COMMITTEES FAVORED TO TUBERCULOSIS HOSPITAL.

Paynter Urges License Bill for 'All Favorable action on Three Bills.

A FINE BILL IS PROPOSED FOR MAGISTRATE.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 7.—The judiciary committee of the legislature this morning reported favorably on three bills. One of the bills is the Ward bill, making it unlawful to induce any official of the state to accept a bribe. A second bill also takes action on a bill appropriating $500 for a tuberculosis hospital, and a third bill provides for the appointment of the superintendents of the various county hospitals.

The first bill, giving the attorney general power to recover from officers of the county outside of Paducah.

The second bill, making it unlawful to induce any official of the state to accept a bribe, was reported favorably by the judiciary committee.

The third bill, providing for the appointment of the superintendents of the various county hospitals, was also reported favorably by the judiciary committee.

JAIL FIRE

RATS CARRIED STRAW AND MOTHER DIED DURING
FLOOR AND CEILING

The State Journal-Advocate

Mr. Paul Howe, deputy jailer at Montgomery, Ala., said that several prisoners nearly escape on Saturday, when a fire was started in the jail.

The fire was first noticed by John Smith, a colored prisoner, who was at work cleaning the jail. He at once reported the fire to the sheriff, who at once ordered the prisoners to be removed to the sheriff's office. The fire quickly subsided.
