HISTORY OF MARSHALL CO.

The History of Marshall County is now out of press and ready for delivery. All paid-up subscribers of the Tribune, and all new subscribers who pay one dollar, are entitled to one of these books, and now is the time for the people of the county to get their home paper for one year and the history of the county for the small sum of one dollar. Such an inducement has never before been offered the subscribers of a county paper and before they are all gone the people had better avail themselves of this rare opportunity to get both for one dollar. Only 150 have been set apart for new subscribers and the first come the first served. Quite a large number of new names have already been handed in and in less than 50 days all will be gone. We have given much time and money in order to get out a creditable history of the county and put one in almost every family. Now we offer the Tribune, one of the best county papers in the state, and a copy of the county's history all for one dollar, and we hope the people of the county will so appreciate our labors as to come forward and subscribe at once. Without the Tribune the price of the book is 50 cents.

THE GOVERNOR'S RACE.

At present there are only two regular candidates for the gubernatorial nomination, and in some parts of the state neither of these gentlemen are the choice of the people. The democrats cannot afford to nominate a man next year for governor that is not in perfect touch with the party. The state convention could make a mistake, one that would cost the party its power in this state, and the leading democrats should now begin to lay aside all favorites and look to a democrat with "no flies on him," one that is clean and clear and that every democrat in the state would delight to honor as the standard-bearer of the party for that position. If the democracy of the state don't want to take the chances of the election of Hardin or Clay, and believe some other man would be more acceptable to the people, then it is its duty to lay them aside and nominate the one that will be acceptable. If Congressman Stone would consent to enter the governor's race he would, in our opinion, get the nomination, and if he were the standard-bearer he would have no trouble in being elected by at least 20,000 majority. Stone is a good man, and would make a good governor, and why not nominate him? It is now time to look about.

A Methodist Praying for Water.

The Methodists in and about Briensburg have always complained that there was a certain class of people there that wanted too much water, but the long spell of dry weather that has just ended has caused quite a change in public sentiment, among at least some of these good brethren, in regard to water. George Lemon is a high, dry Methodist, and has always made light of the the good people that believed in the use of water in more ways than one, but the good Lord has a way of teaching some people the great value of water and he never neglected to try his hand on Bro. Lemon this fall. One of his neighbors was in the city the other day and he told us that George lives on a very dry farm, especially in dry weather, and that he has been hauling water for months, in fact until his patience had become threadbare. He studied the cause of his misfortune until he became satisfied that before he could have plenty water he must go to the Lord in prayer. He went into the cistern house, where there was not a drop of water, and was heard to offer up the following prayer: "Oh, Lord, I know I am a member of the M. E. Church South, and have never believed in even so much water as is spoken of in the New Testament; I know I have said many things and left undone many things I should have done, against water, but I have seen the error of my way and felt the sore need of good pure water, and now in my hours of sore distress wish to apologize for what I have said in the past against large quantities of water, and will promise that in the future I shall never say aught against Thee, but shall always be found contending for at least water enough in which to bury me, with some to spare. Amen."

In less than 24 hours after he ended this earnest prayer he was blessed with plenty of good running water. If a few more of our Methodist brethren would pray such prayers the country would not have to endure such long and continued drouths.

The Magistrates' Time Not Out.

The magistrates now in office were elected under the provision of the old constitution, their terms beginning June 1, 1891, and ending June 1, 1895. Their commissions all state the term, the time of entry and the time of expiration. The new constitution provides that the justices elected in 1894 shall enter upon the discharge of the duties of their offices on the first Monday in January after their election. If the new constitution can affect a right accrued under the old constitution, then the old magistrates go out of office on the first Monday in January, 1895. If the term of an elective office, provided for under the old constitution, cannot be affected by the new constitution, then the new justices will not enter office until June 1, 1895. Every other officer's term elected by the new constitution. Nearly all of the old justices in many counties are going to hold on to their commissions until June 1, 1895, and we have heard of one or two in this county say that they will not vacate on January 1st, but will remain in office until the time for which they were elected expires. If all of our old magistrates conclude to do this the new ones will not take their seat until next June. Gentlemen you had better hold on for fear you never get there again.

The Deestrick Skule.

The old fashioned "Deestrick Skule," one of the oldest entertainments and by the way the most interesting and entertaining, will be given at the Seminary, perhaps on Thursday night after Christmas, that our people have ever had the pleasure of seeing or hearing. The country school of fifty years ago is plagiarized, satirized, caricatured and scandalized by a class of old boys and girls, all of whom attended the original school and consequently know where they "are at" when it comes to a representation of this kind. There will be several classes under one teacher and both teacher and pupils are home people among whom are some excellent actors and actresses. This excellent piece will be rendered in the interest of the Christian church, by whom it was gotten up, but they will be assisted by members of all the other denominations, and will do all they can to make the entertainment a success. The proceeds will go to assist the ladies of that church in papering, carpeting and otherwise fixing their house of worship. The enterprise is a laudable one, and these good ladies should receive the hearty co-operation of both saint and sinner.

Important Notice.

Prof. T. D. Brown will open a spring term at Maple Spring on the first Monday in January, and from the indications he will begin with a full school. His reputation as a school teacher, and the locality in which he will teach, is a sure guarantee of his deserving patronage. When we say there is no better nor more popular educator in this country we only speak what hundreds of others will endorse. He is a hard worker, and it has been by his energy in the school-room that Marshall county is now so full of first-class teachers. Board is cheap, tuition reasonable, and the community in which he will teach is free from all temptations that have a tendency to retard the progress of young men and women at school. There is no man that better deserves the assistance of the people in his efforts to build up a good school than Prof. Brown. Persons desiring to send their boys and girls to school can do no better than to send them to Prof. Brown's school.

