An Epocahal Period In Fulton's History

The City Council urges popular support of the contemplated water works improvement. It is easy enough for a city to borrow in fair light, but the Mayor and his council believe in the "paper" game, that is of the money, and charges the city's credit up to full standard. The people have the right to demand a thorough overhauling of the entire water system second to none in a city turned home from Matthew-.

John Gilbert is Great

Mates Must of His Big Role in "Bargain Street"

Atmosphere of the newspaper world, "Man, It's Buzzing," "Man," said Mr. Raynor's ultra-modern romance reporter John Gilbert, "I've just been working all day and I don't know how to start my narrative. The fact that has ever come to my attention will be shown at the Grand Theatre, Monday and Tuesday.

The scenes are laid in the section's capital against a background of intrigues and politics. Features of national and international import take part in it. Its features of course are taken from the plot of "Rats," appearing in a fascinating book, the best sellers' society editor of a great daily, minutes of the editorial owner and brother of a young reporter. Gilbert, the writer of this story, has gone over the city, but one of the most tenderly and carefully worked over scenes was that of a newspaper, major John Gilbert, who became the editor. His newspaper was a success, but the billing was only a newspaper success, and the major did not care to have the newspaper world, but the Mayor and who is appointed to the position of mayor, who is This Film: Jeanne Eagles

FOOD LIKE YOU GET AT HOME.

This is truly a home-like restaurant because it has endeavored to break down the prejudice based on the theory that restaurants could not serve food like you get at home. Many patrons will testify that there is no difference between our meals and the meals they get at home. That's the reason they come here so frequently to eat. Years of catering to the appetites of particular people makes it possible for us to serve appetizing meals. The next time you want to eat away from home, bring your family here.

City Ordinance

$100.00 or as multiple may be prescribed. In no case shall the bonds be held longer than two years. Interest and principal, if any, shall be paid on the first interest basis due, etc. If any bond or bonds be sold for the payment of any special assessment, the proceeds shall be applied toward the payment of said assessment. If any bond or bonds be sold for the payment of any tax, the proceeds shall be applied toward the payment of said tax. If any bond or bonds be sold for the payment of any special assessment, the proceeds shall be applied toward the payment of said assessment. If any bond or bonds be sold for the payment of any tax, the proceeds shall be applied toward the payment of said tax.

Section 13. The City Treasurer shall have the right to examine the records of all persons holding for special bonds and shall issue such proceedings for the payment of any installment of such bonds and the proceeds thereof shall be held by the City Treasurer for a period not exceeding one year from the date of sale of such bonds and shall be paid to the persons to whom such bonds shall be issued. The records of all persons holding such bonds shall be kept in the City Treasurer's office and shall be subject to inspection by any person with notice. The City Treasurer shall have the right to keep a separate account of the proceeds of such bonds and the proceeds thereof shall be paid to the City Treasurer when the same shall be paid.

Section 14. Any and all unpaid installments of any special assessment, taxes and liens on any property, the proceeds of which have not been distributed to the persons against whose property they are a lien, shall be payable to the City Treasurer and shall bear interest at the rate of 6% per annum from the date paid without interest until the total amount for which such bonds shall have been executed has been paid in full.

Section 15. In the event the City Treasurer shall have sold any special assessment bonds and the proceeds thereof shall be held by the City Treasurer for a period not exceeding one year from the date of sale of such bonds and shall be paid to the persons to whom such bonds shall be issued. The records of all persons holding such bonds shall be kept in the City Treasurer's office and shall be subject to inspection by any person with notice. The City Treasurer shall have the right to keep a separate account of the proceeds of such bonds and the proceeds thereof shall be paid to the City Treasurer when the same shall be paid.

Section 16. All ordinances and all of the same in and are made a part of this ordinance are hereby repealed.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the same to be recorded this 21st day of June, 1928:
