Dress Up With The Gladsome Springtime

The spirit of spring is abroad in the land. Every peeping bud on every leafing bough tells us spring is here and nature has awakened from her winter slumber. 'Tis the time when youth calls to youth—the bird seeks its mate and all creation preens itself for the season of sunshine and summer.

What could be more fitting than for men, women and children to give heed to their personal appearance—to discard the worn and ragged garments of bleak, cold days and step forth adorned in raiment harmonious with the gladsome Springtime?

All up and down the nation, cities and municipalities are uniting to emphasize the coming of these days. Societies, clubs, churches, organizations of all kinds, are joining hands with individuals, stores and merchants in a whole-hearted effort to bring home to men and women the stimulus of a new thought—that we should, for one brief moment, lift our careworn faces from our tasks, and like the carefree birds of the air, rejoice that SPRING has come—and, dressed up in our "best bib and tucker," reflect in our outward appearance, the joy of our inner life.

When nature sings, all the world is atune—why not us? Let's banish dull care—forget the biting winds of winter—discard all that reminds us of the shadows of the long nights—off with the old and on with the new—DRESS UP.

There's not a woman among us so fair but whose beauty may be enhanced when she steps forth in her new apparel—carrying in her heart and eyes the smiling spirit of Spring. There's not a man among us so modest but who will pause for self-appraisal when he sees reflected in his mirror his glad, new togs and feels in his soul the stirring spirit of Spring. And as for us plain folks—more's the need for us to garb ourselves in the happy raiment of the season.

Let's not be selfish, but in true harmony with the spirit of the day let's touch with the fairy hand of grace every chic and child of our household and the household itself. Yes, even more, let's "Dress Up," the home, the yard, the garden, that all the environs of our life may reflect the joy that is within us—that is within all nature.

SAFETY FIRST

The woods are full of get-rich-immediately guys who are headed for a fall to the hard surfaced streets of reality. Lucky is the man who walketh not the way of the cold check artist nor sitteth in the seat of the deadbeat, but whose delight is in the confidence of his banker and in his check book doth he meditate before scattering the ink on the bottom line. There is more joy in a clear title to a few acres of "cockle burr" ridges, and an old flea-bitten "Beck" than in the broad acres covered by the blighting shade of a spreading mortgage. The pursuit of the elusive medium of free commerce and the stacking of "E Pluribus Unum" chips is not to be condemned, and we would not impede the progress of those who are out to legitimately annex all of life's treasures that heart may desire, but it is a wise driver who reads all the "Stop, Look and Listen" signs and slows up at the crossin's. We are leaving the wreck of the gold brick era and many are veterans of the Silk Shirt Brigade. Some of these days we ought to get in the neighborhood of "normalcy."

Fulton Hospitality Appreciated by Visitors.

Delegates who attended the Older Boys' Conference of West Kentucky which ended a three days' session here Sunday evening were loud in their praises of Fulton's hospitality. It was a delightful occasion and nothing was left undone to entertain the visitors.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President, Waymon Parsons, Paducah; vice-president, Robert Binford, Fulton; sec'y, "Chink" Nall, Clinton.

Committees—On Nominations: Kenneth Milligan, Paducah; James Warren, Fulton; Robert Perry, Clinton. On Resolutions: Robert Binford, Fulton; Melvin Hunt, Paducah; George Crawford, Smithland.

"THE DEMI-BRIDE" NORMA SHEARER'S BEST PRODUCTION

One of the best pictures Norma Shearer has given us for some time.

"The Demi-Bride," a Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture, playing at the Grand Theatre, in which Norma is again starred with Lew Cody, proves to be one of the real comedies of the season.

Miss Shearer and Cody, as a team, have been seen to advantage on the screen before, in "His Secretary," and "A Slave of Fashion," but they have never before had a real opportunity to show their talent for comedy as they have in this production.

The story, which is from the pens of F. Hugh Herbert, well-known British novelist, and Florence Ryerson, is an original and was written especially for Miss Shearer and Cody. The authors have seen to it that both artists are offered ample opportunity to display their talent at whimsical farce comedy and both Miss Shearer and Cody have not let a chance slip.

HAPPY SHOPPERS FILL KASNOW'S STORE

Kasnow's Red Hot Specials offered during this month are attracting economical buyers to his store, 448 Lake street. The colorful spring hats, the lovely dresses, the stylish footwear, all have price tags on them showing money saving values worth while.

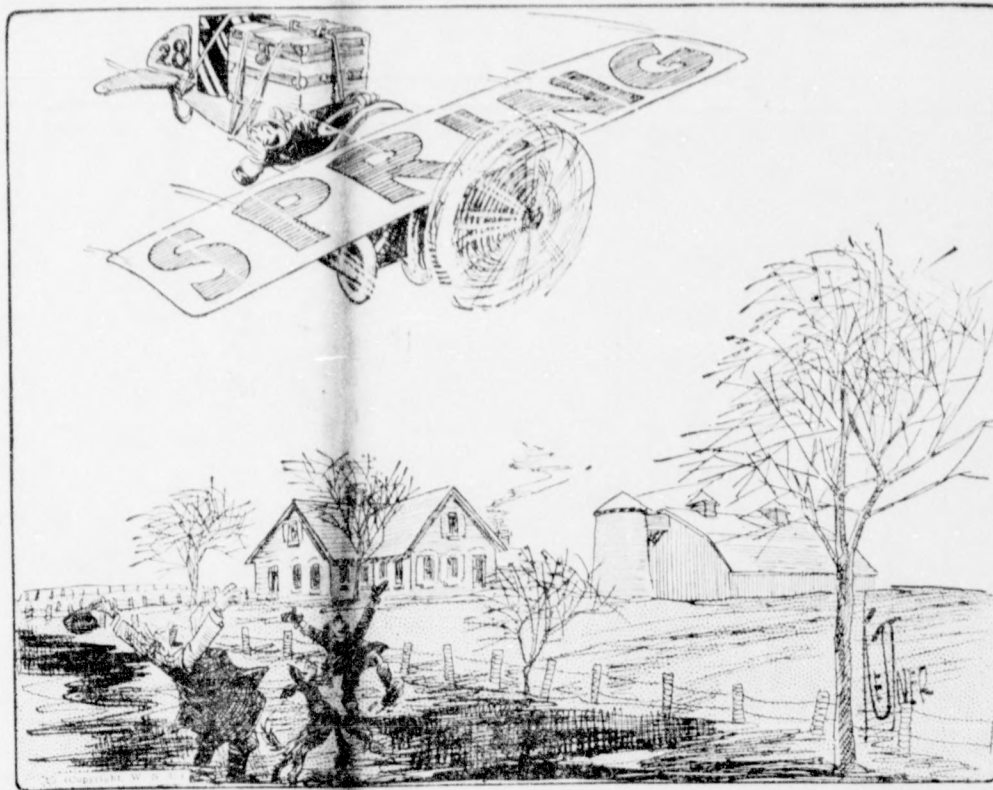

Kasnow is a firm believer in advertising. When he has a good thing to offer his patrons he tells 'em about it. No wonder his store is filled with happy shoppers day after day.

