An Epochal Period In Fulton's History

COUNCIL ORDER BIDS ADVERTISED

The City Council met in regular session Monday night and after the usual routine of business was transacted, accounts read and allowed, work of a constructive nature held full sway. Plans and specifications for the contemplated water works improvement was presented by Black & Veatch and before adjournment the advertising for bids on the street improvement project was ordered published, also on waterworks improvement.

In this issue of The Advertiser will also be found the street ordinance. Quite a lengthy document but very interesting to all progressive citizens who want to see Fulton grow and prosper.

There is no denying it, Shankle's administration is an epochal period in Fulton's history, and while we may not all agree with him in his way of doing things, the day will come when we may view things in a different light. It is easy enough for a city to go head over heels in debt, but the Mayor and his council believe in the "pay as you go" plan as far as possible, and special credit is due the finance committee in keeping the city's credit up to full standard during one of the greatest tidal waves of progressiveness in the history of the town.

Before the autumn leaves fall we expect to see the street improvement project well under way and the water works system second to none in a city of this class.

WELL KNOWN CITIZEN PASSES AWAY

Funeral services for W. E. Waggener was held Tuesday afternoon at the First Baptist church, conducted by his pastor, the Rev. C. H. Warren, assisted by the Rev. H. B. Vaught, pastor of the First Methodist church, interment followed in Fairview cemetery, in charge of Winstead, Jones & Co.

Mr. Waggener was born April 29, 1856 and died July 2, 1928, at his home on Third street, after many months suffering. He was converted and united with the Baptist church at an early age, and has lived a faithful Christian life and doubtless has done much good during his long and useful life. He was married to Miss Lela Weaver Nov. 22, 1893, six children blessed this union, three of whom passed away in infancy. Those surviving are: Miss Blanche Waggener and George Waggener of Fulton and Simpson Waggener of Evansville, Ind., two brothers, Rev. T. R. Waggener of Newton, Pa., and George Waggener of Waco, Tex. Mrs. Waggener passed away several years ago. Besides his immediate family, he leaves many other relatives and a host of friends. The writer has known Mr. Waggener for many years and feels the loss of a personal friend in his death, but there is one more to bid us welcome on the other shore where friends and loved ones will meet to part no more.

NOTICE

Next Sunday, July 8th is the regular preaching time at Palestine church. The pastor will preach at 11 a. m. and Rev. H. B. Vaught, the Fulton station preacher will preach at 3 p. m. No services at night.

A. N. WALKER, Pastor.

Film Has Many Great Moments.

Embassy Ball at Capital, a Feature of This Big M-G-M Production

John Gilbert is Great

Makes Most of His Big Role in This Film; Jeanne Eagles Scores a Hit Also.

Amazing in its portrayal of what goes on behind the scenes in the newspaper world, "Man, Woman and Sin," Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's ultra-modern romance starring John Gilbert, is a picture that stounds and grip with its fascinating disclosures. The greatest story of the Fourth Estate that has ever yet come to the screen. It will be shown at the Grand Theatre, Monday and Tuesday, July 9-10.

The scenes are laid in the nation's capital against a background of intrigue and politics. Figures of national and international import take part in it. Its feature is the Embassy Ball, the most important social event that takes place on U. S. soil.

Jeanne Eagles, famous star of the phenomenal stage success, "Rain," appears as a fascinating lady of mystery and charm, society editor of a great daily, mistress of its powerful owner and beloved of a young reporter. Gilbert, as the reporter who goes through a soul-stirring experience, has one of the most tensely appealing roles of his career. Monta Bell, himself a newspaperman, wrote and directed the film, laying his scenes in the local room in which he familiarized himself with the newspaper world. Included in the cast are Gladys Brockwell, Marc McDermott, Cosmo Kyrle Bellew, Hayden Stevenson and Charles R. French.

OWEN BROTHERS OPEN NEW PLANT AT PADUCAH

More Than 4,000 Persons View
New Establishment Last Night

The Paducah News-Democrat says: More than 4,000 persons attended the formal opening of the new plant of Owen Brothers, cleaners and dyers, which is located at Broadway and Tenth street last night. The guests were welcomed to the plant by Horace R. Owen and Tulley E. Owen and each visitor was presented with a favor, the ladies receiving flowers and the men cigars in addition to pencils and fans. The hours were from 7:30 until 10:30 o'clock. Bryants' orchestra furnished music throughout the evening.

The Owen Brothers' plant has been completely remodeled and new machinery has been added to make it one of the finest and most modern establishments of its kind in this section of the country. A new brick building also has been added to the old building. The expansion was made necessary because of the gradual increase in the number of patrons, which rendered the firm unable to care for the customers' wants in the old plant.

All kinds of hats and clothes are cleaned and dyed at the plant, which has special departments for this work. Under a new plan, all customers who deliver and call for their dry cleaning will save twenty per cent.

Horace and Tulley Owen are Fulton boys who left here several years ago to engage in business in Paducah. They have a wide circle of friends here who rejoice in their phenomenal success.

First Baptist Church

Cor. Second-Eddings Sts.
C. H. Warren, Pastor

"Behold, I stand at the door and knock."

Sunday, 9:30 a. m.—Sunday School, Geo. Roberts, General Superintendent.

10:50 a. m.—Sermon and worship.

2:30 p. m.—Deacons' meeting at the church.

6:45 p. m.—All B. Y. P. U's.

8:00 p. m.—Sermon and worship.

Wednesday, 7:15 p. m.—Teachers' meeting, all departments.

8:00 p. m.—Prayer meeting.

Thursday, 7:30 p. m.—Choir practice.

The pastor will be in the pulpit at both the morning and evening hour, Sunday, and special music will be rendered at both services. The public is cordially invited to attend.

