WAGES BEING ADVANCED IN LOUISIANA.

Chicago, July 31.—Cash wheat went up today to 76 cents, and there is good prospect for a higher price.

GOOD TIMES IN NEW ENGLAND.

Effects of the Tariff Being Felt—A Good Beginning.

New Haven, Conn., July 31.— Five linen mills will start in this city about next week. This action is caused by the tariff. The manufacturers now can afford to operate their mills. Everybody is rejoicing over the better prospects for steady work.

DEATH'S HARVEST.

Lives Sacrificed to the Raging Floods in Russia.

St. Petersburg, Russia, July 31.— The news has reached this city of the terrible loss of life consequent upon the unprecedented floods in the interior.
It is said that three hundred people have been drowned, while no estimate is placed upon the property lost.

WAGES ADVANCING.

The Good Times Have Reached Southern Plantations.

New Orleans, La., July 31.—Two of the largest plantation operators of the state have advanced the wages of all their hands seventeen per cent.
Other plantation owners will follow.
Never before have the planters of this state been so good spirits over the outlook than now. The provisions of the new tariff have given great satisfaction here, and the sugar planters are especially pleased.

FOR SEDUCTION.

Young Man Arrested this Forenoon.

JOE JONES THE ACCUSED.

He is Charged With Being the Father of Miss Rowena Hook's Child.

HER FATHER WANTED TO SHOOT HIM.

Joseph Jones, who drives a wagon for the Baser Pottery, was arrested before Justice Winchester last night on a charge of seduction. The warrant was issued at the instance of Mr. E. W. Hook, whose daughter, Miss Rowena, is the alleged victim of Jones. Mr. Hook did not discover his daughter's condition until last night, and as soon as he did he went straight after a warrant. After the warrant was issued the girl gave birth to a child.

Mr. Hook called on Justice Winchester this morning in a state of great excitement and consulted him relative to shooting Jones. He said he did not propose to have his daughter's honor despoiled without calling someone to account for it, and intended to shoot Jones on sight, but Justice Winchester finally succeeded in dissuading him from his purpose.
The father says that Jones had been going with his daughter for two years, and the family always thought he intended to marry her and the wedding was expected nearly every day.

Jones was arrested about 10:30 o'clock this morning by Constable Patrick. He heard there was a warrant out for him and was looking for the officer to surrender.

Jones claims he is innocent. He does not deny being intimate with the girl, but claims others also have been, and that he can prove that she has accused others of being the father of her child.

Hook lives on Second street near the river. He has several daughters.
His family was here time next morning for the trial.

of flowers for the ladies of the presidential party. Gen. Peck extracted a promise that the President would visit Burlington next Wednesday and review the cavalry troops at Fort Edwin Allen, and later attend a reception in his honor. The only other plans so far made by the President are a review of the 21st Regiment, United States Infantry, and a reception by the officers at Plattsburg post, to take place probably next Tuesday; then, some time next week, a trip by steamer to the Isle La Motte, as the guest of Senator Proctor and of the Vermont Game and Forestry Commission.
All the Cabinet officers will be here more or less during August, and there will be informal Cabinet meetings, as occasion requires. Vice President Hobart is expected next week.

MEETINGS IN VAIN

Were Held at the Dearmit Mines. Men Refuse to Strike.

Marchers Will Lay Siege Unless Driven Away by Deputies.

Pittsburg, July 30.—The mass meetings of strikers yesterday at the mines of the New York and Cleveland Gas Coal company were without results, as the men were at work as usual today and give no indication of joining the strikers. The strikers still surround the camp, and claim they will make the strike effective among Dearmit's men tomorrow.
The operators have determined to drive the strikers away. Legal proceedings are to be taken against the marching coal miners unless they disband and go to their homes. This was decided on this afternoon and Sheriff Harvey A. Lowery will be expected to see to it that assemblages are disbanded.

A DAM GIVES WAY.

Factory Flooded and Many People Flee for Their Lives.

Middletown, Conn., July 30.—At 8 o'clock this morning, a dam 40 feet wide, confining water from which three factories got power, burst, letting down a tremendous volume of water. The huge stones of which the dam was built crashed into the factory of Wm. Wilcox's workshop, and the lower floors of the factory were completely flooded. The water continued to rise for several hours.
Much damage has been done and the water is still rushing down.

TWO HUNDRED LIVES LOST

As the Result of Fearful Floods in Germany.

Berlin, July 31.—The losses from the recent floods are the greatest ever known in Germany.
Fifty villages have been swept away, and the losses will amount to millions of marks. It is estimated that at least two hundred persons drowned.

COMING TO KENTUCKY.

