New Officers.

Some of the Men Who Were Successful at the Last Election.

J. H. Little, Sheriff.

On yesterday the duties of sheriff passed from C. H. Starks to J. H. Little. As the law requires Mr. Little executed the three bonds of his office and on the first day of the year began his duties as such officer. He has served the county in the past as sheriff for four years and the manner in which he conducted the affairs of that office is too familiar to the people of the county to need any comment at present.

Mr. Little served two years as jailer to which the people of the county are indebted to whom the jailer of the county is of three years. So long as the county is in the hands of the county jailer, it is a matter of course will do so in the future.

The gentleman who will take the oath of office for the second time next Monday, as the jailer of Marshall county. There is nothing now to say concerning this popular gentleman, he has served the county one term of four years as its jailer and was re-elected a second term at the last November election and is now ready to do all the duties devolving upon him as the jailer of the county for the ensuing term of three years. He is one of the few county officials that without fear or favor performs his duty and it has been by so doing that he is now the jailer of the county for a second term. There is one thing for which Mr. Ely is noted that perhaps the taxpayers of the county do not appreciate, as much as they should, and that is the interests he manifests in the protection and care of the public buildings of the county. Every few years a complaint comes up from various counties of the institution of county officials to the property of the county. This is not made against Mr. Ely. The court house, jail and other property of the county under his control is cared for by him with as much interest as if it were his own. We have no fears, but what his conduct, for the next three years will be as satisfactory to the people as it has been for the past four. This is a sufficient guarantee of his official conduct for one and all at present.

J. G. Lovett, County Attorney.

Next Monday, a new county attorney in the person of J. G. Lovett will take the oath of office and enter upon the immediate discharge of his duties as such officer. The official robes of H. M. Heath as county attorney will be taken from his shoulders and placed upon Mr. Lovett, a young man of unusual ability and promise.

we say in advance of his work that the few men who left the democratic party that can carry more than his party's strength, which is as their next county clerk. As a true indication of his popularity among the masses. He has never been much of a money maker, but has always managed to keep himself in comfortable circumstances.

He is liberal, conservative and moral and never fails to let his light shine on the side of religion, good government and the betterment of society. He is really an example of that character of men who by a study and persistent course in life, of honorable dealing with his fellow men has pushed himself to the most honorable position in the gift of his county.

There will be a large crowd of voters of the county in the next Monday to witness his inauguration as county clerk. During his term in the past, he has in his hands the county of debt and good roads and he has been an accommodation of his fellow citizens. The taxpayers of the county need have no fears that their interest will be well guarded so long as John J. Dupriest is at the head of the county's affairs.

With the beginning of the new year and the beginning of a new term we wish the judges a prosperous and economical administration.

R. E. Heath.

The above named gentleman was born and raised in this county and has been a citizen of Benton since 1891. Everybody knows Dr. Heath and they know him to be a nice, clever gentleman in all respects; a true Kentuckian, honest as the days are long, bold and fearless, but a friend to all. Mr. Heath has been deputy city marshal of Benton for the past year, and has made an excellent officer. At the last November election he was elected city Marshal over two worthy opponents, one being the present incumbent, Mr. D. F. Fiser, by a good majority. On next Monday the 7th Mr. Heath will qualify and enter upon his duties as city marshal of the county. He has served the county for one year and was re-elected for the year ending at the last business meeting of the county, 1894. He is very capable and is a great service to the county during the past year in more ways than one. He has served the county almost without pay, because a new house was built and it took all the money that could be raised to pay for it. It has been by his untiring energy and devotion that his church at this place is now the owner of a neat new house of worship. The church is indeed, fortunate in securing his services for another year, because this will be the most important year in the history of the church and no man is better fitted than Dr. Heath to enthrone into a church that has lain in a dormant condition as long as this church, the necessary enthusiasm to make it the tower of strength that it should be in this town for good. As a minister he is improving very rapidly, and his sermons show that he is giving much of his time to the study of the practical points in theology. We predict a year of useful work to the church and to the town by Bro. Heath and if his church will encourage him and assist him his power as a local divine will be wonderful during the year 1895.

The New Fiscal Court.