The monthly Council meeting of the Sunday School workers of the church was held at the church on last Monday evening. There was quite an increased attendance at this meeting, and a very satisfactory program was outlined for the next month's work.

Sunday will be promotion day in our Sunday School. Let every boy or girl, man or woman, who is not affiliated with some other Sunday school meet with us Sunday morning at 9:30. Those who are already members and have reached the age that entitles you to promotion will be enrolled in their new classes, and there will be a class to meet any age for the new members who may come to study with us.

THE EVER READY BIBLE CLASS

First Baptist Church to Have Contest

The Ever Ready Bible Class will launch a contest, beginning Sunday July 1, for the purpose of increasing its membership.

Walter Evans, the Sunday School's big league ball player will be captain of the "Reds," while the big base member of the class, Steve Wiley, will be captain of the "Blues."

It is hoped this contest will be the means of increasing interest in the class, and from the enthusiasm manifested by the captains of the two sides, and the present membership of the class, it is felt there will be quite an increased membership to enjoy the picnic on Labor Day.

Beloved Woman Passes Away.

Funeral services for Mrs. Belle Duley Rogers, who passed away Sunday afternoon at her home on Carr St. after weeks of illness, was held Monday morning at the home of her brother, Guy Duley, at nine o'clock, conducted by her pastor, the Rev. C. H. Warren of the First Baptist Church, who paid a beautiful tribute to the memory of the deceased. The remains were prepared for shipment by the Fulton Undertaking Co., and burial took place in the Calvert City, Ky. Cemetery.

Mrs. Rogers was a consecrated Christian woman and a member of the First Baptist Church. She had a large circle of friends who extended sincerest sympathy for the bereaved in the loss of their loved one.

Senator Joe Robinson.

Democratic Vice Presidential Candidate Born on Farm.

(By Ralph W. Wheatley)

Forty-five years ago a tousled-haired farm boy stopped his mule at the end of a corn row. Leaning against his plow he dreamed a dream of fame in that blazing mid-day sun and from that start he has never been turned aside. Friday that boy was selected vice-presidential standard bearer for the Democratic party.

Joe Robinson, officially known as Sen. Joe T. Robinson, of Arkansas, was picked by his Democratic fellows as the man to help weld the fractions of his party. He was chosen as one the few men who might hold the Democrats from all points of the compass under the folds of a solid democracy.

Powerful in debate, more powerful on the stump, Robinson is prepared to carry the battle into the fields of his political enemies. He is equipped to spread the gospel of democracy thru' the east, west, the north and the south, and to tear at his opponents with the fury of a gladiator.

Like the drummer boy of Napoleon, this man knows no defensive tactics, he cannot beat a retreat. When he wins he wins by overwhelming his antagonists, he wins by aggression, a tremendous driving force and with a voice that carries his message in thunderous tones. When he loses he goes down with every furl of his flag drawing full wind.

Is Liked by Enemies.

Quick tempered, it is true, but lovable, a great jokester, loyal and sincere, he possesses the heart and instincts of the true sportsman. Everybody likes Joe Robinson, even his enemies, as he has the rare faculty of not permitting the smoke of battle to cloud his personal friendship.

Robinson has a remarkable record. His is the novel achievement of being a United States representative, a governor and a senator-elect, all within 14 days. That dizzying happening was in 1913 when as a member of the House he was elected governor and 12 days after moving into the governor's mansion, was called to fill the unexpired term of the late Sen. Jeff Davis. This was in January and on the following March 10 he resigned as governor and took over the duties of senator.

Thus this Arkansas farm boy, who went to the legislature at 22, to the House of Congress at 30, to the governorship and the U. S. Senate at 40, now comes before the people at the age of 56 with the second highest honor in the gift of his party.

This astonishing chronicle was made possible by dint of a youth's unflinching struggle against tremendous odds. He learned the spirit of battle in his efforts to make the rocky lands of middle Arkansas yield up a harvest. He was inspired to bigger things by his fiery, determined, Scotch-Irish father, who came down from New York to fight disease as a country doctor. And during his early labors he was comforted and soothed by his mother, bred from the early aristocracy of North Carolina. This place is now taken by his wife, who has watched the rise of her distinguished husband with the pride and joy that only a woman can feel.

Ability Recognized.

During his career Robinson's ability has been recognized quickly. He made his mark in the House and when he got to the Senate he was given important assignments. At the vacancy of the minority leadership he was unanimously selected as the logical man to lead his colleagues.

Strangely enough he will meet his old political enemy of the hustings, Charles Curtis, majority leader of the Senate and Republican candidate for vice-president. Although the battle may be fast and furious, it will be conducted on a high plane as each man hold great admiration for the other.

Probably Robinson's most pronounced characteristic is his rugged simplicity. It is best shown by the fact that if he is not signing official correspondence of importance he always writes simply "Joe Robinson." That is the way he likes to be known and is known by all of his friends.

The man is never so thoroughly aroused as when he senses an attack on his integrity or that of his associates. He never gambles, he does not know one card from another, and takes few chances. He is what he is thru' ambition, honesty and carefully trained energy.

Among the County Agents.

Fifteen thousand pounds of Japan clover seed, 4,000 pounds of alfalfa seed and 2,000 pounds of sweet clover seed were sown this year in Harrison county, or more than sown in any season in 10 years.

A 90-ton a day limestone crusher will be located at Somerset to supply limestone to farmers. 3 to 5 thousand tons will be used in Laurel county this year.

Mercer county farmers have received a carload of highly bred sheep from Canada. 11 purebred bulls were placed on farms in the county in May.

Ninety percent of the corn in Simpson county was replanted, due to heavy rains. Because of shortage of plants, the tobacco acreage will be little above normal.

