STREET IMPROVEMENT WILL GO FORWARD

Fulton Has Found Herself

Monday night's session of the city council was an eventful one, with the approval of a number of street improvements and the passing of a resolution to make the city a convention city.

AMERICAN LEGION WORKING FOR OLD CONVERSATION, FULTON

The members of the American Legion have been working hard to improve the city's infrastructure and make it more attractive to visitors. They are seeking to get behind the wheel and break new ground in civic improvement.

Fulton Captures 1929 Lions Convention

The delegation of Fulton citizens who attended the Annual Convention at Lexington last week made a fine showing, waking up the natives to their civic pride and placing Fulton prominently in the race for convention cities.

Meet Mrs. Louise Redmond, (Mrs. Frank Dubinsky)

Miss Redmond is with the Dubinsky Players, who will open a week's engagement at the Orpheum Theatre on Monday, June 17. The company will present a variety of acts, including songs, dances, and comedy routines.

The Kleptog Nazis, a popular comedy team, will be featured in this week's bill.

CANTO, NOT A THREE PARTY WITHOUT LEADER

The old issue of a three party system is not new, as it has been discussed in many elections. However, the recent activities of the Democratic party in Fulton have brought this issue to the fore again.

At the Orpheum

The Orpheum has an unusual amount of talent on its stage this week. The audiences of Fulton have not had a chance to see so many different acts in one place before.

In the Republican party there is no discontent among the ground working chapters. It might be said of the party that has been a school for his text-book of political principles. He is of the best products of the Republican party ever known. He is the best proof on that subject.

The conflict between progressivism and reactionary influence which broke out at Chicago in 1920, and which is still being fought over, is the battle of the progressive and the old guard."
"Teaching You Thrift"

Practice makes perfect. Schoolmasters of today as well as yesterday constantly repeat that truth. Pupils learn by applying it. Application of that principle to our everyday habits proves its practical help. We learn by practicing, whether it be a good habit or a bad habit.

This bank teaches you thrift by leading you to practice it. The knowse is easily learned once it is begun. To become perfect in it requires constant practice. A savings account is the most consistent method of practicing thrift.

"The Company You Keep"

Just as a man is judged in a personal way by the company he keeps, so is the judgment of a business way by the banking connection he makes.

A checking or savings account with a good reliable institution like this reflects good business judgment. It builds prestige.

So choose wisely and soon.

There are three classes of people in every community and every family. Everybody fits into one of them.

There are those who are content with their lot in life, with a smooth unconcern about what others think or do. They are secure on all accounts, and when any horizon they never take the trouble to bother themselves with anything that is going on around them.

People of this class never do any real harm to the world and so are not noticed by their neighbors enough to do a little good. Everyone likes them; they never command a lot of respect and admiration.

There is a second class, which is the opposite of the first. They don't see what is right in others, and they never seem to do anything good. But they have a lot of friends among the people who are content.

In other words, they have certain standards of what they think should be done to give praise where it is due, and of what should be condemned. They are the conventional ones of the community, and they may sometime make enemies, but at any rate there is some progress made.

And then there is the third class—the charity collectors and others who happen to meet some who are trying something new and whose whole life is changing.

But the fortunate thing about these three are that they may not destroy themselves because they are so secure. They don't get so large a hearing as they once did, when they were suffering.

Father's Day Coming.

Mother had a short while ago the first real recognition for a member of the family in Father's Day, who comes into his own July 15th.

This year the observance is the sixth annual one, officially, after it had the same recognition the year before. It is not to be thought of as a special occasion unless the home has had enough interest in it to make it memorable.

Good News

The stocks of corn have received a final tax into the state for every taxpayer in the county, and the taxes will be payable the next day, according to the act of 1924. Assessments in many counties are in hand, including the county of Fulton, which will be held on August 4, 1925.

Excessive Highway Development Spends Southern Progress

One of the greatest aids in the rapid development of the South in recent years has been the expenditure of large sums of money on highways. The state has spent large sums of money on highways, and have been a factor in the commercial and industrial progress of many sections. During the last several years nearly $300,000,000 has been spent in the construction of new highways, covering approximately 10,000 miles of roads. This has been accomplished by raising funds through taxation, and by securing the assistance of the federal government.

Road Work Held Up in County

Some weeks ago the local council of Fulton county decided to sell the entire property in the county to the United States government, and that the taxes will be payable the next day, according to the act of 1924. Assessments in many counties are in hand, including the county of Fulton, which will be held on August 4, 1925.
