BECKHAM COUNTY BILL
POSTPONED INDEFINITELY
Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 8. - The bill passed unanimously yesterday evening, without any debate, by the Committee on Common Schools. Judge Reed was at the Head of the meeting.

TRAVERTINE OF THE STATE FROM END TO END
The latest thing in the great era of growth and improvement which has marked Kentucky is the Traversing of the State from End to End. The work has been started, and soon the whole state will be traversed by this great improvement.

The meeting was to have been held today, but the business men, principal officers of the State and the Governor, were absent.

No Session Today.

The House adjourned this afternoon on account of the prospects of Washington's birthday.

House Bill Brought Up
Judge Reed brought up the House bill, having already reported the same on the floor of the Assembly.

The vote was close, as 20, 30 and 40 votes in the council and the House were reported for the bill during the session.

President Ed. F. Noble, of the Board of Works, yesterday presented a report of the work done since the last meeting, which it is said, if carried out, will result in the completion of the Traversing of the State in one year.

FRANKLIN WAS HONORED.

The Famous American President Was the Sage of the Frenchmen.

FRANKLIN has been the subject of various poems and songs written in France. A new one is now abroad, and as Franklin is justly renowned for the confidence he inspires, it may be said that he is a national poet. A poem about the Sage of the Frenchmen was also written in France, which shows the respect in which he is held by the French people.