Nine 4-H clubs are demonstrating the growing of alfalfa in Henderson county. Their fields will be used as meeting places during a limestone and marl campaign, to be held in cooperation with the Illinois Central railroad.

45 Larue county boys and girls have organized a 4-H club to raise purebred Jersey calves.

14 Jackson county farmers are demonstrating the value of limestone in growing corn. 80 tons were used in the Annville community during May.

12 registered Jersey heifers have been distributed to Muhlenberg county junior agriculture club boys and girls. They were purchased in Christian county at an average cost of $95.

Limestone Saves Wheat and Clover.

"I recently visited John Campbell's farm, where he showed me the finest field of wheat and red clover in the county. He limed his land at the rate of two tons per acre and used 200 pounds of acid phosphate per acre. After his acid phosphate ran out, he used basic slag, and we were able to tell the difference. He also showed me where his lime and acid phosphate ran out; there his wheat also froze out. His red clover is as fine as I ever saw. He attributes his fine stand and good quality to lime and phosphate."

—H. A. McPherson, Fulton County Agricultural Agent

Walnut street to the center line of its intersection with Maiden street.

Maiden street from the center line of its intersection with Jackson street to the center line of its intersection with Maple Avenue.

Section 2. That the construction of said streets and parts of streets and curbs and gutters shall be in strict accordance with the grades, plans and specifications prepared by Messrs. Black & Veatch, Consulting Engineers of the City of Fulton, Kentucky, or as made or changed and modified by the Board of Council of the City of Fulton, Kentucky, which grades, plans and specifications have been approved and adopted by the Board of Council of the City of Fulton, Kentucky, and are now on file in the office of the Clerk of the Board of Council of said city, and the same are hereby made a part hereof by reference as fully as if copied herein.

Section 3. That the cost and expense of said improvement, construction and reconstruction (except as otherwise provided in this section) including storm sewers and appurtenances shall be borne exclusively by the owners of real estate abutting on that portion of each street so improved and according to the number of the front feet of the real estate abutting thereon and in proportion to the whole number of the feet of the block fronting or abutting on said street or part of street; the cost of improvement of each separate block on said streets and parts of streets so improved shall be taken separately as aforesaid against the real estate abutting thereon. The cost and expense of the improvement, construction and reconstruction of street intersections and street and alley intersections shall be paid by the owners of the real estate abutting on each of the respective streets and parts of streets so improved and apportioned and assessed equally by the front foot against the real estate abutting on each of said respective streets and parts of streets so improved, in each block adjacent to the intersections improved; the owners of more than one-half of the number of feet of property upon each of said streets and parts of streets having heretofore filed with the Board of Council of said City of Fulton, a petition requesting it to pass an ordinance requiring said improvement, including said intersections, to be made at the expense of the owners of property abutting on each of said streets and parts of streets. The cost of said improvement abutting upon any property owned by a cemetery company, public school district, county, state or United States Government shall be paid by the city of Fulton, Kentucky, unless such cemetery company, public school district, county, State or United States Government, shall as provided and authorized by law contribute thereto; and further the said city of Fulton shall pay the cost and expense of said improvement apportioned, as hereinafter provided, against any real estate owned by said city abutting upon any of said streets and parts of streets improved, and in addition thereto the said city shall pay the cost and expense apportioned, as above provided, against any property owned by a cemetery company, public school district, county, state or United States Government for the improvement of said street intersections and street and alley intersections, unless such cemetery company, public school district, county, state or United States Government, shall as provided and authorized by law contribute thereto. The entire cost of the construction of curbing and guttering shall be assessed against the property where such curbing and guttering is made.

Section 4. That for purposes of expediting consecutive construction and of acceptance of and settlement for such improvement with the contractor or contractors it is hereby ordained that the total area and territory to be included in and affected by the entire construction and improvement herein provided for shall be and hereby is divided into two sections or districts to be known and designated as Improvement District Number Three and Improvement District Number Four.

Said Improvement District Number Three is hereby declared to embrace the following streets and parts of streets, to-wit:

Eddings street from the north line of the State Line Road to the north end of Eddings street at H. A. Wolfgram's north property line.

Second street from the west line of Lake street to the center line of its intersection with West street.

Third street from the west line of Carr street to the west line of Taylor street.

Fourth street from the west line of Carr street to the center line of its intersection with Pearl street.

West street from the north line of the State Line Road to the center line of its intersection with Third street.

Pearl street from the north line of the State Line Road to the center line of its intersection with Fourth street.

Said Improvement District Number Four is hereby declared to embrace the following streets and parts of streets, to-wit:

Reeds street from the east line of the Illinois Central Railroad Company's right-of-way (Cairo line) to the east line of Gholson street.

Browder street from the center line of its intersection with Reeds street to the south line of Thetford street.

Walnut street from the center line of its intersection with Norman street to the west line of Cleveland street.

Vine street from the center line of its intersection with Norman street to the west line of Cleveland street.

Norman street from the north line of the State Line Road to the south line of the Illinois Central Railroad Company's right-of-way at the Ice factory.

Jefferson street from the center line of its intersection with Walnut street to the south line of Maiden street.

Jackson street from the center line of its intersection with Walnut street to the center line of its intersection with Maiden street.

Maiden street from the center line of its intersection with Jackson street to the center line of its intersection with Maple Avenue.

