THE MURRAY LEDGER.

VOL. 82, NO. 20

MURRAY, KENTUCKY, THURSDAY, AUGUST 11, 1910.

$1.00 PER YEAR.

JAS. B. M'CREARY IS NOW CANDIDATE.

Believed to be Probably The Last Veteran to Offer For Office.

Richmond, Ky., Aug. 8.—Because he believes that the great majority of the Democrats of the state sincerely desire him to lead them in the fight next year in the effort to rescue Kentucky from its Republican rule, Senator James B. McCreary today formally announced himself a candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor, and his announcement is not that he will take the nomination if it is given him. He will make an aggressive fight for it, believing that Democrats who have their party's success desire him to do so, and will stump every county in the state, if need be. He is in fine fettle after two years retirement from the political arena. Sixty country Democratic newspapers have declared that he is the one man who can bring all factions and elements of the party together and lead in an old-time victory. Democrats of prominence and influence and the rank and file in every district in the state have written him the same and he yields to their commands that he make the race. Senator McCreary's formal announcement as a candidate is as follows:

"I have received so many letters requesting me to announce that I am a candidate for governor and so many Democrats have said to me that if I am nominated I will have the unanimous support of the Democrats of Kentucky, and such a large number of newspapers have published editorials suggesting and endorsing me as a proper candidate for governor that I have decided to announce that I am a candidate for governor subject to the action of the Democratic party."

"I believe the party which has honored me so often and to which I have belonged all my life and whose principles I have ever advocated and upheld, is fitted to my best services whenever needed or demanded."

"I have always been in favor of straight pure Democracy, law and order, honesty and economy in public administration and educational advancement, and my record and my efforts to serve the people faithfully and efficiently I hope and believe are well known to the people of Kentucky."

"At the proper time I shall be pleased to make speeches in behalf of the Democratic principles and Democratic government and Democratic victory in every part of the state and in every county if desired and I will be very grateful for the support of my brother Democrats."

(Signed) JAS. B. M'CREARY.
Richmond, Ky., Aug. 2 1910.
It has been two years since Senator McCreary retired as United States Senator from Kentucky, after a career of political brilliance and service which is almost coincident with the history of the commonwealth for the last half century. A gallant confederate colonel of cavalry, speaker of the Kentucky legislature twice, six times in congress from his district and once, governor—and his administration so LARGE CROWD TO BE AT ALMO.

Every indication points to the fact that one of the largest crowds in the history of the county will gather at Almo next Saturday for an all day picnic. Association officials who are behind the meeting are doing everything within their power to make the gathering a notable one. Splendid preparations are being made for the meeting and every convenience will be made for the comfort of those who attend. Capt. W. J. Stone, J. W. Usher and well known speakers will attend and speak in the interest of the tobacco association. This will be the last gathering of the people before the books of the association close and it is hoped to make it one of the big days in the history of the organization.

Sid Broach Paroled.

The Board of Prison Commissioners last week paroled Sid Broach of Graves County, who had served 17 years of a life sentence for murder. He was only 23 years old when sent to the penitentiary.

ZIBA'S HOOKS ARE CROOKED.

One of the most splendid games of ball of the season was played here Wednesday by the B. B. Hooks team of Paducah and the local nine. Ziba Williams, a former Murray boy, is the manager of the Paducah team. A large crowd witnessed the game and cheered the home boys to victory by a score of 3-2. The game was replete with good, snappy ball playing. The Paducah team has been "mopping dry" with nearly all comers this season and the victory of the home team places it easily in the lead of all amateur teams of this section.

Dresden was here last Friday and Saturday for three games, winning two out of three. The home team was badly crippled in these games owing to the fact that a number of the best players were unable to engage in the games.

The Anderson Bros. in charge of the park are to be congratulated upon the character of games furnished this season and are richly deserving of the splendid patronage they are having.

FACTS REGARDING THE LYON COUNTY KILLING.

CALLOWAY WILL PLEDGE AT LEAST 75 PER CENT.

As a result of the strenuous campaign that has been waged the past several weeks in the interest of the tobacco association it is now predicted that fully 75 per cent. of the growing crop will be pledged to the association. The result of the speaking the past week at Green Plains, Harris Grove, Lynn Grove, Brandon, Backusburg, Dexter and Kelley's school house has been fully up to the expectations of the most sanguine association advocates. The result of the labor has been most satisfactory and it is yet hoped that 90 per cent. of the growers will pledge their crops before the books close on the 14th inst.

Big Entertainment.

On Aug. 13th, 1910, between 3 and 4 o'clock p. m., we will commence one of the nicest ice cream suppers in the history of Calloway county. Yes, you are invited. Come one and all. Will have fine string band music, with the best eatables that can be had. All for the benefit of the M. E. church. Remember it is to be at the Gordon shed, 2 miles east of Dexter, Ky. Order guaranteed.

BIG FREE ATTRACTION FOR FAIR.

Daily Balloon Ascension To The Clouds and Parachute Leap to Earth.

The managers of the Calloway County Fair Association have closed a contract with "Peg" Andrews for a daily balloon ascension for the four days of the fair this fall. Andrews is a one-legged man and his daring feats have startled the world for the past several years. He not only ascends in a balloon but goes to the clouds at each ascension and leaps from his balloon at a height of several thousand feet to the earth. Ascensions will be made daily and the public will be permitted to witness the dare-devil feat with out cost. Andrews has been the free attraction at the Paducah and Paris fairs and will be seen for the first time this year at the Calloway fair.

Elope to Fulton.

B. C. Shelton and Miss Bessie Wheeler, of Lynnvill, eloped Saturday night and after several hours of hard driving they reached the residence of Esq. Futtrell at 11:30. A timid knock upon the door aroused the marrying squire who made a hasty toilet and admitted them into the reception hall where hundreds of others had assumed the marriage vows.

The license prepared it was the work of but a few minutes to tie the silken knot.

Both the bride and the groom are prominently connected and have many friends. —Fulton Leader.

Don't forget the big picnic at Almo Saturday.

No Truth in Reports Alleging it Due to Night Rider Participations.

We publish following a full account of the Lyon county killing of recent date from the Lyon County Herald, published at Kuttawa:

As the result of a barbecue fight near the Trigg and Caldwell county line, above Lamasco last Saturday young Axiom Cooper is dead and several young men of Caldwell, Trigg and Lyon counties are behind prison bars charged with murder.

Many reports have gained circulation as to the cause of the trouble and the facts surrounding the killing added to the color of a conspiracy and augmented by the false reports sent in by newspaper reporters made the outside world believe that a band of night-riders induced him to attend the barbecue to murder him.

Young Cooper, who was only 19 years of age, had been at work on the farm of Milton Oliver, who was shot from ambush and wounded a short time ago by unknown parties, gave rise to the report that it was a conspiracy to kill him but proof leading to this idea was not forthcoming when the witnesses were questioned by the civil authorities at the inquisition.

The truth of the matter is that these young men gathered at a barbecue and dance given by Tom Litchfield and where the vendors of hard cider and mean whiskey had full sway. These boys got drunk and began quarreling in the dancing pavilion; young Cooper drew his pistol and was knocked down by Alonzo Gray and a general drunken fight ensued where guns were drawn by several different parties and the shooting became general, when it was ceased Axiom Cooper was found to be dangerously wounded with a smoking empty revolver in his hand. He was removed to the home of Mr. Litchfield where he died the following day.

In all warrants have been issued for Roy Merrick, Jim Bogard and Bryan Hawkins, of Caldwell county; Vilas Mitchell, Trigg county, who is reported to have fired the first shot, and Bark and Spunk Creekmur, who have not yet been arrested and Alonzo Gray and Fraud Murphy, of this county. All who have been arrested are held in the county jail without bond.

