Baseball

The spring this season may be looked to as being one of the best known since major league teams have been around. This is due to the large number of good players that are free at this time and will be signed by the teams during the regular season. Several of these players are already giving demonstrations of their ability in exhibition games and it is expected that the spring training will be a much more interesting event than it has been in years past.

Manager Barry rail of the Cardinals, a former major league player, has signed several of the leading players for the spring training and is expected to have a team that will be a real threat to the major league teams. He has already signed a number of good players, including several of the stars of the present major league teams. This is a very strong indication that the spring training will be much more interesting than it has been in years past.