Section 5. The construction of said streets and parts of streets shall be let in two separate contracts, one contract to embrace all the streets and parts of streets designated as constituting Improvement District Number Three as hereinbefore defined, the other contract to embrace all the streets and parts of streets designated as constituting Improvement District Number Four as hereinbefore defined. Said contracts shall be let on competitive bidding to the lowest and best bidders after advertisement as herein provided, but the right is hereby expressly reserved to reject any or all bids at the discretion of the Board of Council of said city. The Board of Council of said city, after the bids are received and opened and before any contract or contracts is or are awarded for said construction will determine which kind or type of material and surfacing shall be used in the construction or reconstruction of each of said streets and parts of streets. The Mayor of the city of Fulton, Kentucky, is hereby authorized and directed to advertise for bids for said improvement by the publication in the Fulton Advertiser, a newspaper published in the city of Fulton, Kentucky, and of general circulation therein, for two consecutive weeks, and he will require said bids to be furnished in accordance with the instructions to bidders as outlined and specified by said Messrs. Black & Veatch, Engineers, and which instructions are attached to and made a part of the plans and specifications hereinbefore referred to. Said bids shall be sealed and endorsed "Street Improvement Bid," and filed with the Clerk of the Board of Council of said city who shall keep them and open them in the presence of the Mayor and Board of Council of said city. Each separate bid shall be accompanied by a cashier's check on a solvent bank in the sum of $3,000.00 made payable to the City Treasurer of Fulton, Kentucky; checks of unsuccessful bidders will be returned when the bids are rejected and the check of the successful bidder will be cashed and deposited by the City Treasurer and returned to the contractor when the required bond, deposits and contract have been furnished and approved by the city, which the contractor shall do within ten days from the time the said contract is awarded to him and upon failure to execute said contract within said time the proceeds of said check shall be forfeited to the city of Fulton, Kentucky, as liquidated damages.

Section 6. Upon acceptance of the bids and awarding of the contracts by the Mayor and Board of Council of said city, the Mayor and City Clerk shall enter into written contracts on behalf of the City of Fulton, Kentucky, with the successful bidder or bidders in accordance with the terms of the ordinance and shall incorporate therein as a part thereof the plans and specifications above referred to or those parts thereof according to which the said Board of Council shall elect to improve said streets or parts of streets.

Section 7. The contractor or contractors shall execute a bond in the full amount of each contract with a surety and guarantee company authorized to do business in the State of Kentucky as surety to be approved by the city of Fulton, Kentucky, through its Board of Council for the faithful performance of such contract in the form and nature as appears in and as a part of the plans and specifications and instructions to bidders as hereinbefore mentioned and approved.

Section 8. The contractor or contractors shall execute a further bond in the sum of 25 per cent of the amount of each contract with such surety as shall be approved by said city guaranteeing the pavement as built to comply with the paragraph of the specifications entitled "Guarantees" and guaranteeing the replacement of any and all pavements not meeting the conditions of the guarantee at any time if notified by the city within five years after the date of the acceptance of the work by the city, which bond is to be executed upon the completion of the work and before payment is made therefor.

Section 9. Where any duty is imposed herein or under the law upon the city engineer and power and authority given, Messrs. Black & Veatch, consulting engineers of the city of Fulton, Kentucky, are hereby designated as such engineers and representatives of said city in such construction work, and they shall have the power and authority herein imposed until discharged by said Board of Council, and they shall perform such acts only by and with the consent of the city of Fulton, Kentucky.

Section 10. When such improvement on the streets and parts of streets in any Improvement District as hereinbefore defined shall have been made, and the contract therefor completed the City Engineer shall make a full and correct estimate of the total cost thereof, showing the total number of fronting or abutting feet of property, the cost per abutting foot, the names of the abutting property owners, the number of abutting feet of property owned by each person and the proportionate part of the cost of improvement to be assessed against the property of each abutting property owner to be determined as hereinbefore provided, and the part payable by the said city of Fulton, to be ascertained as hereinbefore provided. One copy of this estimate shall be delivered by the City Engineer to the Chairman of the Street Committee of the Board of Council of said city, and another copy to the Mayor of said city, which is to be by him transmitted to the said Board of Council. Upon the receipt of such copy from the said Engineer the Chairman of the Street Committee shall, by notice by one insertion in a newspaper published in said city, namely, the Fulton Advertiser, give at least three days of the time and place fixed by it for the inspection and reception of the work, which notice shall state the cost per abutting foot of property as shown by the Engineer's estimate. At the time and place fixed in said notice the Street Committee of the Board of Council shall inspect the work and the owners of property liable for the cost of the improvement, the contractor therefor, their agents and representatives, may appear and be heard before said Street Committee as to whether the work has been done and the cost thereof estimated in accordance with this ordinance and contract therefor. The said Street Committee may adjourn such hearing and inspection from time to time and of such adjournment all interested parties shall take notice without further publication of notice. Any protest against the acceptance of the improvement or the estimated cost thereof shall be made in writing to the Committee and be transmitted by said Committee to the Council together with a written report of the Committee accepting or rejecting the work accordingly as it may be of opinion that the work has or has not been done, and the cost thereof estimated, in accordance with this ordinance and the contract therefor. Upon receipt of the Engineer's estimate and the report of the Street Committee as hereinbefore provided the Board of Council shall carefully consider and investigate any protests which may have been filed against the acceptance of the work or the confirmation of the Engineer's estimate of the cost thereof and shall hear any competent and proper evidence which may be offered thereon prior to the acceptance of the work and the confirmation of the estimate, and the Board of Council may then accept the work and confirm the Engineer's estimate of the cost thereof, or, if it be of the opinion that the work has not been done in accordance with the contract or that the Engineer's estimate of the cost is not correct, it may require the contractor to perfect or complete the work in accordance with the contract, or it may modify the estimate of the cost of the work to conform to the facts, or both. The determination of the Board of Council shall be conclusive and binding on all parties and shall not be questioned or contested in any court, except on the ground of fraud or collusion on the part of the Board of Council. Upon acceptance of the work and confirmation of the Engineer's estimate of the cost thereof by the Board of Council, it shall, by ordinance, apportion the cost of the work, less any part to be paid by the city, equally among the owners of the abutting property on both sides of the street improved, according to the number of fronting or abutting feet owned by them respectively apportioned on the basis of the block as hereinbefore provided. Provided, however, that the entire cost of curbing and guttering shall be apportioned among the owners of the property abutting on the side of street on which such improvement is made, each corner lot having its intersection of curbing and guttering included in its frontage; and shall assess and levy a local tax on the several lots or parcels of abutting property at a rate per abutting foot sufficient to produce the part of the cost of the improvement apportioned to such abutting lots or parcels of property, and there shall be a lien upon such lots or parcels of real estate for the cost of such improvement so assessed. The Board of Council shall apportion to the city such part of the cost as it may be liable for. The lien hereinbefore provided for shall take effect upon the publication of the ordinance making the assessment and levying the tax and shall take precedence over all other liens whether created prior or subsequent to the publication of such ordinance, except state and county taxes, general municipal taxes and prior improvement taxes and the same shall not be defeated or postponed by any private or judicial sale or by any mortgage or by any error or mistake in the description of the property or in the names thereof. Nor shall any error of the proceedings of the Board of Council exempt any property from the lien for, or payment of such taxes, after the work has been done and accepted as hereinbefore provided; but the Board of Council or the courts in which suits are pending shall make all corrections, rules and orders to do justice to all parties concerned, and the city shall in no event be liable for any part of the cost of such improvement except as herein provided. Such liens may be enforced as other liens on real estate by action brought in the name of the city or the contractor entitled thereto, and in any such action an allegation in substance that the improvement had been made and the work accepted pursuant to and by ordinance of the city duly passed in accordance with the law shall be a sufficient pleading of the ordinance and proceedings under which the work was done and accepted without setting out the same in full. Any number of lots or parcels of land on which any local tax or installment thereof is in default and the owners thereof may be joined in one proceeding, and the court shall make all proper and necessary orders for the enforcement and collection of the taxes as to the several lots or parcels of land. Where a person is the owner of two or more lots subject to such tax one or more of such lots be sold for the whole tax of such person, allowing such person to designate the lots to be sold first, if he so desires and indicates.