DESERVE A VOTE OF THANKS

Committees who circulated street improvement petitions during the past week were loyal to the task and deserve the thanks of the entire citizenship. Many streets were signed up and will be presented at the next meeting of the City Council, April 2.

Third street in West Fulton was signed up and accepted by the council last fall, also Maple Avenue in East Fulton. Probably a dozen streets will be included in the street improvement program at the next council meeting.

Revival Meeting Now In Progress

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Cor. Second & Eddings Sts.
C. H. Warren, Pastor

"Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel."

Sunday, 9:30 a. m.—Sunday school, Geo. Roberts, General Superintendent.

10:50 a. m.—Sermon and worship.

6:30 p. m.—All B. Y. P. U.'s, 7:45 p. m.—Sermon and worship.

Dr. Finley F. Gibson, pastor of the Walnut Street Baptist church, Louisville, Ky., and wife, arrived in the city last Monday evening, and will assist in the series of meetings in progress for approximately ten days. Dr. Gibson is doing the preaching, and bringing many inspirational and spiritual messages to the big congregations. Services are held daily at 10:00 o'clock in the morning and 7:30 in the evening. The song service, led by a chorus choir directed by Miss Goldsby, is one of the outstanding features of the service. The inspiration and spirituality of the song service is far reaching. If you are missing these services you are the loser. You are cordially invited, and may we urge that you come and work and worship with us.

The series of services will continue next week, consequently the regular routine of services will give way to these services.

Circle No. 5 held its regular meeting in the parlor of the church last Monday afternoon, with the Chairman, Mrs. Curtis Ledford, presiding. Mrs. Ledford was also hostess for this particular meeting. A good attendance is reported and this Missionary Circle is doing a splendid work throughout the city.

Prayer services are being conducted on the ground floor of the church, every evening at 7:15 during the series of meetings. It is hoped you can arrange to attend the prayer service.

BEELETON HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

The usual eighth grade graduation exercise will be given in this auditorium on Friday night of this week, March 23. The program will be very formal, composed of two numbers, by Miss Mayo Craig, a very talented violinist of Murray State Teachers' College. The main speaker will be Representative J. D. Via of Clinton, followed by the presentation of the diplomas and medals (which were won by the best students) by Mr. E. J. Bennett.

On the following Saturday night a play entitled, "A Prairie Rose," will be given by the faculty. This play deals with life in the west, partly from reality and partly as seen by the men from the east. Uncle Silas with the help of the very willing Lizzy Jane, furnishes the most fun you've seen or heard in a long time. It is interesting to follow the Englishman as he makes love to the beautiful Rose and is misunderstood by Lizzy Jane. You don't want to miss the fun. Admission 15 and 25 cents.

The High school girls are planning to plant some flowers on the campus and probably fix some window boxes which will make the campus much more attractive and things more pleasant for us.

The boys have been improving the looks of the campus by leveling it; this also adds more convenience during our recreation period.

Look forward to the presentation of an operetta entitled "A Bit of Blarney," which will be given by Mrs. Bennett's music class. Programs sponsored by Mrs. Bennett are always good and we understand this is the best yet.

Notice to Chicken Owners.

There is an Ordinance prohibiting chickens from running at large in the city limits, and this is a fair notice to chicken owners to keep their fowls up or pay a fine. Bailey Huddleston, Chief of Police.

I Reckon So

By T. H. Alexander

The most interesting family in the south is the tribe of Pignes. Perhaps there is not a newspaper man or a printer in the entire south who does not know at least one of the Pignes.

They are the eight sons of the Rev. R. H. Pigue, a Methodist minister at Hazel, Ky. Six of the eight are newspaper people. It is almost possible for a metropolitan daily to be issued by the family. There is an advertising man, an auto editor, a reporter, a sports editor, an advertising agency man and a linotype operator.

There must have been a terrific disturbance in the southern towns in which the Pigue family has lived when the Pigue boys got mad and decided to fight it out amongst themselves. They lived in many towns, too, for Methodist ministers are moved frequently. Whenever Rev. Pigue could be induced to play, they had a full baseball team in the family, but on the other hand, consider the time they wasted each morning in trying to separate their shoes from the pile of 18 shoes worn by the male Pignes.

The Pignes have now reduced their correspondence to an efficient and orderly system. Once a month each of the boys sits down and writes a letter to the other boys and the father.

This means he must write eight letters, but instead he types it, making eight duplicate copies. In the Pigue family correspondence is almost like preparing a circular letter. A copy goes to Bill, the advertising man up at Pittsburgh. Bob, the sports editor at Memphis; Muncie, the automobile page editor and former Southern League umpire, at Nashville; Paul, the advertising man, at Amarillo, Texas; Dick, the linotype operator, at Nashville; Syd, the reporter, at Houston; Marvin, the road contractor, at New Orleans, and Whitten, the railroad man, at St. Louis.

Bill Pigue, advertising man at Pittsburgh, recently issued his March letter. Among other things, he asked the Pignes to tell their wives a new Pennsylvania joke. He said his own wife wasn't much impressed with it, but that when he told it to his private secretary, she almost fell off his lap laughing. The story was to the effect that a frugal Scotchman was invited to a reception. Unwilling to pay to have his clothes pressed, he lay down in the street close to an advancing steam roller and got them pressed free.

I have known a half a dozen or so of the Pignes for years, and esteem them highly. I never saw a member of the tribe mad once—barring the time a fan in Birmingham hit Muncie, the umpire, with a pop bottle—and it was when Bill Pigue conceived the idea that a friend who was trying to introduce another man to him was making sport of him. The other man was Harvey Hogg, a traveling salesman. Mr. Pigue could see no fun in an acquaintance between Pigue and Hogg.