John J. Mitchell Dead.

Last Saturday John Mitchell of this county who had been to Paducah on a visit to his mother started out from the P. T. & A. depot to the crossing of the two roads this side of town, and while he was walking the trestle near the crossing a train came along and he stepping out on a piece of timber let his foot slip and fell to the ground and so badly hurt him that he died at his mother's the same day at 8 o'clock a. m. He was well known in this county, was 45 years old and was a brother of Joe Mitchell. His body was brought to this county and buried at Calvert City.

The Pains of Rheumatism.

According to the best authorities, originate in a morbid condition of the blood. Lactic acid, caused by the decomposition of the gelatinous and albuminous tissues, particularly in the joints, and thus causes the local manifestations of the disease. The back and shoulders are the parts usually affected by rheumatism, and the joints at the knees, ankles, hips and wrists are also attacked. Thousands of people have found in Hood's Sarsaparilla a positive and permanent cure rheumatism. It has had remarkable success in curing the most severe cases. The secret of its success lies in the fact that it attacks at once the cause of the disease by neutralizing the lactic acid and purifying the blood, as well as strengthening every function of the body.

DRIFTWOOD

Comes Again With a Big Budget.

Briensburg Ky., Dec. 10.—As the governor of South Carolina once remarked, "its a long time between drinks," but the fact is we got our grapes soured along about the last election and rushed off into solitude to convince the world that we were too fine to live in it there alone to vent our spleen on the powers that be. No star fell from the firmament at our going, and no brass-band demonstration herald our coming back. Nevertheless we are here, (and just at this point we wish to drop the hint that we've come to stay) to testify that solitude may be a good place for owls and bats, but its the last place for a fellow to stop who wants to retain his self-respect. When a man gets to the "pint" when he loses confidence in all mankind and does the solitude act we've noticed that no committee waits on him and begs him to come back. No man can live to himself, and a fiend from the bottomless pit couldn't live in solitude without growing worse. Yes, we've come to stay, and unlike the recent republican majority, which will be of few days and full of trouble, our stay will be permanent.

The fellow who "drempt" that dream in last week's Tribune was surely suffering from a horrible nightmare, or cogitating on Cleveland's last message to congress; either document is enough to give any man with an ounce of brain the "jim-jams." The former had its origin during a state of suppressed animation, while the latter was a bastard of a diseased brain. That message will give the calamity howler a new base of life and cleared the way for another big republican majority.

We are for Jim West for the legislature, and the very mention of his name will revive the drooping spirits of every democrat who loves good government. He is a democrat of the old school, and as a stump speaker has few equals, and from a political standpoint he can deal blows that would fell an ox. Three cheers for West. What say you?

Important to Live Stock Shippers.

Commencing with Wednesday November 28th, and continuing each succeeding Wednesday the St. Louis & Paducah Ry. will run a Special Weekly Live Stock Express Train from Paducah to East St. Louis. This train will leave Paducah every Wednesday at 1:15 p. m. arriving at East St. Louis at 4:10 Thursday morning in time for feeding, watering and resting stock before the opening of the market. Shippers at Benton can therefore load their stock for P. T. & A. train leaving Benton at 9:10 Wednesday morning and have it in East St. Louis for Thursday morning's market.

This special service places one of the best stock markets in the country within easy reach of shippers in this section and should enable them to move their stock shipments to that market more profitably than to any other markets.

Our regular through freight leaving Paducah every evening at 4:30 will run as heretofore and special attention will be given to shipments of stock forwarded on this train also.

How The Apostles Died.

Below is an account of how Christ's apostles died.

St. Peter was crucified in Rome, with his head down on a cross similar to that used in the execution of Jesus.

Andrew was bound on a cross and left to die from exhaustion.

St. James, the Great, was beheaded by order of Herod at Jerusalem.

St. James, the Less, was thrown from a high pinnacle, then stoned and finally killed with a fuller's club.

St. Philip was bound and hanged against a pillar.

St. Bartholemew was flayed to death by command of a barbarous king.

St. Mathew was killed with a halbert.

St. Thomas was shot by a shower of arrow while at prayer, and afterwards run through the body with a lance.

St. Simon was crucified after the manner of Jesus.

Mark was dragged through the streets of Alexandria until he expired.

Luke was hanged on an olive tree in Greece.

John died a natural death.

Paul was beheaded by command of Nero.

Judas "fell and his bowels crushed out."

Barnabas was stoned to death by Jews.

Estray Notice.

Taken up and posted by James L. Wyatt, living on the Paducah and Aurora road, one mile east of Briensburg, Marshall county, Ky., two yearlings, valued and described by G. W. Lemon as follows: one red bull, two years old in the spring, swallow fork and udder in left ear and crop and split in right ear. Also one heifer yearling, 2 years old, white and spotted ears, unmarked. Both of said yearlings are valued at $6 each. Given under my hand Dec. 10, 1894.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder

Most Perfect Made.

The peculiarity of the ailment of Mrs. T. E. Barnes is such that on last Sunday morning she and her husband left for Hopkinsville where he will take here out to the asylum and place her under the care of the physicians of that institution. She will remain there for a time indefinite and see if any good can be done her by their treatment. There is no mistake but she is the most peculiarly effected of any person ever before seen in this county. At times her friends think she will soon be well, then again they despair of her recovery. At times her mind is not right and in her melancholy moods her friends fear she will hurt herself or get away from her home. She has been known to get up in the dead hours of the night and go out on the front porch or in some adjoining room and it was with some difficulty that she could be gotten back in her room. Her condition is indeed pitiable and the friends of the family are very solicitous of her future health.
