposes to Carry Them Out.

Kentucky Journalists Rapidly Going to the Top—German to be Abolished in the Public Schools.
 Special Correspondence of the New York Times, Jan. 11.—The question of immigration to the south is attracting a great deal of attention, and the most interesting public meeting the Commercial club of this city has yet held was that of last Monday night when it was discussed. Some very interesting statements were made, one at least which seems almost incredible. The total foreign immigration to the United States last year was about 400,000 while the total for the ninety-eight years since 1790 was estimated at 15,000,000. The emigration from Kentucky during the twenty years ending with 1880 was about 40,000, as shown by the census returns of native Kentuckians residing in other states. If the same rate of immigration from Europe to this country had been maintained during the ninety-eight years, it was estimated that there would have been 200,000 Europeans instead of fifteen millions added to the population of the United States. These are extraordinary figures and, as I said last week, nothing but the remarkable fecundity of Kentucky people has saved the state from a decrease of population, because the immigration to the state has never equalled the emigration from it except, perhaps, during the past five years. There has been a steady increase in the population, in spite of the drain and to-day Kentucky has four more people than it had in 1880. The Commercial club has taken steps to arouse the people of the progressive counties to the great importance of taking steps to secure immigration to the state, and has formed a committee for the purpose.