CONSTRUCTION WORK ON STREETS WILL START AS SOON AS POSSIBLE

Work on a new system of streets will be started in Fulton soon, if present plans of the city council and Chamber of Commerce are carried out. At a meeting held in the city hall Friday night by the council and citizens, petitions were presented for various streets to be constructed. Mayor Shankle announced that the city would be financially able to take care of its part of the street work and that additional time would be given citizens to present further petitions for streets, which will be considered at the regular meeting in April. After all petitions have been presented, the council will make an investigation of the various types of paving and the probable costs and work begun in order to complete the streets this year.

Bids will be asked for on at least half dozen different types of street building material and while the business streets have all been constructed of reinforced concrete, it has been pointed out by competent engineers that the resident streets can be constructed of an excellent material costing much less and answer every requirement for wear and upkeep.

While no one material has been settled upon, many have expressed themselves as favoring rock asphalt for surfacing. We see no harm in said expressions, as we know that the authorized committee will thoroughly investigate every type of material covered in the advertisement, and select the very best type for the money to be expended.

Every property owner has a perfect right to express himself and give the committee in charge all the information possible of an authentic nature. It may prove helpful in making a final decision.

At The Orpheum.

The Mysterious Smith Company, booked at the Orpheum Theatre for the entire week, is entertaining and thrilling the crowds that fill the playhouse at each performance.

It is America's greatest mystery production, the best ever in Fulton, and Mr. Chisholm of the Orpheum is to be congratulated on securing the wonderful Mysterious Smith Company for a solid week. Don't miss the performance tonight.

FIRST SIGNS OF SPRING

The first real signs of spring have appeared. There is yet more winter time for Fulton and vicinity; possibly a light freeze or two. We are now in what you would term the final stages of winter.

There are many things that are associated with the "first signs of spring," but there are none better than the shrubbery and the birds. And the dear little creatures have been calling for springtime lately. We, too, are waiting anxiously for this glad season—this season when we can put away our "heavies," bundle up the old faithful heater and retire from shoveling coal. Then with a smiling face, the happy period ahead of the days of the open road and the great life of out-of-doors, occasionally on Reelfoot Lake. This big time season isn't far off. It's headed this way fast. Outside of the window to-day morning we heard two little birds chirping it over; in a nearby tree a saucy mocking bird was softly tuning up his vocal cords; and when out on the road Sunday, observed the fields were taking on the suggestive signs of virgin green.

CAIRO-KENTUCKY BRIDGE WILL BE STARTED EARLY

Dispatches from Washington Monday evening told of the passage by the Senate late that afternoon of the Cairo Ohio river bridge bill. The Evening Citizen received a wire from Congressman Denison of the fact and President J. P. Schuch of the Association of Commerce also received word of the action of the Senate.

It is believed that the Cairo bill was one of a large number of bridge bills that went thru the Senate. The Mound City bill, known as H. R. 66, was with the Cairo bill, H. R. 121, when it was reported to the Senate from the War Department last Thursday, and it is believed that it also passed, although Mayor Hendrix had not been so advised early today.

The Cairo bill has already passed the House, and now only awaits the signature of the President. Following that, a hearing will be held by the War Department, to give river interests a chance to be heard on the width of the spans and the location of the piers, so that they shall be the least possible obstruction to navigation.

With these matters disposed of, actual construction on the bridge is expected to start at an early date. The financing has been made, and the right of way on the Kentucky side has been practically all secured, so that nothing serious stands in the way of an early start on the project.

The Ohio river bridge will cost in excess of two million dollars. It will be a link in United States Highway No. 51, which is better known as the Mississippi Valley Highway in Western Kentucky. It goes through Wickliffe, Bardwell, Arlington, Clinton and Fulton in Western Kentucky on its way to Jackson, Tenn., the Gulf of Mexico at Mobile and New Orleans.—Cairo Citizen.

PROMOTING AGRICULTURAL DEVELOPMENT IN KENTUCKY

Desiring, they say, to further the agricultural development of Kentucky, Emil Von Allmen, president of the Gray-Von Allmen Sanitary Milk Company, and John E. Huhn, president of the Liberty Insurance Bank, have established an endowment fund, the proceeds of which will be used to provide five scholarships annually to the College of Agriculture of the University of Kentucky. Lexington, it was announced Thursday.

The amount of each scholarship will be $200. They will be awarded through the Junior Club Department of the extension division of the college, and will go to club members excelling in dairy projects. Applicants must have entrance credits admitting them to the freshman class in the university.

The announcement of the scholarships says:

"In the desire to further the agricultural development of Kentucky, and in an effort to have greater attention paid to the milk cow by the oncoming generation of men and women who will determine the character of Kentucky's agricultural activities tomorrow, and in the conviction that trained effort and trained leadership are as essential to success in agriculture as in industry, Emil Von Allmen, president of the Gray-Von Allmen Sanitary Milk Company, and John E. Huhn, president of the Liberty Insurance Bank, are offering The Emil Von Allmen and John E. Huhn Scholarships to prospective freshmen in the College of Agriculture, University of Kentucky."

Mr. Von Allmen is a practical dairy farmer, owning 250 head of purebred Holsteins. Mr. Huhn is widely known as the originator of the school savings account idea.

ROUTE 5, CHESTNUT GLADE

Ava Nell Yates entertained her friends Saturday evening with a rook party in honor of Miss Ruth Barnes, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Schenk Haliday.

Mr. Haliday, who has a position in the postal service in Memphis, moved his family there last week.

Mr. Clarence Terrel and Miss Marion Nix, a former teacher at Chestnut Glade, surprised their many friends by being quietly married in Fulton, Saturday. After spending a few days with relatives here, they will return to St. Louis, where Mr. Terrel has been employed for several years, and will make that their home.

Vester Williams' little son was badly burned on the hand last week when he was drawing gasoline to fill the lamp, and struck a match to see if it was full.

Alice Frost remains quite ill. Milburn Conner has been quite sick.

Mr. Charlie Griffin's house burned Wednesday, with almost total loss of contents.

Wayne Rhodes' school was out last Friday. He will be at home until April 16.