Section 11. That said improvement shall be done upon the ten year payment plan and when same shall have been completed and accepted and the cost thereof apportioned to and a tax therefor levied on the property liable for the payment thereof as hereinbefore provided, the City Treasurer shall give notice by one publication in the Fulton Advertiser, a newspaper published in the said city of Fulton, requiring all persons to pay the local taxes levied upon their property within thirty days from the publication of the ordinance accepting the work and assessing the cost thereof. Such local taxes may, at the option of the property owners, be payable in cash, without interest, within thirty days, or in ten annual installments as herein provided. Any property owner who desires to exercise such privilege of payment by installment shall before the expiration of the said thirty days enter into an agreement in writing with the city that in consideration of such privilege he will make no objection to any illegality or irregularity with regard to the taxes against his property, and that he will pay the same in the manner herein provided with specified interest. Any property owner entering into such agreement or who exercises the option to pay in installments shall be concluded thereby and shall not be permitted to set up any defense whatever against the payment of such taxes. Such agreement shall be filed in the office of the City Treasurer, who shall file, retain and record the same as a record in his office. In all cases where such agreements have not been filed within the time limit the entire cost shall be payable in cash without interest before the expiration of said thirty days. Any such tax not paid within said thirty days shall bear interest at the rate of 6 per cent per annum from the date of the publication of the ordinance assessing and levying the same. If any property subject to such local tax be owned by an infant or person of unsound mind or by a life tenant, the agreement herein provided for may be executed by the statutory guardian of such infant or committee or curator of such insane person with the same effect as if executed by a person free from disability or by the life tenant. In cases where the option to pay in installments is exercised the local tax, with interest at the rate of 6 per cent per annum, shall be payable as follows: One-tenth of the tax, with interest on the entire tax, at the time fixed by law for the payment of general city tax.

Community Building

Interests of Country and City Indivisible

It is a matter of good business, not to mention plain justice, that the children of rural Missouri should be afforded educational opportunities comparable to those afforded children in the cities of the state. How the line between country and city has been rapidly disappearing was shown by Dr. Stratton D. Brooks, president of the University of Missouri, in his address in Kansas City. The interests of the two are not easily to be separated. In matters of commerce and trade the interrelationships are commonly understood. Kansas City and other centers have displayed due enterprise in stressing and in seeking to strengthen further the community of interests in this respect.

Educationally, however, the welfare of one is of vital concern to the other. The cities of Missouri were alert in pushing forward a highway system that would penetrate rural districts in every part of the state. The value of such an improvement to every community in Missouri was obvious. Mud roads clearly were seen to be at once a reflection on the state and a handicap to its development. The small, poorly equipped rural school is equally a detriment to the state, when viewed even from a commercial aspect. In terms of future citizenship its influence is even more serious. Good schools, in a more genuine sense than good roads, are community builders.—Kansas City Star.

Women Should Serve as School Directors

No school system, in a community large or small, urban or rural, can successfully develop without the help of women on its school board, believes Mrs. Ernest J. Mott of San Francisco.

From her own experiences as a member of the board of education of the city and county of San Francisco, Mrs. Mott recommends this kind of public service to women voters. Women are needed on these boards, she says, because they appreciate fully the relation of the home to the school. After her first appointment Mrs. Mott was elected to the seven-year term which she is now serving.

"While there is no difference between men and women in their desire to bring the public schools of their respective communities up to a very high standard of efficiency," she says, "the multiplicity of details that confront school directors requires the point of view, the knowledge and understanding, as well as the wise and intelligent interest of both sexes."

