Fulton Fair A Brilliant Success

Big Crowds In Attendance--Good Races Are Thrilling--Displays In Every Department Are Attractive.

Gay Crowds At Night Shows.

Large crowds are in daily attendance at the seventeenth annual meeting of the Fulton County Fair, which opened Tuesday morning for five days. The racing has been unusually good, some of the best horses ever seen on the local track being here.

The exhibits in the floral hall are the best we have seen in several years. Much interest is being displayed with needle and art work, preserves, canned fruits, cakes, etc. To attempt a description of these articles is impossible. Mrs. Leighman Browder, superintendent, is ably assisted by Mrs. A. B. Wayne. Mrs. Edward Haywood, superintendent of the culinary department, is assisted by Mrs. Abe Jolley.

Mrs. Will Beard, chairman of the Domestic Art Department, is assisted by Mrs. A. L. Martin. Mrs. T. F. Thomson is in charge of the Art Department, and Miss Inez Binford has charge of the antiques and curios.

All of the above ladies are to be congratulated on the splendid arrangement of their exhibits in each department, which shows that some hard work has been done and the accomplishments are wonderful.

Supt. Horton Brann has so many pretty girls assisting him in the agricultural department until it is hard to say who deserves the credit for the arrangement of one of the best agricultural displays ever exhibited at the fair.

Chestnut Glade Exhibit
A community exhibit attracting deserved attention is that of Chestnut Glade with Mrs. E. I. Brundige, president of the Ladies Community Club in charge.

There are 187 articles exhibited in the display. On beautifully arranged placards with attractive color illustrations is printed the following: About 12 per cent of this community have radios; 10 modern lighting systems in the community; about 75 per cent of farmers have cream separators; dairy products represent about 15 per cent of the annual income of community; hog products 15 per cent; field crops 50 per cent; other products such as poultry, fruits and vegetables about 20 per cent.

Cream Exhibit
The five Fulton cream stations, Armour's, Swift's, Sugar Creek, Gray-Von Allmen and Sunlight, are cooperating with County Agent H. A. McPherson in putting on an exhibit to improve the quality of cream produced in Fulton and the surrounding counties. The exhibit shows how to produce good cream and also shows why bad cream is produced. Mr. McPherson is urging through the exhibit to produce a better quality of cream. He stated that if the cream producers continued to produce the low quality of cream it would not only result in lower price, but it would be hard to find a market for poor cream. It will not be long before the four day grade will be put into effect, which will mean a higher price for quality cream and a lower price for poor cream. Every cream producer is urged to visit the cream exhibit. This is one of the best educational features at the fair. Valuable literature is being handed out and milk and cream is being tested daily. The booth is located beneath the grand stand.

Other Displays of Interest
Occupying a prominent booth beneath the grand stand, the Fulton Hardware Company is displaying their handsome line of Allen's Parlor Furnaces.

Another interesting display attracting attention is the Frigidaire in charge of H. C. Helm, occupying part of the large booth of the Rucker Music Shop where Spanton radios and Brunswick talking machines are displayed. Mrs. Lee Rucker is in charge and the beautiful music and radio programs are greatly enjoyed by the crowds who visit the Rucker booth.

Kentucky Utilities Display
One of the most unique and elaborate displays in Floral Hall is that of the Kentucky Utilities Company in charge of J. E. Hannephin. All of the latest labor-saving appliances are attractively displayed and demonstrated.

There are so many displays of various kinds under the grand stand that space prevents a detailed description in this article.

Leaving the grand stand, we headed for the poultry house, where we found J. T. Watkins in charge of the best poultry exhibit ever shown on the grounds. Mrs. Watkins was in charge of the entries and is a valuable assistant of her husband. More than 600 chickens, ducks, turkeys and pigeons are exhibited. It is a wonderful show and the association is to be congratulated on having Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Watkins in charge of this department of the big fair.

Leaving the poultry show we saw two other "chickens." They appeared to be about sixteen years old, but it was not their age that attracted the men. It was their beautifully arranged hair upon which no barber's snips had left their imprint. The men turned and looked in open admiration at the young ladies, sighed and passed on with the bobbed hair brigade.

Along down the line was the W. P. Felts Hardware Company's display with the complete International line with Arch Woods in charge; also Hanna Paint Mfg. Co.'s products with W. L. Carter in charge. The Kentucky Hardware and Implement Co., was displaying the Oliver line of Implements, Enterprise and Copper Clad ranges, also Nesco oil and Kerogas oil stoves. The display of Enterprise parlor and bungalow furnaces looked so much like house furniture instead of heating furnaces that it almost fooled us.

The International line of trucks are being displayed by H. C. Powell of Paducah.

The Fulton Hardware Company is displaying the John Deere line of implements and wagons as well as the celebrated Majestic ranges. They have an attractive display in charge of Mr. Beadles.

Messrs. Shanklin, Bird and Fox are exhibiting a fine lot of Duroc hogs. One exhibited by Mr. Shanklin, of Dresden, weighs 750 pounds.

Some of the finest dairy cattle is exhibited by Messrs. R. H. Wade, C. N. Burnett, Silas Bruce, Loney Anderson and

A Day at the Fair Grounds

New Kentuckian Now Open To Receive Guests

Under the management of Mr. Jeff T. Vaughan, The New Kentuckian is now open to receive guests with every convenience and comfort. The entire building, occupying a prominent location in the business district of the city, facing Church street and extending the entire block from State line to Main Street, has been renovated and remodeled at a cost of around $50,000. Everything about the premises is modern and up-to-date. Each room has its telephone, hot and cold water. Many additional baths have been provided with other conveniences for guests, as well as electric elevator.

In the building is seventeen three and four room apartments and sixty guest rooms. Each apartment is equipped with bath and modern conveniences for housekeeping. The kitchenette of each apartment has hot and cold water, electric range and refrigerator.

The remodeling of the building throughout was under the supervision of L. H. Howard, Fulton's well known contractor and builder. R. H. Cowardin, of Fulton was engaged on the plumbing work.

