Chairmen, Members of the First Apportionment District:

We meet this day to consider the matter of the First Apportionment District. The Kendall Circuit Court will convene on Monday, August 13, 1904, and each of the delegates will be sent to the court. Mr. Kendall informs us that, as a matter of long time, there is a need of appointing delegates. The delegates are appointed, authorized, and directed to act for the benefit of the people. If not for the good of all, there are few for the good of society. There are few for the good of society.