Hereafter there will be five magisterial districts in the county known as No. 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5. M. G. Nelson will qualify next Monday, as the commissioned justice of the peace number one. He has several years experience on the bench and has been a conservative and efficient officer. He keeps his eye on the needs of the county and economize for the taxpayer.

District number two will be represented on the fiscal bench, by H. C. Hastin. He is also a man of several years experience as a justice and has served in the past with great satisfaction to his people. He is a man of no fears in the office, for he is better prepared to do good work for the county now than he has been heretofore. So we predict that he will faithfully represent the district known as No. 2.

Mr. Hastin, of Calvert City, who is in the next three years as a justice of the peace of the new fiscal court of the county. We believe this is a man of the bench, but we do not know of him as a justice of the peace. He will be a member of the bench, but we do not know of him as a justice of the peace. So we predict that he will faithfully represent the district known as No. 5.

WEDNESDAY JANUARY 2.

In assuming the responsibilities as business manager of the Tribune for the year 1895, I do so feeling that my friends and the patrons of the Tribune will do their part by helping in the work as they have in the past. The Tribune is proud of its past record and hopes to be justly so at the end of another year. It has prospered in the year just gone beyond expectations and feels under many obligations to its patrons for their assistance. But the new management hopes to even do a greater work this year than ever before, and with the co-operation of its friends will do so. Our aim is to place the Tribune in every household in Marshall county this year. If you are not already a subscriber we want you on our list. We still have about 150 copies of the History of the county left, which will be given to the first 150 new subscribers to the Tribune for the year 1895. They will not last long, so if you want one come in with your dollar here the Tribune sent to you for a whole year and get the book free of charge. The book is something you will ever appreciate, besides you can't well afford to do without your county paper. Come in next Monday and show us you appreciate your county newspaper.

Respectfully,

JAS. V. WEAR,
Associate Editor and Business Manager.

The Paducah Dispatch is no more, it is numbered with the past.

Hon. John G. Carlisle will not be a candidate for the United States Senate in Kentucky.

We want the populists of Marshall and Lyon to assist in electing Jesse Lindsey to a seat in the next General Assembly.

The First District Republican will start again soon on its errand of love and mercy. Let it come; we miss it off our exchange table.

There is a strong feeling in some parts of the county for D. B. Ferguson to become a candidate for the legislature, but in an interview with him the other day, he said he could not think of making the race.

The man or woman who hugs the fire and neglects business even a little, excusing him or herself on the ground that there's no use of freezing one's self, or risking a deadly cold, will conclude, if there is a show or entertainment in town that "nothing is better for the constitution than a bracing air, the 'bracing' the better."

The Kentucky Populist need not complain at the flimsiness of the populist platform. It is as good now as it will ever be, and perhaps, better. That party changes it to suit the tender feelings of the weak party, near where the platform is manufactured, it is said for "fusing" purposes. Bless their souls, it won't be long until they will need no platform.

Following is the vote for governor of Tennessee. Turney 104,356; Evans 109,104; Mims 23,092. Evans plurality 748. In 1892 the democrats polled 126,247, a loss of this year of 22,891. The republicans in 1892 polled 100,629, a gain in two years of 4,475. In 1892 the populists polled 31,515, a loss in two years of 8,523. To sum it all up in a nut shell the democrats simply staid at home while the republicans got in their work.

Newspaper Local.

We are informed by the N. G. Hamilton Pub Co., of Cleveland O., whose advertisement has appeared in this paper, that agents have made over $75,000 on the sale of "Samantha at the World's Fair," Josiah Allen's Wife's latest book. Marshall County seems to be behind the times, for there has been no canvassing done in this county. There is a good field open for hustlers, for at the lowest estimate $125 can be made in Marshall county by two or three good agents.

About Weddings.

These cold days and nights are being celebrated by numerous weddings in various parts of the county. But from the present indications there will be other weddings brought about by some of our neighbors and close friends that will take place many miles from home.

W. G. Dycus has been on a flying trip to Henderson and since his return he looks more like a gentleman than will soon get married than any man we have seen for some time, except our young friend, J. K. Wilson, who has just returned from a trip up in Ohio county. These young men look as though they had been on their second trip for the purpose of hearing the final answer, and that they had received, and it was composed of the three useful letters y-e-s. It is hardly time for a trip to Paris, by another person, but it may be his visits may soon become more frequent.