They are now in the hands of the civil authorities who will do their whole duty in the matter. Not a man for whom a warrant has been issued will escape prosecution nor be turned loose until they are proven innocent of the charge. Every effort will be made to secure evidence bearing on the killing and the military authorities will have a chance to tell what they know just like they did Wednesday, at the inquest.

Adjutant General Johnson was present at the inquest held over the body of Axiom Cooper, near Lamasco, and assisted very materially in securing evidence. He expressed his pleasure at the condition of affairs in the section of the county. Things never have been as bad as pictured by some

Some Interesting facts and Figures of the Association.

STATISTICS OF SALES To the Tobacco Growers of Calloway County:

We call your attention to the following statistics of the Planters' Protective Association. It has made the following sales:

1904 crop, 25,000 hogsheads, at an average of $6.67 per hundred pounds.
1905 crop, 34,000 hogsheads, at an average of $7.12 per hundred pounds.
1906 crop, 39,000 hogsheads, at an average of $8.84 per hundred pounds.
1907 crop, 60,000 hogsheads, at an average of $8.54 per hundred pounds.
1908 crop, 49,000 hogsheads, at an average of $7.93 per hundred pounds.
1909 crop, 24,000 hogsheads, at an average of $10.18 per hundred pounds.

It will be seen from the above statement that the Association has sold 231,000 hogsheads of tobacco, which has brought approximately $30,000,000. This, we think, is a good showing, since we know that the 1903 crop of tobacco averaged the farmers of the Black Patch $3.95 per hundred pounds.

With these facts before us, we invite every tobacco grower to join the Association and aid the good work.

Respectfully,

J. W. USHER, Vice Pres.

AUDITOR'S REPORT.

To the Tobacco Growers of Calloway County:

Up to date we have sold 23,891 hogsheads. This represents 25,836,800 pounds. The cost of selling this tobacco has been $4.06 per hogshead, or the sum of 26 cents per hundred pounds. This does not include pricing charges, as that is a matter left to the option of the farmer as to whether he will pay some one to prize or do it himself. The general average on all sold is $10.18 per hundred, or nearly $4,000,000 in money. So the people who have stood by us have received as much money as was represented by the sale of 40,000 hogsheads last year. In other words we have made 25 equal to 40 by comparison with last season.

The lowest price received was $5.50 and the highest $18.50. There has not been a complaint filed with us this year for any misdeed of any official in the employment of the Association, and everybody seems to be satisfied.

Below I give you the average each week, beginning on February 5th, the date of first sale, viz:

February 5th, $10.66
February 12th, $10.76
February 19th, $9.81
February 26th, $9.70
March 5th, $9.51
March 12th, $9.31
March 19th, $9.97
March 26th, $9.39
April 2nd, $10.37
April 9th, $10.27
April 16th, $10.19
April 23rd, $10.43
April 30th, $11.15
May 7th, $10.34
May 14th, $10.06
May 21st, $10.10
May 28th, $10.24
June 4th, $10.96
June 11th, $10.07
June 18th, $11.04
June 25th, $10.79
July 2nd, $10.62
July 9th, $10.14
July 16th, $10.26
July 23rd, $10.06
July 30th, $10.34

This we think a good showing to go before the people, and can appeal to their good sense and judgment. It certainly does not indicate that we are dead or very sick. We do not feel like giving up the fight as long as we can make good. The price of tobacco in this district is just what the Planters' Association says it is—not what one fellow says he will give. We have passed that stage of the game and I hope to never see the time when we will go back to the old way.

I hope the people of Calloway county will help us pull the ship out of any bad places they may have imagined it to have fallen into.

I am always at your service when needed, and hope you will not fail to call on me. I am,

Very truly yours,
G. B. BINGHAM, Auditor.

ANOTHER NEGRO EMANCIPATED.

Eighth of August Celebration Results in Life of Negro Being Snuffed.

The negro population of Calloway county met last Monday at the home of Mack Stubblefield on the east side of the county to celebrate emancipation day, and as a result a very decent funeral was held the following day.

Eunice Hill is a bad negro and has been making his home near Buchanan, Tenn., the present year. Eunice was in a mood to celebrate emancipation and he attended the Calloway celebration. It is said that Eunice is the illegitimate son of Bill Bailey. A rough house was commenced at about the eleventh hour of the glorious day and Bill Bailey attempted to interfere between Eunice and other coons who wanted to enliven the occasion with gun play, and the result was that Bailey stopped a few bullets and died from the effects. His demise was peaceful and interfered with the celebration for only a few short moments. After Bailey was comfortably dead a wagon sheet was thrown over his carcass and the festivities of the day were continued.

Hill was later arrested by Deputy Sheriffs Jones and Langston at the home of Tom Goodloe, five miles distant from the scene of the killing, and brought to town and lodged in jail. The grand jury was in session and after inquiring into the case promptly indicted the negro upon a warrant charging him with willful murder. All matters connected with the case were judiciously expedited.

THE MURRAY LEDGER.

O. J. JENNINGS, EDITOR.

Entered at the postoffice at Murray, Kentucky, for transmission through the mails as second class matter.

THURSDAY, AUG. 11, 1910.

A FINAL WORD.

This is the last issue of the Ledger before the closing of the books of the tobacco association, which occurs Monday the 15th inst. This paper has endeavored to impress upon the growers of tobacco the necessity of pooling their tobacco that they might be placed in a position where they could demand a living price for it. We have presented arguments, substantiated by facts and figures, that should have convinced every man of the necessity of concerted action upon the part of the farmers. The losses sustained by the people of Calloway county the past year alone should convince every man, the splendid prices received the past several years, is undisputable argument, the possibility of the association withdrawing from the county, leaving the producer at the mercy of the speculator and the trust, are sufficient reasons why every grower in the county should avail himself of the opportunity and pledge his crop to the association before the books close. The tobacco association is responsible for more good homes, more good clothing, more good horses and mules, more good schools and churches, more telephones, more of every thing that tends to comfort the material man and advance his moral and social condition than any or all organizations ever before introduced in this county.

Our advocacy of the organization is not a selfish one, while we admit and are glad to acknowledge the fact that our bread comes from the laboring man, because his patronage is the foundation upon which our small business is founded, but, upon the other hand, whether a pound of tobacco is pledge to the association or sold to the trust at a less price than cost of production, we expect to eat three "square hots" every day and lunch between times in case gaunt hunger gnaws at our empty bread basket. Our interest in this organization is the honest conviction we entertain in behalf of organized labor in constant combat with organized capital. Without organization labor must be the slave of capital, and we have not yet been convinced that the man who earns his bread by the sweat of his brow is not the equal of any other man on earth, and in ninety-nine cases out of every hundred the superior of the man who secures his bread in violation of this command and feeds upon the honest toil of his less fortunate fellows. The producer is justly entitled to every penny of profit the product of his labor will produce and he should demand it and use every honest effort to secure it. Producing tobacco is not a game of checkers, but it is labor and toil and sweat and he who expends these energies is entitled to the reward. Do you want the reward or are you satisfied to see the drone consume the honey you garner? It is up to you, Mr. Farmer, but yet a few days remains in which to decide this question for yourself. If you are content with your place in life, if you are satisfied with the reward you are receiving for the labor you expend and the toil and sacrifices made by your wife and your children, if you are without ambition for yourself and family stay out of the organization and drift down life's stream until you find eternal lodgement in the great heap of driftwood at the end.

PLEDGES MUST BE RETURNED AFTER 15TH INST.

All persons who have association pledges in their possession are notified that same must be returned to the chairman or the secretary of the county committee not less than six days after the books close. Unless this is done the pledges will be invalidated. Do not neglect this matter but return same either to me or to O. J. Jennings, at the Ledger Office promptly after the 15th.