The hotel office is centrally located on the ground floor with Ed McDermon, chief clerk. The room adjoining has been elegantly furnished for the dining room. In the rear room is a modern equipped kitchen with every convenience.

Words fail us when we attempt a description of the service in the dining room. It is enough to say that after seven years service with the Illinois Central Railway as dining car conductor, Manager son, James W., also by Harold Muzzall, Richard Brann, Dryer Counce, Chas. Allen Williams and others whose names we failed to get.

Among some of the pretty cattle exhibits is by members of Bowers 4-H club.

The exhibits in the fair this year are all fine. Don't fail to see them, and the races are the best ever.

The big Rice Brothers Carnival is a feature of the fair entertainment and the free acts and night show the best ever.

Vaughn understands the art of feeding the public. Electrical appliances play an important part in the kitchen conveniences. Mrs. Stell Griffin has charge of the dining room, assisted by L. C. Pope.

The lower floor is divided into store rooms occupied by some of Fulton's prominent business firms and the Western Union Telegraph office.

J. Frazier Smith, of Memphis bought the property some time ago which was originally built for a hotel by the late W. W. Meadows, 28 years ago. It is one of Fulton's substantial business properties, worth around $250,000 as it stands today.

It was a happy idea of Mr. Smith to remodel it and provide 17 apartments of which the city fully appreciates. Also leaving 60 large guest rooms for the hotel proper.

Jeff T. Vaughan, the genial manager, is not a stranger in Fulton. For many years he ran in and out of Fulton when employed by the I. C. in the capacity of dining car conductor. He was also engaged in the hotel business here for a short time, 17 or 18 years ago. Recently he has been engaged in the hotel business at Dyersburg. He says, however, that he has claimed Fulton as his home for many years and is glad to be at home again with his old friends.

Mrs. J. C. May is matron of the hotel, a charming lady of pleasing personality.

4-H JUNIOR CLUBS GUESTS OF C. OF C. AT FAIR

The Fulton Chamber of Commerce had as their guests Thursday, August 30, at the Fair, members of the 4-H Junior Clubs of the five counties adjoining Fulton. The boys and girls were met at the fair entrance and given a hearty welcome. It was a happy meeting and the royal good time given the junior members will not be soon forgotten.

It is the purpose of the Fulton Chamber of Commerce to cooperate in every way possible to encourage the 4-H club members in their work and find out the best way to get the right kind of exhibits for another year so better premiums may be awarded.

DENNY TO BE SEEN HERE IN 'GOOD MORNING JUDGE'

Screen Comedian Coming to Orpheum with Blonde Mary Nolan as Herione

Reginald Denny, Universal's popular comedy star, tops all his former successful performances in "Good Morning, Judge," the swiftest moving and most entertaining picture of his career, which will be shown at the Orpheum Theater Monday and Tuesday.

Denny, filmdom's best known farceur, has a role that fits him perfectly. He is Freddie Grey, young and wealthy, who falls in love with the owner of a mission for reformed criminals. The star's ability at comedy was never better shown than in this film.

William A. Seiter, who has directed so many of Denny's pictures, wielded the megaphone on "Good Morning, Judge." The Denny-Seiter combination has been responsible for such hits as "Rolling Home," "Skinner's Dress Suit," "Take It From Me," and others.

VOTERS MUST REGISTER

Regular registration will be held at each precinct in Hickman and Fulton on Monday and Tuesday, September 10th and 11th, between the hours of 6 a. m. and 7 p. m.

We now have a permanent registration law. Register September 10th or 11th and you will not have to register again unless you change precincts. You must register at this time in order to vote for president on November 6th and also this will be the only regular registration before the Primary Election in August next year, at which time the county officers will be nominated.

NEW FORD CARS

The Snow-White Motor Company's place of business on Fourth street is attracting much attention by visitors to the fair as well as home folks. The firm has just received seven new Ford cars and they are beauties, too.

Mr. Leslie Nugent is in charge of the display at the Fair.

So be sure to write out the name you may think the best and leave it at their booth or send it to the mill.

RAMON NOVARRO IN A NEW SCREEN HIT

"Forbidden Hours" Tells a Fascinating Story of Courtly Love

What might be termed a costume play in modern dress, is the colorful and humanly interesting drama chosen by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer as Ramon's newest starring vehicle. It is called "Forbidden Hours" and will be seen at the Grand Theatre beginning Sept. 3.

It is set in a mythical kingdom of today, costumed with the most beautiful fashions dictated by modern style, yet it was all suggested by a period long since past, a period that was one of the most famous and colorful recorded by history. The story was founded on the first authentic love of Louis XIV of France. That monarch, who might be called the greatest lover of history, if one judged by quantity rather than degree, first fell in love, in his late teens with the niece of a powerful Cardinal. Reasons of state prevented their marriage, and he wed, instead, a Spanish princess. Later there were a score of sweethearts, famous and infamous. Yet that first love had all the poignant sweetness and bitter tragedy of all love affairs of youth that it is on that immortal romance that "Forbidden Hours" has been founded.

It shows Novarro at his best. Renee Adoree plays the leading feminine role. They are supported by a notable cast.

GRAND THEATRE TO HAVE VITAPHONE MUSIC

Manager Morris Jones of the Grand Theatre states that the installation of the new Vitaphone will be made in the next few days. When this installation is complete the patrons of the Grand Theatre will have the pleasure of enjoying just as good music as they can hear in the larger cities.

NO DULL TIMES IN FULTON

The street improvement work is progressing nicely. A large crew of laborers with modern machinery are making the dirt fly. Many blocks of concrete curb and gutters are already constructed. A number of plumbers are employed making water connections. A large quantity of iron pipe for new water mains is on the ground. Work on the large filtering tank at the water plant is going forward and in every direction you look, Fulton is alive with laborers working at one thing and another, with more than $250,000 being turned loose on improvements in course of construction with the large monthly railroad payroll, creamery and poultry checks no one should complain at dull times in the city.