Regulating Highway Signs

Billboard and other advertising signs along the Kansas highways must come down by the first of next year. That order has been issued by the Kansas state highway commission.

The commission's order grows out of an act adopted by the Kansas legislature last winter to the effect that no signs of any kind shall be permitted along the highways except officially authorized standard road markers. Both convenience and safety in travel as well as the appearance of the highways were factors in the legislation.

A special provision of the act was a ban on billboards within 1,000 feet of a highway intersection or railroad grade crossing. Signs that conflict with the rule must be pulled down and destroyed or placed farther back from the highways.

Build to Suit Needs

The wise builder will forget style and by building to suit his needs along common-sense lines can be reasonably sure of a satisfying result. The ideal home appears to have grown on its lot quite cheerfully and naturally. The cost of keeping it in repair is slight. It is a source of lasting pride and satisfaction and a family is the better for having lived in it. Whoever builds this kind of a house secures two things—the most and best for his money.

Economical Construction

First-class construction, including materials and workmanship for both interior and exterior, is absolutely essential. Otherwise what may appear on the surface to be a well-built building may deteriorate after a few years and become a costly burden because of heavy repair bills, maintenance costs and loss of tenants. Materials and types of construction should be used which will suffer the least possible wear and tear.

Really Important Point

There is a wealth of wisdom and a key to happiness in these words voiced at the opening of a meeting of the Massachusetts state committee for better homes: "It is not so important to own your own home as it is to make the most of the one you already have."—Exchange.

POLITICS*Gov. Patterson in Commercial Appeal.

This summer and fall until November the great outdoor and indoor sport will be politics. Even Babe Ruth's home run record will have to give way as the leading national event and whether the fish are biting for Mr. Coolidge or Mr. Hoover will not be so important. It is off with the old and on with the new.

Conventions, where men foregather, will now center around politics. Smith and Hoover will occupy the center of the stage. Smith has the better of Hoover in name. Smith is easier to pronounce. Then there are so many more Smiths. It's a plain, handy, unvarnished name that speaks for itself. There are no frills or embroidery on it. Then to call the Democratic candidate "Al" is so intimate and homelike.

We always feel a little closer to the man who bears a short name we can all pronounce and spell without going to the dictionary.

The conjunction of Al with Smith is a fortunate one for the candidate and they make it easy on the people when they talk about politics. The name Al Smith admirably fits the idea of Democratic simplicity.

In comparison the name of Hoover as a vote getter sinks rather low in value.

Like his name, Gov. Smith is an unaffected American citizen, who has kept touch with the people and all that interests them or affects their being.

He presents to the eye a clean picture. There seems to be no bombast or conceit about him. Success has never turned his head. As the governor of the greatest state in the Union, he has been approachable and unpretentious and now as the most talked of man in America with his name on the lips of millions he preserves his balance and keeps on an even keel.

It is one of the penalties of fame that the eyes of the people are directed to the man who has achieved it, and ears are alert to catch anything they may hear about him while the records and impressions thus made are stored away in the memory.

Thus far the eye has seen no wrong nor has the ear heard anything derogatory to the man Smith nominated by the Democratic party as its choice for president of the United States. He is but one more example of struggling youth achieving success born without money or other prestige of social distinction to aid him. His rise to prominence has been due to native ability, his loyalty to friends and his faithfulness to trust.

Gov. Smith's family life has been of the old-fashioned kind that has made our country what it is—strong at home and powerful abroad. He has been true as husband and father and politician, and the man of which this may be truthfully said has a strong claim upon the people.

So far as his religion is concerned the important thing to be considered is not what particular form that religion may be called, but the fact that he has religious convictions which have never been changed in these days of transition and challenge when old beliefs are being swept away, or modified under the terrific pressure to which they have been subjected.

The Democratic party could have done no better than to have presented this man to represent its ideals and send him forth as its champion to win back the heritages of the people.

Robinson, his running mate, is also a high type of Americanism, with even a broader experience than the candidate for president, himself. He, too, has a name which fits well into the setting.

In the senate of the United States he has proven the temper of his steel, and become strong and popular. Robinson is conversant, not only with practical legislation, but is imbued with the principal of the American government after years of study and reflection. He, too, is a clean man, and a very able one. His early environment stands in contrast to that of Gov. Smith. Robinson is a southerner—born in Arkansas. He has always lived in the South except when away from his native state in public service. Thus are New York and Arkansas, the north and the south, again joined together after years of separation, and the spectral form of Charles O'Connor, the great lawyer of the Empire State, long since dead, arises to take its old seat at the council table as the defender, without reward, of Jefferson Davis, the chieftain of the Confederacy, against the charge of treason, and do the mists of prejudice vanish before the rays of the rising sun.

Smith and Robinson, one from the north and the other from the south, together stand as the representatives of a new order.

An Attractive Sign

No sign that has been placed on the highway out of Fulton has created more favorable comment than the new sign recently erected on the highway near Fulton, U. S. Highway 45. This sign, which was designed and painted by Louie Roberts, is arranged in the form of six signboards, set at an angle to the road, so that they are easily legible to all who enter Fulton from that highway. The tops of these signboards each bear a big letter, the six together spelling "FULTON." Below are advertisements of Fulton firms. The signs are very novel and striking, and Mr. Roberts deserves much credit for the design and execution. He tells us that similar signs will be placed on the four highways coming into Fulton. They will do much to notify tourists that Fulton is a live town and one worth stopping at.

STRAIGHT TALKS WITH AUNT EMMY*ON BUILDING AN INCOME

As Aunt Emmy came out of the savings bank she met young George Oliver.

"Well, well," he said, "it's funny to see you coming out of a savings bank, Aunt Emmy. I thought only poor folks like me had money in savings banks—people like you just clip coupons!"