WORK THAT TELLS.

The Kind Murray Readers Appreciate.

Cures that last are cures that tell: To thoroughly know the virtues of a medicine you must investigate the cures and see if they prove permanent. Doan's Kidney Pills stand this test, and plenty of proof exists right here in this locality. People who testified years ago to relief from backache, kidney and urinary disorders, now declare that relief was permanent and the cure perfect. Can any Murray sufferer longer doubt the evidence?

H. D. McGee, S. First St., Mayfield, Ky., says: "Since I first recommended Doan's Kidney Pills through the Mayfield papers some years ago, I have continued to advise my friends and acquaintances to use them. I know of a number of cases in which this remedy has brought prompt relief and lasting cures from kidney trouble. My previous testimony was based on personal experience. Doan's Kidney Pills cured me of backache and other symptoms of disordered kidneys and the cure has been permanent. It is for this reason I take pleasure in giving them a second endorsement."

CLANCY M'COOL IS ACQUITTED.

Case Against H. Bridges for Murder is Continued. Other Court News.

Clancy McCool was last Saturday afternoon acquitted by a jury of the charge of manslaughter. McCool was charged with the killing of Joe Utterback which occurred last Christmas eve near the Gilbert factory just north of the city limits. It developed at the trial of McCool that Joe Utterback in company with two brothers and others followed him to the edge of the city limits and that the deceased made attempt to assault the accused by striking him with a quart bottle and that in protecting himself McCool shot Utterback with a revolver killing him. The case attracted considerable attention and was vigorously prosecuted by relatives of the dead boy together with the commonwealth.

The case of the commonwealth against Homer Bridges, colored, charged with murder was continued until the next regular term of the Calloway circuit court. Bridges is indicted upon the charge of killing Earnest Lowery by shooting him from a train near Hazel last December. It seems that Lowery was walking along the right-of-way of the railway and that when the train passed a shot was fired from the window of a coach and that Lowery was wounded and died from the effects of the shot several weeks after. The deceased was a young man of splendid reputation and left a large family. A special venire of 200 men was summoned to be here Monday morning from which to select a jury but when the case was called the negro informed the court that he was without counsel and the court appointed Coleman & Wells to defend the accused. A continuance was asked upon the grounds that the defense could not prepare the case for trial at the present term of court. Bridges was brought here from Paducah Monday morning where he has been confined since the crime was committed and after the case was continued was returned to Paducah for safe keeping.

The grand jury finished its labors Tuesday of this week and adjourned. A total of about forty indictments were returned. The commonwealth cases were all reached by Tuesday afternoon and the equity cases were at once entered into Wednesday morning.

The term will close Saturday afternoon, and while there has been some talk of an extra session of the court it is generally conceded that such will not be called, possibly owing to the fact that the regular term of the Lyon circuit court will be convened the 15th inst.

The Brassfield Band will furnish music for the crowd and as further attraction the owners will give away two lots and $10 in gold free. Every person who attends will be given a ticket entitling them to participate in the drawing. It is not a game of chance but a legitimate gift to the lucky person. The sale has been quite extensively advertised and a large crowd should attend. A letter from the Commercial Club, of Paris, the home of the Henry Realty Co., has the following to say of the company:

"Our city never woke up till the Henry Realty Co., came in our midst. They have conducted three big auction sales of lots here placing in the hands of home seekers and investors more than 200 lots on easy payments, and giving the city a building boom that it never enjoyed before. More than 100 new homes have been built on these lots, where three years ago the ground was an open pasture. The Henry Realty Co., advertise what they do and do what they advertise. Their transactions here have been entirely fair and square and never a word of complaint of any kind have I heard. I unhesitatingly endorse their methods and recommend them to any city that feels a depression caused by inactivity in Real Estate."

WHERE TO WORSHIP.

METHODIST CHURCH.

Great preparations are being made for the revival meetings of the Methodist church which are to begin here the first Sunday in September. The Rev. Walter Holcomb, an evangelist who enjoys a great reputation throughout the south, will occupy the pulpit throughout these meetings. Rev. Holcomb has a long list of successful revivals behind him, some of them having been conducted in the largest cities in the country. He comes here fresh from one of the great chautauqua circuits and will be in fine trim. He will bring a singer of note with him who will lead the song services and a choir of 100 voices will be organized and the singing of the best. This choir will be drawn from the several churches of the county, all denominations, and it is proposed to make the meeting a co-operative one of all Christians—an earnest attempt to awaken Calloway county spiritually regardless of creed or denomination.

Realizing that no house in the city will accommodate the crowd that such a man as Rev. Holcomb always draws a large chautauque tent has been secured from one of the bureaus and will be erected in the court square. This tent will accommodate about 1500 people and the choir platform about 100. It is expected to have church workers of all denominations here from all over the county and great results are expected.

In anticipation of the coming meeting evangelistic services are already being held at the Methodist church and considerable interest has already been manifested. The Thursday night prayer service as well as the Sunday services is conducted along this line. The program for next Sunday will be as follows:

Morning Sermon—"A Snapshot of Sin's Wages"—Gen. 19-24.

Evening Sermon—"For We Must All Appear Before the Judgement Seat of Christ."—11 Cor. 5-18.

Music:

Voluntary—Selected—Miss Owen.

Offertory—Selected—Chorus Choir.

WEST MURRAY CIRCUIT.

The Pastor Rev. J. M. Hamil will leave Friday, 12 inst. for Atwood, Tenn., to assist Rev. T. J. Simmons in a ten days meeting. From there he will go to Bethel, Tenn., to assist Rev. V. D. Humphrey in a ten days meeting. During his absence his appointments will be looked after by the young local preachers of the charge.

Cletus Fain will preach next Sunday at 11 o'clock a. m. at Martin's Chapel. Talmage James will preach the 3rd Sunday 11 a. m. at Linn Grove and Cletus Fain the same day, 3 p. m. at Goshen. On the 4th Sunday 11 Talmage James will preach at Martin's Chapel. We know all the good people in our charge will do all in their power to encourage and help these young brethren. We have held two of our meetings, at Linn Grove where we were assisted part of the time by Rev. B. S. McEmore who did splendid preaching and work but, because of sickness had to leave after four days but the Lord was in the work and there were more than twenty conversions and 18 additions to the church. And Goshen where we had the assistance of Rev. E. A. Scott of Paducah who did most of the preaching and to say it was done well in putting it mildly, there were a number of conversions and reclamations with fifteen additions to the church. We feel to thank God and take courage. The revival meeting will begin at Martin's Chapel the second Sunday in September.

KENTUCKY GLEANINGS

WHAT IS GOING ON IN DIFFERENT SECTIONS OF THE COMMONWEALTH

WANTS AN ADDITIONAL LICENSE.
Revenue Agent Asks for Opinion on Retailing by Breweries.

Frankfort, Ky.—Kentucky statutes covering the sale of beers are not plain on some of the points. C. W. Foushee, revenue agent of Lexington, has put the question to Auditor James whether or not the breweries that are retailing beer should pay an additional license than the one usually paid. He says there are at least 50 breweries, foreign and domestic, that pay to this state an annual brewer's tax of $200, and also a license as wholesale dealer for each agency of $25, and Foushee asks whether or not such persons can be held or are liable for an additional license of $75 for retailing malt liquors in quantities less than five gallons by selling to the trade bottled beer in pints of three dozen or less at one delivery. Subdivision 4, Article 12, of the Acts of 1906, Page 194, is referred to, and all of this is a part of Chapter 22.