MAYOR SHANKLE AT DAWSON SPRINGS

Mayor Shankle, who has been ill for several days left Sunday for Dawson Springs to recuperate. The friends of the mayor wish for him a speedy recovery and that he will be able to return home for the regular meeting of the council, Sept. 3, with renewed health and vigor.

WILLEY BUYS OUT ELLWOOD SHORT

Friends of J. T. Willey will be glad to learn that he is now in charge of the Reliance Barber Shop, having purchased the shop of Elwood Short several days ago. The shop is prominently located at 100 Fourth street and enjoys a good business.

This is truly a home-like restaurant because it has endeavored to break down the prejudice based on the theory that restaurants could not serve food like you get at home. VARIOUS PLANS TO STEAL TIME AND MONEY FROM THE UNWARY

Bankers Association Official Tells How Young People Are Fleeced in "Hokum Pokum" Movie Schemes—The Investor Loses Savings by Listening to Messrs. Slick and Smooth.

By W. R. MOREHOUSE

Public Relations Commission, American Bankers Association

THE fabulous salaries paid stars of the first magnitude, and the publicity of the "movies" naturally create longing in the breasts of thousands of our young Americans to get into motion pictures. Because so many are ready to leave home, and risk everything on a fling at motion pictures, unscrupulous persons have devised ways of fleecing these ambitious young people out of their savings. "Hokum-pokum" schemes of various kinds are used with great success. Fake courses in the art of acting before the camera, fake courses on how to make-up, fake registration gags and screen tests, are among the schemes used to separate these thousands of young people from their cash.

W. R. MOREHOUSE

The pilgrimage to the motion picture centers by thousands of novices usually ends disastrously for the pilgrims. Naturally a few are successful, but only a very, very few, the ninety and nine meeting with disappointment. The truth is, the number of persons who seek to "break into" the movies exceed the number of available positions by one hundred to one, while in the realm of popular stars it is thousands to one.

Don't be misled by the promises of promoters of hokum-pokum schemes that there is room for all, because this last year over 100,000 young people knocked at the door for admission and were turned away because there was no room on the inside for them. Consult your banker or address the National Better Business Bureau, New York City, for information or advice regarding any enterprise that seeks to gain possession of your money. They will give disinterested counsel before it is too late.

Also let every investor approached by either Mr. Slick or Mr. Smooth with a proposition yielding big dividends remember that such assurances always spell financial danger ahead. To every investor who is inexperienced in making investments, in other words perhaps just a little green and perhaps a little too easy, any offer coming from this source should be like a red flag warning to come to a complete stop.

Such investments as Mr. Slick or Mr. Smooth offer are too good to be true and therefore they are not true. Slick, Smooth and Company are not miracle workers although from their sales talk you would infer that they could make you rich as if by magic. No, they are not miracle workers—just slick and smooth.

The Estate Gag

Twenty-four "estates" representing $1 1/2 billions of dollars have been used as bait to interest a lot of savers and finally fleeced them of their savings. The scheme is built around a supposed search for the heirs to certain phantom estates. At all costs these heirs must be found. Every person who can by any hook or crook, figure it out that he is in anyway related to the deceased are urged by some shyster lawyer or genealogist to send in their names and their life history.

Soon they receive glad tidings telling them that their family tree can be traced back to the deceased, in fact, they are a direct descendant and an heir at law.

Like fake raffles everybody who responds to the search is found to be a winner—in other words an "heir." Here is where the rainbow chaser gets trimmed. Before his claim to the mythical thousands can be pressed so as to insure success a demand is made on him to advance attorney's fees and pay the expense of tracing through his genealogy.

THE NEW FARMING ACCOUNT SCHOOL

The good business farmer today watches his farm accounts carefully. In respect to his labor, his farm stock and his soil, he knows what they can do and how they can be most profitably handled. He knows the mathematics of growing feed from the soil, pigs and poultry from the feed and cash profits from pigs and poultry. He knows whether he is milking the cow for paying returns or the cow is milking him out of his invested capital. Wherever his accounts show a deficit or insufficient profit on one or more items, he immediately studies to overcome the handicap and correct any mistakes that have been made.

The Agricultural Commission of the American Bankers Association is conducting a nationwide educational campaign for better methods of farm accounting. The commission has been stressing the wisdom of country bankers through cooperation of county agents, calling farmers together, and holding account schools where instruction is given on the use of the farm account books.

Each person is led through the various steps in keeping accounts and each enters his own inventory which has previously been instructed to take and bring to school. This gives a good start and when properly followed up by letters and an occasional visit by the specialist in charge, greatly aids the man who is really in earnest to come through his first year of keeping accounts successfully. Many times country banks offer the rooms for holding the account schools. In some instances, an employee of the bank is designated to assist farmer patrons during the year in keeping their accounts.

Again, before parting with your money in any scheme you do not know all about consult your banker or a Better Business Bureau.

HOW TO GO BROKE FARMING

1. Grow only one crop.
2. Keep no livestock.
3. Regard chickens and a garden as nuisances.
4. Take everything from the soil and return nothing.
5. Don't stop gullies or grow cover crops—let the top soil wash away, then you will have "bottom" land.
6. Don't plan your farm operations. It's hard work thinking—trust to luck.
7. Regard your woodland as you would a coal mine, cut every tree, sell the timber and wear the cleared land out cultivating it in corn.
8. Hold fast to the idea that the methods of farming employed by your grandfather are good enough for you.
9. Be independent—don't join with your neighbors in any form of co-operation.
10. Mortgage your farm for every dollar it will stand to buy things you would have the cash to buy if you followed a good system of farming.—Division of Extension, University of Tennessee.

FACTS ABOUT FULTON, KENTUCKY

On account of the remarkable activity of the Fulton Chamber of Commerce, there is quite a bit of curiosity upon the part of the public to know more about the technical features of our city and rural community and we have therefore found it necessary to compile the following information to meet the requirements of the general public.