Boon Fields, a dashing young man of Briansburg, so says madam rumor, was rather seriously snowed under last week. He has been paying his best regards to a beautiful young lady in the city, and it is said they had concluded to get married, but during the snow storm last Wednesday she hied away with a Graves county boy and got married and left Boon out in the cold. But Boon can console himself with the pacific found in this, "that there is as good fish in the sea as ever were caught."

Thos. West, a young man from Graves county, came over during the Christmas holidays and on Wednesday morning after Christmas left for Metropolis, Ill., with Miss Rosa Larimore of this city, where they were made man and wife, after which he returned to his home in east Graves, where he will reside in the future. Miss Rosa is a daughter of Mrs. Larimore, of North Benton, and is a young lady well beloved by all who know her.

Mr. Hugh Brown and Mrs. Nola Filbeck were married the 30th of December at her home near Olive. Mr. Brown is one of the best young men in his community and he should be quite happy in gaining the love and confidence of so estimable a lady as Mrs. Filbeck.

Mr. Thos. Chester and Miss Lillian Hill were married during the Christmas holidays. They are among the county's most respectable young people and the Tribune joins their hosts of friends in wishing them a long and happy life.

R. L. Nanney and Miss Lena Morgan were married last Wednesday morning at the residence of his mother in the east part of the city by Elder B. T. Hall of the Baptist church. They left on the 8 o'clock train for his home in the district where he is teaching school. Mr. Nanney is a nice young man and Miss Lena was one of Benton's most popular young ladies.

Last Monday morning at the residence of Mr. Henry Hiett in North Benton, the Rev. W. L. Tidwell officiating, Mr. Andrew Pitts was married to Miss Florence Rushing, daughter of Mrs. Henry Hiett. The Tribune, with friends, extends congratulations and wish them an even journey over life's tempestuous sea.

On last Sunday evening at 5 o'clock at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. A. J. Jones, near Unity church in the south east part of the county, Mr. Richard Harrison, son of our old friend Gen. Harrison, was married to Miss Ella Jones, one of Marshall county's most charming young ladies. The words that made them one were said by Rev. M. D. Jones. These are well-known and highly respected people, and we wish them all the joys of a happy union.

There is another disappointed young man in Marshall county. His name is Luge Baker. Now it was understood that Luge and Miss Leon Cox were to be married on Christmas day; but on the Sunday before Mr. Charlie Owens came along and Miss Leon changed her mind, and they were married, much to the regret of Mr. Baker. It seems this kind of doing is beginning to be very popular, as we have had two cases of a similar nature in one week. The above parties live near Oak Level and are highly respected young people.

Driftwood's Drift.

The Man Who Wrote "Beautiful Snow" Not "In It."

Old Love Rekindled and Then a Wedding Took Place.

THE RIVAL NOW IN SORROW.

Other News of a Local Nature.

BRIENSBURG Dec. 31, 1894.—The fellow who wrote "Beautiful Snow" evidently never found himself fishing around for kindling under a coat of frigid snow-down a foot thick, or vainly trying to find his socks which he had left hanging high and dry the night before.

The young man who celebrates Christmas by getting beastly drunk will look in vain for his name when the biographer makes up his list of the world's great men.

Several young ladies and gentlemen went tobogganing Sunday evening, and "thereby hangs a tale" of how the sled came in contact with the town cow. Tableau; ring down the curtain.

A prominent young man and school teacher of the Palma neighborhood and a lady formerly of the same place but now a resident of Todd county will shortly get married. A pretty romance in connection with the above mentioned wedding has been going the rounds to the effect that years ago they were separated through a lover's quarrel and to all appearances the old love was dead. In the mean time another young man of the same neighborhood had apparently wooed and won her love. She was to visit her old home and they were to be quietly married. A few days ago she came to this county ostensibly to visit relatives, but in fact to get married. Here she met her old love who renewed his suit and the spark that had been smoldering so long was kindled anew. He proposed was accepted and the time fixed for the wedding. The young lady returned home, a wedding was declared off and lover number two mourns and refuses to be comforted. All of which goes to show that true love never, never dies.