Auditor James handed the inquiry over to Atty. Gen. Breathitt, and Assistant Atty. Gen. Lockett prepared an opinion. In connection with the reference made by Foushee to the Acts of 1906, Judge Lockett suggests that Foushee make use of the special license statute, which is Section 422 of the Kentucky Statutes, and a number of cases are cited. Section 4199 of the Kentucky Statutes is quoted in the same connection. It relates to the selling of liquors in quantities in less than five gallons.

PHONE GIRLS STRIKE.

Somerset, Ky.—Anxiety because a chief operator had been sent from the home office to "show them a few things about operating," (the entire force of the Gainesboro Telephone Co.'s local exchange went out on a strike.

A few days ago, when officials of the company at Cookeville, Tenn., sent Miss Ida Wallace, an operator, to this office to instruct the local "hello girls" just how to handle the drops and plugs, the force here declared they were far superior in their ability to the newcomer, and refused to work longer. They also asked for higher wages.

Manager Godbey and a force of line-men have been busy at the board trying to handle the service. Nearly all the strikers are expert operators, and they claim the sending of the new instructor brought upon them dire humiliation.

PAROLES WERE REFUSED.

Frankfort, Ky.—Paroles were refused four noted convicts now in the Frankfort penitentiary at a meeting of the prison commission. The cases in which refusal was made were: Tom White and Carl Lett, convicted jointly of two murders in Breathitt county; Henry Yontsey, convicted of complicity in the murder of William Goebel; Judge C. E. Boone, convicted of peculations from the state while employed in the auditor's office as assistant auditor and claim clerk.

The refusal of these applications means that the convicts will have to wait for three months before their cases can be considered again. It is hardly probable that they will be taken up within the next year, as the prison commission has indicated that it will not parole either of the four men until some time has passed, if at all.

PRISON COMMISSION ACTS.

Frankfort, Ky.—The state prison commission appointed the four-term men for the Frankfort and Eddyville penitentiaries. Practically all of the men who have been four years at each prison were reappointed. The appointments for the Frankfort prison are: Warden, Col. E. F. Mudd, Hardin county; deputy warden, S. M. Lykins, West Liberty, Ky.; assistant deputy warden, T. M. Phyllis, Knott county; and R. L. White, Grayson county; clerk, A. Adams, Crab Orchard, Chapman county; chaplain, Rev. Walter Vreeland, Louisville; and physician, Dr. E. H. Megeard, Ashland.

Eddyville—Warden, H. T. Hagerman, Bowling Green; deputy warden, E. M. Taylor, Fulton; assistant deputy warden, C. B. Miller, of Hardinburg; and William Wilson, of Sturgis; clerk, W. N. Wren, of Gallatin county; and physician, Dr. R. H. Moss, of Hogdenville.

COMMISSION GRANTS PAROLES.

Frankfort.—The prison commission at its session here granted the following paroles: Sid Roach, Graves county, life sentence for murder, served 17 years; Pearl Brown, Hopkins county, 7 years for manslaughter, served 4 years; Miles Gregory, Wayne county, 14 years for manslaughter, served 7 years; Charles Hayden, colored, 3 years for manslaughter, served 3 years; John Lumpkins, Frankfort county, 21 years for manslaughter, served 3 years.

The Commonwealth

Carlisle.—Grover Cameron, a farmer of Myers, this county, died after several days' illness of typhoid fever. Mr. Cameron was 25 years of age and a son of former Assessor James A. Cameron, of this county.

Hopkinsville.—Charles Bond, a negro, was arrested here upon a request received from officers at Carthage, Tenn., on the charge of having murdered Bob Grimes, colored, at that place in November, 1902.

Lexington.—Under the direction of the Fayette county board of health an inspection of all the dairy plants in the vicinity of Lexington has been begun. It will take more than a month to complete the work.

Henderson.—At Wheatcroft Ed Hinson, a white miner, fired his pistol into a crowd of negroes at a barbecue. James White was killed and Walter Harris, Anna Pindolf and John Holt were wounded. Hinson fled.

Lexington.—Mrs. Amanda Parris, of Cleveland, O., the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Baker, of this city, en route to Paris in an automobile, fell into the basement of the Bourbon garage and broke both arms at the wrists.

Glasgow.—The American Onyx Co., with a capital stock of $50,000, has been organized and incorporated under the laws of Indiana. The quarries are situated at Cave City, this county, near the main line of the Louisville & Nashville railroad.

Lexington.—The authorities of Lexington and Fayette county are planning to lay in stop automobile speeding since a big car took a wheel off Editor DeSha Breckinridge's auto. Conny Judge Scott said that he is determined to stop automobile speeding.

Middlesboro.—Andy Watson, who was a fugitive for a number of years, was found dead near his home. It was reported that he had been killed. Coroner Evans was summoned and found that he had bled to death from a hemorrhage of the lungs.

Lexington.—Mad. F. A. Baingerfield, the noted turfman, manager of James R. Keene's Castleton farm here, is ill at Castleton, and his friends fear his condition is serious. He is the father of Almon Baingerfield, assistant secretary of the Eastern Jockey club.

Louisville.—The body of a man was discovered in a vacant lot on Market street, when two men saw a hand sticking out of the mud. A man evidently had been dead for several days. The body is believed to be that of Charles Geis, a saddlemaker, who has been missing for nearly a week. Coroner Duncan will hold a post-mortem examination.

Pineville.—James Price, an I. & N. brakeman, while switching in the Wallis yard, let the car on which he was riding bump into a car loaded with steel, and the force of the impact shifted the steel forward, pinning Price to the other car. As a result the unfortunate man will probably lose both legs.

Paducah.—Notices were posted at the Illinois Central shops stating that all employees who had not received a raise since April 1 had been granted a 5 per cent increase, effective the first of July. This includes clerks as well as mechanics, and the raise will increase the pay roll several thousand dollars per month.

Frankfort.—Gov. Willson refused to pardon George Davis, serving a life sentence in the penitentiary upon conviction for murder, from Carlisle county. He was convicted the last time of malicious cutting. The governor says no good reason was given for granting the pardon, and until some good reason is presented he does not see why he should interfere.

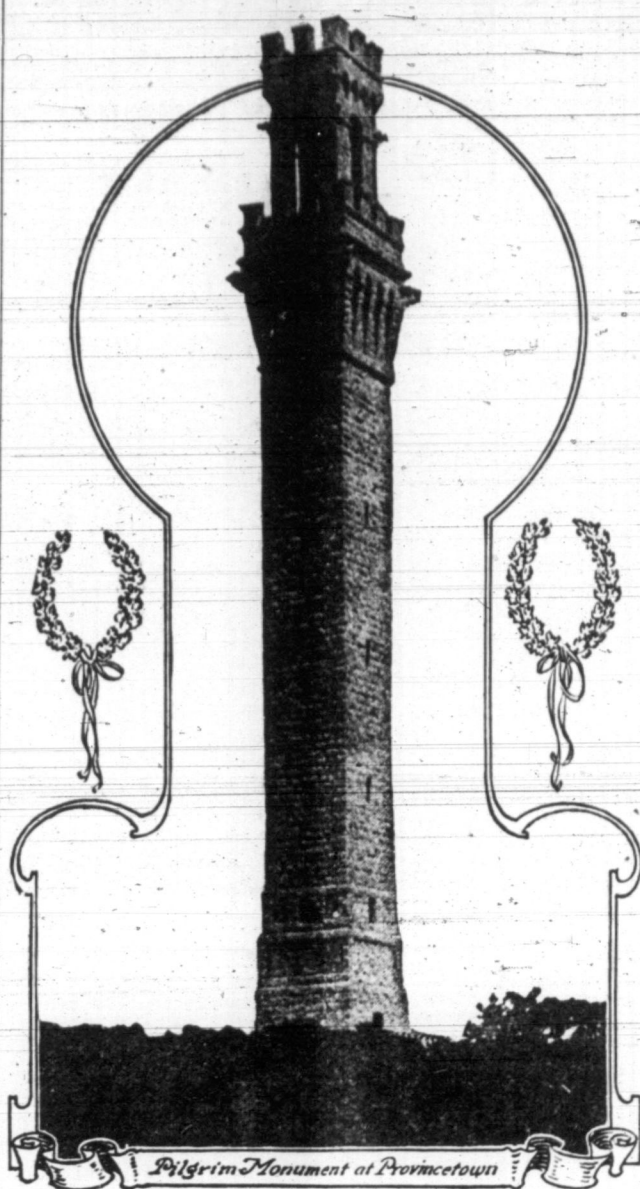

Frankfort.—Act's of the last legislature, as compiled and printed in book form, have all been sent out by Frank Kavanaugh, state librarian, and the justices of the peace and other officials who are entitled to receive them can get them from the county clerk in each county. The acts were sent by freight addressed to the county clerk in each county.