Fulton's Exact Location

Fulton is located in southwestern Kentucky on two of the great trunk lines of the Illinois Central Railway system which cross each other at this point. The new Edgewood line which extends from Fulton, Ky., to Edgewood, Ill., is also another first class railway which is also owned by the Illinois Central System. This great network of railways makes it possible to get in and out of Fulton most any hour of the day and makes direct connection with all of the larger cities of the country.

Daily Railway Traffic is Large

The Tennessee Division of the great Illinois Central System has its terminal here which is the scene of 37 passenger trains every 24 hours, the average freight haul through Fulton each month is 2,300 trains, because of the Tennessee Division being located in Fulton, there are over 600 men who live in Fulton and work for the Illinois Central System. The average payroll for each month of the year for these employees is in excess of $65,000.

Fulton's Geographical Location

The following table will give you the geographical location of Fulton as regards the metropolitan cities of the middle west.

Fulton to Chicago	406 miles
Fulton to St. Louis	202 miles
Fulton to Louisville, Ky.	270 miles
Fulton to Memphis	123 miles
Fulton to Nashville, Tenn.	141 miles
Fulton to Jackson, Tenn.	65 miles
Fulton to Cairo, Ill.	50 miles
Fulton to Paducah, Ky.	45 miles
Fulton to Birmingham, Ala.	281 miles
Fulton to New Orleans, La.	506 miles
Fulton to Mayfield, Ky.	25 miles
Fulton to Hickman, Ky.	22 miles
Fulton to Union City, Tenn.	11 miles
Fulton to Martin, Tenn.	12 miles

All of the above cities can be reached by direct connection by railway or by state highways. The two great main arteries of highway traffic pass over Fulton streets, which is to mention the Jefferson Davis Highway and the great Mississippi Valley Highway. In addition to the above highways we have the State Line Highway, which is located on the state line dividing the states of Kentucky and Tennessee, the Hickman and Fulton Highway, running from Fulton to Hickman, and several other short lines which make Fulton one of the most accessible cities to traffic accommodations that can be found in any part of the country. All of these highways are not completed, but are now under construction and within twelve months will be open to traffic.

Topography of Fulton Community

The rural section surrounding Fulton is not considered hilly, but is rolling enough to make it scenically beautiful. The character of the soil is of the heavy joint clay foundation and is known generally to be of the drouth resisting quality of farm land. The land is also very fertile and adapted to the general farming system. All kinds of legumes grow here in abundance; Jap, sweet clover and mammoth red clover are the chief meadow crops in this section. Alfalfa is another crop that does exceedingly well in this section.

Fulton's People Are of the Best

The people of Fulton and her countryside is made up of ninety-five per cent white people and ninety-eight per cent of these people were born and reared in this immediate community. This makes our moral and social conditions of the very best to be found in any part of the country.

Agricultural Features of Advantage

On account of our splendid marketing facilities, coupled with our wonderfully diversified farming advantages, we feel safe in saying that this section of the state is destined to become one of the greatest sections of the middle west as regards stock farming, dairy farming and horticultural farming. Our land is very reasonable in price for rent or sale, and we predict that wharves our highways are fully completed, our entire section is due for a rapid advance in all classes of activity and surely the price of our lands will keep pace with other features of progress. None of our land is being sold or being offered for sale, but can be bought from $60.00 to $100.00 per acre.

Seeking Tenant Population on Long Time Leases

Our land holders are not so anxious to sell their farms as they are to secure good reliable white people for tenants who are familiar with general farming and making dairy farming the chief object. Some of the best farms in this country can be had for a period of 5 to 10 years, provided the tenant will agree to do dairy and stock farming. There are several of our landholders who prefer to employ dairy farmers upon partnership basis or on yearly salary basis. If you are an experienced dairy farmer, it will pay you to make investigations of our section.

Christian and Literary Educational Advantages

Both city and rural Fulton afford as good school accommodations as can be found in any country and on account of the fact that nearly all of our people are white people, our public schools are amply supported and with no particular hardship upon any individual which is quite different to most southern sections of the country.

Property Tax Not Excessive

Our annual tax upon our lands over the country is an average of $1.10 per acre. This includes all state and county taxes. Our city tax is equally reasonable because of the fact that we have long ago adopted the old prudent and judicious system of growing as we go.

Social Society Is Far Above the Average

Our people are of the southern social type and are strong believers in good homes and beautiful churches, both in city and rural communities. In passing over the country you will find many beautiful and well kept homes and some of the largest and best attended churches to be found in any part of the south. The modern idea, which is prevalent in many sections of the country, has failed to materialize in Western Kentucky, which is to say that the rural churches have given way to the high pressure of the city churches. If you attend our rural churches, you will find a large congregation of good substantial citizens in attendance, and will also find quite a few of our city people who once lived in the community and who frequently return to the old home church for an old time spiritual feast.

Marketing Advantages of All Farm Commodities Are Good

On account of the fact that Fulton, Ky., is admirably located and so well accommodated to the larger cities through the great Illinois Central System, our farmers do not have to endure the many handicaps of many other sections of the country. While we have splendid markets here for all of our farm crops, if we are not satisfied with our local treatment, we can ship to the larger cities most any hour of the day or night, which fact will be borne out by referring you to the railroad bulletin which is found in other parts of this pamphlet. We have three cream buying stations here and one of the best poultry markets in the country, which ships out several carloads of poultry products each week. We will have a perfectly modern creamery here before January 1, which will add another bright spot to our farm features.

Wonderful Water Supply in Fulton Community

It has been generally admitted that Fulton Community is accommodated with an abundant supply of water which is of the very finest quality to be had. This is indeed a valuable asset to the farmer and most especially the dairy farmer.

The Chamber of Commerce Is Not in the Real Estate Game

While this pamphlet is compiled and presented to you by the Fulton Chamber of Commerce, we want to say that we are not a real estate firm, and have no connections with any real estate firm, but because of the fact that we can see the great possibility of a big development in this line, we have decided to give a generous portion of our time to the agricultural phase of our community's welfare. We therefore invite you to call on us for whatever source of information that you may desire and we assure you that our full time will be given your requirements, until we have ably served you to such end.