At a recent meeting, Mr. E. L. Brundage introduced the most important business of the afternoon. A community singing school. Meeting at the school building Friday and Saturday evenings, with a Sunday afternoon singing. Money enough for a ten lesson school was immediately made up and Mr. Roscoe Wright elected to teach it, with the idea of continuing the school as long as possible. This is a community sing, free to everybody. All invited to attend and share in the benefit to be derived from these series of lessons. Beginning Friday evening, March 23rd at seven o'clock Saturday evening with Sunday afternoon singing at Ruthville church.

Annie Katharine Brown, of Ruthville entertained with a party, Saturday evening. Quite a number enjoyed her hospitality.

Gay Finch has been selected to represent South Fulton High school in declamatory and essay contest at the county wide meet at Union City, March 30 and 31.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

George Blair McClatchy celebrated his seventh birthday, March 14, with a theater party at the Grand theater, after which they assembled at Hornbeak's for refreshments. The birthday cake was a large white cake decorated with pink rose buds, his name and date in pink. The ice cream was topped with pink decoration, and the favors carried the color motif fully.

KENTUCKY FARM NOTES

W. E. Pyles, of Maysville, president of the Kentucky Certified Poultry Breeders' Association, recently shipped two pullets and a cockerel to Australia. All were descendants of 300-egg hens. Mr. Pyles is trapnesting 1,000 White Leghorns.

Five communities in Allen County, which recently appointed its first agricultural agent, have announced programs to improve farm conditions. Special attention will be given to raising more and better dairy cows, sheep and chickens, and to liming the land to grow more stock feed.

Russell County farmers are much interested in dairying. Before last year there had never been $1,000 worth of cream shipped out in any one year. Two cream buying stations are now operating and several farmers are shipping cream. Separators were taken into the county last fall.

Nineteen Washington County boys and girls have bought two year old pure bred heifers to freshen this spring. Bankers of the county financed the purchase, giving the 4-H club members 18 months to pay.

Eight new marl beds have been discovered in Oldham county, providing farmers with a convenient and cheap source of limestone.

The Peoples' State Bank at Scottsville will distribute 300 settings of eggs from accredited and blood-tested flocks.

More than 6,000 pounds of sweet clover seed were sown in Grayson county in February.

"Back to the farm; raise dairy cows, pigs and chickens," has been adopted as a farm improvement slogan in Lawrence county.

Marl has been found in Fleming county, which has just employed its first agricultural agent.

The Jefferson County Certified Seed Potato Growers' Association has announced a reduction in the price of seed potatoes.

Five Morgan County farmers will endeavor to grow the first sweet clover ever grown in the county.

A carload of Minnesota certified seed potatoes has been received in Bath county.

Grayson county farmers plan a large planting of certified seed potatoes. A carload of well-bred Jersey heifers has been purchased by Calloway county farmers at a cost of $300 to $500 per head.

Thirteen more counties have retained county agents, who now work in 85 of Kentucky's 120 counties.

MUCH PROPERTY IS SOLD MONDAY

Several Business Houses and Farms Change Hands at Sale

Several Hickman business houses, homes, lots and a number of farms in this section changed hands March 12, when Master Commissioner Geo. C. Roberts sold a number of tracts at public auction at the courthouse. The largest sale was that of the property of the late B. G. Hale.

Mrs. Bobbie Hale, his widow, bought in the 412 acre farm in the bottom for $17,750, as well as the home place, in which she was a dowry right, for $500, and two other houses nearby for $667. She also bought in, thru B. T. Davis, 83 acres for $1,667 and a lot in West Hickman at $134.

The wholesale house occupied by M. Livingston & Co., was bought in by that company for $4,300, while the business building occupied by Call's Cafe was bought in by Dr. J. H. White for $2,000. The business building occupied by Pendleton's Cafe was purchased by the Hickman Bank & Trust Co., for $3,500.

A. R. Moore bought 22 1-2 acres of timber land near Reelfoot Lake for $67; A. O. Caruthers bought the four lots where the lumber yard stands for $1,375 and B. T. Davis bought 2 lots the coal yard is on, for $200. W. C. Reed bought for himself and W. A. Minatree, the two houses they occupy on Magnolia street, for $1,825.

In the case of the City vs. E. E. Reeves and wife, the city bought the lot in for $267. In the case of Barrett and Stokes vs. Arch Stubbs, Bob Hughes bought both the six acre tract and the 13 1-2 acre tract for $975. In the case of the Bank of Wingo vs. Goadler Johnson, E. J. Stahr bought in the bank stock of the Tiptonville bank and the H. B. & T. Co., for $1,520. In the case of S. L. Royster vs. Margaret and A. E. Elliott, S. R. Royster bought in the place for $400. In the case of the Hickman Building & Loan Association vs. J. R. Bryant, the Association bid in the three city lots for $3,600. —Hickman Courier.

ONLY A COLD

Miss Lucille La Verne, the American actress, tells an excellent story of a negro maid who once came to her tragically and said: "I've lost my instinct, miss."

"But," said Miss La Verne, aghast, "you must be mistaken. You can't have lost your instinct."

"Oh, yes I have, miss," repeated the colored lady tearfully, "I can't smell anything at all."—Sporting and Democratic News.

Times Have Changed

"Did you ever have your wife look you in the eye when you came home, and ask you if you had not forgotten something?" asked the young husband.

"Many a time, my boy," answered the old married man. "She does yet. In the early days it used to mean a kiss. Now it is usually a reference to wiping my shoes."—Stray Stories.

Getting One Over

The young maiden was indignant, accusing the grocer of charging her too much.

"You're a very small potato, is what I think," she snapped.

"Perhaps," the grocer remarked, "but I never let myself be skinned."—The Progressive Grocer.

Not the Fashion

"Well, what's this?" inquired Mamie, as she brought out her last season's winter coat.

"It looks to me," replied Maude, "like an eaten jacket."—Tit-Bits (London).

Her Complaint

"Your honor, he's never at home."

"It must make you pretty lonesome."

"Not that! It leaves no one there with the baby."

CROWDED COURT

First Hobo—Jever address a big crowd, Ducky?
Second Hobo—Sure—pretty big crowd.
First Hobo—And wot was yer remarks?
Second Hobo—Not gutty.

A Garage Story

Gilly to Ted,
And only to rise,
Is the way of a man
When an auto he drives.

How Rude

"You say your husband is going to be a candidate? Why, he has never opened his mouth in public!"
"Oh, yes, he has, dear. At the last speech your husband made he almost threw his jaw out of joint yawning."—Paris Rire.