St. Sterling.—State Chairman H. R. Prewitt is in receipt of a letter from John W. Vreeland, member of the Democratic state central committee from the Fifth Congressional district, announcing his resignation. The resignation will be accepted. Vreeland has served as member of the state executive and central committees for 14 years. He has accepted public office in Louisville and can not hold both places.

Springfield.—Geo. Bohon, of Harrodsburg, qualified here as administrator of Carl Ethrington, the young man hanged by a mob at Newark, O. He executed bond for $5,000. This is the first legal step toward the exoneration of the $2,000 indemnity for which counties in Ohio are liable for every person lynched in their confines. The administrator will at once proceed to enforce the collection of the claim against lynch counties.

Louisville.—Mrs. C. Muenz, of Hume, Mo., from whom it is understood, Chief of Detectives Carney learned the address of Joseph Wendling, wanted in Louisville on the charge of murdering Alma K. Hottel, has put in a claim for the rewards offered by the state, city and several citizens for the arrest and conviction of Wendling. Mrs. Muenz, in her letter, says that she is "pleased up with Wendling only and newspaper reporters," and claims her business in Hume has been injured to such an extent that she will have to open for the fall trade in some other place.

The monument, which is 269 feet high, stands on a hundred-foot hill on the tip of Cape Cod and is an imposing structure.

IRRIGATION IN INDIA

English Government Is Redeeming Many Acres of Dry Land.

Powerful Recommendation of Irrigation Commission and Courageous Energy of Lord Curzon Needed for Ultimate Success.

London.—The Times of India gives some interesting facts regarding the work done by the Indian government in extending the irrigation system of the land. Of the Deccan system, it says:

"The Deccan schemes are of first-class importance and value. They make a vivid appeal to our imagination and sympathy. If we look at a rainfall map of India we see a large parched patch of country enveloping the Deccan and parts of Nasik and Bilapur and parts of Nasik and Bilapur and parts of Nasik and Bilapur. Here the laborious cultivator has learned to look for drought and famine in one year out of three, and in a vasty wider area a scanty and insufficient rainfall is as likely to be received as a plentiful watering. In the Deccan there is no question of watering a desert and bringing in a colony of people to enjoy the results. The cry for water comes from the people whose native homes are on the soil and who year after year sow their crops uncertain of the return, frequently having to sell their treasures and migrate in search of labor, in order to find the means of subsistence.

"The soil is rich and capable of bearing fine crops, and along its whole western border runs the mighty buttress of the Ghats which brings down an unending flood of water, sufficient to irrigate the land many times over. What more simple than to store water in the hills and deal it out through canals upon the thirsty plains? Yet the difficulties to be faced are some of the hardest in any irrigation problem in India. The construction of the great storage reservoirs in the Ghats proved extremely costly; owing to the conformation of the country, the alignment of canals from the best sites for storage works to the districts requiring water presented complications; and the fluctuations of rainfall in the plains seriously affected prospects of regular revenue.

"Government obtains returns for its outlay upon irrigation both directly, by payments made for the water service, and indirectly, by the increased taxable capacity, which it confers on the people.

"It needed the powerful recommendation of the irrigation commission and the courageous energy of Lord Curzon to insure the problem which the Deccan presents being boldly attacked and steadily pushed forward to solution. The commission found that of the soil in the Deccan which might be irrigated, 95 per cent was without irrigation. In the secretariat of the government of Bombay how lies a new map of the Deccan upon which may be seen the results of the labors of the last seven years. Every catchment area in the Ghats has been investigated, and every possible site for a reservoir examined as the commission desired.

"Every square mile of the Deccan has been surveyed, the best alignments for canals in all directions have been sought out. The new map of the Deccan is covered with a maze

Bad Teeth Make Many Ills

So Declares Dr. Thaddeus P. Hyatt of Brooklyn at Dental Hygiene Conference.

New York.—At the dental hygiene conference and exhibit in the Metropolitan building Dr. Thaddeus P. Hyatt of Brooklyn gave a lecture on the ill effects of a man with poor teeth.

"In art or science," said Dr. Hyatt, "has such progress been made as in the art and science of dentistry in the last twenty-five years. The most important discovery was made only recently. It is that the health of the entire body depends on healthy teeth and healthy surrounding tissue. It has been discovered that the dental end of a nerve can manifest itself in the eye, causing temporary blindness; that it can manifest itself in the ear, causing temporary deafness, and it can manifest itself in the muscles, causing temporary paralysis and insanity."

London Death Rate Low.
London.—In four weeks the death rate in London averaged 10.8 per 1,000, being 1.7 per 1,000 below the mean rate in the corresponding periods of the five years 1905-8. There were three cases of smallpox in the Metropolitan asylum board and London fever hospitals last week, the only cases in London for the last thirteen weeks.

French Imports Grow.
Washington.—France's exports during the first four months of this year increased $22,000,000, being $32,418,155, while the increase in imports was only $9,600,000.

Use Insects in Moth Fight

Two Massachusetts Towns Receive Flies and Beetles to Release in Trees.

Dorham, Mass.—The state in its plan of assisting the various towns to exterminate the gipsy and brown-tail moth has sent to Dorham 1,000 aphids, flies and 500 callosoma beetles. These flies and beetles, bred at Melrose Heights, are distributed in infected sections. They live on the moths and caterpillars and wherever tried they have done good work in exterminating the pests.

They were delivered the other day to George A. Phillips, town warden, by John Schaffner of Dover. A similar amount was delivered to C. H. Southard of Westwood, who has charge of the work in that town.

Silence has the advantage over speech in that you never have to take it back.

MOTH PERILS TREES

Army of Caterpillars Charge Upon Lawns and Public Parks.

Spraying, Individual Destruction and Autumnal Precautions Are Recommended by Chicago City Forester—Invasion Last Year.

Chicago.—An invading army of tussock moths has descended upon the trees of Chicago and its suburbs. Unless strenuous methods are adopted to check the advance of the devastating horde the lindens, poplars and willows of parks, driveways and private lawns are in danger of being dismantled of foliage and ultimately destroyed.

These are not the only members of the tree family that the tussock moth has chosen for its field of operations. The horse chestnut, the dogwood and a score of other shade producers and ornamental shrubs that are the pride of good citizens also are under attack.

Park commissioners have declared war upon the gorgeous caterpillar, which is the larva of the tussock moth. City Forester J. H. Frost has issued a bulletin of warning and advice. True owners in many parts of the city have appealed to the forester for aid and complain that the tussock caterpillar—which represents the earliest stage of the moth's development—is running over everything outdoors and even invading homes.