"Have you a savings bank account?" countered Aunt Emmy.

"Well, er—I suppose I haven't," he admitted. "You see, it's hard to save money when you're first married. Somehow there never seems to be enough money to go 'round—let alone to put in a savings bank."

"You never will have if you don't get started," interrupted Aunt Emmy. "You should make your weekly savings deposit, no matter how small, the first claim on your salary after paying your bills. I make my weekly deposit in this bank faithfully—I put away a certain sum regularly."

"You can't!" Nat commented.

"It is more a habit than you would suppose," Aunt Emmy continued. "Any one can do it who is willing to let other things wait. I began putting a little money in a savings bank years ago when it was no joke to save a few pennies. I remember what a wonderful thrill I got the first time I saw my interest entered in my bank book. There was money that my money had earned all by itself. After that it was a sort of game with me to put a certain sum in the bank, even if I had to do without things I would have enjoyed having. Now I realize what it means to keep your money busy earning all the time so I continue to put a little in the savings bank regularly and, after it accumulates, I draw some out and invest in safe securities that pay a higher rate of interest than savings. All the time, you see, the money is working for me."

"Of course, when the sum is small, it earns little, but if you start young, as you and Molly are, it is almost like magic the way it mounts up after a few years—then when your savings get grown up into a real investment they earn a real income."

"I never thought of it in that light," said George.

"Try it—and see for yourself how it works," urged Aunt Emmy. "Have you ever thought how nice it would be to have a few dollars ready for use in case of an emergency? Accidents and illnesses do happen. Or suppose you had an opportunity to buy something you knew you could sell at a profit and you had to let the opportunity slip for the time being? A few hundred dollars. You and Molly would never miss five dollars a week—and if you keep at it, it will work wonders!"

"You're right, it would," exclaimed George. "I'll talk to Molly tonight, Aunt Emmy, and see if we can't revise our expenditures."

"There would be a whole lot less family trouble and worry over money matters if every young couple did the same thing early in life," Aunt Emmy said. "Start young; is the magic slogan."

BANKERS PROMOTE FARM CONTESTS

Standard methods of farm administration have been made the basis of a contest by bankers of Pickens County, Alabama, as a method of bringing a farm and home program to their patrons, says the bulletin of the Agricultural Commission, American Bankers Association. A safe and profitable farm community is the goal in this work.

The farm and home program has been outlined as follows:

City Ordinance

occurring next after the expiration of the thirty days allowed for payment in cash, and annually thereafter one-tenth of the entire tax, until the whole is paid. At the end of each six months from the time the first installment of the tax becomes due, interest shall be due and payable for such six months on all unpaid installments of the tax; provided, that any person may, at any interest-paying period after the fifth annual installment of his tax becomes due, pay the entire assessment of tax against his property with accrued interest. All installments of such special assessments and interest shall be placed upon the tax duplicate with other taxes of persons liable for such special assessments, and the tax bills for such special assessments may, in addition to the other remedies given under the law, be sold and collection thereof enforced in the manner provided by law for collection of municipal taxes. In default of payment of any installment of tax or interest for one month after the same becomes due, a penalty of 10 per cent of the installment in arrears shall be added thereto, which shall constitute a like lien as the tax, and all unpaid installments of the tax shall, at the option of the city or any bondholder whose bonds or interest thereon are in default of payment, forthwith become due and payable. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer, upon order of the Board of Council, to properly apply all money paid in on such installments to the payment of bonds and coupons which may be issued as provided in anticipation of the collection of such local taxes. The fund accumulated from the collection of assessments, interest and penalties for any particular improvement be more than sufficient to pay the principal and interest of the bonds issued in anticipation of such collection, the Board of Council shall make a ratable reduction from the last installment of each person's assessment. Should there be any deficit, the Council may provide for payment of same out of the general fund. Failure on the part of the city to collect any such local tax or installment thereof, when due, shall create no liability against such city, but the person entitled to such tax, or the owner of any such bonds, shall have the right to proceed in any court of competent jurisdiction to foreclose the lien for any such unpaid assessments, recovering interest and costs, and may have the proceeds of the property applied in settlement thereof.