Tales Out of School

Lecturer—And in Japan the natives have a peculiar custom of removing their shoes before entering the house.
Childish Voice From the Rear—Humph, that's nothing! Dad does, too, when he comes home late from the club.

Not Sure

Poulterer—Was that a good chicken I sold you last Saturday?
Customer—I don't know. We couldn't get our teeth far enough into it to catch the real flavor.

Just Like Mother

"Mother, what did you do when a boy first kissed you?"
"Never mind."
"I did the same thing, mother."

BUT HIS GUESTS DID

"So you had a house full during the holidays? Did you have a fine time?"
"No; but our guests did."

Get Plenty of It

"I need some exercise."
Remarked H. H. Shivers.
"So I think I'll stroll out And dodge some Stivers."

What It Was

Lacy (archly)—Do you love me?
Fred (with fervor)—Madly.
"Would you die for me?"
"Ee—no. Mine's an undying love."

All for Her

"When you have an argument at your house, does your wife take part?"
"No, she takes all of it."

Low Rates Begin at 7 o'clock

THE reduced rate for station-to-station long distance calls now begins at seven o'clock in the evening. This enables you to make social or business calls before the theater hour and at a time when your friends or associates are most likely to be reached.

The reduced rate applies only when you place your call by number. If you do not know the number, tell the operator the name under which the called telephone is listed. After eight-thirty o'clock there is a still further reduction on these station-to-station calls.

Try placing long distance calls during the seven to eight-thirty o'clock period. You will find the service fast—the charges reasonable.

"IT CAN'T BE DONE"

The "Can't Be Done" crowd is the biggest drawback to any community. Whenever any progressive movement is started, there are always some folks who pull back in the harness and say on the old bromide that "it can't be done."

If the advice of this type of person were followed, nothing worth while would ever have been accomplished in the world. If Wilbur and Orville Wright had listened to the chant of the "can't be done" people, flying machines would not have been invented when they were. If Thomas A. Edison had allowed himself to be swayed by the "can't be done" crowds, we might still be burning kerosene for lights.

Innumerable examples might be called to attention. All of the great paintings, all of the great pieces of literature, all of the marvelous inventions of all times have been brought into being by men who thought it "could be done."

The will to do a thing is half the battle. Half-hearted entering into any enterprise is starting with a handicap.

Whenever anything of value to the community is suggested, don't hide behind the excuse that "it can't be done," because the odds are that it can. If you must disagree, give an honest reason for disagreement.

Every street in Fulton can be improved this year.

SOUTH FULTON STREET IMPROVEMENTS

Work started this week on the street improvement program in South Fulton. The Carrey-Reed Company, contractors, have a large crew at work on Central avenue and within the next 30 days this reinforced concrete street will be completed. We are glad to see Engineer Hopkins on the job.

Other streets will be constructed in South Fulton this year of gravel. Another thoroughfare which will be constructed is the Mississippi Valley Highway. The grading for this project in South Fulton has been completed, and work on the big concrete bridge will be completed probably within the next 60 days. This street has been closed to traffic since last fall.

STAND BY YOUR TOWN

If you think your town is best, Tell 'em so.

If you'd have it lead the rest, Help it grow.

When there's anything to do, Let the fellows count on you— You'll feel bully when it's thru, Don't you know.

If you're used to giving knocks, Change your style; Throw bouquets instead of rocks.

For a while, Let the other fellow roast, Shun him as you would a ghost. Meet his hammer with a boast And a smile.

When a stranger from afar Comes along, Tell him who and what you are — Make it strong.

Needn't flatter, never bluff, Tell the truth, for that's enough; Join the boosters—they're the stuff.

THE PIG

The pig is a coarse, illiterate animal with a long pedigree and a short tail which cannot be used as a fly-killer. One of the most cruel acts which nature ever performed was to equip the horse and cow with long, flowing tails and leave the pig without anything but a feeble, tightly curled imitation. This is why the average pig is so disagreeable a companion during fly time and has to be mollified with a pitchfork.

The pig is purely a commercial venture. Nobody ever reared a pig in order to enjoy his society or to watch the working of his mind as it developed from playful infancy to adult manhood. In fact, a careful search for the mind of a pig is about as futile as trying to locate the melody in a bagpipe solo. No great poem was ever written on the pig, and he is never asked to sit for his portrait, except just prior to some auction sale. If American literature had to depend upon the pig for inspiration, it would not occupy the proud eminence given it by the State of Indiana.

Without intending to disparage the pig, it must be admitted that intellectually, he is a greater disappointment than grand opera in English. But as a business proposition the pig makes the chewing gum industry look like the sale of ice cream cones in Labrador. Almost alone and single handed, the domestic pig has dotted our fair prairies with beautiful homes, electric washers, majestic silos, musical windmills, self playing pianos, mechanical milkers, back-firing automobiles and sweet content. Every time the farmer ships 22 chubby faced pigs to market, some real money is put into active circulation, and the country merchant feels more like advertising and contributing to the church.

The pig never used to know his ancestors from a hole in the ground, but nowadays every pig that amounts to anything has a family tree with more branches on it than a cranberry bush. A stalwart pig that can trace his ancestry back to the reign of James K. Polk will be ten times sell for more money than a serial story by Robert W. Chambers, which shows that as a people we are coming to a higher appreciation of literature. Refined people who have never owned a pig sneer at him on account of his uncouth ways, but this is because they have never seen him lift a mortgage or remove a plaster from a red barn.

"Cross fence into ten acres"

"I can get more pasture from four 10-acre lots than from one forty," says G. W. Hewer, Cape Girardeau, Mo. "Grass is fresher, cattle eat more." Floyd Newman, Creighton, Neb., crossed fenced into 15-acre fields for hogging down. He writes: "Hogs did better, corn lasted longer, no waste, manure was left on the field and I saved picking expense." For fencing hog-tight we recommend

MONARCH Hinge Joint

With it you can hog-down corn, run stock after harvest, rotate crops, keep weeds down, fertilize the land, etc. It binges, gives under shock and strain but springs right back again. Copper mixed in the steel, plus a heavy zinc coating keeps rust out far longer than ordinary galvanized wire. Come in and look this "Red Brand" fence over.

POULTRY

LARGE YIELD AIDS POULTRY SUCCESS

Poultry raisers who can get high egg yields are almost certain to make a profit, because egg production is closely tied up with labor income and profit. It is pointed out by L. E. Card, chief in poultry husbandry at the college of agriculture, University of Illinois.