Next Wednesday night, at the Methodist church in this village, Rev. R. E. Humphrey officiating, the words will be spoken that will unite the lives and fortunes of Mr. Bert Dycus, of Palma, and Miss Ida Luter, of near here. In advance of the happy event we throw the slipper with the hope that their sail on life's tempestuous sea may be free from "squalls."

Mr. Sam Fields who went to Paducah some months ago to reside has returned and says Marshall county is good enough for him.

We have no sickness, deaths, accidents, births, murders or suicides to chronicle, and if some thing don't happen pretty soon there is going to be a "busted" newspaper correspondent.

DRIFTWOOD.

What They Say.

Editor J. R. Lemon, of the Benton Tribune, has written and published a history of Marshall county. It is a very neat little book of 160 pages containing much historical data of interest, together with biographical sketches of prominent citizens and other readable matter. It has numerous illustrations and is a credit to its compiler and publisher. No citizen of Marshall county should attempt to keep his house without a copy of Lemon's history.—News

Col. J. R. Lemon, of the Benton Tribune, has prepared and printed a very neat and creditable history of Marshall county. Its title, "Lemon's Hand-book of Marshall County, Giving Its History, Advantages, etc., and Biographical Sketches of Its Prominent Citizens" is an indication of its contents. It is a pamphlet of 160 pages, neatly printed and well edited.—Dispatch.

We are in receipt of a copy of the "History of Marshall county," by J. R. Lemon, editor of the Benton Tribune. It is a very comprehensive book, well gotten up, and clearly shows the ability of Bro. Lemon as an author. It is profusely illustrated, containing pictures of most of the leading men of the county, with the beaming countenance of the author as a frontispiece.—Carlisle Co. News.

At the Churches.

On Christmas Eve there was a Christmas tree at the Christian church. The Christian Sunday school was assisted by the Sunday school of the Baptist church and both schools together made a nice showing. Many beautiful presents were on the tree that made the hearts of the little children, who had been so faithful at Sunday school during the past year beat with joy.

There was a Santa Claus crib at the Methodist church which was both new and beautiful and the young folks all enjoyed the many tokens of friendship they received from it. There was plenty of good music both by the band and the choir. Mrs. Tolley gave a recitation that was highly creditable to herself as an elocutionist and was greatly enjoyed by her hearers. Prof. J. P. Brannock read an interesting essay on the birth of Christmas.

There was a large crowd and good order at both churches and everything passed off entirely satisfactory to both old and young.

A Success.

The "Deestrick Skul" entertainment given Saturday night December 22nd by the ladies of the Christian church, at the Seminary, was a decided success. It was played to a house full of the best people in the town and county and to say they enjoyed it would be to only half express it. The old "Deestrick Skul" of 50 years ago was played to perfection and it was laughable in all of its parts from the beginning to the end. Members of all the different denominations assisted in it and did all they could to make it a success and the entertainment, netted the church the nice little sum of $35, which was very satisfactory to all the ladies who got it up.

Milked the Wrong Cow.

During the holidays Mr. J. W. Parks, of North Benton, came up town and was a little too familiar with egg-nog, Tom and Jerry and other seductive beverages for his safety. He returned home late in the afternoon, when his good wife told him to go out and milk the cow. This he was glad to do just at this particular time. He went out and turned a cow in the lot and after beating and banging her for sometime he finally got about a pint of milk, when he went in and told his wife that after a d—n sight of trouble he had milked the cow. When she discovered the small amount of milk she pulled his nose and sent him back, but out of abundant caution she went with him to the edge of the porch and to her horror she then saw that husband had made a mistake and instead of trying to milk his own cow, that usually gave two gallons of milk at a milking, he had been trying to milk a young heifer belonging to his neighbor Mr. Reynolds. She took him by the ear and led him back into her room and he has never been seen since.

The School Exhibition.

The best school exhibition ever witnessed here was given by Prof. Brannock and his competent assistants at the close of his school at the seminary on Friday night before Christmas. The stage was beautifully arranged and decorated and the pieces one and all were well learned and rendered in a manner creditable to all parties concerned. There was not standing room in the house, the crowd was so great. The exhibition was good from first to last and all those who witnessed it were highly delighted and edified. The manner in which the speeches, essays and dialogues were spoken showed that much care had been taken by the teachers in order to make the exhibition one worthy of the name. Prof. Brannock, Miss Mary Holland and Miss Lucy Bearden deserve the highest praise and gratitude of all of our people for the excellent school they have taught and the able and satisfactory manner in which they acquitted themselves in conducting the exhibition at the close of their school.

