HER FATE. She spurned the fond attention of a dozen I might mention,
And it seemed her firm intention And it seemed her firm intention.

To live a spinster's life;
In a manner most dramatic, all as the said with tone emphatic,
That her tastes were too erratice and
To make a happy wife.

She refused a foreign title She refused a foreign title
When it seemed to be most vital AT
That her heart with sweet requital,
At honor so conferred,
Should smile with proud assenting;
But she still was unrelenting,
And her heart as unrepenting;
Although it seemed absurd. But this maiden soon attended

A football game and ended What she before contended What she before contended
Was sentimental gush;
She struggled hard 'o quell it,
But nothing could dispel it,
She lost her heart, pray tell it,
To Eli's center rush.