To See Our Magnificent Pennyrite and Blue Grass Farms.

Washington, July 31.—Secretary Wilson, of the Department of Agriculture, will spend his summer vacation in the South, most of it in Kentucky, and will make a study of farming and how it is carried on in the South.

TRAGIC DEATH

Of Actor Edgar G. Bourne Last Night.

DIED OF BLOOD POISONING.

Was One of the Victims of the Late Theatre Fire.

A LONG AND INTERESTING CAREER ENDED.

Actor Edgar G. Bourne died at 9 o'clock last night of blood poisoning, at Mrs. Hays' boarding house, on Jefferson street near Sixth. His demise occurred just a week after the burns which subsequently developed into blood poisoning.
His condition became serious several days ago, and it was thought necessary at one time to amputate his left hand, but the attending physician afterwards concluded that this would not save his life.
Mr. Bourne suffered terrible agony throughout his illness and often had to be held down in bed. Night before last it became necessary to tie him.

The deceased was 58 years old, and had been on the stage for thirty-four years with the exception of the four years he was in the war. He had been in some of the best companies on the road in his time, but the past season was starring his 9-year-old daughter in a company known as the Hazel Bourne Comedy company.

The company went to pieces at Mound City, and his trunks were attached for board. He and his wife and daughter then attempted to raise money enough to recover their trunks by giving exhibitions at Metropolis and Brooklyns, but were unsuccessful.
Manager H. G. Foye heard of and employed them and redeemed the trunks; and a few days after he began work with the company the theater was destroyed by fire, and in his efforts to save his three trunks he was seriously burned, and gradually became worse.

Mr. Bourne was a native of Georgia, but had been all over the country, and during the last years of his life claimed no regular place as his home. He leaves a brother in New York and a sister in Kansas.

His wife was with him at the time of the fire, and during the last years of his life claimed no regular place as his home. He leaves a brother in New York and a sister in Kansas.
The news of Mr. Bourne's death, 11:30 first told the company when it returned from Metropolis, and while not unexpected it was nevertheless quite a shock to them.
Mr. Bourne was personally a man of wide experience, and very agreeable. He was well educated and at one time stood high in the profession, but was forced to give way to the younger school of actors.

NO NIGHT RACING.

The Fair Association Will Not Rent Its Track.

The deal to secure the fair grounds for night racing has fallen through.
All necessary to do to prepare the track would have been to put in lights.

It is understood that the projectors offered the fair association $300 per month for the use of the track, but they finally backed out, saying that it might have a tendency to injure the fair and races in the future.

To Our Friends and Patrons: The object of this is to state to you that we have sold our ice plant, and, in consequence, cannot furnish you any more ice after the first of August. All contracts made by you for this season will be properly cared for by the Paducah Ice Company.

In other words, we will see to it that such is done at the contract price.
At the same time, we will be compelled to enforce payments on all of our patrons and friends who bought on time; and this, for the reason of winding up our ice affairs. We regret extremely to take this step, but are compelled to do so because at the present prices ice is selling at, we cannot make expenses. We admit that when we started into the business we were led to believe differ-ently, but by experience we have gained knowledge; and, therefore, say to you, that an investment of nearly three-fourths of $100,000 has turned out a very sad one; so much so, that we have concluded to retire.
To all of our friends and patrons we beg to return our sincere thanks for their support and remain yours truly,

OLD FEUD CAUSED IT.

Jeneath Harmon Fatally Cut by Robert McGregor Near Princeton.

Robert McGregor cut and fatally wounded Jeneath Harmon at Fairview church, north of Princeton last night, and in return was slashed with a knife across the hip. The cutting was the result of an old feud. Mc-Gregor attacked the man after church services and fell on him with a knife without warning. Harmon was cut in the left lung, both from the back and the side.

POLICE COURT.

Housebreaker Before Judge Sander's Today.

The Tale of Woe of a Tramp Caught in a Box Car.

Charles Hopkins, colored, was presented in Judge Sanders' court this morning on a charge of housebreaking. Henry Thomas, colored, claims that Hopkins stole a coat and vest and five shirts from him. One of the stolen shirts was found on the alleged thief while the coat and vest were in his room. He says he is innocent, however, and the case was left open until Monday.

Jim Lemons is the name of a tramp who was arrested for riding in a refrigerator on the Illinois Central.
He claims he came from Belleville, Ill., on his way to Louisville, and says he paid brakeman 25 cents to last night. The family was playing croquet in the back yard when the house was entered, and found when they returned, that every drawer in the house had been ransacked. Seventy cents was stolen from Mrs. Thompson's purse, but Mr. Thompson's watch lying near by was not molested, indicating that the thieves were after money alone.