Colds, coughs, bronchitis, and all throat and lung diseases are effectively treated with Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. To neglect the use of proper remedies for these ailments, is to induce consumption, which is said to cause one-sixth of the mortality in all civilized countries.

It is not very safe in these days to mention "cinnamon sausage" to a certain lady in the town. She made a mistake and put cinnamon in the sausage instead of red pepper, but for all that it is not safe to have a sausage conversation with this good woman.

J. R. Lemon and his son, Clay, went to Paducah yesterday, to begin the year's work with Lemon-Gregory Hat Company. We predict for them a prosperous year in their new business.

If you want a nice overcoat at the wholesale price, call at next Monday and see T. E. Barnes. He is selling them at cost, and Monday his great bargain day.

If you want a history of your county free, now is the time to get one. All you have to do is pay $1 for your county paper for one year and the book goes free. Come on and get one.

All persons indebted to me either by note or account are hereby requested to come in and settle same, as I need the money. Beginning with the new year I am compelled thereafter to sell goods strictly for cash. Thanking all for past favors and asking a continuance, I am, Respt., T. E. BARNES.

Miss Lula Reed spent the holidays accompanied home by Miss Lexie Baird and Miss Maude Johnson, two charming young ladies of Tyler, Texas, who are her roommates at Jackson. They enjoyed themselves splendidly for a few days and returned to their school last week. We hope they will not make this their last visit to our city.

Dan Treas during the Christmas holidays, came into the city and bought himself a jug of whiskey for a Christmas drink. On his way home he and his companion lifted his hind feet a little too high when one of his feet tapped the jug rather heavily and it broke and for all the joy it contained fell promiscuously about. Young Treas went home and spent the day very pleasantly with his family.

Louis Dent, the youngest son of Tom D. Dent, deceased, is now in the county on a visit to relatives from his home in Texas. He was only a lad 17 years old, when he left home 18 years ago, since which time he has married and grown to be a man of middle age, and is now a prosperous farmer. His old friends were glad to meet him.

Col. Ed D. Palmer and family, of Jackson, are here on a visit to relatives. They are welcome guests to many others beside their kin, for their friends here are numbered by the score. Mr. Palmer is still in the railway mail service between Cairo and New Orleans.

D. M. Estes, a young man who left Briensburg six years ago, and went to Texas, came in last week to visit relatives and old friends. He is a son of Louis Estes, deceased, and besides being a nice young man is doing well near Ft. Worth. He will remain some time before he returns.

McClure's Wine of Cardui for Female Diseases.

The Marshall county boys seem to be very popular in the city of Paducah at present. Mr. Man W. Clark is a member of the city council. J. H. Brien is and has been a member of the school board for years. Frank Gilbert, assistant postmaster, with Dick Sutherland and Jas F. Crow as policeman.

Mrs. Mag Sims died at her home near Fair Daling ten days ago from the effects of child birth. She was only sick a few days. She was a kind woman and leaves a husband and one child to mourn her loss. She and her infant babe were both buried in the same coffin.

What a Tempest.

The county board of supervisors will meet at the court house next Monday for the purpose of supervising the assessor's books. The board this year is composed of J. W. Wilson, A. W. Johnson, J. W. C. Lee, N. B. Sargent and J. M. Franklin.

There are some persons who go to church in such a state of intoxication that they so misbehave as to disturb those about them that they cannot enjoy the services. All such persons should remain at home.

Bardwell a Prosperous Town.

The vote on the local option law at Bardwell a few days ago resulted in a vote for sobriety and on top of 556, and 55 for saloons. The people of that good town are certainly to be congratulated in placing their condemnation upon the very business that destroys the prosperity of all county towns.

Stray Notice.

Taken up and posted by James L. Wyatt, living on the Paducah and Aurora road, one mile east of Briensburg, Marshall county, Ky., two yearlings, valued and described by G. W. Lemon as follows: one red bull, two years old in the spring, swallow fork and under bit in left ear and top of split in right ear. Also one heifer, yearling, 2 years old, white and spotted ears, unmarked. Both of said yearlings are valued at $50 each. Given under my hand Dec. 10, 1894.