It may prove of small consolation to know that the caterpillar of the tussock moth is one of the most beautiful that science is familiar with. It has a bright red head; a velvety black back, bordered with rich yellow stripes; four tufts of yellow hair standing upright a little back of the head; a pair of long black plumes, suggestive of horns, extending forward from the head, and a single plume for a tail.

They live upon the green matter of leaves and, being gifted with abnormal appetites, it does not take very long for a goodly company of the invaders to defoliate a tree. They are practically new comers to Chicago, though last year they became a source of danger to the trees of certain sections. This year, however, they suddenly have become the cause of dismay on the South, West and North sides, while particular complaints have been heard from the West side.

There are just three things to do, according to the city forester: Spray the foliage with arsenate of lead.

of red lines and blue lines, shaded patches, dotted patches, showing the results of these labors. Financially, the engineers are able to show prospects of better results than were at one time believed possible. Most of their schemes show an estimated revenue of three or four per cent, and for all of these the government of India is now prepared to advance funds.

"It is an irony that the best soil in this region is in those parts which are farthest removed from the zones of regular rainfall. In the future this topsy-turvy arrangement of nature will be of no consequence. The dry and thirsty districts of Ahmednagar and its neighbors have a latent capacity for becoming one of the richest wheat-producing tracts in India. When canals have made the country independent of the rainfall, even the Deccan riot may forget the meaning of drought and the pain of turning the wife's bangles into rupees every third or fourth year.

"One of the greatest of the new projects is the Godavari river scheme. This is nearing completion, and several miles of its canals will be brought into use in the coming monsoon. The distributing channels will serve 240,000 acres of ground in Nasik and Ahmednagar. The whole catchment area surrounding the sources of the Godavari and its upper tributaries, the Darna and Kadwa, is brought under control for the benefit of the scheme. This represents an area of no less than 160 square miles."

Bad Teeth Make Many Ills

So Declares Dr. Thaddeus P. Hyatt of Brooklyn at Dental Hygiene Conference.

New York.—At the dental hygiene conference and exhibit in the Metropolitan building Dr. Thaddeus P. Hyatt of Brooklyn gave a lecture on the ill effects of a man with poor teeth.

"In art or science," said Dr. Hyatt, "has such progress been made as in the art and science of dentistry in the last twenty-five years. The most important discovery was made only recently. It is that the health of the entire body depends on healthy teeth and healthy surrounding tissue. It has been discovered that the dental end of a nerve can manifest itself in the eye, causing temporary blindness; that it can manifest itself in the ear, causing temporary deafness, and it can manifest itself in the muscles, causing temporary paralysis and insanity."

London Death Rate Low.
London.—In four weeks the death rate in London averaged 10.8 per 1,000, being 1.7 per 1,000 below the mean rate in the corresponding periods of the five years 1905-8. There were three cases of smallpox in the Metropolitan asylum board and London fever hospitals last week, the only cases in London for the last thirteen weeks.

French Imports Grow.
Washington.—France's exports during the first four months of this year increased $22,000,000, being $32,418,155, while the increase in imports was only $9,600,000.

A COOL PROPOSITION

And a Sure One.

The Body Does Not Feel Heat Unpleasantly If It Has Proper Food—

Grape-Nuts

People can live in a temperature which feels from ten to twenty degrees cooler than their neighbors enjoy, by regulating the diet.

The plan is to avoid meat entirely for breakfast, use a goodly allowance of fruit, either fresh or cooked. Then follow with a saucer containing about four heaping teaspoonsful of Grape-Nuts, treated with a little rich cream. Add to this about two slices of crisp toast with a meager amount of butter, and one cup of well-made Postum.

By this selection of food the bodily energy is preserved, while the hot, carbonaceous foods have been left out. The result is a very marked difference in the temperature of the body, and to this comfortable condition is added the certainty of ease and perfect digestion, for the food being partially pre-digested is quickly assimilated by the digestive machinery.

Experience and experiment in food, and its application to the human body has brought out these facts. They can be made use of and added materially to the comfort of the user.

OPENLY FOR SPOILS

ATTITUDE OF REPUBLICAN PARTY PLAINLY SHOWN.

Collier's Weekly Makes Public Letter
Written by Subordinate of Secretary Ballinger Which Admits of
But One Inference.

In a recent issue Collier's Weekly publishes a letter written by a subordinate of Secretary Ballinger of the Interior department which probably shows the spirit of the Ballinger administration of that great branch of the national government. The writer of the letter is W. H. Batting, a nephew of Senator Heyburn of Idaho, and the Interior department official in charge of the land office at Cour d'Alene. The epistle is addressed to the editor of a newspaper which had formerly been awarded advertising patronage at the disposition of the land office.

The letter was sent in explanation of the withdrawal of advertising patronage from the newspaper in question. "Naturally," writes Mr. Batting, "under a Republican administration such notices go to the Republican newspapers." That is a frank presentation of the spoilsman's view of politics that might have passed muster in the day of Andrew Jackson and Andrew Van Buren, but it was scarcely to have been expected from an official of the Taft administration. But Batting goes further, making the test of Republicanism support of the standard group as represented by Ballinger and Cannon. Two of the specific counts against the offending editor are as follows:

"1. At the time of the hearing of the case against the Washington Water Power company, the Spokesman-Review published an editorial in which the good faith of Secretary Ballinger, Senator Hiram Bland and myself was questioned in connection with that case. This same editorial was copied (verbatim, I believe) by your paper.

"2. At the time of the contest in the house of representatives against Speaker Cannon, you published an editorial attacking Cannon and also our representative, Hanes.

The letter closes with the following remarkable words:

"The above capitulates the basis of my action in not having your paper as a proper medium for the publication of notices. If, however, in the future conduct of your paper these political acrobatics are eliminated, I will be glad to reconsider the matter and extend to you the full consideration to which you may be entitled."

This letter was written as late as April 15 last, when the Ballinger investigation had been under way for months. Collier's makes the comment that subordinates of his may be discharged by Secretary Ballinger for too much zeal in the public service, but that nothing is likely to happen to Batting for writing this disgraceful letter.

Whatever may be the measure of Ballinger in such matters, the Taft administration ought to be too sensible and too honest to tolerate such a petty and yet such a dangerous application of the spoils idea. Batting's effort to control the editorial expressions of small newspapers through advertising notices at the disposal of the land office division of the department is simply vicious. — Chicago Daily News (Ind. Rep.).

Tariff and Labor.
Why are the champions of the high protective tariff system so strongly opposed to a scientific tariff commission, which is favored by President Taft and other reasonable-minded protectionists? asks the Chicago News. Are they afraid that the facts will not support the schedules which Aldrich and his coterie have succeeded in putting into the present tariff law? If so, they must go further and suppress the other governmental inquiries.

Willis J. Abbot, in an article in the Daily News, has given some of the results of the inquiry by the federal bureau of labor into labor conditions at the Bethlehem steel works, the head of which is C. M. Schwab. This concern is given large contracts by the government for the construction of death-dealing machines for the war department. It is also protected from foreign competition by heavy tariff duties. "Mr. Schwab reciprocates," says Mr. Abbot, basing his declaration on the figures contained in the report of Labor Commissioner Neill, "by working his men twelve hours a day and seven days in the week and paying them an average weekly wage smaller than $11."

In the face of their opposition to a permanent tariff commission the high-tariff advocates will find it difficult to disabuse the voters of the suspicion that will be aroused by the publication of such facts as those embodied in the Neill report respecting the Bethlehem steel works.

Starving Their Goats.
Nothing has been more significant than the comment of members of the New York wool exchange to the New York Evening Post on present conditions in the wool market. There is depression in the manufacturing industry, and wool is being reshipped to European points from Boston and New York. A variety of reasons are offered to account for the condition, and not a few of the wool men are now admitting that the exorbitant tariff, under which the cost to consumers has been boosted, is responsible for the cessation of demand, and the consequent shutting down of mills.