Our office is open six days out of each week, and we especially invite the farmers of our community to use our office just as if it was their very own. If you come to Fulton, be sure and call on this office for whatever needs may overtake you. Our service is absolutely free and to serve you is one of our real pleasures.

In 1903, while living in Memphis, your tonic was recommended to me after the doctor and other chill tonics failed to cure me of chills and fever. After taking the first dose I never had another attack. I have traveled all over the southern country and canal zone where the worst types of malaria, chills and fevers prevail and have ward off all attacks by taking an occasional dose. When I cured myself of chronic chills and fever I took one bottle Mendenhall's Chill Tonic Regular, without arsenic, then followed with chill tonic Red Label containing arsenic, which completed the cure." Mendenhall's is the only scientific treatment for intermittent fever or chills, chronic malaria and bilious fever. Children take it and ask for more.

For Community Success

Success has been defined by a well known authority as the progressive realization of a worthy ideal.

This definition is in terms of individuals, but it can be applied equally as well to a business or a community.

It lays down the fixed principle that success is impossible without the element of a worthy ideal.

Therefore, communities that expect to be successful must have a worthy goal to which the energies of the people are directed.

This community can expect to get ahead only by aspiring to achieve an aim that is within its reach, and by following a well defined program of action.

Nothing is impossible if the ideal is worthy and the people are "sold" on what they are attempting to do.

They can also make a community of homes where people really live and where children can be reared to become useful citizens.

This Machine Age

As the world grows richer in material things, it seems to grow poorer spiritually. We are depending too much on our machine age.

Men never had so much, that we call comfort, as they have today, when average men have conveniences, comfort and even luxuries that kings and emperors did not have in olden times.

The modern man has invented wonderful machines, dug deep tunnels, erected high buildings in large cities, and yet what has this city-machine age produced? We sometimes wonder if this age with its clang and bang, noise, rush and push for success, society thrills and adventure—its organized everything—is not in danger of becoming a set of high grade morons and neurotics.

Today civilization has its passion for speed, for short cuts, its crowd-life, crowd-thinking, crowd-pleasure that causes an abnormally stimulated race.

The man of olden times had an opportunity to think. The shepherd with his flock beneath the stars, had time for soliloquy and meditation. He was by himself. He looked up at the stars and down into himself—his life all life—and wondered what it was all about. He was a thinker and a dreamer.

Today men depend upon machines to do their work and to do their thinking. And worst of all, upon something entirely apart from themselves for amusement.

One thing about it, a heat wave is not a permanent wave.

The hand that rocks the cradle is never the hand that rocks the boat.

Many a famous lawyer will be found who has never yet won an argument—with his wife.

Of course there are crooks in politics, but no profession is denied their share.

Few curves are dangerous unless some fool is coming as fast as you are going.

Raskob Visits St. Louis

John J. Raskob, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, who arrived in St. Louis Monday afternoon for a series of conferences with Democratic party heads from eight states, predicted Gov. Smith's election in November and gave the names of the states which in his opinion Smith will carry.

In a formal statement which he had prepared on the train, he claimed for Smith 309 electoral votes with an even chance of carrying states having an aggregate of thirty-seven additional electors. This would run the Smith total to 346, or eighty more than a majority of the 531 total.

The election forecast which Raskob prepared and gave to the newspapers, the first to be published by a responsible party head since the campaign started, follows:

"It is difficult to accurately forecast the result of an election. I am very sure, however, that with the information at hand any reasonable prudent business man would at this time classify the following states, having 309 electoral votes, in the Smith-Robinson column, namely:

Alabama	12
Arizona	3
Arkansas	9
Colorado	6
Florida	6
Georgia	14
Kentucky	13
Louisiana	10
Maryland	8
Massachusetts	18
Minnesota	12
Mississippi	10
Missouri	18
Montana	4
Nebraska	8
New Jersey	14
New Mexico	3
New York	45
Nevada	3
North Carolina	12
Oklahoma	10
Rhode Island	5
South Carolina	9
Texas	20
Virginia	12
Wisconsin	13
Tennessee	12

"In addition there seems little doubt but that Connecticut, Delaware, Indiana, North Dakota, South Dakota and Wyoming with a total of fifty-seven votes should also be classified for Smith and Robinson, making a total of 346 votes or eighty votes more than the 266 necessary to a choice.

"This leaves states with 185 votes; every one of which is fighting ground and there is good indication that the Democratic ticket will corral over 100 of these.

Greatest Popular Vote
"Never has the outlook for the Democratic party been better and I prophesy that Smith and Robinson will poll the greatest popular vote ever accorded a presidential candidate in the history of our country.

"There is great unrest and dissatisfaction throughout the farm belt on account of the unkept promises made by the Republican party in 1920 and 1924. Big business and our best economists appreciate the fact that continued prosperity in our country is absolutely dependent upon increasing purchasing power of the farmer. The Republicans have failed to appreciate this with the result that the farmers and the small business man dependent upon him have suffered unnecessarily.

"Gov. Smith has promised relief. Gov. Smith has a record of never breaking a promise. The people of New York State know this and love and trust him. The people of the nation are learning more and more about this human engineer and are developing a great sense of security in him and his ability to get things done. The result is a ground swell sweeping across the whole country that makes the forecast conservative."

Blaine, Republican Wisconsin Senator Out for Gov. Smith

Burlington, Wis., Aug. 28.—The long-awaited announcement of the attitude of United States Senator John J. Blaine, Republican, Wisconsin, on his attitude toward the Republican ticket came this afternoon, in the course of a speech which Blaine delivered on the street here. Blaine, who is listed as a Republican, had come to Burlington to speak in behalf of the La Follette candidate for Governor.