The school board met the other day and employed S. L. Frogge, G. W. Oliver and Miss Mollie Treas to teach the spring school. They are all good teachers and will doubtless have an interesting spring school.

The Reign of the Demagogue.

It is time to reexamine the country from the demagogue, who has followed one folly with another until all business is prostrate.

We have listened to him as he talked of tariff and high wages; of silver and high prices; of regulation of railroad rates; of war on capital; of a thousand and one other propositions for regulating other people until, in Kentucky, at least, we have impaired the value of our property, affrighted capital and fixed on our people a constitution which is a monument to our own folly.

There are indications that the sensible, reasonable, self-respecting people of America are growing little tired of their shame, and are organizing themselves for the purpose of resuming control of their own affairs.

Take, for illustration the recent municipal election in Boston. The republicans named Curtis; the democrats named Francis Penbody.
Mr. Penbody received an invitation to the pavers' ball, and, at the invitation of President Donovan, of the democratic city committee, he went, saw, danced—and lost.

Other gatherings wanted him as a terpsichorean exhibit, advertised him as such, and secured his services. Instead of talking his way into the hearts of his constituents with stump speeches, he tried to dance his way there. Soon the very democrats whom he sought to please began to look on the presence of this scion of the Back Bay, who would scorn to be present at such gatherings under other conditions, as an insult to their intelligence, and the jig was up. The dancing dervish was openly assailed by some courageous republican leaders, who, "as it were," tore his dances to tatters.

The people revolted, and in a strong democratic city, this man, who showed as little self-respect as respect for his constituents, was beaten by 4,000 votes.

The other day in the House a bill permitting pooling passed the House. It is not a good bill; no amendment to the Interstate Commerce act which does not abolish it altogether can be good, but it is a modification of a bad law, and its passage indicated a revolt against the reigning demagogue.

Mr. John C. Cowen, of Baltimore, declares "that the passage of the railway pooling bill will do more to improve financial conditions than did the repeal of the purchasing clause of the Sherman act." Mr. Cowen says that 95 percent, of what are known abroad as American securities are railroad stocks, and the restoration of a system under which the railroad companies shall be enabled to establish rates, and collect the rates they establish will restore confidence of foreign investors and stop the depletion of our gold reserve to pay for shares thrust back upon our hands.

Undoubtedly the interstate commerce act, the commissions under that act, and the mischievous commissions in thirty other states, seeking ignorantly to regulate rates, have done to the railroads an immense damage, and consequently a serious damage to railroad employees and to the country generally.

Its modification will have a good effect, but Mr. Cowen overestimates the value of the modification.
To accomplish all he anticipates it will be necessary to repeal the law altogether.

We believe the people to be ready for a campaign of education on all these subjects of practical legislation. They have grown weary of the false promises, the ignorance, the insincerity of the demagogue, none of whose promises has been fulfilled, but the result of whose labors we see in the general prostration of industry and the widespread disturbance of all financial affairs.

Give the demagogue a kick.

Common Sense

Should be used in attempting to cure that very disagreeable disease, catarrh. As catarrh originates in impurities in the blood, local applications can do no permanent good. The common sense method of treatment is to purify the blood, and for this purpose there is no preparation superior to Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Hood's Pills cure constipation by restoring peristaltic action to the alimentary canal.

Any one who has children, will rejoice with L. B. Mottford, Plainfield, N. J. His little boy, five years of age, was sick with croup.
For two days and nights he tried various remedies recommended by friends and neighbors. He says:
"I thought sure I would lose him.
I had seen Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised and thought I would try it as a last hope and am happy to say that after two doses he slept until morning. I gave it to him next day and a cure was effected. I keep this remedy handy now and as soon as any of my children show signs of croup I give it to them and that is the last of it."

Some Things to Learn.

Learn to laugh. A good laugh is better than medicine. Learn how to tell a story. A well-told story is as welcome as a sunbeam in a sick room. Learn to keep your own troubles to yourself.
The world is too busy to care for your ills and sorrows. Learn to stop croaking. If you cannot see any good in the world, keep the bad to yourself. Learn to hide your pains and aches under a pleasant smile. No one cares to hear whether you have the vari-chae, headache or rheumatism.
Don't cry. Tears do well enough in novels, but they are out of place in real life. Learn to meet your friends with a smile. The good-humored man or woman is always welcome, but the dyspeptic or hypochondriac is not wanted anywhere, and is a nuisance as well.