Section 12. In order to provide a fund for the immediate payment of the cost of the improvements made on the installment plan as provided in the preceding section the Council may issue and sell after reasonable advertisement improvement bonds in anticipation of the collection of such part of the local taxes assessed and levied therefor as may not be paid within thirty days from the time of the assessment, pledging such taxes and the liens on the property for the payment of the principal and interest of such bonds and apply the proceeds thereof to the payment for the particular improvement in anticipation of the assessment for which the bonds are issued. Such bonds shall bear the date of publication of the assessing ordinance and shall be made payable to bearer. The bonds for each separate improvement shall be numbered consecutively through and shall be divided into ten series as nearly equal as possible, the first series including the lowest numbers and so on. The bonds with interest shall be payable at the City Treasurer's office as follows: The first series of such bonds with accrued interest on all series shall be due and payable one month after the date on which the first installment of the tax becomes due as provided in the previous section, and the remaining series shall be due and payable one each year annually thereafter for nine years. Interest on all unpaid bonds shall be due and payable semi-annually at the end of each six months from the time the first interest becomes due. The bonds shall be of the denomination of $100.00 or its multiple, provided, however, that any odd amount over $100.00 or its multiple may be included in the last bond to mature. No bond shall be issued for less than $100.00 unless the total amount for which bonds are issued for any particular improvement is less than $1,000.00. All improvement bonds shall have the name of the street, alley or other public way, or part thereof, for the improvement of which they are issued, printed, engraved or written thereon and shall state the character of the improvement and shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding six per cent per annum from the date of the assessment of the tax, and shall have suitable coupons attached thereto evidencing the semi-annual interest. The bonds and coupons shall be signed by the Mayor and countersigned by the Treasurer but the coupons may be signed by lithograph. The clerk shall attest the signatures to the bonds under seal of the city. Said bonds need not recite the steps taken in ordering the improvement or in making the assessments but only a general reference to such proceedings, and to the statutes under which the same are issued, to-wit: Section 3577 of the Kentucky Statutes. Such bonds shall be negotiable as inland bills of exchange and shall be free from all defenses by any property owner and exempt from all taxation and shall not be sold for less than par and accrued interest; provided, if no offer is made for said bonds equal to par and accrued interest, after reasonable advertisement, the city shall have the right to turn them over to the contractor in full payment of the contract price of the improvement for which they are issued. Any premium realized from the sale of such bonds and any penalties collected on delinquent installments of taxes as provided in the preceding section shall go into the fund for the payment of such bonds and interest thereon. Said bonds and interest thereon shall be payable exclusively out of funds actually paid to and collected by the city on account of the improvement taxes in anticipation of which the bonds are issued, and except as herein provided the city shall in no event be liable on any such bond except to the extent of funds actually paid to it as above set out. Any and all of such bonds shall be subject to payment and redemption at any interest payment period thereon that does not occur within five years from the date thereof, provided that the City Treasurer shall give the owner of the bond proposed to be redeemed at least twenty days notice by registered letter. The owner of any bond subject to redemption as herein provided shall notify the City Treasurer of his post office address and any changes therein, and the Treasurer shall keep a record of the address opposite the number of the bond on his record. The notice herein provided for shall be directed to such address, and if no address be given, the notice shall be directed to such owner at his last known address, and the bond specified therein shall bear no interest after the date fixed for its redemption, and this provision shall be shown in substance on the bonds. Mailing such registered letter twenty days before the time fixed for such redemption shall be deemed a compliance herewith. After the issue of such bonds no suit shall lie to enjoin or resist the collection of any assessment or tax in anticipation of which the bonds are issued, and the validity of the same shall not be questioned, but all property owners shall be conclusively estopped and precluded from in any manner assailing the effectiveness or validity thereof. Such bonds shall convey and transfer to the owners thereof all lien, right, title and interest in and to the assessments, taxes and liens upon the respective lots and parcels of ground, which liens shall stand as security for such bonds and coupons until they are paid, with full power to enforce the collection thereof, if such bonds or coupons be not paid on presentation to the Treasurer, by foreclosure in any court of competent jurisdiction as hereinbefore provided.

ed. If any lots or lands be sold for the payment of any special tax or assessment thereon, or any installment thereof, or for any general municipal tax, such lots and lands shall not thereby be released from any other special tax or assessment, or installment thereof, existing thereon, unless the same be asserted in the action in which such lots or lands are sold. In any foreclosure suit brought by the city or any bondholder as provided herein, it shall not be necessary to make the other bondholders parties, but the proceeds of the suit shall be paid into the city treasury to be applied to the redemption of matured bonds in the same manner as if the same had been paid without suit.

Section 13. The City Treasurer shall keep in his office in a book to be provided for that purpose a record of all assessments of local taxes, showing the names and portions of streets in which the improvement is made, the character of the improvement and the names of the persons against whose property the assessments are made. Such record shall be subject to inspection by any person desiring to inspect the same and shall be conclusive evidence of notice to all persons of such assessments and the liens created thereby. Upon the payment of any improvement tax to the Treasurer, he will make proper entry thereof in the record book herein provided for, whereupon the lien for such tax will stand released. All local taxes paid to the city treasurer shall from time to time be paid over to the contractor or other person entitled thereto upon the order of the Board of Council. The Treasurer shall carefully keep a separate account of the fund arising from assessments for each particular improvement and no proceeds arising from assessments for one improvement shall be diverted to the payment for any other improvement whatever. The proceeds shall in each case constitute a separate special fund for the payment of the contractor for the particular work for which the assessment is made or for the security and payment of the improvement bonds in anticipation of which the same are issued.

Section 14. Any assessment made for the improvements herein provided for which exceeds one-half of the value of the lots or parcels of real estate upon which the assessment is made shall be void as to such excess, but the improvement shall be taken into consideration in fixing the value of such real estate and the Board of Council shall provide for the payment of any such excess out of the general fund.

Section 15. The awarding or letting of said contracts and making the assessments and the construction of the improvements aforesaid and issuing said bonds shall be in all particulars as outlined and required in Chapter 113 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Kentucky for 1916, and amendments thereto, and being Sections 3563, 3570, 3571, 3573, 3574, 3575, 3577 and 3578A of the Kentucky Statutes, Carroll's Edition, 1922, as amended at the 1924 session of the General Assembly of Kentucky, and all the procedures outlined in said sections and all of the same shall be pursued and followed and all the same are embraced in and are made a part of this ordinance and said Board of Council shall enact and pass any and all other ordinances that may be necessary to carry out the said construction in accordance with the statutes aforesaid and with reference to the laws of Fourth class cities.

Section 16. All ordinances or parts of ordinances in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

Section 17. This ordinance shall take effect from and after its final passage and publication as required by law.

Approved, this 29th day of June, 1928:
W. O. SHANKLE,
Mayor.

Teaching You Thrift

Practice makes perfect. Schoolmasters of today as well as yesterday constantly repeat that truth. Pupils learn by applying it.

Application of that principle to our everyday habits proves its practical help. We learn by practicing, whether it be a good habit or a bad habit.

This bank teaches you thrift by leading you to practice it. The lesson is easily learned once it is begun. To become perfect in it requires constant practice. A savings account is the most consistent method of practicing thrift.