After discussing state politics, Senator Blaine said: "I have no doubt that my friends and supporters are going to vote for Gov. Smith for President. These are times when partisanship must not blind us. We must condemn Republican silence on the scandals of the Harding administration as an accessory after the fact.

Blaine's statement in support of Smith brought applause from the crowd. He devoted a great part of his speech to a bitter attack on the administration of Harding and Coolidge and raked up all the old facts of Secretary Fall's part in the Teapot Dome scandal.

Your Suit and Overcoat need the Wrinkles taken out

You know what a beauty shop can do for faces—how it can remove wrinkles from cheeks and crow's feet from eyes. But did you ever visit a "beauty shop for suits"—a modern dry cleaning and sanitary pressing establishment? Here, again, is a "fountain of youth"—this time for clothes. For example, take one of your own suits to the O. K. Steam Laundry—one you've worn often. If it's a light suit, the grime is plainly visible at collar and cuffs; perhaps there is a bit of grease on it from your car. If the suit is dark, the dirt may not show—but it's there. One cannot ride in automobiles and taxis, and not gather dirt.

But see what your dry cleaner, the O. K. Laundry, can do for this suit.

First, it is tumbled in warm, drying air; the moisture is removed, the dust shaken out, obstinate spots loosened. An expert "spotter" then goes over the garment by hand—stains and spots vanish before his skill. Next, the suit is soured gently, thoroughly, back and forth, in the purest of cleaning fluids. Soil embedded in the fabric is filtered out; grime and grease are dissolved away. After most of the moisture has been whirled out, the suit is carefully dried in a breeze of fresh, warm, sterile air, then with the warm air sifting thru it, it is fluffed softly. The nap comes to life, the cloth becomes fresh and smart again.

Nor is this dry cleaning "magic" limited to men's suits and overcoats. Hats and gloves, women's coats, suits, dresses and blouses, children's clothes—almost every article of wearing apparel can be given this same renewing, refreshing treatment. And how much longer clothes wear when they receive it. Truly dry cleaning pays its own bills.

Of course, we make a specialty of dry cleaning draperies, rugs, etc. Don't overlook this

TEXAS BAPTIST LEADER SMITES CHURCH ACTION THERE AGAINST SMITH

Pulpit Must Not Be Political Platforms, C. F. Thomas Declares

Houston, Tex.—A ringing protest against involving the Baptist church in the Smith and Hoover fight has been made by Cullen F. Thomas of Dallas, one of the leading Baptist laymen of Texas and a lifelong prohibitionist. In a letter to Dr. Lee R. Scarborough, president of Southwestern Theological Seminary at Fort Worth, Mr. Thomas declares:

"The daily papers uniformly state that the document handed out by you, advocating the defeat of Smith and the election of Hoover, has been presented by several of the pastors to their congregations and was adopted usually unanimously."

"I cannot but feel that such action by the pastor of any church is unfortunate. It is earnestly hoped by some of us in the ranks that such a policy will not become general."

"A Baptist church is a religious institution. Its members are supposed to think alike along religious lines. A party is a political organization. Its members are supposed to think alike on governmental lines. In the church are necessarily political views. In the party are naturally members of divergent religious views. Though the church and the party may each strive for the betterment of human society, their activities are in widely separated spheres."

"Should any political party concern itself with the religious affiliations of its members or blackball candidates for office because of the way honest men say their prayers that party deserves to die. It any church shall so far forget its high estate as to become the propagandist of a political faction, in a national campaign, that church is headed for the rocks."

"In the last analysis, the contest between Smith and Hoover is political. The election in November means a triumph of one party and the defeat of another party. To the extent that the fate of prohibition is linked with their candidacies, the result is political and not religious. The issues may be moral and vital; they are not denominational or spiritual."

Knows of Dry Struggle
"I am familiar with the long, hard struggle through the years to rid this country of the liquor traffic. I have had a modest but earnest part in the fight to drive the saloons out of Texas. Patriotic men have differed honestly as to government methods to curb the curse."

"With all my being, I believe in the maintenance of the eighteenth amendment. I am unalterably opposed to any crippling or emasculating of the Volstead act."

"I do not here pause to appraise national platforms or discuss national candidacies. I may do that hereafter. I have been much perturbed as to where duty leads. I have awaited developments."

"What I do mean now to say is, that in my humble opinion, these campaign issues that divide the people are political and not religious; that they should be settled in the political forum and not by church groups; that men and women should engage in party contests as citizens, and not as Baptists; that voting on Smith and Hoover should be reserved for the ballot box and not obtruded in the congregations of churches."

"Nothing but an abiding conviction through many years would move me to make public response to your public statement. In so doing, mine is not the role of mentor or monitor. Among the signers of the document are some of my best friends on earth. I have admired their consecration to religious causes, through much tribulation. I fear their noble zeal for a sober nation now leads them into the manifest error of entangling a great Christian denomination with a presidential campaign."

No Political Aim
"What I am saying is not in the interest of any candidate for any office; it is rather in the interest of nearly 4,000 Baptist churches in Texas. True, every one of these is a little independent sovereignty. It may take any action it desires. Nobody has any authority to censor or censure. However, I do respectfully suggest that your document, condemning Smith and commending Hoover, presented to Baptist churches for approval or disapproval, is foreign to church polity, propriety and well-being."

"No church congregation should ever be turned into a political caucus. No Baptist pulpit should ever be used for a stump speech to extol the merits or exploit the demerits of any Democrat or any Republican who may become a candidate for any public office, from sheriff to president."

"Let us hold fast to the age-long conception of the church as a sanctuary to which all men and women—wary, burdened, baffled, sorrowing, sinning—may turn for spiritual guidance and comfort and refuge."

W. C. T. U. LEADER OF ARKANSAS ENDORSES AL

Smith Greatest American Politically Today, Mrs. J. B. Gibson Declares

Hot Springs, Ark.—The candidacy of Governor Smith for president was endorsed by Mrs. J. B. Gibson of Hoxie, former president of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, in a letter received by the local committee in charge of arrangements for the Robinson notification.