SAMPLE OF TARIFF ROBBERY

In Buying Cotton Goods We Pay 30 Cents More for Each One Dollar Than We Should.

A fresh-faced young girl, with a matured woman, probably her mother, stood examining some cotton fabrics at a dry goods counter in a large department store. The fabrics were of different qualities and prices. The girl took the coarsest—evidently because it was the cheapest.

What if these two women were told that the tariff robbed them of the finest fabric? Yet that would be the truth. In every dollar our women spend on cotton clothes generally—dresses, stockings, gloves and other things—they pay at least thirty cents more than they need pay because of the tariff.

Cotton manufactures may be divided into three grades—coarse, medium and fine. In the coarse grades we compete with the world in the foreign markets. In some divisions of the medium grades, we compete to some degree. In the finer grades we not only do not compete abroad, but we do not compete at home. The foreign cotton prints, as well as laces and embroideries, pay our high tariff and beat us in our own market.

We are the greatest cotton growers in the world. We not only grow the most cotton but the best quality. England, Japan and other people buy our raw cotton.

Comparisons also show that per yard our labor cost is lowest. We work more spindles and more looms per operative than the lower paid operatives elsewhere.

Thus we have the advantages in respect to raw cotton and labor. But we are handicapped in our tariff on machinery, on supplies and on the very buildings in which manufacturing is carried on.

All these handicaps away, it is probable that we should be sending the finest quality cotton goods to compete at the lowest prices in the world markets. At any rate there would then be no argument of excuse for an average of 50 per cent. duty on finished cotton goods. And American women then buying the finest grades would pay even less than they do now for the coarsest—Henry George, Jr., in the New York World.

PRESIDENT AND HIS FRIENDS

Voters Might Profitably Give a Little Thought to Those With Whom Taft Affiliates.

The American taxpayer, groaning under government extravagance and high-tariff taxation, remembers how President-elect Taft rested, after the arduous labor of the campaign, in the cottage at Augusta, Ga., where Mr. Rockefeller also hid himself to play golf.

He remembers how Mr. Taft in the summer of 1909 gently golfed the time away, while Aldrich and his cohorts were making tariff hay for the milked trusts, and how, having approved the tariff of Mr. Aldrich, Mr. Taft retired to the society of Massachusetts tariff barons at Beverly.

Therefore, perhaps, the American taxpayer might be pardoned for hearing with some trepidation that Mr. Taft was once more golfing and that his favorite companions were Henry Clay Frick of the steel trust and John Hays Hammond of the smelter trust, two tariff giants which throttle American industry and bathe on the profits of American labor.

These frequent demonstrations of the Taft affection for the enemies of the worker are always pleasing to the plain people.

Unneeded Tax on People.
Presumably the tariff of one cent a pound on oranges—which was imposed by the Dingley law and retained by the Payne law—represents the difference between the cost of production at home and abroad, plus a reasonable profit for the grower. But whatever beneficial effect it may have had on the infant industry of orange growing, it would appear that it is no longer needed. The way the business has grown and flourished is evidenced by the official figures which show that in 1890 our orange imports amounted to $2,000,000; ten years later the imports had dropped to $1,000,000, and in another decade, which brings us to the fiscal year ending last June, they had decreased to $100,000, or practically nothing; while the exports have grown from $250,000 in 1900 to over $2,000,000 during the last fiscal year. We have found that we can only can drive foreign oranges out of this country with the home product, but that our oranges can compete with the pauper grown oranges of the rest of the world to the extent of over $2,000,000 a year. And yet the tariff makers, in their wisdom, retained a tax of one cent a pound on this fruit! As a revenue producer it is negligible and any claim that it is needed for protection is pretty plainly refuted by our comparative exports and imports.

True Figures As to Rubber Tariff.
When our Uncle Joe told people out in Kansas that the tariff on manufactures of rubber had been raised 5 per cent, he meant 5 per cent of the value of the rubber product imported. To be exact, the duty was 30 per cent. At valorem and now it is 25 per cent. As we figure it, that is an advance in the duty itself of nearly 15 per cent. And prices have gone up in something like the same ratio.

A BAD THING TO NEGLECT.

Don't neglect the kidneys when you notice lack of control over the secretions. Passages become too frequent or scanty; urine is discolored and sediment appears. No medicine for such troubles like Doan's Kidney Pills. They quickly remove kidney disorders.

A. Dasher, 241 N. Grant St., Wooster, O., says: "The doctor diagnosed my case as gravel, but my agony increased under their treatment, and I soon became too weak to stand alone. I had given up all hope of living more than a few weeks at the best. I was strongly urged to try Doan's Kidney Pills, and after twelve days' use, I passed two gravel stones. After that, I improved rapidly until cured. Remember the name—Doan's. For sale by all dealers. 50 cents a box. Foster-McIlburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y."

TOOK A SECOND THOUGHT.

Aggrieved Visitor Agrees With Man Who Spoke About the Better Part of Valor.

Bishop William H. McVickar of the Episcopal diocese of Rhode Island, has hundreds of Boston friends who will be interested in a story they are telling down in Providence about him. The bishop is as big physically as he is mentally. On a certain occasion some years ago, he preached a sermon on the need for missionary work in the back towns of his state, and especially mentioned the town of Foster, which certainly deserved as much as he said about it.

There are a good many fighters in Foster, and the worst of the lot announced to all who cared to hear that when he went to Providence he would make it his business to chastise the bishop. He didn't happen to visit the city until a month or so ago. On his return he joined the crowd about the stove in the village post-office.

"Well, hi," said one of the gray-beards. "Did you look this here Parson McVickar when ye was down to Providence?"

Hi spat deliberately before he replied. "Lick him," he said. "Say, he's eight-foot tall and four-foot broad. Lick him? I saw him." Boston Traveller.

RAW ECZEMA ON HANDS

"I had eczema on my hands for ten years. I had three good doctors but none of them did any good. I then used one box of Cuticura Ointment and three bottles of Cuticura Resolvent and was completely cured. My hands were raw all over, inside and out, and the eczema was spreading all over my body and limbs. Before I had used one bottle, together with the Cuticura Ointment, my sores were nearly healed over, and by the time I had used the third bottle, I was entirely well. To any one who has any skin or blood disease I would heartily advise them to fool with nothing else but Cuticura and get well. My hands have never given me the least bit of trouble up to now."

"My daughter's hands this summer became perfectly raw with eczema. She could get nothing that would do them any good until she tried Cuticura. She used Cuticura Resolvent and Cuticura Ointment and in two weeks they were entirely cured. I have used Cuticura for other members of my family and it always proved successful. Mrs. M. E. Falin, Speers Ferry, Va., Oct. 19, 1909."

It Wouldn't Stretch.
The assessor was doing the very best he could, but the farmer was shrewd and wary.

"How many acres of farming land have you?" he inquired warily. "About 20, I guess," said Reuben. "Twenty? Why, it looks to me like nearer 120. Come, now, can't you increase that a little? There are surely more than 20 acres in that tract. Suppose you stretch that a little."

"Say, feller," said the farmer, "this ain't no rubber plantation."—Harper's Monthly.

Why She Brought It Up.
"Do you remember," she asked, "that you said once that unless I promised to be yours the sun would cease to shine?"

"I don't remember it now, but I suppose I may have said something of the kind."

"And have you forgotten that you assured me that unless I permitted you to claim me as your own the moon would fall from her place in the heavens?"

"Oh, well, what if I did say so? Why do you want to bring that up now?"

"I merely wished to assure you that I'm sorry I didn't shut my eyes and let her fall."