"Studies of the farm poultry enterprise as a business have shown that there are certain major factors involved in determining whether a given poultry flock will show a profit or a loss. Egg yield per hen is an accurate barometer of success in almost any poultry enterprise. Other factors are size of flock, proportion of pullets to yearlings, rate of mortality, price received for market eggs and experience of the operator. However, if egg production is low, no other factor can make up for the handicap and the profits will be small.

"Size of flock is a convenient measure of size of business. A small business can never make either a large profit or a large loss. A large business is necessary for a large profit, but it must carry the risk of a possible large loss.

"Mortality of hens and young chicks is frequently a major cost in the production of eggs and unless the mortality rate can be kept down to a reasonable level it will be very difficult, if not impossible, to show a profit.

"The price received for market eggs is an important index of profits from a poultry flock. It is often easier to increase returns by producing a better product and finding a higher market than by raising the egg yield per hen, assuming that the egg yield is not too low to begin with.

"Finally, experience helps the operator to achieve results. Even if it does nothing more than teach him how to make the business measure up in respect to the other factors mentioned, it is an important asset. It is unwise for a poultry business to be allowed to grow faster than the ability of the operator to manage and control it."

There Is Much Profit in Proper Management

Shiftlessness has been, and always will be, the price of dear experience. There is a profit in only what we take care of.

To go about the work of caring for poultry in a mechanical way, important matters will be forgotten, details will not be noticed. There are entirely too many who trust to luck and do not stop to think, writes Michael K. Boyer in the Farm and Ranch. A man who rushes is in a constant hurry, and never accomplishes much.

Good management cuts down expenses. Scrub treatment brings scrub returns. Poultry raising commands the same business methods as employed in good dairying—the best food and care for best results.

The idea that "anything is good enough for hogs and chickens" is wrong. It has ruined the prospects of many otherwise good farmers. Nothing can be secured without effort, and the more intelligent and practical that effort, the better will be the success.

Methods of Spreading Disease Among Poultry

One method of carrying disease is on the shoes from a yard of sick chickens. Farmers learned to forbid entrance to their hog yards when there was a scourge of hog cholera. They should forbid entrance to the chicken runs when disease is prevalent. Poultry buyers should be kept out. Indeed, the only safety to the flock is in quarantining them against all visitors and dogs. The caretaker should wear rubbers if sickness breaks out in one of his shoes and not allow the soles of his shoes to touch contaminated grounds. Take the rubbers off before stepping out of the door. Clean up and clean out often. Burn all dead birds and the litter from houses where there has been sickness. Expense and worry are saved by avoiding disease. It is folly to let a condition go until it is big enough to demand a fight.

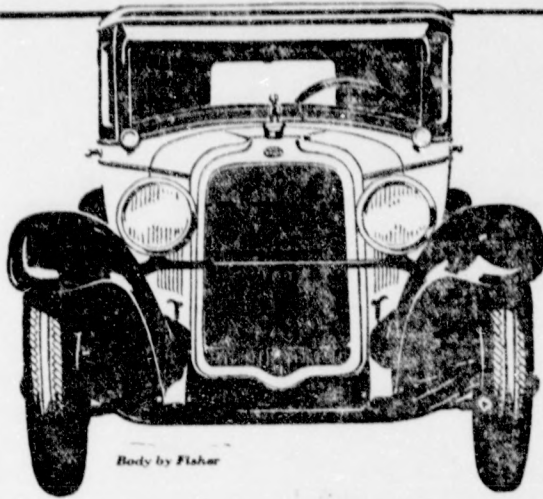

Minerals Big Factors

Minerals are often limiting factors in egg production. Heavy laying fowl require from three to four pounds of oyster shell or its equivalent per year. Even though the hens have enough protein and other food to produce a large number of eggs, they will cut their production down to meet the amount of minerals which they have for shells. A balancing ration means supplying minerals and vitamins so that all of the organs of the fowl work efficiently.

Shade Is Necessary

Shade is very necessary for chicks, especially if they are late hatched, for they are stunted by the hot, dry weather and are more liable to be affected by disease and worms than if hatched early. Plenty of grit and charcoal should be within easy reach of chicks when on range unless sand or gravel is present in large enough quantities to make it unnecessary to furnish it extra. Plenty of fresh water should be within easy reach of the growing chicks.

REELFOOT LAKE LAND PURCHASED BY THE STATE OF TENNESSEE

The purchase of the entire holdings of the West Tennessee Land Company at Reelfoot Lake for the consideration of $37,500 embracing a narrow strip of land entirely encircling the lake shores and including between 3,000 and 5,000 acres of shore land, was consummated the past week by the Reelfoot Lake Commission and only awaits the approval of Governor Henry H. Horton, of Tennessee, for the conveyance of the land to the state, according to commissioners Frank S. Hall and Lit. J. Pardue.

The West Tennessee Land Company's holdings are the key to the entire lake project and their purchase ends the major problem of the commission.

Formerly the holdings of the land company were valued at $142,000 and the purchase price of $37,500 represents a saving to the state of $104,500 through the work of the commission. The land company formerly claimed ownership of the entire property embracing thousands of acres around the lake, but the state survey established the state's ownership to a certain portion of the lands and only the acquisition of the strip around the lake was needed for the key to the park project.

Other lands necessary will be purchased at an early date, and as soon as the land is acquired, the state will begin the establishment of a preserve around the lake.

Big Development Seen In Ambulance Service.

Transportation of Sick Greatly Facilitated Through Use of New Invalid Car.

It isn't so long ago that an ambulance was rather a hit or miss affair, little more than a shed on wheels. Practically no provision was made to ease either the mental or physical condition of the patient.

It is a far cry from the ambulance of that type to the splendid new invalid car which the FULTON UNDERTAKING COMPANY of this city has just added to their equipment.

This new car has little of the outward appearance of an ambulance; there is nothing at all sombre about it; rather, it suggests good cheer, comfort and competency. Inside, the car is a revelation of luxurious comfort. The invalid chamber is roomy. Walls and ceilings are upholstered in a warm tone. The windows are fitted with mechanical regulators.

There is an electric fan to regulate the temperature in warm weather and an efficient heater for cold days. The invalid couch, with its snowy linen, makes it restful; removable seats are provided for attendants, and there is a first-aid kit set flush with the front wall. The new car is now on regular duty, affording the community professional invalid car service.