The letter was an acceptance of an invitation of the committee to attend the Robinson ceremonies as a member of the reception committee.

Concerning Governor Smith's speech of acceptance, which she heard over the radio, she said in her letter:

"I regard Governor Smith as the greatest living American politically today. He should not be crucified on the cross of intolerance by fanatics of the south. The conservative element of the south should not permit churches to be turned into Republican political clubhouses, where intolerance can sit in the 'amen corner' singing the song of hate."

LOCAL MAN PURCHASES FINE POULTRY

Last week Hunter Whitesell bought one hundred and fifty White Leghorn hens from Lloyd Smith flock at Gleason, Tenn.

For a number of years, Mr. Smith was in the employ of J. A. Hanson of Corvallis, Washington, who is probably the most distinguished breeder of White Leghorns in the United States at this time, and who holds the present world's record for high pen average, and for long time laying.

When Mr. Smith returned to Gleason last year he brought several hundred of Hanson's pedigreed eggs back with him to start his own flock, which averaged eighty-five per cent production the past winter, and has averaged sixty per cent this summer. This is high.

Hunter told us that he had turned over fifty of these hens to Mr. Geo. W. Hardy of the State Line road.

We wish to congratulate both of these gentlemen, and hope that the movement for purebred poultry which started in this part of the country last year will continue to grow.

WELCH HIGH SCHOOL

The patrons of Welch High school met Thursday, August 16, and cleaned off the campus and cleaned the building, washing the windows and sweeping the floors, etc.

At the close of the working the P. T. A. was organized for the ensuing year. Mrs. Ima Farmer was elected president; Mrs. A. Rose, vice president; Mrs. T. T. Harris, secretary and Mrs. C. M. Nelson, treasurer. The following were elected members of the executive committee: Mrs. Jno. T. Smoot; Mrs. C. B. Bailey, Mrs. Dackery Webb, Mrs. Glynn Clement, and Mr. Crate Roberts. This committee is to act in conjunction with the local Board of Education and faculty in arranging programs, etc. for the year.

Our faculty for the coming year is composed of the following members: Rev. T. T. Harris, principal; Mr. Harris is a graduate of Union University, having finished with the class of '22. He has held the principalship of some of the best high schools of Kentucky, Tennessee and Mississippi. Miss Daisy Shelton will have charge of the first and second grades. Mrs. Georgia Muzzle will have charge of the third and fourth grades. Miss Coily will teach the 5th and 6th and Mrs. Willie Thacker will teach the 7th and 8th grades.

Our faculty is the same as last year, except Miss Coily is coming. In Miss Stephenson's place, Our last school was the best in our history. Our attendance was 37 per cent higher than the previous year, and we are expecting a still better year this time.

Our Supt. F. Y. Fuqua, was at our school building last Thursday and let the contract for the wagon routes and the contract for the painting of our school building. Mr. Geo. Simpson was the successful bidder for one route; Mr. Casey Pounds for the other, and Mr. Louis Thacker got the painting contract.

Mr. Fuqua is one of the best County Superintendents of the whole state, and the schools of Weakley county have made wonderful progress under him for the last few years.

Lesson for August 26

PAUL IN A ROMAN PRISON

LESSON TEXT—Acts 16:16-40.
GOLDEN TEXT—Rejoice in the Lord always; and again I say, Rejoice.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Paul in Jail.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Paul in Prison.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—The Source of Paul's Joy.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Paul as an Evangelist.

I. Paul and Silas in Jail (vv. 16-20).

1. The occasion (vv. 16-24).

As the missionaries went out from day to day to the place of prayer they were accosted by a young woman possessed by a spirit of divination. She was owned by a syndicate of men who derived large gains from her clairvoyance. Her utterances as she followed the missionaries became a great annoyance to Paul, who bore the name of Jesus Christ commanded the evil spirit to come out of her. The spirit in this maid testified that these were servants of the Most High God and that they proclaimed the way of salvation. But Paul, like Jesus (Mark 5:7), would not have Satan's testimony. The evil spirit immediately obeyed Paul's command. When the demon was cast out, the supernatural power of the maid was gone, therefore the source of revenue was dried up. This so exasperated her owners that they brought Paul and Silas before the magistrates on the false charge of the changing of customs. It was not custom but their unlawful gain which was interfered with. There is always trouble when the unlawful business in which men are engaged is threatened.

2. Their behavior in jail (v. 25).

Paul and Silas prayed and sang hymns to God. It seems quite natural that they should pray under such circumstances, but to sing hymns is as astonishing to all who have not come into possession of the peace of God through Christ. Even with backs lacerated and smarting, and feet fast in the stocks compelling the most painful attitude, in the dungeon darkness of the inner prison with extreme uncertainty before them, their hearts went up to God in gratitude.

3. Their deliverance (v. 26).

The Lord wrought deliverance by sending a great earthquake which opened the prison doors and loosed their hands.

II. The Conversion of the Jailor (vv. 27-34).

The jailer had small sympathy for the prisoners, for as soon as they were made secure, he went to sleep. Being suddenly aroused from slumber by the earthquake he was about to kill himself, whereupon Paul assured him that the prisoners were all safe. What he had heard of their preaching and what now he experienced caused him to come as a humble inquirer after salvation. He was convicted of sin and felt the need of the Savior. Paul clearly pointed the way to be saved, saying, "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ." The word "believe" means to trust and fully obey. The proof that the jailer was saved is threefold:

1. Transformation from brutality to tenderness (v. 33).

He who a little while ago could with impunity lay on the cruel lashes is now disposed to wash their wounds.

2. Confession of Christ in baptism (v. 33).

Those who have really been convicted of sin and have experienced the saving grace of God delight to confess their faith in Him under all circumstances.

3. He set meat before them (v. 34).

4. His whole household baptized (v. 33).

When a man's family is willing to follow him, you may be sure that his conversion is genuine.