THE BEST OF ITS KIND

Is always advertised, in fact it only pays to advertise good things. When you see an article advertised in this paper year after year you can be absolutely certain that there is merit to it because the continued sale of any article depends upon merit and to keep on advertising one must keep on selling. All good things have initiators, but initiators are not adjectives. They have no reputation to sustain. I don't ever expect to have any permanent sale and your dealer would never sell them if he studied your interests.

Seeking Comfort.
"I've got a long way to go and I am not used to travel," said the applicant at the railway ticket office. "I want to be just as comfortable as I can, regardless of expense."

"Parlor car?"

"No. I don't care for parlor fixings."

"Sleeping?"

"No. I want to stay awake and watch the scenery."

"Then what do you want?"

"Well, if it wouldn't be too much trouble, I wish you'd put me up in one of these refrigerator cars I've read so much about."

History Cleared Up.
The third grade was "having history." Forty youngsters were making guesses about the life and character of the Father of His Country, when the teacher propounded a question that stumped them all.

"Why did Washington cross the Delaware?"

"Why, indeed? Not a child could think of anything but the answer to the famous chicken problem: 'To get on the other side,' and, of course, that wouldn't do. Then little Annie handed out the answer. Little Annie crosses the Delaware every summer herself, hence the bright idea. 'Well, Annie!'"

The Wrong Sort.
An old Irish peasant was one Sunday sitting in front of his cottage puffing away furiously at his pipe.

Match after match he lighted, pulling hard at the pipe, the while, until at last the ground all round his feet was strewn with struck matches.

"Come in to your dinner, Patsy," at length called out his wife.

"Faith, and Ol will in a minute, Biddy," said he. "Molke Mulrooney has been at telling me that if Ol smoked a bit of glass Ol would see the shots on the sun. Ol don't know whether Ol've got hold of the wrong kind of glass."—Scraps.

WILLY WAS TOO LIBERAL.

Oversupply of Alcoholic Stimulants
Disturbed Schedule of Funeral Arrangements.

Dean Ramsey's memoirs contain an anecdote of an old woman of Stratford, Conn. Just before her death she solemnly instructed her grandnephew, Willy, to do this: "Willy, I'm dead, and as you'll have the charge of a I have, mind now that as much whisky is to be used at my funeral as there was at my baptism."

Willy, having no record of the quantity consumed at the baptism, decided to give every mourner as much as he wished, with the result that the funeral procession, having to traverse ten miles to the churchyard on a short November day, arrived only at nightfall.

Then it was discovered that the mourners, halting at a wayside inn, had rested the coffin on a dyke and left it there when they resumed their journey. The corpse was a day late in arriving at the grave.

How would it do to try the experiment of going to the erring with love, instead of law? Wouldn't it be a step nearer to paradise?

FACTS REGARDING THE LYON COUNTY KILLING.

of the reporters who furnish news for the dailies that demand something startling and refused to publish facts sent in by respectable and conservative citizens.

RESULT OF INQUEST.

As a result of the inquest held by Coroner Henry Abell and Attorney J. Sikes Hodges, Wednesday, after the accused had been turned over to the civil authorities, the following young men were held without bail—Roy Merrick, Vilas Mitchell, Bryan Hawkins, Frank Murphy, Alonzo Gray, Jim Beazarth, Bart and Spunk Creekmur. Gray and Beazarth are being held as accessories, while the Creekmur boys have not been arrested. The evidence showed that 50 or 75 shots were fired and that four took effect in Cooper's body. It also was shown that Cooper emptied his own pistol, but none of the bullets took effect. Colonel Bassett read the statement of Cooper, given before his death and every effort was made to bring out all the facts in the case but nothing showing a conspiracy was in evidence.

The Best Hour of Life is when you discover some great deed or discover some wonderful fact. This hour came to J. K. Pitt, of Rocky Mt. N. C. when he was suffering intensely, as he says, "from the worst cold I ever had." I then proved to my great satisfaction, what a wonderful Cold and Cough cure Dr. King's New Discovery is. For after taking one bottle, I was entirely cured. You can't say anything too good of a medicine like that. It's the surest and best remedy for diseased lungs, hemorrhages, L. Grippe, Asthma, Hay Fever, Sore Throat or Lung Trouble. 50c. $1.00 Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Dale & Stubblefield.

JAS. B. M'CREARY IS NOW CANDIDATE.

popular that he has since been known as the "model governor." M'Creary has, during his entire career proven himself eminently the man for every call his party and his people have made upon him, and his friends over the state declare with emphasis that this is the last great mission of reuniting the discordant and factional elements of the state Democracy once more so that it will present a solid front in the next state campaign, he will accomplish that which no other man in sight can do, and prove himself grander than in any service he has hitherto rendered his party.

His candidacy, it is believed by many, will undoubtedly be the last that a Confederate soldier will ever present to the people of Kentucky for such a distinguished position, for the reason that the "thin gray line" is fading fast and the time for "tap" has come for the great majority.

WILL EFFECT POOL COMBINE

The purpose of the meeting of the Farmers Union here next Monday is to reach a definite conclusion as to whether the members of the Union will pool their tobacco with the association or sell through the channels of their own organization. It is to be hoped upon the part of every tobacco grower who is interested in obtaining the very best prices possible for tobacco that an equitable agreement will be reached and the members of the two great organizations reach an agreement whereby the greatest good will come to the greatest numbers.

Off of the Water Wagon.

Wert Anderson has fallen off the water wagon again. We are not exactly acquainted with the facts in the case but Wert is off just the same. Of course we understand that he did not fall off because of the fact that he has about four cases of bottled in bond in the county jail, but we understand his falling is because he and the city council can not reach an agreement about the cost of the pumping of the water Wert has been sprinkling on the streets. The business interests of the city are in hopes that the matter will be adjusted and that Wert will again assume his familiar place as driver of the water wagon.

—AUCTION SALE— TOWN LOTS THURSDAY, AUGUST 18th, 1910, at 2 O'clock, P. M. For White People Only

STREET SCENE IN HENRY'S ADDITION TO DANVILLE, KY.

Less than two years ago this was a blue grass pasture used for farm purposes. The change has been a radical one. The crop now growing on this land is far more valuable and more beneficial to Danville than the growing of corn, wheat or tobacco. On this land there are now many happy households, many contented men and women living in homes of their own, who were living in rented houses before we opened this beautiful tract of land into home sites, just because they were unable to pay the high prices that were demanded for town lots then. Many of these lots changed hands at handsome profits before the sale was over and they have continued to advance in price ever since. These lots sold at auction for an average of about $275 which was considered very reasonable. In every place where we have had sales they have proven to be very beneficial to the town, and we have always experienced in getting the co-operation of the city authorities, and in no single case have we ever had one word of complaint or regret. We promise to give you a genuine auction sale, when every lot put under the hammer will change hands if one bid is made.

This is an opportunity never before offered to the people of Murray and Calloway county to buy a lot at their own price. Usually you have to pay the other man's price. We positively guarantee to sell every lot that is offered if one bid is made. There will be no by-bidders or reservations whatever.

We invite you, we want you and we expect you to attend our sale on August 18th.

Which will you have ten years from now, a bundle of worthless rent receipts or a home of your own? This is a question for each person to answer for himself.

REMEMBER you get a chance at the free lot and gold prizes if you attend this sale whether you are a buyer or a spectator. We fully explain this on the day of sale. Only your presence is necessary.

FREE BAND CONCERT. Be with us on August 18. We are going to try to make it pleasant for every one who attends this sale.

TERMS: The terms that will prevail at this sale is One-third Cash, balance in Six and Twelve Months of equal installments with 6 per cent interest. Two per cent off deferred payments for all cash.