It May Do as Much for You.

Mr. Fred Miller, of Irving Ill., writes that he had a severe kidney trouble for many years, with severe pains in his back and also that his bladder was affected. He tried many so called kidney cures but without any good result.
About a year ago he began use of Electric Bitters and found relief at once. Electric Bitters is especially adapted to cure of all Kidney and Liver troubles and often gives almost relief. One trial will prove our statement. Price only 50c. for large bottle. At Lemon's Drug Store.

It would be well for the children in farm homes if we could take a little higher plan in our own lives. Instead of magnifying the value of a dollar, we had better give more thought to things that develop us intellectually. The family in the country can use books, magazines and papers to keep in touch with the world of thought fully as well as, and usually much better than, the one in town or city. The children thus get and hold opinions that help fix habits and character. There is little isolation about farm life to those who read and think, and if our children can be taught to read and think, they will have a foundation laid that will keep them from sinking down out of sight in this busy world. Character, thought and conviction always make their impress, and on our American farms we are determining the standing of farmers for the coming generations. If we make money our one anxiety, the next generation will be rated lower than this. There should be more in life than worry about money.

Mr. Ira P. Wetmore, a prominent real estate agent of San Angelo, Texas, has used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in his family for several years as occasion required, and always with perfect success. He says: "I find it a perfect cure for our baby when troubled with colic or dysentery. I now feel that my outfit is not complete without a bottle of this Remedy at home or on a trip away from home." For sale by R. H. Starks.

The outlook for higher prices for wheat is certainly not a very hopeful one, and growers in the United States may as well look the fact in the face at once.
Western Europe is the market for our surplus wheat. Our competitors are underselling us in that market. So all we endeavor to lower the cost of production, so that we can retain the market for our surplus wheat, or shall we stop producing a surplus? These and other questions relating to wheat we are now compelled to study seriously.

Important to Live Stock Shippers.

Commencing with Wednesday November 28th, and continuing each succeeding Wednesday the St. Louis & Paducah Ry. will run a Special Weekly Live Stock Express Train from Paducah to East St. Louis. This train will leave Paducah every Wednesday at 1:15 p. m., arriving at East St. Louis at 4:10 Thursday morning in time for feeding, watering and resting stock before the opening of the market. Shippers at Benton can therefore load their stock for P. T. & A train leaving Benton at 9:10 Wednesday morning and have it in East St. Louis for Thursday morning's market.

This special service places one of the best stock markets in the country within easy reach of shippers in this section and should enable them to move their stock shipments to that market more profitably than to any other market.

Our regular through freight leaving Paducah every evening at 4:30 will run as heretofore and special attention will be given to shipments of stock forwarded on this train also.

A "Compliment."

Two old school-fellows met. 15 years after their graduation, and fell, figuratively, upon each other's necks.

"Well, well, dear old Smith!" said Green. "How glad I am to see you! What days those were!"

"Ha, ha, Smith, you were the stupid-est fellow in the class."

"Yes, I suppose I was."

"And here you are now! Why (looking him over), you haven't changed a particle!"

The Condition Different.

Husband (with newspaper):
"When I'm at home you're forever hammering at that piano or else your tongue is running like a triphammer. It wasn't so before we were married."

Wife—"No, it wasn't. Before we were married you'd be d-m-ning me, and I couldn't play, and kept my lips so busy I couldn't talk."

Sure of a Living.

Proud mother—"Little Dick is the most ingenious boy. He'll be a great inventor."

Practical father—"If he has a heart for experimenting, I'll make a doctor of him. A doctor gets paid for his experiments; an inventor doesn't."

"My wife says she has received weeks since, and feels sure it will cure her of a long standing case

"All the money in Kentucky could not buy my Electropoise.
It cured my wife of tumor after

Condran, Frankfort, Ky.

M. J. M. Myers, of Myers & Boyd, 236 West Main street, Louis-change the opinion expressed about Electropoise three years been a well man ever since.—Rev.