III. The Magistrates Humbled (vv. 35-40).

1. Orders to release the prisoners (vv. 35, 36).

The earthquake brought fear upon the magistrates and thus moved them to give leave for the prisoners to go.

2. Paul's refusal to go (v. 37).

The ground of his refusal was that their rights as Roman citizens had been violated. They demanded public vindication.

3. Brought out of prison by the officers (vv. 38, 39).

Because they were Roman citizens they were released, the magistrates fearing what they had done.

4. Returned to the house of Lydia (v. 40).

Upon their public vindication they left the prison and entered the house of Lydia, and after ministering comfort to the brethren, they departed.

MRS. G. E. ALVERSON PASSES AWAY

The many friends of Mrs. G. E. Alverson were grieved when they learned of her passing away Tuesday morning at her home in Oak Park, Ill.

Mrs. Alverson was a resident of this city until about a year ago, when she moved to Oak Park, Ill. She was one of Fulton's most active women in club and church work, being a member of the Methodist church of this city. She leaves three sons, Shirley Alverson, of New Orleans, Kenneth Alverson of Fulton and Nathan Alverson of Chicago, also one daughter, Miss Evelyn Alverson of Oak Park, Ill.

The remains were brought to Fulton Wednesday morning and the funeral was held at the Methodist church Wednesday afternoon, with interment at Fairview cemetery.

The many friends extend sympathy to the bereaved family.

POISONED WATER FATAL

Mayfield, Ky., Aug. 27. — Mrs. George Harrison, 50, who lived just across the state line in Tennessee near here, is dead and her husband and two children are seriously ill from drinking water from a well in which she had placed poison mistaken for lime. The poison sank to the bottom of the well but had been stirred up by a recent rain.

OLD FASHIONED BASKET PICNIC

Sunlight Lodge No. 860, F. & A. M., held its annual outing Thursday August 23rd at the rural home of Thompson Cloys south of town, where the members and their families gathered to make the occasion a pleasant and enjoyable one. It being old fashioned basket picnic, each family brought an abundance of good things to eat. Mr. Cloys had arranged a long table under the spreading branches of a large sugar maple tree, on which the dinner was served. T. J. Smith, the genial master, who gazed on the said table so heavily laden with the choicest of viands, and realizing that with the crowd present, it would require a great effort on the part of each to consume all of that great amount of food, said that all Masons should invoke the blessings of the Deity, before starting out on any great undertaking, called on Congressman W. V. Gregory to perform that duty, which he did, in an impressive manner.

Mr. Cloys had also gathered and placed under that tree a great many water melons, so after partaking of the wonderful feast, melons that were sweet, luscious, and appealing to the taste, were cut and placed before the guests, each one feeling welcome to eat to their fullest capacity, for by looking in a nearby field, many more could be seen clinging to the vines, ready to be pulled and served. After the feast of the melons, the crowd was seated on the porch and neath the trees, and were highly entertained by an able address delivered by Congressman Gregory and a few pleasant remarks made by others. Nature did her best to make the picnic a success, by giving an ideal day, with a fair sky and a strong southern breeze.

Mr. Cloys invites the lodge each year to have their outing at his farm, and they gladly accept the invitation, knowing his ability in growing such good melons, and generous way in supplying them.

DRYEST OF DRYS WILL SUPPORT AL SMITH

Texarkana, Texas.—A leader among the dryest of the drys—Senator Morris Sheppard of Texas, author of the eighteenth amendment—will militantly support the candidacy of Gov. Alfred E. Smith for the presidency, although he will "continue to oppose the changes he (Smith) has suggested in the case of prohibition."

The senator's stand was made known in a statement he issued at his home here.

"I regard Gov. Smith's acceptance speech as a convincing and able deliverance," Senator Sheppard, known as the "Daddy of Prohibition," said.

GOV. PARNELL OF ARKAN-SAS DECLARES HOLIDAY
FOR ROBINSON NOT-IFICATION

Hot Springs, Ark.—One of the highest honors a state can bestow was conferred upon Joe Robinson with the issuance by Gov. Harvey Parnell of a proclamation declaring Thursday, August 30, the day of the senator's notification of his selection as Democratic vice presidential nominee—a special holiday throughout Arkansas.

Referring to the senator as a "distinguished native son," the governor said in the proclamation that he regarded it as a "natural impulse that we should all desire to be present to pay tribute to the great southern leader, scholar and statesman, and have a part in the historic event."

The proclamation, issued at Little Rock, the state capital, called upon all departments of the state to remain closed through Thursday and urged "all who can conveniently do so to attend the notification exercises."

Word of the governor's action was received with enthusiasm by the Hot Springs committee on arrangements.

GOOD WOMAN IS CLAIMED BY DEATH

The death angel entered the Eulen home on Cleveland avenue, Wednesday afternoon, August 15, and carried away the spirit of Mrs. H. A. L. Eulen. Funeral services were held Friday morning at Liberty Baptist church, conducted by the Rev. C. H. Warren, pastor of the First Baptist church of Fulton. MAKE AN EXHIBIT
AT THE COUNTY FAIR

Do you know what makes a real fair? To have a real county fair it requires the cooperation of the entire county and lots of good exhibits of farm products, home products, live stock, poultry, etc. Now, do you know how to kill a county fair? Yes—leave all your products, livestock, etc., at home and while you are looking over the few, tell every one present, "I have better products than these at home." If you have, bring them to the fair, if not, help the fellow who went to the trouble to show those who attended the fair that he had pride enough in his county to show the things that were grown in the county.

A county fair is the best medium through which a county can be advertised. You may not know it, but every stranger who visits your fair is going to look over your hogs, sheep, beef cattle, dairy cattle, poultry, ladies' work, etc., and he is going to tell everyone he sees just what kind of an exhibit Fulton county had.

Every farmer in Fulton could bring something to the fair, and after all the exhibits are what makes a fair.

So get your sheep, hogs, beef cattle, dairy cattle, farm crops, canned goods, poultry, etc., together and let's have the best fair Fulton county ever had.