ENGLISH TEACHERS TO MEET IN PADUCAH, SATURDAY, MARCH 31

The semi-annual meeting of the Council of Teachers of English of the First District Educational Association will be held at Tilghman High school, Paducah, Saturday, March 31.

The English Council was organized in 1925 for the purpose of bringing together the teachers of English in this district, that they might work out to a greater advantage, the English problems in this particular locality. From time to time the various phases of English are the subjects for addresses, discussions, demonstrations and round table talks. An interesting collection of handwork, such as book reports, posters, notebooks, charts, etc., is also exhibited.

The officers for this year are: Miss Lillian E. Carlson, Tilghman High, Paducah; Miss Margaret Tandy, Instructor in English, Murray Normal, Vice-President; Miss Mary Royster, Fulton High school, Secretary-Treasurer.

The Council is very fortunate this year in obtaining the services of Dr. Charles S. Pendleton, Peabody College, Nashville, Tenn., who is one of the leading educators of the South and an authority on all phases of English work. Dr. Pendleton is an officer in the National Council of Teachers of English and has long been one of its active members. He is the author of "Social Objectives in English," a book which is widely studied by English instructors. As head of the department of English at Peabody College for Teachers, he is recognized as one of the outstanding directors of all work in this field, addressing groups of teachers of English throughout the United States. He has probably done more in the field of modern teaching of English than any teacher in America.

The program committee is striving to make every number on this program of every day use to teachers. Dr. Pendleton's talks will be especially helpful as it is his purpose to give teachers constructive criticisms and suggestions, rather than theoretical ideas.

Program for Mar. 31, 1928

10 a. m.—Short business session.

10:10—Address of welcome—Miss Mary W. Moss, head of the department of English, Murray State Normal School and Teachers College, Murray.

10:20—Discussions—Dr. Charles S. Pendleton, Peabody College, Nashville.

(a) Grading of Themes.
(b) Topics for High School Themes.

(c) Oral English in the High school.

11:50—The Practical Value of Dr. Pendleton's Method of Grading Papers—Miss Donnie Clopton, High School Training Department, Murray.

12:00—Banquet, Tilghman Cafeteria.

1:00 p. m.—Dramatization from a novel—Tilghman students.

1:15—Discussion—Dr. Chas. S. Pendleton, "Teaching of Literature in the Junior and Senior High School."

2:00—Round Table.

Topic—Use of Notebooks in the High School. Leader, Miss Florence Wyman, High School, Mayfield.

3:00—Adjournment.

The public is cordially invited. Teachers of English are urged to come.

FOOD LIKE YOU GET AT HOME

This is truly a home-like restaurant because it has endeavored to break down the prejudice based on the theory that restaurants could not serve food like you get at home. Many patrons will testify that there is no difference between our meals and the meals they get at home. That's the reason they come here so frequently to eat. Years of catering to the appetites of particular people make it possible for us to serve appetizing meals. The next time you want to eat away from home, bring your family here.

In Case of Emergency

When you want a thing in a hurry you rush to a local store and get it. But do you realize that the existence of our stores depends upon continued business.

If every person in this community were to use the stores only for emergencies there would soon be no more places to satisfy those urgent needs.

The Best Buying Policy

You should do your part towards keeping local business alive and in a constant state of betterment by doing all your trading at home. It will be profitable to you as well as to the entire community.

Farm Notes

By H. A. McPherson, Co. Agt.

Dairying has done more for more farmers than any other phase of farming in America. Dairying is not only profitable, but thru the cow you have an opportunity to sell your grain and hay at a higher price than any other on the market. If you ship it out in car lots the other fellow is paying the freight and doing the same thing you could have done, feeding it to live stock. Good pastures are the first essential step in dairying, because a good pasture will pay you better than any land you can put to other crops. With lime as cheap as it is and with thousands of tons of marl as available as it is, there is no excuse of the average farmer not having a good permanent pasture. R. E. Brasfield stated that he had sold from 3 grade cows, $100 worth of cream from January 7 to March 10. Now that is not bad at all for 3 cows in 60 days. That did not include what they used at home. Now I am thoroughly convinced and have been for the past 20 years, that dairying is one of the most profitable phases of farming.

Poultry work is one of my weaknesses. When you say chickens I am always ready to go because I feel like if the average farm in the U. S. had to give up the most important universal crop that is grown on more farms than any other two crops or animals. Therefore, it is the most important. The poultry industry of America represents an output of one billion dollars annually. But aside from its importance there are more dollars thrown away fooling with poultry each year than any other phase of live stock on the farms, and most of it is done because the farmers spent a few dollars preparing to grow chickens. There is nothing on the farm that will make more money for the amount invested than a flock of well kept chickens. The first thing any farmer should do is to build a good poultry house, not an expensive house, but a shed roof house with an open front or rather partially open. A 20x20 house will care for 100 large hens and 125 Leghorns. Mash should be kept before them 365 days each year.

If you are going to grow 100 or more pullets you need a brooder house. Never build a brooder house without putting it on runners so it can be moved from place to place. The ground gets infected with worms and diseases and it requires breaking at least once a year. There is a great opportunity for poultry work in this county and I hope that within 5 years a scrub flock of chickens in Fulton county will be a thing of the past. Why keep scrub chickens? Just think about the advantages of keeping scrub chickens and see how many you can find? Did you ever see a farmer advertising scrub breeding stock for sale?

Why not get some of the best seed you can find. Cotton, corn, oats, etc., and make a specialty of growing seed for sale. Suppose you think it over. I rather think you could make some extra money with little effort.

Sunday School Lesson

(By REV. P. H. FITZWATER, D.D., Dean Moody Bible Institute of Chicago, 188, 1928, Western Newspaper Union.)

Lesson for March 25

REVIEW—JESUS PROCLAIMS THE KINGDOM OF GOD

GOLDEN TEXT—And Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues and preaching the gospel of the Kingdom, and healing their sickness and every disease.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Stories About Jesus.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Mark's Stories About Jesus.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—How Jesus Began His Work.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Early Ministry of Jesus.

The method of review must always be determined by the genius of the teacher, the grade of the school, and the aptitude of the pupil. For the senior and adult classes perhaps the most profitable method will be to summarize the facts of each lesson and to study the main teaching thereof. Since the great personality around which all the facts and teachings of the quarter gather is Jesus Christ, it ought not to be difficult to plan a review. Whatever plan is used, the teacher should have the matter thought out and assignment made to the different scholars a week ahead of time. The following suggestions are made:

Lesson for January 1. John the Baptist came in fulfillment of Isaiah's prophecy announcing the advent of the Messiah. The leading lesson is that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, as witnessed by John the Baptist and the Voice from the open heavens.

Lesson for January 8. Jesus taught with authority and demonstrated it by conquering demons, healing a fever, and cleansing a leper. Jesus Christ is able to save unto the uttermost, to deliver from all kinds of sickness and satanic powers.

Lesson for January 15. Jesus freely gave Himself to the task of healing the diseases of the people and forgiving their sins, and the leading lesson is that Jesus has not only power to heal the diseases of the body but to forgive sin, which is the cause of disease.

Lesson for January 22. Jesus lived His life in conformity with God's law. Conflict with the Jews over the matter of Christ's disregard of their laws of fasting and the Sabbath was due either to their failure to understand God's law or to its perversion. Human welfare can be realized only through conformity to God's law.

Lesson for January 29. With the increase of the fame of Jesus came increase of opposition. In spite of the opposition by His enemies He continued His mighty works in casting out demons and ministering to those in need.

Lesson for February 5. Jesus was misunderstood by His friends, His family and fellow townsmen, and violently opposed by the scribes and Pharisees. A spiritual nature is necessary in order to understand Christ.

Lesson for February 12. Jesus showed Himself the master teacher in picturing truth concerning His kingdom so as to conceal the truth from those who were not in sympathy with Him and by interpretation to be understood by His disciples.

Lesson for February 19. Jesus' deity was manifested in calming the storm-tossed sea and in healing the demoniac. Because of what Jesus is we should confide in Him.

Lesson for February 26. Jesus raised from the dead Jairus' daughter and healed the woman who had been afflicted for twelve years. Only a divine being could raise the dead.

Lesson for March 4. Jesus called twelve men and sent them forth to preach the gospel of the kingdom. Those sent forth were furnished with power to heal diseases.

Lesson for March 11. Christ had compassion upon the multitudes and created food to supply their hunger. Our small gifts and possessions, when placed at the Lord's disposal, are sufficient for any need.

Lesson for March 18. Christ denounced the empty forms and traditions of the Pharisees and showed that defilement can only come from the heart.

Eternal Thoughts

The thoughts of God are eternal thoughts. They are independent of time, independent of worlds. You set your life today in the doing of the will of God. After you have set your life into that life, it need never be changed. Let change come, let death come, we pass on still doing God's business for ever and for ever.—Alexander MacKenzie.

The Lord's Aid

I tried to build without the Lord and lo! a tumbled pile of bricks upon the ground! I turned, and built with the Lord, and lo! the walls rise fair and firm, and the sky is their roof, and eternity is their foundation.—Amos R. Wells.

Finding the Sunny Side

He who climbs above the cares of this world and turns his face to his God has found the sunny side of life.—C. H. Spurgeon.

The Profits of Barns, Sheds, are worth while.

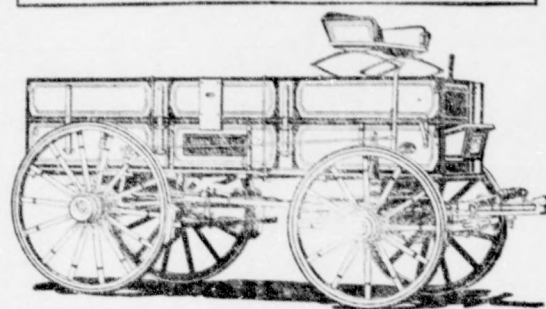

The most important buildings on the farm are those which give shelter to livestock and implements.

At present prices of livestock, a good barn or other shelter may pay for itself almost in a season or two.

Every delay means loss of profits to you. Why not figure with us today.

When you buy John Deere implements you are sure of prompt repair service throughout their long life

A FARM WAGON THAT IS GUARANTEED

The amount of satisfactory service that a wagon will give depends entirely upon the material and skill the manufacturer puts into it. We want to show you a wagon that is built of the best materials by men who know how—

THE JOHN DEERE WAGON The Wagon That is Guaranteed

A special machine automatically measures the inside of the skein of the John Deere farm wagon and shapes the axle to fit accurately. The skein is set in red lead under high pressure. It has exactly the right pitch, and the axle has the right gather to make the John Deere wagon run lighter than other wagons. With the John Deere sand- and dust-proof skids there is no wearing of bearing surfaces—the oil stays in—the wagon is always smooth-running and light-pulling.

Only carefully-selected oak and hickory are used in the John Deere Wagon, and every piece of wood is air-seasoned under cover in our own yards for at least two years. The tires are set hot under hydraulic pressure and under a gauge that assures proper dish—the load is always carried on plumb spokes. And don't forget this other big feature—the heavy malleable fifth-wheel with corrugated coupling—no bending or breaking of kingbolt—bolster does not get out of line and rock—no danger of tipping when handling large, top-heavy loads.

Come in and see this wagon—read the guarantee on the tool box. Let us explain the many fine points embodied in it.

FIRST IS SERVICE

We have so arranged every detail of our business that our service is equal to that of any of the larger cities and far beyond many of them. Our motor equipment is of the latest design, and built for the greatest comfort and service. Our funeral home is arranged for the utmost comfort of the family of the deceased, should they need it, without any additional charge whatever.

SECOND IS THE CHARACTER OF THE PROFES-SIONAL WORK DONE BY THE EMBALMER

As much care should be exercised in selecting the embalmer to render professional service after death as is used in selecting the physician during the illness. Our embalming is done by Paul Hornbeak with Mrs. Yates as and when we clean an article, we mean to say that we take the dirt out.

Dry Cleaning Department

In addition to laundry work, we dry clean all sorts of clothing. We clean handkerchiefs, gloves, hosiery, fine waists and blouses, furs, rugs, carpets, coats, suit overcoats, fine dresses and coat suits. There is no longer any need of discarding articles because they are soiled. Call 130 and let us show you what we can do to restore the new look which you want.

This service means a saving in money to you. Many an old suit or overcoat, which you think is useless, can be restored to active service by our process. We employ the latest machinery and the most expert workmen, and the results will surprise you. Call us today, and let us prove our statements.
